U. F. O. NEWS AND VIEWS.

During the past month every U. F. O. Club in Ontario has received a letter from Mr. J. J. Morrison, urging the club members to avail themselves of the opportunity afforded by the Provincial University being offered for the first time by Toronto University. Mr. Morrison's letter explains—"The executive have realized for some time that not enough use has been made of our educational institutions in Toronto we have a Provincial University supported by Provincial funds. Every farmer who pays taxes is helping to support this University. In doing this he is in many cases paying for something that he knows very little about. But he should know something about the University, and the University should be able to make some direct return to him for the support he gives. In other words, the farmer and the University should somehow be brought more closely together. Many farmers have felt their lack of education and training very keenly, and have long looked for some steps to be taken which would offer an opportunity to the young man or woman from the farm to secure the benefits of a college training. Real progress has now been made in this direction. The University of Toronto, at the invitation of the U. F. O., has arranged a series of lectures." Lectures will be delivered on Canadian History, architecture, finance and English Literature. "The aim of this course is not necessarily to fit men or women to become creditor producers of foodstuffs, but rather to help train their minds, and equip them to become leaders in their community. In the past the professions and urban activities have had nearly all the direct benefits of the University. It is time that the farmers saw that agriculture was put in these benefits, and the way to do that is for young men and women to seize every opportunity to attend classes with the idea of still remaining farmers."

"Your executive heartily endorse this move. The University Board has met our request by establishing the short course. It is our duty as farmers to see that a good attendance is obtained. The only qualifications necessary for any man or woman to attend these lectures is to be able to send in an application along with the $2.00 registration fee before January 15th, and to pay single fare each way board." The course will be held from February 1st to 26th, 1921.

With the same end in view of reaching the general public, Toronto University, upon the request of the U. F. O., is offering a long list of suitable lectures on literary and scientific subjects, which will be delivered by the various professors themselves in the town or town hall before one's own club. Any organizations in any way connected or desiring to avail itself of either single lectures or short courses may do so by paying five dollars and the lecturer's travelling expenses for each lecture. Carefully prepared courses of lectures on some topic are available and these along with collateral reading by the members of the organization taking the course would indeed result in much benefit.

We regret that the list of topics is too long for insertion in this column. But the names of almost every Professor on the University of Toronto staff adorn the list and are at your service. We were all benefited and delighted with the Chautauqua lectures delivered in our town last summer. And after a hard day's work we drove many miles, used gasolene and paid much money that the whole family might see and hear. We got some share of benefit and satisfaction in so doing, but those we heard last summer.

It is to be hoped that the people of this district will not neglect to grasp this opportunity. Especially on the part of the men we realize that "we do not live unto ourselves" and a broader grasp of educational, commercial and social movements of the day are matters of dollars and cents to the farmer. His interests are entwined with all other interests. What-ever concerns him concerns all mankind, and whatever affects other classes re-acts upon him and too often upon the dollars and cents which he pays out. It is essential that the farmer know more than he does of these affairs. He needs to know because it is necessary that he adjust himself to conditions which he cannot control. The farmer, for example, cannot control the operations of railroad magnates, of speculators on grain exchanges or the value of the British pound, but all these help to determine the price he shall receive for his produce and what he shall pay for his supplies and needs. For knowledge in these and other matters the farmer has been prone to rely too much upon the press and the loose utterances of political and other orators, who, as a class,

A Series of Talks on Music

THE LUTE.

By Prof. C. C. Laugher, Mus. Bac., Sarnia.

Lutes or Lutists were attached to the household of Kings and Queens; and this form was not abolished until the 19th century.

The Lute was the most popular instrument during the 16th, 16th and 17th centuries. It is an instrument traced from Egypt, where it appears depicted in sculptures; the lute held a prominent place in European home life and was only supplanted by the key-board instruments of the piano type.

Lutes were generally built very artistically, the pear shaped body being composed of narrow stripes of wood glued together with great care; the lute originally had eight rows of gut strings arranged in pairs, each pair tuned in unison, this same instrument was considered exceedingly difficult to tune.

The lute was popular because during its long existance and the mandolin may be considered as its most modern form.

The lute was the first instrument "except the organ" to make prominent the harmonic style as contrasted with contrapuntal, it was the favorite instrument of high society and was instrumental in familiarizing the musical world with that form of music, of melody supported by chords.

The lute was popular because its playing required less mechanical ingenuity to bring it to perfection, it is also a portable instrument and well adapted to domestic performances.

The kind of music written for the lute consisted mainly of dance tunes in sets, with some fanciful movements; but the ornamental parts in music seemed childish and tame, yet this kind of music formed the basis of a long and continuous Improvement including fantasias and preludes; simple passages of runs and arpeggios.

The pianoforte is now the most familiar object in domestic life and occupies the position at one time held by the lute, the pianoforte has a great advantage over previous instruments from a purely practical point of view.

The lute music was usually slow, soft and dedicate; it would neither rare nor rattle, the music was certainly peculiar and was written on a six line staff.

The period of the invention of the lute is still a matter of speculation, some having said that it is of Asiatic origin.

Of the principal players and writers for the lute we mention Kapsberger, a German lute player and composer, who spent most of his time in Italy composing for this instrument and the voice.

Lambert, born 1610, was another great lutist. He was master of chamber music to Louis XIV and composed music for the lute and was himself a great virtuoso.

Gaultier, of the same period, was another lute player of fame and is renowned for his execution. He, with his cousin, Jacques, established a school for lute playing in Paris which proved a great success.

Galilei, who is said to have formed the basis for the more modern vocal solo, composed many airs for single voice with accompaniment on the lute, was also a great musical theorist.

The lute was considered the most difficult instrument to tune, much patience and perfect ear being required. Mattheson, (1720) calculated despondently that "if a lute player had lived eighty years, he has probably spent about sixty years tuning his instrument." It "is even recorded that Mary, Queen of the Scots, required persons from London to tune her lute.

Much literature has been published concerning the lute, song and story are full of allusions to the "trembling lute" the "whispering lute" and the "warbling lute".

The lute disputes with the organ the honor of first having compositions written for it.

OBITUARY

The sudden death of Mrs. Thos. Huffman, at her residence, Belleville Road, on Sunday, Nov. 14th, 1920, came as a great shock to her many friends. She was formerly Eva Pybus, of Napanee. Deceased had reached the age of 47 years, and had lived a life of service, and a great worker in The Ladies' Aid of Grace Church. Besides her husband, there are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother, two daughters and five sons, Rose, in the West; Ray, Fred, Ward, Charles and Felicia, at home, and Mrs. John Haile Gotham, Syracuse, N.Y. Besides these, she leaves her father, Mr. Thos. Pybus, one sister, Mrs. Chas. N. Lounds, and three brothers, Robert J., Thomas R. and Guy, all of Napanee. The funeral services were conducted by her Pastor, Rev. W. P. Rogers, from her home to Riverside cemetery. The floral offerings were, pillow, husband and children; wreath, father, brother and sister; gates ajar, Gibbard Furniture Co.; sheaves from the Ladies' Aid, the Women's Missionary Society, the Choir, the Belfry Class and the Adult Bible Class of Grace Church; also many others from numerous friends.

THE LATE J. W. SEXSMITH.

Another of British Columbia's pioneers, in the person of Mr. John Wesley Sexsmith, of Lulu Island, passed away on September 22nd, 1920 at the advanced age of 90 years. He had been in declining health for some time, and during recent years he lived quite retired, not being able to attend the services, and take an active part in the work of the Church. But his interest remained, as manifested by the eagerness to further any plan for its development in a spiritual or financial way.

In the early days he cheerfully carried out much of the responsibility in starting and furthering the cause of Methodism in Richmond.

He always took a keen interest in all the social and religious developments of the community in all respects a man of sterling worth, honored and respected by all.

The funeral service, which was held at his late residence, and was very largely attended by neighbors and friends from Vancouver and the lower Mainland, was conducted by the writer, his pastor, assisted by Rev. J. H. Wright and G. B. Ridland, former pastors, who paid their tributes to the memory of one who was always a true and warm friend to the pastor of his Church.

The late Mr. Sexsmith was born in Richmond, County of Lennox, Ont., on May 10th, 1830, where he grew up on his father's farm, afterwards engaging in mercantile pursuits in his native county. In 1874 he came to British Columbia by way of San Francisco, and settled on Lulu Island, where he engaged in dairy farming and other activities. He was enterprising in business, hospitable in his home, and uncompromising in his opposition to the liquor traffic. He leaves, besides his widow, seven children, three sons and four daughters, all residing in Vancouver and vicinity, with the exception of the youngest son, George, who resides in Calgary, Alta.—Western Methodist Recorder.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

On Xmas. Eve a number of the members of West Plain Sabbath School gathered at the home of Mr. Johnny Belton to spend a sociable evening and show in a many way that they appreciated the many years of faithful service to the Sabbath School.

After a short time spent in social intercourse, Mr. Belton was presented with a rocker, while Mr. W. G. Pringle read the following address:—

Dear Superintendent, We, the Sabbath Scholars of West Plain, have met here to-night to present you with a chair, to show our appreciation of your helpful services among us for many years past. While other schools sought your valuable service, yet we found you steadfast at your post of duty among us, bound to your class of boys with a Godly interest for their moral and spiritual benefit. Wishing you success as a soul winner in the services of our blessed Master.

Although taken completely by surprise, Mr. Belton made a very appropriate reply from a heart full of thanks. He said the fact that the school appreciated his services meant more to him than the gift of the chair, while it was gladly received.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Comfort—The Mother's Friend.

CHINA DECLARES WAR ON "LITTLE WHITE SLAVER"

China's Minister of the Interior has sent forth the following instructions in order to restrict the use of tobacco.

"It has been noticed that almost every one in the country has indulged in the use of cigars or cigarettes, which will become a worse curse to the nation than opium in former days unless some restrictions are imposed. It is hereby decided that before taking up any measure for the total prohibition of its use, the following restrictions be placed on the use of tobacco.

"1. No boy or girl under 18 years of age shall be allowed to smoke cigars or cigarettes.

"2. Any military or naval men using it shall be punished.

"3. The use of cigars or cigarettes in all Government schools and colleges shall be strictly prohibited."—Union Signal.

Andy Carnegie's Own Story

ONE of Andrew Carnegie's hobbies was to keep a diary, in which he set down his experiences and impressions at fairly regular intervals. At certain times they were extremely frank, being intended for no other eye to light upon. Later on they seemed to contemplate publication some day, and became more reserved. The diaries form the basis of the steel king's autobiography, which has recently been issued with the consent of Mrs. Carnegie. Andrew Carnegie never was a popular man. He was too rich, despite his benefactions, and his benefactions themselves, while they may have staggered the public mind, somehow failed to win the public affection and gratitude. There was also a feeling, perhaps, that Carnegie, like Ford, projected his views into realms where they were of little value. No doubt when it was found that the Laird of Skibo had left many millions behind him his remark that it was a disgrace to die rich was unfatteringly recalled.

The autobiography shows Carnegie in other aspects. For one thing, it reveals the love he entertained for his father and mother, amounting to reverence for the latter. He said that "none could ever know her—I alone did that," and we must suppose that one of the greatest happinesses of his life was the fact that his mother lived long enough to see him develop into one of the great business men of the age, and was able to spend her declining years in affluence. Carnegie began humbly enough, but of his inheritance he writes: "The mother, nurse, cook, governess, teacher, saint, all in one; the father, exemplar, guide, counsellor and friend. Thus were my brother and I brought up. What has the child of millionaire or noblemen that equals with such a heritage?" The father was a weaver in Dunfermline, and in him was strongly implanted that Scotch craving for education, for he was one of the five weavers who started the Dunfermline circulating library.

With the coming of steam machinery the father's earnings declined, and the family emigrated to the United States, the move being made possible by a loan from a devoted woman friend of Mrs. Carnegie. They found it almost as hard to get upon a self-supporting basis in the United States, and for a while Mrs. Carnegie earned four dollars a week binding shoes to make the family exchequer adequate. Andrew started work at the age of 15, and earned one dollar and a quarter a week. Later he became a messenger boy, and gave his first demonstration of organizing ability. Messengers were entitled to collect an extra dime for each message delivered beyond a certain area, and naturally there was competition for such errands. At Andrew's suggestion all this extra money was pooled and evenly divided, thus abolishing hateful competition, and maybe assisting the consumer by removing the personal desire of the messenger boy for the extra dime destined for the ensuing errand.

From being telegraph boy he gradually worked into the railroad business, and at the time of his father's death was earning a dollar a day. This caused the gentle father to say shortly before his death, "Andra, I'm proud of you. . . . His railroad advancement was rapid at the time of the Civil War, for his immediate superior, Thomas A. Scott, had been appointed Assistant Secretary of War. He saw the future of iron bridge building, and early became a bridge-builder. He also bought an interest in the patent for the parlor car, which was destined to lay the foundations of his fortune. So well had he prospered that in 1868 he wrote: "Thirty-three and an income of $50,000 per annum. Beyond this never earn—make no effort to increase fortune, but spend the surplus each year for benevolent purposes. Cast aside business forever except for others. Settle in Oxford and get a thorough education. Settle then in London and get a controlling interest in some newspaper or live review. . . . Man must have an idol. . . . Whatever I engage in I must push inordinately, therefore should. I be careful to choose that life which will be the most elevating in its character."

His views about $50,000 a year being ample were modified, for Carnegie then became a millionaire, but it is only fair to say that even as a young man he was a systematic giver. The death of his mother and brother in 1886 was a tremendous blow to him. Shortly afterward he astonished his friends by marrying Miss Louise Whitfield, who brought him great happiness. It was after the birth of their only child, Margaret, named for his mother, that he bought Skibo Castle. His affection for his native land was better displayed in the purchase of a beautiful public park for Dunfermline. It cost him $2,750,000, and he said that "it was the most soul satisfying public gift I have ever made or can ever make." His love of books was sincere, and throughout his life he never ceased to acknowledge his great debt to a friend who had first developed in him the reading habit and made him free of a small library.

Flippers of a Seal.

Each year from 25,000 to 35,000 fur seals are killed on the Pribylof islands, in Behring sea.

Reckoning four flippers at eight pounds, the annual production of flippers is 100 to 140 tons.

Hitherto they have been regarded as a waste product, but the fisheries bureau finds that they will yield 67 per cent. of their weight in very excellent glue. It hopes to find a market for seal flippers with the glue manufacturers.

Safety First.

After a dreadful experience in which a small boy was locked in the bath room accidentally, the family had an emergency bell installed and also had the door equipped with a night lock like that on the front door. Then they hung the extra key on the wall outside the room where any would-be rescuer would be sure to see it. The emergency bell was placed convenient to the bath tub, as many semi-invalids or the aged have been known to faint from the contact of hot water.

Not Allowed to Kiss Bible.

Kissing the Bible is forbidden in any Virginia court by a new law. It is declared that the practice is not only unnecessary, but unsanitary in the extreme. The law provides that no officer shall require any one subscribing to an oath to kiss the Bible or any book thereof, but they may be required to place their hands on the Bible. The penalty for any violation of this act is to be a fine of $100.

Encouraging.

"That last thing you sent in was good," said an editor. "We all enjoyed it very much." "Well, in that case," said the youthful poet, "I take back what I said in the letter I wrote to you yesterday about my determination never to send you any of my work again. I wrote it in a moment of irritation." The editor slowly shook his head. "Don't do that," he murmured; "that letter is what I referred to!"

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of my darling mother, Mrs. Harriet Bradshaw, who died Jan. 9th, 1919.

In Robin softly sleeping where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one I loved so dearly, in her lonely silent grave;
Mother, dear, you once loved flowers,
Are there any climbing there?
Is it all one hanging basket,
Watered by my tears and prayers?
How I miss you, mother, darling,
How I miss that strong right arm,
When the storms of life engulf me,
And I have to stand alone.

We regret to learn that Mrs. John Pelmatter, for many years a resident of this Township, passed away on January 1st, at the home of her son, Deseronto. The late Mrs. Pelmatter was known and esteemed for her kindly disposition and generous spirit. The funeral took place on Monday at Deseronto, where her remains were placed in the vault to await interment in the family plot at Tamworth.

Monday was a busy day in the village. The elections were in full swing and everybody seemed anxious to cast their votes. The result of the voting was as follows:—Mr. H. Young was elected Reeve by 149 votes, being 9 of a majority over Mr. Beckwith, the former Reeve; the Councillors elected were Mr. Thos. Carroll, Mr. W. Belden, Mr. Frank York and Mr. Dennis Kearns.

Shannon Leaves at His Own Request.

The management of the Canadian Express Company has received a petition signed by about one hundred of the prominent business firms in Belleville, who had learned of the prospective removal or transfer to another city, of Mr. C. L. Shannon, one of the company's oldest and most efficient employees, asking in mutual interest of the company and its patrons, that Mr. Shannon be allowed to remain at Belleville. The company is gratified to know that the efforts of its employees to serve its patrons are appreciated, and desires to inform them that the transfer is not being made merely for the company's purpose, but solely at Mr. Shannon's own request and based upon family reasons. This is, the only means the management has to convey this information to the signers of the petition.

A Happy and Prosperous New Year Is Our Wish For All Our Friends.

We have to tender our thanks to our Patrons for the very liberal patronage extended to us during the trade of the holidays, which was the largest we have ever experienced since we took over the old Bookstore more than fifty-six years ago. We think that result was largely due to the fact that we had the class of goods the public generally wanted at prices that suited them.

We had a very large stock of Books by popular authors, and we had large sales; but we have yet in stock a good assortment, with good, instructive Books for boys and girls.

Our stock of Popular Games was so large and varied that we thought there was no probability of running short of any, and yet many are completely sold out. We will have a new supply before this appears in print.

At this time of year most people want something to entertain and instruct during the long winter evenings, and intelligent people generally look to reading. If you are going to take a Magazine or Newspaper, no matter where it is published, you will save time and money by applying at once to your Bookseller.

If you have Pictures to frame, bring them to us, and have them done promptly and at lowest prices.

Not because the manufacturers' price has made this big drop. Their prices have only been reduced by 50c a hat for spring delivery.

OBITUARY.

STEPHEN MADDEN.

The death occurred in Napanee on Saturday, January 1st, 1921, of Stephen Madden, aged 77 years and 3 months. Besides his sorrowing widow, he leaves to mourn his loss two daughters, Lillian C., of Toronto, and Mrs. R. R. Best, of Wellington, and two sons, Bruce R., of Toronto, and Orval C., at home. His eldest son, Willie H., predeceased him two years ago. He also leaves three brothers, Robert, Andrew, and James.

Deceased was taken ill with pneumonia on Monday evening, Dec. 27th, and passed away on New Year's Day.

The funeral took place from his late residence, West street, on Monday. Service was conducted by Rev. A. J. Wilson, B.A., B.D., pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, assisted by Rev. W. P. Rogers, B.A.

Deceased, who was a son of the late William Madden, was well known and highly respected in this community. When a boy he lived on the homestead, near town, and later came to Napanee, where he resided until his death. He was in business here for 27 years with his brother, Andrew, and always took a keen interest in farming and stock.

The last few years he has been troubled with deafness, caused by an accident. He will be greatly missed by numerous friends in town anh country, who deeply sympathize with those who are left to mourn his great loss.

MRS. JOSEPH HAYES.

One of the largest funerals ever held in St. Patrick's Church took place on Monday morning, when relatives, neighbors and friends assembled to bear the solemn service over the body of Mrs. Joseph Hayes, whose sad death occurred in Richmond township on Friday of last week, after a short illness.

The death of this lady in her prime of life is an unusually sad one, in that she leaves a family of eight little ones, the eldest being 13 years and the youngest a new-born infant. The solemn requiem service of the church was celebrated by Rev. Father O'Connor, assisted by the choir. The pastor paid an eloquent tribute to the worth of deceased as a neighbor, friend, mother and christian woman. The many spiritual offerings placed on the casket, and the large attendance of sympathizers, was evidence of the very high esteem in which the deceased was held by all who knew her, and of the deep sympathy felt for the husband and motherless children. The remains were placed in the R. C. cemetery vault.

WILLIAM FERGUSON.

Many were the expressions of regret upon the street in Belleville, on Friday afternoon, when it became known that Mr. William Ferguson had passed away. The end came shortly before noon at the Belleville hospital, the cause of death being an attack of typhoid fever. Deceased was well known in this city, where he had a large circle of friends. For a number of years Mr. Ferguson was a clerk at the Smith Hardware store, but of late had been travelling for a hardware firm. "Billy," as he was familiarly called, was a great lover of genuine sport, hockey and baseball being his favorite games. A wife, but no family survives.

Mr. Ferguson is well known in Napanee, as he was a clerk for the Maddle Hardware Co. for a number of years.

Letter From Japan

The following is a copy of a letter from Miss Mary Hamm, of Kobe, Japan, to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamm, Bath:—

It is difficult to give you my impressions. The beauty of the country has impressed me more than anything else, and the people themselves are a source of never failing interest, their customs, their ideas, their appearance, indeed everything about them is so very different.

First of all they are very industrious. I have never seen one idle. They carry tremendously heavy loads often on their backs; sometimes they pull carts which have as much as enough load for a horse. It may be often all they can do to move them at all, but they manage to get them along somehow, with tremendous effort. No effort is made to save themselves. They have no labor saving devices, nothing to make their work quicker or easier. For instance, all their rice is threshed out by hand. They cannot imagine the machine for work rice is to raise. Of course I have not seen all the stages of it yet, but they plant it under water in the Spring. They stand knee deep in this cold water attending to their rice plants, then the water gradually drained off; by the way, each piece of rice is surrounded by a little irrigation ditch, by which they control the depth of the water in the field. Then in the Fall the rice is cut by hand, tied up and hung on long poles in the field to dry. Then it is separated from the stalk by a thing like our old fashioned flail. I don't know how we can get it so cheap in America, when one thinks of the amount of work put on it. There are a few horses and these are terribly and cruelly over-loaded. They one will pull the heavy loads they are given. The man driving never rides, but walks along and leads the horse. I have never seen a horse trotting, as they always have too heavy burdens. They also use oxen as beasts of burden, and one sees two. Women are often seen carrying heavy loads. One day I actually saw a man walking along dragging his wife, and she was pulling a cart with a load on it. This is not so very often seen, but the ordinary way for a man and his wife to walk is for her to walk a few paces to the rear of her lord and master. These people are very slow about everything they do, but very steady and work long hours. They die young, as one might suppose, and even children look old. Women are terribly ugly as a rule, always seen children of about eleven or twelve up upwards carrying babies on their backs. This is the regular way for mothers to carry babies, but of course the families are large and so the older sisters have to share the burden of the younger ones.

The women all wear the native costume, the kimona; about half of the men wear kimonas, and the other half wear foreign clothes. The coolies and working class wear a short smock and breeches in the winter, and in the summer hardly anything.

The position of the wife is far different from that of the foreign wife. Here she expects to be the husband is lome and food. In return she gives everything and uncomplainly works for his comfort, waits upon him, eats her meals after he has finished, and raises a family, as she seems to expects any pleasure or amusement. You perhaps know of the way Japanese marry. Parents arrange it around and when they see a man who seems suitable (from the point of view of family record and character) they begin negotiations with his parents, and a day is set for the young man to call upon the girl, whom she serves with tea in the presence of her parents. He looks her over and if pleased with her arrangements are made for the wedding. These matches they say turn out far the most part happily. Some foreigners have tried to convince me that this method has many advantages over ours. It is hard for me to see this, but perhaps there is one very great advantage and that is all the women are married.

The Japanese of the whole, seem very favorably disposed to foreigners and are hospitable. In fact they entertained the Sunday School Convention people in a most royal fashion. It seemed they could not do enough for them, and as regards Christianity, they are far from being opposed to it. Whether they attend schools run by the Missionary Societies as the Kwansei Gakuin is, and the Sunday Schools and the Bible Classes, etc., for the sake of Christianity, or for the improvement of their English I am not quite sure. One thing is certain, they are exceedingly anxious to learn English, and a great many of them speak it. But certain it is also, truer here in Japan than anywhere else I know, that "the old order changeth, giving place to new". That is why Japan is a land of the most striking contrasts. They have foreign business buildings and banks and offices, built and run on the foreign style, by Japanese. That was one thing that surprised me in Tokyo—the number of large foreign buildings there. Also they have electric lights and these extend into the small towns and villages, so that they have better lighting in the rural districts than we have in Ontario. They have street cars and are contemplating subways. They have telephones, etc., and everything modern in the way of office equipment, in contrast to there is the rickshaw—a little carriage for one, pulled by a man—the absence of sidewalks and men and women carrying immense bundles, the stores opening right out onto the streets, and a thousand other unexpected things, so there is a strange mingling of the West and Orient of the modern and the old. She is rapidly being modernized, but whether she will ever become completely so, is a question.

The scenery is beautiful beyond description. The skies are very blue and clear. It often rains, but quickly clears off and is bright again. Clouds do not hang over the sky for days at a time, and there is a beauty and grandeur about the cloud effects that make them most fascinating. Whether they are light or dark, high or low, there is an indescribable charm about them. And the mountains, how shall I give you any idea of their beauty? I am absolutely spoiled now with them and love them the more I see of them. From where I am sitting now, I can look out upon them, rising directly behind the school. They are always green and wooded. They are not so very high, but just charming and pretty and loveable. One can look in almost any direction in Japan and see mountains and they are beautiful. It would be impossible to go for a walk around here without seeing pretty scenery. We are simply saturated with it. From my room looking South I can view the city and ocean beyond. Every morning when I arise, I see the sun rising over the ocean. The sea is always covered with innumerable fishing boats, which are fishing boats, I can't by description do anything like justice to the scenery.

A young fellow who was the crack sprinter of his town—somewhere in the South—was unfortunate enough to have a very dilatory laundress. One evening when he was out for a practise run in his pacier airy and abbreviated track costume he chanced to dash past the house of that dusky lady, who at the time was a couple of weeks in arrears with his washing. He had scarcely reached home again when the bell rang furiously and an excited voice was wafted in from the porch: "Foh de Lawdd sake, wuz you-all tell Marse Bob please not to go out no mah till I kin git his clo'es round to him?"

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

The home of W. G. Jenkins and wife, Sharp's Corners, was besieged on Friday evening, by their numerous friends and neighbours, who gathered in large numbers to bid them God speed as they left for their new home in Belleville.

By eight o'clock almost every room in the house was filled to its capacity and by the constant peal of laughter which prevailed during the entire evening from room to room, loomed a fair indication that the best of feeling reigned in each and every one's heart. Happiness and contentment beamed in each countenance of both old and young, and one could not help tarrying for a moment to ask ourselves the question, "can anything eclipse the beautiful country for contentment?"

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins will be greatly missed by every one, as we always knew they were heart and spirit with everything pertaining to this life, and we hope that they will return to old home and neighbours greatly benefitted by a two years' rest.

Although they were completely taken by surprise, both were very composed when they were presented with a beautiful music cabinet, and their small son a fountain pen, which always appeals to a small boy's heart. Below is the address:—

To Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Jenkins and Murray.

We, your neighbours and friends have gathered to spend one more social evening with you before you leave our neighborhood.

We realize, as you are about to depart from our midst, what a place you have filled in the lives and hearts of your friends. Your neighbourly kindness and Christian character have endeared you to all, and the hospitality of your home so freely extended will long be remembered. It is with regret that we say good-bye, but trust that in the coming years changing circumstances will bring you back to us again.

We will miss you in church and Sunday School, but hope that in your new home you may enjoy God's blessing and a new sphere of usefulness be opened up to you.

And now as a slight token of our good will and esteem, we ask you to accept these gifts, trusting that in them you will always be reminded of your old friends at Ebenezer.

Signed on behalf of your neighbors and friends,

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood and Edna.

We your friends have gathered at your home this evening to enjoy a short while in your company before you leave this vicinity, and to express our sincere regrets at your departure but trust it may be for the best.

In going, you take with you our best wishes for your future success. We hope that the new friends that you make may give you as hearty a welcome and be ever faithful and helpful to you. We ask you to accept these gifts.—Mr. Wood, a fountain pen; Mrs. Wood, this silver bread tray and silver biscuit jar, and Edna belle, this gold brooch set with pearls, and we hope that you will be spared to use them for many years, and in their use be constantly reminded of the good will we have for you, and remember we shall be pleased to welcome you whenever you find it convenient.

Mr. Wood gave a suitable reply, inviting friends and neighbours to the future home. All enjoyed themselves until the wee small hours.

Signed on behalf of the friends,
MRS. M. WISEMAN.
MRS. H. YOUNG.
MR. H. KILGANNON

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Wood and Edna,—We, your neighbours and friends, have gathered here this evening to enjoy a few hours socially with you before you leave our midst, and to tell you how much we shall miss you, not only your friendship, but the hospitality of your home, which was open to us at all times. You, Mr. Wood, shall be missed from the church, of which you were a life long member; from the school, in which you showed your interests during your turn as trustee, and in the community as a friend at all times, in sickness, sorrow and joys. Your cheery smile and voice will be a memory long to cherish. There are some of us who have watched you grow up to manhood with a pride, and trust the good Lord will spare you to your family and friends for many seasons longer; and you, Mrs. Wood, who came to our neighborhood some fifteen years ago as a bride, we cannot let you go without a word of appreciation. Although your health did not allow you to partake of the social duties as actively as you would have wished, still deep down in our hearts we had that satisfying feeling that you were there and would give the all you had both heart and hand; and you, dear Edna, with your smiling face and rippling laughter have left a place in the hearts of your playmates. We would ask you, Mr. and Mrs. Wood, to accept this silver tea service, and Miss Edna, this five dollar gold coin, as a token that we may express our feelings. May you take with you our best wishes for your success, both spiritually and financially, and remember, dear friends, our home are open to you at all times, and our hearts ever ready to add fresh fuel to the fire of friendship.

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbours at Morven.

MRS. JAS. CURRAN.
MR. W. SMITH.
MR. W. WELCH.

Mr. Wood gave a suitable reply, and all joined in singing "For They Are a Jolly Good Family".

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Lady to Auto Dealer—I would like to see a first-class second-hand car.
Dealer—So would I.

Her Father—The woman.

There is no poisonous ingredient in Holloway's Corn Remover, and it can be used without danger or injury.

Miss Passay—Children nowadays do not pay the proper respect to age.
Miss Pert—I suppose that annoys you a great deal.

"Max has sent me an interesting book, "Relativity", by Einstein. Have you read it?"
"No, I am waiting for it to be filmed."

Worms feed upon the vitality of children and endanger their lives. A simple and effective remedy is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator.

Miss Olden (calling)—What! You can't name all the Presidents. Why, when I was a little girl I could easily.
Hostess' Daughter—But there were only three or four then.

"Talk is cheap," snarled the attorney when the Judge had criticized his method of cross-examining.
"I fine you $50 for contempt of court," replied his Honor. "What do you think of the price of talk now?"

Panhandler—On de level, mister, I ain't et nothin' in three days.
Prospect—Nothing like exercising one's will-power, bo. You're off to a good start, so don't let anybody forcibly feed you.

Away With Depression and Melancholy.—These two evils are the accompaniment of a disordered stomach and torpid liver and mean wretchedness to all whom they visit. One of the quick and speediest ways to combat them is with Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which will restore the healthful action of the stomach and bring relief. They have proved their worth in thousands of cases and will continue to give relief to the suffering who are wise enough to use them.

"Guess I'd better reduce on rope," said the storekeeper at Pizen Gulch. "It's fun, too."
"Well, the boys are talking of hanging a few profiteers. I don't want 'em to start on me."

Edwin James, the war correspondent, who had just returned to America and was on a vacation in Virginia, met one of the farmers of that State who immediately engaged him in a discussion of the League of Nations.

At times the argument grew heated, the warmth abating with the farmer's caustic remarks.

"Well, you should know, Mr. James," he said, "there's always three sides to every question—my side, your side, and the right side."

A Household Medicine.—They that are acquainted with the sterling properties of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil in the treatment of many ailments would not be without it in the house. It is truly a household medicine and as it is effective in dealing with many ordinary complaints it is an inexpensive medicine. So, keep it at hand, as the call for it may come most unexpectedly.

"Charley, dear," said young Mrs. Torkins, "do you remember how you laughed at me because there were some things I didn't understand about the ball game?"
"Yes."
"Well, after reading some of the recent news, I want to ask you, as man to woman, weren't there some things about that game that you did not understand either?"

Worms are encouraged by morbid conditions of the stomach and bowels, and so subsist. Miller's Worm Powders will alter these conditions almost immediately and will sweep the worms away. No destructive dosage can live in contact with this medicine, which is not only a worm destroyer, but a health-giving medicine most beneficial to the young constitution.

OBITUARY.

There died in Odessa, on Wednesday, December 22nd, 1920, Eva Hunter Salsbury, widow of James Smith, R. R. No. 1, Odessa, Ont. After the death of the deceased's husband, Mrs. Smith moved to Odessa to spend the remainder of her days with her daughter, Mary Jane Kilgannon. The deceased was in her 79th year. She has been ailing for some time, still the family had the hope of her recovery. Mrs. Eva Hunter Smith had lived in Ernesttown and section nearly all of her married life. We never heard one disparaging word of her. Her high moral and Christian character won the esteem and respect of those who came in contact with her home. Such a pure and correct life has made the world easier for her living in it. Her death has cast a gloom over the community. Whoever entered her home always retained pleasant recollections of the kindly genial welcome she gave them, how sweetly she entered into the lives of all her friends, one never ever went away from her disappointed; her friendship was satisfying. The funeral service which was very impressive, was conducted by Rev. Mr. Nickel, of Odessa. The floral tributes were beautiful. The remains were laid to rest in Morven cemetery, there to await her Lord's coming. She leaves to mourn her loss six children, Mrs. Elmore Amey, Ernesttown Station; Mr. Nelson Smith, Odessa; Mr. John Smith, South Fredericksburgh; T. Seymour Smith, North Fredericksburgh; Mrs. Walter Woodcock, Mount Pleasant, and Mrs. Charles Kilgannon, Odessa. The deepest sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved family. Eva Eliza Salsbury as a girl was well approved in her Christian life. She was born in Camden, attended the Methodist Church and S. S. ever since she was a girl of five years, and has to her credit the learning of many verses out of the Old and New Testaments which helped her in making her peace with her Maker.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

The Ladies' Adult Bible Class of Enterprise Methodist Sunday School, at the conclusion of the regular session on December 19th, 1920, met in the prayer room of the church to present their teacher, Mrs. S. D. Lockwood, with a beautiful silver casserole, as a testimony of their appreciation for her faithful services as teacher for the past eight years. The following address was read by Mrs. Norman Jackson, Class President, and the presentation made by Miss Hilts:—

Enterprise, Dec. 19th, 1920.

Dear Mrs. Lockwood,—Your scholars and co-workers wish to express to you their kind regards for your services in the past few years and their appreciation for the efficient work you have done. We feel you have given your part with untiring effort to make the class a success. As an expression of our united good will we ask you to accept this casserole, not for its value, but that in future years as you use it, it will remind you of the good-will of your class.

We ask God's blessing to rest on you and pray that He may bless your life many years to work in His vineyard.

Signed on behalf of the class.
MRS. NORMAN JACKSON,
President.

Mrs. Lockwood replied in a few well chosen words, saying she appreciated greatly the unexpected gift, but felt unworthy of the kindness the class had shown in remembering her in this way; her labour had been for the advancement of the Sunday School and the furtherance of Christ's Kingdom. She felt the class deserved as much credit for the success that had been attained by their regular attendance and willing co-operation in all that pertained to the class interests, in both the past and present, thus making it a success. She would always value the gift as expressive of the spirit of the class.

MRS. SANTA CLAUS AT NURSES' HOME.

Mrs. Santa Claus and not the venerable gentleman who guides the destinies of that famous family appeared as a feature attraction at the greatest of all Christmas Eve celebrations, held at the Nurses' Home of the Hahnemann Hospital, last night. Appearing in the role of Mrs. Santa was Miss Ada Cronkwright and, according to reports she officiated with the skill of the old veteran himself, the nurses in the institution having difficulty in carrying away their various gifts.

A gigantic Christmas tree presented by Dr. Samuel Bradstreet of Sumnerville, stood in the centre of the reception hall, handsomely trimmed with decorations furnished by Dr. George Whitney. And then beneath the sheltering bough rested a jug of cider—or perhaps it should be a jug of cider—presented by Mrs. Peter Spaker.—Rochester Herald, Dec. 25th, 1920.

For lice on cattle or hogs, two applications 5 days apart, of the New Electric Louse Powder does the work. 40c. a pound, at Wallace's.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

1st. What is a Narcotic?

A substance which numbs pain. In large doses it produces stupor, and in still larger doses, death.

2nd. When there is no pain what is the action of a narcotic?

It makes the organs of the body do their work more slowly, and tends to cause sleepiness.

3rd. What are the narcotics most commonly used?

4th. Why is an alcoholic liquor not a stimulant?

A stimulant is a substance which will cause the organs of the body do more and quicker work without causing them to work more after-ward. Alcoholic liquor was once thought to be a stimulant, but now it is recognized as a narcotic because its stimulating action is followed by a much longer period of depression.

At the price—35c. per lb. box—you would wonder how they could afford to sell Mary Ann Chocolates. The value is in the candy, not the box. This delicious confection for sale in Napanee, at Wallace's.

They Came Back.

"When I was a little child", the Sergeant sweetly addressed his men at the end of an exhaustive hour of drill, "I had a set of wooden soldiers. There was a poor little boy in the neighborhood, and after I had been to Sunday School one day and listened to a stirring talk on the beauties of charity, I was softened enough to give them to him. Then I wanted them back and cried, but my mother said, 'Don't cry, Bertie, some day you will get your wooden soldiers back'. And believe me, you bob-sided, mutton-headed, goofstrained set of rectified rolling-pins, that day has come."—The American Legion Weekly.

Hon. President—J. M. Thompson.

1st Vice-Pres.—Geo. Johnston.
2nd Vice-Pres.—Geo. Fralick.
3rd Vice-Pres.—Mr. MacMorine.
Secretary—E. K. Metcalf.
Treasurer—Geo. Knox.
Judges—Geo. Ingroff.
Show Secretary—C. C. Main.
Directors and Officers—Mr. Lowry, S. A. Richardson, Mr. Fraser.
Auditors—Harold Fellows and Mr. Tucker.

Exceeded Its Objective.

The Lennox and Addington Branch of The Navy League of Canada has, as its recent campaign, again exceeded its objective, which was $1,000.00.

Success was due to the executive ability of the Treasurer, Mr. J. Grube Daly, and the indefatigable efforts of his cohorts.

$1,000.00 was subscribed and paid. Napanee and Newburgh, in which place addresses were delivered by Rev. Capt. S. Boal, did remarkably well, subscriptions of the town amounting to $663.00, and of the village to $85.00. The school children in the public schools throughout the county contributed $269.00, and the balance was made up by donations from various parties in the country. The Navy League desires, through The Beaver, to extend its hearty thanks to the givers for their generosity, and to assure them that the proceeds of the Fall Campaign will be disbursed in the interests of the sailors of the Canadian Mercantile Marine, the bulwark of Canadian prosperity.

New License Plates.

The new license plates are ready for Ontario motorists. They will be found changed and improved from those at present in use. The numbers are not only embossed instead of being merely painted on as at present, but they are hyphenated between the thousands and the hundreds, for example, 45-653. Thus Ontario follows the lead of most of the important States of the Union. The purpose of both the embossing and the hyphenation is to make the plates more easily read and to prevent tampering with the figures. At night the raised letters will catch the light and stand out more readily. The new plates are slightly smaller than those going out of fashion, very neat, and it is hoped by those responsible will be really ornamental on a car. Motorists will also remember that the new and increased scale of license fees for Ontario goes into effect this week. Persons who contemplate buying new cars, however, probably will not mind paying an extra $5 or so in license fee, in view of the abrogation of the luxury tax, which amounted to as much as $1,000 on some of the higher-priced cars. This, with the rumors of gasoline coming down in price, ought to make the coming months popular with would-be motorists.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Daly Entertain.

Christmas week this year was the round of gaiety so dear to the holiday makers, and Thursday evening found Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Daly's lovely home on Piety Hill ablaze with lights, decked with holly and mistletoe, and thronged with young people. The spacious drawing rooms were cleared, cosy resting places beckoned in the halls and little conservatory, wedding guests were waiting in the dining room, and if any other incentive was needed for dancing feet it was found in the inspiring music furnished by Mr. Walters' orchestra. Everyone danced early, and the repeated encores showed how thoroughly enjoyable that dancing was. During the interval, tasty sandwiches and most delicious cakes were supplied in such abundance that even the most energetic dancers started off again with renewed enthusiasm. Not until the wee sma hours did the tired but happy revellers disperse. It is always pleasing to see one's guests enjoying themselves, and Mr. and Mrs. Daly must have felt repaid by the merry tones and sparkling eyes which bid them good-night. They should need no further assurance that theirs was one of the most delightful parties of the season.

A LENNOX AND ADDINGTON GIRL HEARD FROM.

Work of Mrs. J. Malcolm Denyes, formerly of Newburgh.

A gold medal education contest under the auspices of Milton W. C. T. U., and directed by Mrs. J. M. Denyes, Provincial Superintendent of Scientific Temperance, was held in the Methodist Church here recently. The contestants for the medal repesented six rural schools adjacent to Milton, in which silver medal contests had previously been held. The winners met here, and the occasion was the first so far as known in which representatives of school have ever competed in this way.

Mayor F. F. Earl presided, and the audience was a capacity one, the popular interest being very marked.

The contestants were: Ada Ford, S. S. No. 6, Trafalgar Township; Doris Carter, S. S. No. 7, Trafalgar; Doris Hume, S. S. No. 12, Nelson; Marion McNiven, S. S. No. 1, Nassagaweya; Stella Robertson, S. S. No. 11, Nelson, and Herbert Cavers, S. S. No. 9, Nelson.

The judges, Mr. C. H. Stuart, Miss L. Wilson, of the High School staff, and Mrs. R. M. Clements, had a very difficult to award the medal, all the contestants having acquitted themselves so creditably. Finally the award was made to Miss Doris Carter, daughter of W. J. Carter, of Trafalgar.

The speeches were interspersed with musical numbers by local talent, and a series of temperance lantern slides were shown by Mrs. Denyes, constituting the chairman declared, the first gem in Halton's reformation campaign. The medal presented was beautifully embossed in the form of a maple leaf.—The Globe.

TOWN COUNCIL.

special effort should be made this year to liquidate this.

Streets Committee.

The Streets Committee should get to work at as early a date as possible and prepare a definite programme for the street improvements for the year, together with the estimated cost. I would like to place the following suggestions before you for your consideration.

That without delay an effort be made to dispose of our road roller and that a new roller with scarifier attachment be secured. From my personal observation and past experience I am confident that this type of machine will save its cost to the town in two years, that practically all our roads could be placed in first class shape in a very short time and at a very small expense. If this suggestion were carried out then the question of road oil should be taken up and if possible to finance, the main driven roads should be treated with oil not only to keep down the dust but to preserve the road. The use of water sprinklers should be done away with as the continuous watering of roads has the effect of destroying the roads faster than they can be built.

Considerable preliminary work has been done already in respect to a permanent paved road through the town to connect up the Provincial Highway and application has been made to the Ontario Government for aid in carrying out this work. Without any delay a most thorough inspection should be made of every property fronting on this road with the object in view of having all sewer, gas and water connections properly and permanently made to each property so that when it is decided to go on with the construction of a permanent road there will be no delay on account of this work not having been done.

There are a few old boardwalks still left in town and they are not only expensive to maintain but they are also dangerous, as in most cases they are completely worn out. The question of replacing these walks with permanent pavements should be carefully considered.

I would strongly urge the Committee to arrange for starting work at an early date in the town quarries. If it can be arranged a crusher and bin should be secured from the County and the estimated amount of stone required for street work should be crushed before the County requires the machinery.

Fire, Water and Light Committee.

The Committee should consult with the Fire Chief and an inspection of fire fighting appliance be made and if new equipment or supplies are required a requisition for same be brought in as early as possible.

The electors have decided that the newly acquired Water Works System and canal property shall be under the control and supervision of a Commission, subject to statutory regulations. The Fire, Water and Light Committee should co-operate with the Commissioners in carrying out the proposed changes in the pumping system and in extending the water mains and services. The extension of water mains at both the east and west ends of Dundas Street should receive early consideration. The question of placing one or two additional hydrants in the westerly part of the town on Mill Street should also receive consideration. There are numerous places in town where there are sewers and no water service, citizens would like the water services extended in these cases and this should be done wherever practicable.

The canal would be the better if it were cleaned out and the walls repaired so that all available water supply might be conserved and at certain places around the canal fences should be erected for the protection of the public.

Printing and By-Laws Committee.

It is the duty of this Committee to look after the printing and see that all by-laws are properly drawn when required.

Town Property Committee.

At the last meeting of the Board of Commerce a resolution was passed appointing a Committee to look into the question of the erection of a Memorial Hall. While on the face of it this seems to be a big undertaking, yet the need of a community hall is so great that every effort should be made to advance this project. The Town Property Committee should cooperate with the Committee of the Board of Commerce and bring this question to a point where it can be intelligently considered.

The Disposal Works requires considerable attention, and the Committee should make frequent inspections to see that this plant is working properly and that the caretaker is giving proper attention to all parts of the plant.

Mr. Fred. A. Perry, proprietor of the Campbell House, is contemplating making considerable alterations to his property. One of the greatest assets to the growth of a town is a first-class hotel. Mr. Perry has intimated that with a little encouragement from the town he would make the Campbell House one of the best hotels on the line, and he has also intimated that he might possibly allow a part of the basement under the hotel to be used for a public lavatory providing the town would fit it up and take care of it. There has been a crying need for a long time for a real first-class hotel in Napanee, also for public lavatories, and I would strongly urge the Committee to take "this matter up with Mr. Perry at once.

Market and Police Committee.

Continually complaints are being made about loitering in hotel and store doorways in the evenings and especially on Sunday evenings. Hotelmen complain of the number of young lads who loaf about the lobbies of the hotels in the evenings, and more particularly on Sunday evenings. There is considerable reckless auto driving at street intersections, mostly in the evenings. The Police Committee may rightly take up with the Police Department the improvement of these and similar conditions.

Poor and Sanitary Committee.

To carefully consider and investigate every application for assistance is the duty of this Committee, and to co-operate with the police and sanitary officers so that the town may be kept in a clean and healthy condition.

There are several receiving assistance from the town to a greater extent than the town is warranted in giving. These cases will continue indefinitely and they should be sent to the Homes in Kingston. This matter should be taken up without delay.

These are a few of the matters that will engage your attention during the coming year. Undoubtedly there will be new problems presenting themselves which you will have to deal with. However, if the spirit of cooperation, which has been so noticeable in the Councils of the last few years, is continued, I have faith that the year's business will be conducted in a sane and satisfactory manner.

In closing, I most sincerely solicit the support and co-operation of each and every member of the Council and any assistance I can render to you in the discharge of your respective duties, will be gladly and freely given.

Yours sincerely,

MARK GRAHAM,
Mayor of Napanee.

Ex-Mayor Robinson was present and gave the new Council encouragement in that he could give his services fully, at any time during the year to push along the good work that the Council would have in hand.

Mr. John T. Grange was also present and delivered a short address, congratulating the Mayor and members of the Council on their success at the polls.

A By-law was passed, appointing Mr. J. M. Thomson a member of the Board of Education for three years.

The annual report of Chief of Police Barrett was read by the Chairman of the Market and Police Committee, which is given below:—

Chief Constable's Office,
Napanee, January 1st, 1921.

To the Mayor and Council of the Corporation of the Town of Napanee.

Gentlemen,—I have the honor to submit herewith the annual report of your Police Department for the year ending December 31st, 1920.

During the past year the town has been singularly free from any very serious crime, the majority of offences committed being of a minor character. We are in a fortunate position in so far as law breaking is concerned. The crime wave which appears to have spread itself practically all over the continent has not yet affected us here, and it is to be hoped that it will not do so.

The summarized report in figures given, does not convey to the mind of the average person the amount of work involved, and gives but a faint idea of the many varied and difficult problems, and cases, which confront almost every police officer.

Observations taken in many parts of Canada and the United States reveal unmistakeable evidence of a growing demand for increased police vigilence, and it is surprising that this condition should prevail as there has been a noticeable decrease in the number of arrests. In looking for the cause of this apparently contradictory state of affairs, among other things each of which contribute towards creating disregard or disrespect for the law, the following are recognized as decisive elements in the unrest of to-day:

Discontent among the producing class.

Enforced restriction on accustomed privileges.

The sudden forced change in the habits of a large number of people.

The uneven distribution of wages.

The increased cost of living.

The enormous increase of automobile traffic, and

The destruction of honest effort by the discontented.

No doubt there are other conditions peculiar to certain localities, but the fact remains that most Police Departments are being confronted with the realization, that more help and better facilities are needed to effectively cope with the situation and preserve law and order.

The temptation and excuses for law-breaking have greatly multiplied due to the aforementioned conditions. Prevention of crime is the primary object and duty of the present day Police officers, and nearly always the presence of an officer is sufficient to prevent infractions of the law. He cannot always be on hand at just the time and place where the idea to commit offences happened to pop into the lawless person. It is a very rare thing for any such person to inform a policeman just when, where, and how he intends to commit an offence.

No better illustration of the preventive value of the police could be found than to take the records of the various places, where not so long ago the policemen were absent from duty through differences with their governing bodies. Many of the lawless acts and depredations were committed by persons who normally were not criminally inclined, for the apparent sole reason that there was no police protection for the time being.

The fact that a fewer number of arrests are made now in comparison with any previous period, is no argument that the work of the Police Force is lessened. There is more need now for watchfulness and increased vigilence than even to prevent a violation of the many different laws and statutes.

A good deal of the work of the Police is not known to the general public and is only known to those whose interests are being served, consequently wrong impressions of this kind are value of the work performed by those not directly affected and as a result of this the Police Department are usually placed far down on the estimates, when considering their needs while it should occupy a place near the top. An active and properly equipped Police Department is one of the best investments a municipality can make against the inception of crime and its growth.

Coming more directly to local conditions there is much cause for thankfulness with reference to serious offences. The majority of offences committed were by persons residing out of town and were mostly of a minor nature. Of the many persons appearing as defendants in the Police Court the percentage of real criminals is small. Many persons of irreproachable character and good repute are summoned there for some minor infraction of a municipal by-law or provincial statute. These people must naturally receive treatment quite different from that given to burglars, robbers and murderers. Almost every case handled calls for a different method of procedure, which makes it necessary to use the utmost caution and careful judgment in dealing with them in order that justice may be fairly dealt out. It is generally conceded that this is a delicate subject of controversy but the intention is always evident to be as fair as possible, and each case is handled according to circumstances.

There is one item in this report which shows carelessness on the part of some person, that is the one showing the number of doors in business buildings found unfastened at night. While the object of the Police is to give the greatest protection possible to ratepayers and citizens, it makes the work more difficult and complicated by these little acts of carelessness. A little more co-operation on the part of these above property comes more directly under Police protection, would be very much appreciated.

During the year there were only two prosecutions for offences against the town by-laws, the warnings and advice given in most cases was sufficient.

Before closing this report there is one matter that I would like to bring before you again, and that is at present there is no method or appliances for keeping the record and papers belonging to this office. I find myself handicapped somewhat by this and would suggest that a small filing cabinet be procured which I believe would be of material assistance in keeping proper and accurate records.

In conclusion I desire to express my appreciation of the manner and the attitude of the late Council toward this Department, and trust that this feeling and co-operation will continue to exist and the present police force body that this Department will continue to give the best service possible to protect the interests of the ratepayers of Napanee.

The following is a summarized report of the work for the past year as near as can be given in figures:—

Complaints received 163, complaints investigated 126, Police Court cases 85, Convictions 78, dismissed 8, committed to higher court 1, appeared on summons 53, appeared on warrant 9, arrested without warrant 21, offenders, male 72, offenders, female 7, juveniles 4, arrested for other departments 15, communications received 387, sent out 195, phone calls at office 1443, inquiries from other Departments 75, calls to fires 5, calls to accidents 5, notices served under town by-laws 109, doors in business buildings found unfastened at night 70, amount given for protection 25, persons taken to Institutions out of town 12, lost and stolen property recovered $2926.71, fines and fees inflicted in Police Court $622.00; liquor revenue $81.25.

THROAT SORE?

Don't neglect it because you think it is "only a sore throat!" It is often the beginning of serious trouble, which can be avoided if proper precautions are taken. Peps will safeguard you.

"Sore throat" is a sign that your power of resistance has been temporarily lowered, and your system is therefore unable to withstand the attacks of harmful germs which are being constantly breathed in. The germs have, therefore, settled in your throat and caused inflammation, and to prevent more serious trouble these germs must be destroyed.

A Peps pastille dissolved on the tongue throws off Pine vapor, which is so certain a germ-destroyer as the Pine laden air of the Pine mountains, which doctors so highly recommend. These Pine fumes are breathed down into the air passages and lungs, soothing and healing the inflamed membranes that medicine swallowed into the stomach could not possibly reach.

Nothing can equal this breathable remedy for all affections of the throat and lungs. coughs, colds, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis, etc. All dealers or Peps Co., Toronto., 50c box, 3 for $1.25.

The Organ of Sound.

The real hearing apparatus of all creatures is inside the skull, the part which we call "the ear" being merely an enlarged fold of skin which helps us to collect sounds. Birds and frogs have no outside ear. The hearing hole of birds. lizards and frogs is just a little behind each eye and not far from the corners of the mouth or beak. The frog has a middle ear, besides, so that sounds can be conducted to a special nerve, which is its real organ of hearing.

Oath No Light Matter in Siam.

The following Siamese oath reported by "The Office Boy," indicates that in Siam perjury is no light matter: "May the blood drop from my body; may my head break in two; may the crocodiles devour me; may I be compelled to carry water in wicker baskets to quench the flames of hell; may I suffer the most horrible tortures until my years are as many as the grains of sand by the sea, if I violate this my solemn oath."—World Outlook.

To Dream of a Parrot.

A parrot in one's dreams is a warning to watch out, for among your friends is some one not true to you. If the parrot is in a cage, it's a sign a secret of yours will be revealed by some one whom you trusted. But if you hear a parrot talk in your dreams, listen closely to it, for it is supposed that advice is often given in this way.—Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Gigantic New Zealand Trees.

The sizes reported in some New Zealand trees are astonishing. Each of two kauri trees from the vicinity of the Waipona forest is stated to have yielded 205,780 feet of sawable timber, which is about twice the product of the largest known trees of California, and equivalent to the entire production of nearly three acres of good European forest.

Spaniard Is Wife's Master.

The best position of a married woman in Spain is today so low that her husband has absolute control over her person and property, as in the middle ages. The wife cannot enter business without her husband's consent. He has the legal right to shut her up in a convent if she does wrong, and it is left to his to decide what constitutes wrong.

Gertrude had attended a funeral and had been much attracted by the beautiful hearse. Last Sunday when she in the yard playing when another hearse glided smoothly past the house. Many Public Charges.

Penny as Financial Barometer.

The cent is the barometer of business, and it is interesting to note that during financial depression a large number of these coins accumulate in the treasury. Even a big storm or a strike will cut down the number of pennies in circulation, for the penny-spending public is indoors, or else forced to save for "rainy days" that threaten. It is a sign of prosperity when large numbers of pennies are in circulation.

Human Temperature.

According to the hour of the day, man's temperature varies. It is lowest at about 3:30 o'clock in the morning, when it averages 97 degrees Fahrenheit; from then it gradually rises until it reaches a maximum of between 98 and 99 degrees Fahrenheit at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, after which it falls. This is the temperature of the armpit, which is always slightly lower than that inside the body.

Accidental French.

An American lady in Paris wanted some water, but could not make the maid understand she wanted it hot. After several vain attempts, she explained in disgust: "Sho!" The maid brightened up suddenly, went off and returned with a pitcher of hot water. It was not until some time afterward that the lady learned from a friend that the girl had evidently mistaken "Sho!" for "chaud," which is the French for "hot."—Boston Transcript.

"Whence Victrola."

Emil Berliner invented the graphophone, which was manufactured by Victor Franklin of Camden, N. J. At a reorganization meeting of the company owning the patent, held in the office of Victor Franklin, the matter of finding a better name for the graphophone was discussed. The name of Victor Franklin on the door suggested the term Victrola, which was adopted.

Iron Clothes With the Feet.

In Cairo men employed in the native suffering establishments iron clothes with their feet. They stand on the long handle, the irons are shaped like an ordinary flat-iron, but are larger. A solid block of wood rests on the top of the iron, and on this the men place one foot, guiding the iron in the desired direction by means of the handle. For the sake of economy, ironing boards are raised only a few inches from the ground, and, however strange the method may seem, the work is done well and expeditiously.

To prevent oversleeping, and thus risking the loss of their employment, the mail carriers of Morocco resort to a unique and perilous scheme. They tie a string to one foot, and, as they know how long a yard or two will burn, they regulate the length of the string by the time they have to sleep. They light the string, which burns slowly, and, when the fire comes to their foot, they are painfully reminded that it is time to arise.

Cost of a Pound of Honey.

Few of us realize what a pound of honey means to the bees who produce it. To make a pound of clover honey, bees must take the nectar of 62,000 clover blossoms; and to do this requires 1,256,000 visits to the blossoms by the bees. In other words, in order to collect enough nectar to make one pound of honey, a bee must go from hive to flower and back again 2,750,000 times.

Expected Usual Division.

I have two nephews, who were so near the same age they were always given duplicate presents. For instance, if one were given a drum, the other was given one exactly like it. One day their mother presented them with twin sisters. One of my nephews, after standing and looking at them for some time said, "Mother, which one do I get?"—Exchange.

Extreme Economy.

A neighbor had some dental work done. When the filling was completed the tooth felt too long, causing him nervousness and annoyance. I asked him why he didn't have the dentist grind it off a little and he said seriously: "Well, I hate to think of all that good gold dust going to waste after I've paid for it."—Exchange.

Strange Moslem Belief.

It is believed by the Moslems that at the judgment day painters will be required to breathe souls into representations of human beings which they have made. Failing in this order, they will lose their own souls as a forfeit for their presumptuous imitation of the work of the Creator.

Cause and Effect.

The old miser, who buried his money in the fence corner near the big tree in his back yard alone, he said, "The guilty person has not been apprehended. Andy Dillard went to Plushville yesterday and purchased himself a fine suit of clothes.—Arkansas Thomas Cat.

Historian Married Seven Times.

One of the best-known examples of a much-married man is afforded by Sir Gervaise Clifton, the historian of Jamaica. All his married seven times, and the brides being domestic servants from his own household. His matrimonial ventures all turned out happily.

"Dandies" Among the Ancients.

According to a Greek writer, effeminate dandies in ancient Greece sometimes slept on beds of sponge. Fashionable people in Athens slept under coverlets of dressed peacock skins, with feathers on. Cushions of pink and purple supported their heads.

Something Wrong.

It has been stated that package freight, when loaded, could be carried from Boston to Cuba, or coal from New York to Brazil more cheaply than it could be moved from one pier to a neighboring one within the same harbor.

"Movies" in a Book.

A motion picture camera has been invented for taking portraits which are separated and mounted in book form, the appearance of motion being imparted as the pages of the book are turned rapidly.

Irritates the Industrious.

Complacency is a good quality of disposition, but it is aggravating in the extreme to the industrious person who is aching to see the lazy man get a move on himself.

Strange Collection of Masses.

In the famous Vatican library there are more than 100 volumes of masses copyrighted upon popular airs by composers of various nations.

Favorable Balance of Trade Is Dominion's First Objective.

Speaking before members of the Eastern Ontario and Ottawa district branches of the Retail Mercants' Association of Canada at their annual banquet at Brockville, held in connection with the third annual convention of the organization, Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, conveyed to the citizens of Canada a strong denunciation, couched in studied cadences, yet with a forcibleness that could not be denied, of the extravagant spending of Canada's money in the United States for commodities which are conceded to be the Dominion's greatest products.

First dealing with the new dealt luxury taxes, Sir Henry Drayton stated that the tax was a blister applied in a time of need, but like a mustard plaster which had served its useful purpose, was not left on too long. He spoke of the rapidly increasing cost of living throughout the war years which kept mounting even after the armistice until it was decided that something must be done. He gave a comparative statement of the increased cost of Government maintenance in the warring as well as neutral countries, showing that the cost in Canada had mounted only 57 per cent., leaving aside the debts incurred for war purposes.

Sir Henry spoke of the distribution problem and warned that unless Canada swings the balance of trade in her favor by having more at home or in Great Britain, she is merely postponing the inevitable ruin. Our importations of fruits from the United States jumped from $175,000 in the year 1909 to $24,000,000 last year; canned vegetables importations jumped 124 per cent.; pickles and sauces, 50 per cent.; textile products, 66 per cent.; embroideries, 200 per cent.

Despite the fact that many of our shoe factories are closed, Canadians imported last year $13,000,000 in shoes from the United States. The Finance Minister told the merchants that only the people can bring about a change, and he asked their assistance in bringing them to their senses. "Nobody but the reason why we should buy at home.

ARDEN.

We are having beautiful weather at time of writing. Our sleighing was helped by the snow storm last week. Wheels, sleighs and autos have been in use past week. — The Cooper Lumber Camp is hauling logs to the station and loading them on cars.—The Methodist Sunday School Xmas Tree was a grand success, $70 being taken in at the door, and the three small classes free. Great credit is due the committee that arranged the programme, the children taking the greatest part in it. The Superintendent's address and song was quite a contrast.—George Thompson, of Elm Tree, has sold his farm to Arthur Barker, who has moved to Tamworth, where he has purchased the livery business.—The special services in the Methodist Church are not very successful.—Mrs. Winters at her mother's, Mrs. B. F. Dellor.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Steel and daughter at Mr. W. McGregor's, recently.—The Ladies' Aid gave a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Barker on January 3rd. There was a large crowd and a pleasant time was spent by all. The Aid presented Mrs. Barker with a new Methodist Hymn Book, and the men of the community gave Mr. Barker a $17.25 chair. Mr. and Mrs. Barker thanked the people in a very appropriate manner. Mrs. Barker spoke very feelingly to the ladies, and said she would be glad to have any of them come and see her. She has been Vice-President of the Aid for the past two years, and gave a special invitation to the Aid to come to her home in Tamworth and hold an At Home, which event will be looked forward to when warm weather comes. Mrs. Addison Miller, the President of the Aid, made a few well chosen remarks on behalf of the Aid, saying they were sorry Mrs. Barker was leaving the vicinity, but wishing her every success in her new home in Tamworth. Refreshments were then served by the ladies. Following is the address, read by Rev. Mr. Stocker, Pastor:—

Arden, January 3rd, 1921.

To Mrs. Chas. Barker.

Dear Mrs. Barker,—We have learned of your immediate departure from our midst to your new home in Tamworth, and before you go we felt we must take this little opportunity to spend a social evening with you in your old home. We do this, first of all because we have found you to be both a good neighbor and friend at all times as the opportunity arose for you to show yourself a friend and helper. Then too, as a member of our Aid and an officer for the past two years, we want you to feel that we have appreciated your willing help and guidance as you have been able to give the same in the interests of our work and church. What is to be a loss to us by your severing of your relations from us, we know will be a gain to others among whom you are to find other friends and other duties which we trust will be taken in hand as readily and constantly as you have done among us. The breaking up of one's home is always associated with a touch of pain that is only felt by the heart, but difficult to put in words. It is for us all to endeavour faithfully to make our homes wherever we live, a vital and uplifting force in the community of our fellowmen. This is your) renewed opportunity where you go.

Now, as a slight token of our esteem, we ask you to accept this hymn book and may it be a little means to remind you, and also Mr. Barker, as you share it together, of your Arden friends and fellow-members of the Aid.

We all join in wishing you and yours a very Happy New Year, and may God's blessing be given to you as you seek to do His will in all things.

Signed on behalf of the Aid.
ONA J. MILLER,
MRS. G. A. MILLER,
Presidents.
REV. R. STOCKER,
Pastor.

As members of the community and as much respected friends and neighbors, we want you, Mr. Barker, to accept this present of a chair, as an expression of the esteem of friends who are here to-night, and we only ask that you may be reminded by it of the pleasant memories of your friends of Arden, as through the years you may find quiet rest from your labor by its daily use, because the old saying always holds good that our best friend always wears better the more we use it. This will be your opportunity that we believe you will make good use of.

Signed on behalf of the gentlemen,
G. A. MILLER.
J. E. HAYES.
S. ALEXANDER.

MORAN—JOYCE.

A very pleasing and pretty wedding took place at St. Patrick's Church on Wednesday morning, Jan. 12th, 1921, at 8 o'clock, when John Richard Joyce and Mary Ann Beatrice Moran were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Father O'Connor. Mr. Clare McInnis, of Camden East, acted as groomsman, and Miss Monica Moran, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. The happy couple left on the afternoon train to spend their honeymoon in the west.

PUBLIC LIBRARY.

The annual meeting of the Napanee Public Library was held in the Board Room on Monday, January 11th, 1921, at 8 p.m., when the following Directors were elected, viz., W. S. Herrington, K.C., F. F. Miller, W. P. Derbyshire, G. V. Maclean, J. W. Robinson, Dr. R. A. Leonard, Ernest Walters and T. B. Wallace.

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors, W. S. Herrington was elected President, and F. F. Miller Secretary-Treasurer, and Miss Edwards was re-appointed Librarian.

Napanee, January 14th, 1921.

Mr. and Mrs. Buyer,
Napanee and Vicinity,
Ontario.

Dear Fellow Citizen:—

Replying to yours of recent date, we beg to advise you that,

"Our Down the Bannister" Sale, which starts Thursday, January 20th, 1921, will ring out the reign of high prices and will ring in a new era, when for fourteen days at least, Mr. Dollar Bill will resume his usual standard of value. Or in other words, we have reduced our prices to an extremely low level, so that it will not be necessary for us to carry through any of our present Winter stock.

This Sale, which is most gigantic in size, is of widespread importance to the people of this vicinity. It is also of national importance because every dollar we receive in this Sale will be expended on our Spring and Summer stocks. Our orders, along with others of other concerns, will keep our factories running, it will create a demand for production which can only be kept alive and active by trade coursing through its veins. The articles you make or produce cannot be sold to men out of work.

"This "Down the Bannister" Sale is important to you because it opens up a buying opportunity which has never been equalled by any retail concern in this part of the country. It is true that prices went up step by step during the war, but in this Sale you will find numerous lines of merchandise reduced one-half, one-third, one-quarter and one-fifth. In many, many cases our sale prices are under production costs, and Spring prices on the same lines will be higher. Our merchandise is of Sterling Quality, merchandise which we are proud to sell you, and merchandise which we know will give you genuine service. If you want merchandise such as we have in this big store of ours at the lowest prices possible to procure now or anytime during 1921, our advice to you is to come on our opening Sale Day, or as near to this day as convenient.

We have mailed 5000 sale bills to people in this district. This immense sheet, printed on both sides, does not contain all our bargains; there are numerous others just as good, just as advantageous forced out for lack of space. Figure on coming yourself.

With Best Wishes to all that 1921 may be a year of general prosperity.

We remain,

Yours for Quality, Service, Value,

THE ROBINSON CO., LIMITED,
Napanee's Greatest Store.

A Happy and Prosperous New Year Is Our Wish For All Our Friends.

We have to tender our thanks to our Patrons for the very liberal patronage extended to us during the trade of the holidays, which was the largest we have ever experienced since we took over the old Bookstore more than fifty-six years ago. We think that result was largely due to the fact that we had the class of goods the public generally wanted at prices that suited them.

We had a very large stock of Books by popular authors, and we had large sales; but we have yet in stock a good assortment, with good, instructive Books for boys and girls.

Our stock of Popular Games was so large and varied that we thought there was no probability of running short of any, and yet many are completely sold out. We will have a new supply before this appears in print.

At this time of year most people want something to entertain and instruct during the long winter evenings, and intelligent people generally look to reading. If you are going to take a Magazine or Newspaper, no matter where it is published, you will save time and money by applying at once to your Bookseller.

If you have Pictures to frame, bring them to us, and have them done promptly and at lowest prices.

OBITUARY.

A very sad death occurred on Monday morning last, at Sydenham Military Hospital, Kingston, when Ex-Pte. Herbert John Thompson passed peacefully away, after a lingering illness of gas which he received in the fighting zone of France, in the Battle at Vimy Ridge. The deceased was 24 years of age, and enlisted at Tamworth, his home town, in the 146th Battalion, C. Co. He was sent from there to Barriefield and Valcartier, and from there proceeded overseas, where he faithfully rendered his services for King and Country until the Armistice was signed. Returning to Canada in 1918, March 29th. The funeral took place from John Cornelius' Funeral Chapel, Kingston, to the C. N. R. station, and the remains were taken to Tamworth and put in the vault to await interment in the spring in the family plot. A large number of people had gathered on the streets to witness the funeral, which was of a full military nature. The R. C. H. A. Band and firing party were in attendance. Col. Gordon conducted the services at the funeral chapel, the pall bearers being James McComb, John O'Hare, Daniel Tripp, Ira Watts, Albert Buel and James G. Forrester. He will be much missed by all friends and acquaintances of which he had many. But greater love hath no man that he lay down his life for his friends.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

On Tuesday evening, Jan. 4th, 1921, about seventy-five neighbours and friends gathered at the home of Mr. Sampson Perry to bid them farewell before their departure for their new home in Deseronto. Mr. and Mrs. Perry were presented with a mantle clock, and the following address read:

Mr. and Mrs. Perry.

We, your friends and neighbours, have assembled this evening for the purpose of spending a few hours of pleasant intercourse and bidding you farewell before your departure from our midst.

As we look back on the years you have spent among us, we feel that there are many things we might say of you, but let it suffice that we have always found you good neighbours and loyal friends.

We are pleased to know that you are not going so far away, but that we shall be able to meet you frequently.

We ask you to accept this clock, not for its instinsic value, but as a slight token of our appreciation of your kindness while in our midst. We trust it will find a place in your home so that as time rolls on it will remind you of the old friends among whom you have lived so long.

Our good wishes go with you and hope that success and happiness will be meted out to you abundantly in your future home.

Signed on behalf of the friends of Mount Pleasant.

Our popular teacher, Miss M. MacCotie, has returned to her school, after spending the holiday time at her home in Pembroke.—Business is not very brisk in this section on account of rough roads; everyone is wishing for snow.—Mrs. B. SWITZERVILLE.

The invigorating weather, mingled with the rays from the bright warm sun, has awakened Switzerville from a lingering trance, and it is the desire of many that the little burg will continue pursuing its onward course now that it is once more on its feet.—The woodmen are taking advantage of the favourable weather, and the echo from the axes may be heard ringing out on the still air, as the farmers busily pursue their preparations for the winter, with the assistance of Mr. Russell Craig, who has his sawing machine in active service.—Rev. Mr. Cook gave a very inspiring sermon last Sunday morning, with a goodly number in attendance.—The young people of this community spent a very enjoyable evening at the home of Mrs. James McCormick. Merry laughter and gay talk ensued from the spacious rooms. As the evening advanced a delightful and tempting treat of oysters and an appetizing lunch was served.—La grippe is now making its new years calls and many are unwillingly entertaining their uninvited guest.—A young son has applied for board at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wales.—Holiday visitors: Mr. Spafford, of Toronto, at Mr. J. M. Spafford's; Mr. A. Miller at Mr. Harvey Miller's; Miss Laura and Mr. Milton Lewis spent their holidays under the parental roof; Miss Jessie Empey spent Xmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Empey; Misses Lena and Pearl Crozier were home from their schools for their vacation; Miss Edith Husband with her sister, Mrs. C. A. Miller; Mr. F. Sexsmith, from the West, spent several days with Mr. J. McCormick; Mrs. Paul with her son, Mr. Vernon Paul.—Messrs. John and Harvey Paul spent the week end with their sister, Mrs. A. Moore.—Mrs. C. B. Brethen spent a couple of days with her mother, Mrs. Arthur Parrott.—Mr. James McGregor spent a few days with his brother, Mr. Wellington McGregor.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Craig spent the week end with relatives at Robbin.—Mr. James Robinson spent Sunday evening in our midst.—Mr. Willie Williamson has again appeared on the scene. Welcome back, Willie.—The Choir met at the home of Mr. A. Crozier on Friday evening, Dec. 31st, 1920, for their regular practice, after which the leader, Mr. C. W. Vandevoort, was called forward and presented with a Masonic watch fob, and the following address was read:—

Dear Mr. Vandervoort,—It is now two years and more since in the goodness of your heart and the generosity of your life you began to take an interest in the Church by organizing a Choir of young people. During this time, in the midst of a busy life at home, and many other demands, you have never failed to find time for us, nor have you failed to provide leadership in musical training and in the social life as well.

As young people we are greatly indebted to you for your interest in us. Your home has always been open to us, and it has been an ever increasing delight to assemble there for practice and for social enjoyment under the kind hospitality of yourself and Mrs. Vandevoort.

As a choir we are here upon this occasion to express our appreciation of your unselfish life and of your efficient leadership, and to assure you not only as a Choir, but also as a congregation, we are deeply indebted to you, and as a small token of our regard we wish you to accept this little gift.

The Members of the Choir.

Mr. Vandervoort, in a few words showed his appreciation, spoke of his love for the young people, and how there was anything that we could do for them or for the cause they were trying to help, he was willing to do his part as best he could.

A dainty lunch of ice cream and cake was then served, after which all took their journey home.

"I was for many years a victim of that terrible disease, Rheumatism. In 1918, I was laid up for four months with Rheumatism in the joints of the knees, hips and shoulders and was prevented from following my work, that of Electrician.

I tried many remedies and was under the care of a physician; but nothing did me any good. Then I began to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and in a week I was easier, and in six weeks I was so well I went to work again.

I look upon this fruit medicine, the 'Fruit-a-tives', as simply marvellous in the cure of Rheumatism, and strongly advise everyone suffering with Rheumatism to give 'Fruit-a-tives' a trial."

DEPARTMENT OF SOLDIERS' CIVIL RE-ESTABLISHMENT

Kingston, January 6th, 1921.

Mrs. Sydney Rogers,
Camden East, Ont.

No. 835208 Ex-Pte. Thompson, H. J.

Dear Mrs. Rogers,—I wish to convey to you and to the members of your family, on behalf of this Department, our sincere sympathy on the occasion of the bereavement you have been called upon to sustain through the death of your son, the regrettably noted.

Our records show that your son's service for his King and Country has been most honourable and valiant. As you know he enlisted on January 11th, 1916, proceeded to England in September, 1916, and to France in November, 1916, where he served until September 22nd, 1917. He then returned to England and remained there until April, 1918, and again returned to France, serving there until November, 1918. He came back to England in November, 1918, and to Canada in March, 1919. This is indeed a very excellent record and worthy of comment.

During the time he has been on the strength of this Department I can assure you that he has been receiving the most skilled medical attention and care that could be rendered and it is regretted that the ultimate recovery hoped for was not permitted.

Again assuring you of our heartfelt sympathy, believe me,

Yours truly,

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

LETTER TO THE EDITOR.

January 7th, 1921.

To the Editor of the Napanee Beaver.

Dear Sir,—I should esteem it a very great favor if you would kindly allow me space in your valuable paper to draw attention to The following "Foe within our own gates". Far be it from me to say anything but that is praiseworthy about our business town; it needs only a casual observer to acknowledge the vast improvements carried out under Mayor Robinson's two years of office. Napanee has simply taken out a new lease of life and prosperity under his able management. Nevertheless, "there is a foe within our gates", and I am sure that the Napanee authorities will agree with me that this foe or foes needs routing out of our midst.

A few days ago while driving into our town, on its outskirts, I was hailed by a young lad about 12 or so, who begged for a ride. I stopped but hesitated, as he was in a most beginmed and dirty condition, but noticing how very weak and ill he looked I bade the boy get in; and upon my asking him what was the matter, he said, "My lungs is gone." Certainly he appeared in a most pitiful condition; yet this lad is trying to eke out an existence by shoveling for a Feed Merchant in town. Were he suffering from measels or smallpox, a hue and cry would be raised and he would be isolated immediately. Yet to all appearances he is in the last stages of tuberculosis, and is allowed to roam at large and perhaps infect half a dozen other people. Could not some provision be made for such very distressing cases?

2nd. There is at present a big hunky lad fit to do a good day's manual labour anywhere idling around pool rooms, smoking cigarettes and using the most filthy and often obscene language on the streets. I blame no one for not wanting to give this lad work; alas, I did once, to my sorrow. He is having bad influence on other boys and girls in Napanee. Why cannot he be put somewhere under control ashore, though he may be past redeeming, nevertheless his evil influence is removed from the youth of our town.

Thirdly, I wish in my humble way, to implore the ratepayers to have medical inspection of all Public Schools for the entire County before this New Year has run its course. I do not think either of these cases mentioned would have reached this crisis had we medical supervision.

There is talk of getting up a Memorial Hall to our brave lads who fell in the fray, by public subscription. Would not some scheme to remedy the forementioned evils be a Memorial of Memorials to our glorious dead. For does not Ruskin say, "Better to get a few people together who neither steal nor tell lies, than to pile up bricks and mortar".

Thank you, Mr. Editor, for your kind consideration.

Yours faithfully,
WELLWISHER.

MILLIONS KILLED IN ACTION

Wonderful news! Millions and millions of germs killed in action and thousands and thousands of victims relieved of bronchitis, asthma, hay fever and colds. There is great rejoicing in the fact that science has at last invented the world's surest death trap for germs—Buckley's Bronchitis Mixture. With the first dose this remedy gets right down to business, and never ceases in its destructive work until every trace of the disease is completely removed and the victim restored to normal health. Letters from all parts of Canada praising this wonderful mixture are literally pouring into headquarters. Read this letter:—"Years of suffering from that terrible affliction, bronchial asthma, cured by all medical men to close my business in Montreal and go north to a warmer climate, but I noticed your ad. in the "Montreal Standard" for the above mixture and I said I would give one more trial to health before I leave my native town, and thank the good maker I did. My bronchial tubes are clear, the hacking cough has disappeared, the wheezing cough has ceased as if by magic, and all discomforts have gone since taking your wonderful mixture."—Hedley Corri, 417 McKay Street, Montreal. There is no reason whatever why you cannot be completely and quickly restored to health if you take this remedy. You are satisfied or the money is refunded, according to our guarantee. Get it today. "The Shepherd of the Hills" At Wonderland Theatre.

A photo-play of good philosophy unfolded in a story that interests, and with an underlying preachment that is timely and valuable is found in "The Shepherd of the Hills". This drama is a picturization of Harold Bell Wright's ever living novel of the same name. Beneath the surface of the story in which there is a quantity of heart interest and dramatic possibilities there is a message that cannot help but find a responsive chord in the hearts of theatre-goers. The some qualities that made the novel read and enjoyed by millions will make the photo-play stand long as a drawing attraction. The scene of the play is laid in the Ozark Mountains where our so-called civilization has not yet spread its refining but everuating influences. A father resolves to blot out as much as possible the sin of his artist son, leaves his life of ease and elegance to come among these people. Among the hills and in the woods, he can drop the carping practicalities of life and can listen to the wind, Nature's only voice, as it sings to him its song of ideals, of beauty and of strength. Its message he transmits to the people about him. He does not preach the gospel of good but acts its commandments. As a result he brings peace where there was unrest, forgiveness where there was a spirit of revenge, love where there was hate. Throughout this play there is no effort at sermonizing, yet as in a crystal it shows the things that are really big and worth while. It lays out again the battle lines of the old fight of the city against the country and then launches the idea that there are certain men whom the Creator intended to live in the city and to thrive among its artificialities, and some men who were intended to live only in the hills and in the woods, some who could live the life of men and be men no matter where placed. It gives the lesson that fundamental principles of rights and ideals, that sometimes seem to another among the concrete things of life must in the end triumph. That only truth, justice and beauty can remain alive in the survival of the fittest,--truly great subject matter for a photo-play and one well worth seeing. Monday and Tuesday, January 17th and 18th. Matinee daily. 2a

Recruiting has not yet started, but when it does we are sure no difficulty will be found in securing the required number of men.

Mrs. U. M. Wilson "At Home".

On Wednesday and Thursday afternoons of this week, Mrs. U. M. Wilson was "At Home" to a number of friends, about fifty ladies calling on each day. Mrs. Wilson looked very charming in a handsome gown of orchid taffeta with overdrape of cream and orchid ninon, beaded in pearls. Mrs. (Dr.) J. W. Campbell, of Kingston, received with the hostess, and looked extremely well in a becoming dress of pale mauve silk. Both ladies wore pink roses fastened at their girdles, and pink Russell roses were arranged in vases and bowls about the drawing rooms.

The guests were admitted by little Miss Celestine Daly, who was very sweet in a dainty white frock with pale blue ribbons. The ladies were ushered to the tea room by Mrs. J. G. Daly. Here again the color scheme was pink and white. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. J. E. Robinson who poured tea, and Mrs. H. E. Smith, who cut ices. In the soft glow shed by the pink candles, the centre piece of Russell roses and ferns was a pretty sight indeed, delicious cakes and sandwiches were arranged conveniently, and were served by the following young ladies:—Miss Dorothy Robinson, Miss Dorothy Smith, Miss Gladys Trumpour, Miss Frances Coleman and Miss Mildred Roblin. On Thursday afternoon Mrs. A. E. Paul also assisted.

New Zealand is one of the most interesting countries of modern civilization. It has been aptly called the "nation without strikes". Thinkers and writers the world over have pointed with pride to the wonderful and efficient form of government in New Zealand. It has been said that New Zealand is far ahead of the times in modern legislation.

The big brainy men of New Zealand—men like Charles Henry Poole, have brought to that famous little country a system of laws which have won the world's admiration. Somehow has said that New Zealand is the government pattern-maker of the world.

Charles Henry Poole, is an influential member of the New Zealand Parliament. For years he has represented the important district of West Auckland. He is a man of force and power, a speaker with earnest convictions, an orator who sways the masses through the sheer power of his eloquence. He has made an exhaustive study of the life and government of his native New Zealand. He has also had opportunity to study America, having been here on several different occasions in public work. In his great lecture "America and New Zealand", he goes into the relationship of these two nations and draws some interesting comparisons. His appearance here is creating considerable comment for his talk is something new in the local lecture series. 2a Wemp, accompanied him and will spend a few days there.—Mrs. James Stevenson is visiting with her son, Robert Stevenson.—The Mr. formed in the harbor again during the last cold spell.—On Friday night, the ladies of St. John's Church met at the home of Mr. H. D. Wemp to present Mr. Grant Wemp with a purse, on his leaving Bath to the Bloor and Yonge Branch of the Royal Bank, Toronto. Mr. Wemp who has been two years in the Bath Branch, was a general favorite, and will be much missed from the village. The St. John's Sunday School also holds him in presentation of a gold mounted fountain pen, and all the young people came to bid him good bye and wish him luck, finishing up with an impromtu dance.

BICKNELL'S CORNERS.

She leaves to mourn her loss three sons and two daughters. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family in the loss of a kind mother and good neighbor.

NAPANEE TO HAVE SECTION OF SIGNAL SERVICE BATTALION

It has been decided to organize a Telegraph Section of No. 3 Signal Company, in Napanee.

Lieut. Bradley, a very capable Officer and an expert telegraphist, will command this section with the rank of Captain. This Officer has seen extensive service overseas and the section is undoubtedly in very capable hands.

The section will be composed of specialists as of course all ranks of the Signal Service are. The section will be about 40 strong and will consist of telegraphers, motor cycle despatch riders and drivers, etc.

It should be a great draw for the intelligent young man as it is something worth while, the instruction he will gain will help him in his civilian life and is something different to the humdrum of ordinary soldiering.

Capt. S. A. Lee, M.C., District Signalling Officer, M.D. No. 3, will be in Napanee shortly to commence organizing.

Anyone interested can get information from Lieut. Bradley, and he will be pleased to take the names of any who desire to join. Previous experience is unnecessary as beginners will be taught.

PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION

On Tuesday evening the Town Council passed the By-law establishing a Public Utilities Commission its third and final reading and passed the same. On Wednesday the three that compose that Commission were duly sworn in. They met in the evening and in accordance with the Act, Mr. J. E. Robinson and Mr. F. Roy east lots as to which one would serve two years. This resulted in Mr. E. J. Roy being the one that is destined to fill the office for 1921 and 1922. Mr. J. E. Robinson was elected Chairman of the Commission, and Mr. E. J. Roy as Secretary.

Later in the evening the Commission met with the Fire, Water and Light Committee of the Town and Messrs. J. R. and Arthur Dafoe and went thoroughly into the recommendations which the Engineers have made as to what is necessary to be done to put the pumping plant into first class condition. This work will be proceeded with at just as early a date as complete plans and specifications can be prepared. When the work is finished (which by the way will take most of the summer) Napanee will have as perfect and efficient a Waterworks Plant as any town could desire.

Besides that the present revenue when all the work is completed will take care of all payments of interest and principal after paying cost of operation. Result will be that the Town will own their entire plant free of all debt in thirty years.

A PLEA FOR THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

At the last annual meeting of the Public Library Board, a resolution was passed, authorizing the librarian to solicit subscriptions to the efforts to make their own selection of books. As this new rule might cause some confusion in the evening, it will not be present be in force only in the afternoon. It is to be hoped that the members will find this privilege to their advantage and that it will be used with care and discretion.

It may not be generally known that the most of the books in the library are in the west room and are open at all times to the inspection of the members who may at their leisure select any book they see fit and peruse it or take it away by having it entered upon the membership card. The new rule opens up for the first time the works of fiction to the same privilege during the afternoon only.

The Board has purchased a great many books dealing with all phases of the war. Most of these will be found in the Miscellaneous section in the West room. The Library is not patronized as well as it should be. Many of the best books are rarely taken from the shelves. During these long evenings lots of people are needless and seeking means of entertainment. The Library provides that means and an intellectual treat as well. There is much in Napanee of the surrounding country that would not afford the nominal fee of one cent.

Although books have advanced in price fifty per cent., the Board has not advanced the membership fee and that every family can afford to avail themselves of the privilege of using thousands of dollars worth of books for the trifling sum of one dollar. It is to be hoped that the Library will this year receive a more liberal patronage than in the past. It is the one institution of the town that is prepared to give to every citizen the greatest benefit at the least possible cost.

HOCKEY.

The opening game of the Napanee Hockey Association was played on Monday evening, at the covered Rink between Gibbards and the Bankers, and resulted in a tie game, each team registering two goals.

For the first game it was a corker and the spectators had plenty of opportunity to cheer their teams on. Gibbards were the favorites and many were of the opinion before the game that it would be a walk over for them, but they were greatly mistaken as the Bankers checked them closely, and their fast pace, McNeil, Huffman and Loucks, seldom got far. Gibbards too were persistent checkers and both Leon and Percy Spencer found it hard to get away for any rushes. The first period was both exciting and strenuous and there were many little infractions of the rules which escaped the referee's eye, and a couple of fist fights helped to keep the spectators on their toes.

The Bankers were the first team to score. Clarence Young doing the trick from inside the defense. Gibbards evened up the score on a shot from Gerald Johnston during a scrimmage in front of the Bankers' goal. Owing to a misunderstanding on the part of the time-keeper the first period was allowed to go on for 25 minutes, and both teams were about all in when the bell sounded.

In the second period, Gibbards forced on a fluke shot of McNeil's, and the Bankers tied it up again on a combination rush by Clarence Young and Young, the former netting the puck.

In the last period both teams had numerous chances to score, but the good work of the goal tenders saved seemingly possible scores. Babcock, in goal for the Bankers, left his goal repeatedly and only for the poor shooting of the opponents, the score would have been different.

Neither team displayed much combination, as the checking was too close. Freddie Huffman, with his poke check, played a great game for Gibbards and was indeed a hard man to stop. For the Bankers Clarence Young was a star, his back checking breaking up many of Gibbards' rushes. The substitutes were good and the frequent changes kept both teams travelling at a very fast pace though not the game. Practices will make both much better and their next appearance should be a lively game as both teams love each other as was evidenced by their checking.

The following is the line-up:—

Gibbards—Goal, R. Huffman; Defence, F. Loucks and McNeil; Centre, F. Huffman; Wings, Pybus and Richardson; Subs., G. Johnston and H. Johnston.

Referee—W. McLaughlin.

Mayor M. P. Graham had the honor of facing the puck. Only a fair crowd were on hand, but the boys display this brand of hockey, there is no reason why there should not turn out to the next game.

On Friday night next Gibbards and the Town team book up. The Town team is the dark horse and looks to be the weakest, but their players are fighters or who have played the game before and will be heard from before the season is over.

Be sure and come up to the rink tonight. The game starts at 7.30 p.m., and there will be plenty of room to skate after the game. Season tickets can be secured from any of the players, good for the twelve league games.

She traced the development of women's influence in the home, also other places, helping in a good Christian work in public life and put down the evils of liquor and cigarette smoking by the young men and boys of our country.

TOWN COUNCIL

Council met in regular session on Tuesday evening, Mayor Graham presiding.

Members present — Reeve Boyes, and Councillors Steacy, Hartman, Roblin, Wilson, Paul and Ming.

The minutes of the inaugural session were read and on motion were confirmed.

A communication was received from the Chamber of Commerce, Brantford, advocating the refusal to allow weekly shows of the carnival type to show in Brantford and other towns and cities, and asking for an expression of opinion from the Town of Napanee. Ordered filed, the the Mayor will reply to same.

Councillor Roblin, Chairman of the Streets Committee, presented the following report:—

Your Committee have considered the following questions:

1st. The question of making an inspection and securing a report on the present condition of sewer, gas and water services to each property on Main street.

2nd. The question of purchasing a new road roller with scarifier attachment.

In reference to the first question your Committee have discussed same with Mr. Grange, Town Clerk, and have arrived at the following conclusions.

To secure the necessary information and report if it would be advisable to employ an engineer.

That when this report be received your Committee be authorized to notify each property owner to inspect it is necessary, that by May 1st the required services for gas, water and sewer must be made.

That in case the said property owners prefer that the town do the work for them, then the cost of such work might have been different for separate properties and be collected as a special item on their tax bills.

That in case any property owner fails to do the said work within the time mentioned, or does not notify the Council that they prefer that the town do the work for them, then your Committee be authorized, without further notice, to do the work and charge the cost of same as proposed.

In reference to the question of the purchase of a new road roller with scarifier attachment, your Committee are of the opinion,

That in repairing the surface of Macadam roads it has been clearly demonstrated that it is necessary to break up the entire surface of the road.

That the only economical method of breaking up the surface of a road is by the use of a scarifier.

That with the use of a scarifier and light resurfacing each year our roads could be maintained at a very small cost. That practically all our roads could be maintained in this way and the work be done in a very short time.

That the cost of such a machine could be spread over five years, and the amount appropriated each year for same would easily be collected enough to carry the yearly payments.

We would therefore recommend that your Committee be authorized to negotiate with manufacturers of this type of machine, on the subject, in view of exchanging our present roller for a new and heavier roller with scarifier attachment, and to report to Council as to the best deal that can be made.

On motion the report was adopted.

A By-law appointing the Public Utilities Commission was read a third time and finally passed.

A By-law appointing Mr. Geo. A. Cliff as Assessor for the year 1921, at a salary of $300.00, was passed.

Moved by Councillor Ming, seconded by Councillor Steacy, that the Clerk write the proper authorities, entering a complaint that a G. T. R. freight train blocks the Bridge road crossing every Sunday morning, about 10 o'clock or shortly after, thus preventing people from attending church. Carried.

Moved by Reeve Boyes, seconded by Councillor Ming, that the Town Property Committee be authorized to have the first floor in the Town Hall, as well as the stairway steps, painted. Carried.

Moved by Councillor Hartman, seconded by Councillor Wilson, that the Clerk write Mr. C. Grass, asking him to take care of the water that falls from his building on Dundas Street pavement. Carried.

ACCOUNTS.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Winter Haven, Fla., January, 1921.

Editor of The Beaver.

Dear Mr. Editor,—I want to tell you and the readers of your paper something more about this land where the sun always shines and the flowers are always in bloom. This is my third letter here and third letter to you. In evidence that the other two were read with interest by many of your subscribers, I have had very many personal letters from them, from far distant places, asking for information on several points that I had not touched in my letter to you.

I arrived here October 5th and found my groves looking very fine, having grown during my absence through the summer to such an extent that I could hardly realize they were the same trees. But the fruit crop was not so good; oranges not more than 60 per cent. of normal, and grape fruit but little over 30 per cent. However, the price has been good, and I think the financial result will be all that I could ask for.

The week before I arrived my man had set out a few tomato plants; sowed the seed for raddish, lettuce, beets, turnips, peppers and other garden truck. On the 15th of December I picked some fine ripe tomatoes from those plants referred to above. We had been using the raddish, lettuce and turnips for some time previous, and I have been selling right along ever since, at the following prices:—turnips, 2 in a bunch, for 10c.; tomatoes, from 15c. to 25c. per lb.; lettuce, 15c. to 25c. per head; onions, 10c. per bunch; sweet potatoes, from 5c. to 8c per lb. Keeping an accurate account of what has been sold (besides what three families have used) has demonstrated to me that from such soil as I have, $2000.00 per acre could be made in twelve months with very little labor. I will tell you that there never was a hoe or cultivator through this garden but once from the time it was planted to the present time, nor was any of it ever thinned out. On the 10th of December my man planted a fresh lot of onions, raddish, cabbage, lettuce, and set out some strawberry plants. To-day they were hoed for the first. We pulled some raddish and onions to eat and sell, and some of the strawberry plants are in bloom, and while you people are wending your way up street through a snow blizzard in your furs, we will be in our garden picking strawberries for our evening meal.

I have spent many a moment in wondering why so few people know of this wonderful and lovely country, for if they did they surely would be living here, and there is room for millions; for there are millions of acres in the State, as nature made it, with a very small percentage that is not good for some purpose. There is not a very large area of soil and climate that is perfection for citrus culture; in fact, it is very limited with the Winter Haven and Indian River districts at the head for quantity and quality of fruit and immunity from frosts, and this is the reason why groves of oranges or grape fruit sell for nearly double the price per acre sent to other parts of the State. To show you that I am not the only Northerner who is dead in love with this town, climate and country, I am enclosing an article written by E. H. Guy, to the Florida Chief, Winter Haven's weekly paper, and if you will print it at the end of this, it will probably take up more room than you wish to spare in one edition; although as I have stated before, I feel your subscribers will be pleased to read what he has to say of this section. The Doctor has settled upon a place not very far from me, and within a mile of the centre of town, facing a beautiful lake. He and his family are all delighted with their new home.

Wishing you all the compliments and the prosperity of the present year,

I am, sincerely yours,
W. R. MEMBERY.

A FINE AND WORTHY COMPLIMENT FOR WINTER HAVEN AND COMMUNITY.

Frank Senn, Secretary of the Board of Trade, received the following letter from Mr. E. H. Guy, who was one of the members of the recent "Coachman Party" travelling over our wonderful Ridge section in Polk county. Mr. Guy says:

Secretary Board of Trade,
Winter Haven, Florida.

Dear Sir:—

I made a trip to your little city a few days ago, and was so impressed with it, and its possibilities that I have been at my partner, Mr. Spitzer, to come to your place, and put in a Paint and Trimming Shop, also Upholstering. How well I shall succeed I am unable to say. I had somewhat talk with two of your garage men, and it seems it might be hard for us to get quarters sufficiently large enough to carry on a business of this kind, as regards to this may trouble you later.

I just wrote a letter to my people in the north, and am going to take the liberty of quotting to you the part of my letter pertaining to Winter Haven.

You will pardon me for the few lines I wrote of Pensacola, as I did not do it to knock. Pensacola is a fine place to live in the summer, but just a little to cool in winter.

Thanking you for intruding on your time, I am,

Very truly,
E. H. GUY.

His Letter To his Friend.

We took a side trip to Winter Haven, the most beautiful spot the Lord ever made that it has been my privilege to see. It is in Polk county, and there are over 100 lakes in the county; most of them, it seems to me, are in the vicinity of Winter Haven. I don't know as I can paint a picture in your mind of it. However, imagine a little city of four or five thousand nestled in among the hills, that is high as the ones at Quinby or Cass, but just enough to hold water to make lakes. I would say there are five or six roads leading out through the country all paved, every half mile a beautiful lake with the prettiest shore line you can imagine. Live oak with moss hanging to the water edge. The beauty must be seen to be appreciated. However, you can draw some conclusion from the drive at Lake Jackson, where we took dinner on our way to Tallahassee, when you were here. There are also palms, and other vegetation which adds to the beauty. All around on the hillsides are groves of oranges and grapefruit loaded until the branches touch the ground or are propped up. As many as six as large grapefruit as you ever saw hanging on one little twig. At one place we drove through a grove of 1,000 acres. At another place as much as three miles, I would say, out of the city we drove quite a ways through a grove, and came out on the bank of a beautiful lake, looked like a park around part of the sides and end. There were several homes, and I understand they are owned by New York men, so you can imagine how they look. Out of town the other way is a beautiful place, orange grove on one side and lake on the other side the lawn leads down to a lake, and they told us the man who owns it has gone further south to have a nicer one. I would like to see it.

I think Winter Haven is where you will have a chance to erect a monument over my remains unless I should go before I figure I will, as I have been looking all my life for a place to live, and now I have found a place that would suit me to die in. So much for Winter Haven where the natural moonbeams where the lakes are lined with live oaks and the sunrays gleam.

We also went to Bartow. They told us a great many did not see these two places as they are off the main road.

DeLand and Sanford is where they raise celery and lettuce. Pretty fields of lettuce.

We crossed the St. John's river at DeLand. It was full of hyacinth. Want to impress on your readers that Winter Haven has what the rest has, and then some.

Well, when we were within three miles of Daytona, we commenced to see tropical beauty. I will not try to describe the beauty of this spot, but I did tell a man at Quincy that if I could put Daytona where the town of Winter Haven stands I would have the prettiest spot in the United States. A gentleman who heard me, said I would have the beauty spot of the world. Said he had been abroad.

Well, we are back here in dear old Pensacola, where it rains water when it rains, where the land is filled with sand spurs, and is dry, its fields of grains. Take me back to Winter Haven where the soft wind blows where the night is filled with fragrance by the blooming of the rose.

Well girls, I am beginning to feel poetical, and if I don't quit I may get a spell.

DEAD VETERAN'S FATHER MADE POSTMASTER.

George Fenwick, Succeeds Sidney W. Wagar at the Enterprise Office.

It is officially announced by the Postoffice Department that George Fenwick has been appointed postmaster for the Village of Enterprise, in place of Sidney D. Wagar, who resigned that post. The appointment is a very popular one, as Mr. Fenwick is very popular in that community. The new postmaster has been in failing health for some time, and it is only by his life, but on account of his health he had been forced to sell his farm and seek some other position. His son, the late Lance Corporal Fenwick was killed while serving with the 21st Battalion, at Arras, in 1918. For distinguished service, Lance Corporal Fenwick was awarded the distinguished conduct medal. His father thought that if his boy was spared to return, he could carry on the farm.

TRADE OUTLOOK REVIEWED AT ROYAL BANK ANNUAL MEETING.

The announcements made at the annual meeting of The Royal Bank of Canada had a particular bearing on the outlook for Canadian trade and industry, in which they become of special interest.

Banks are not only the custodians of the savings of the people, but the agency by which the business of the country is carried on. Banks, while the mainspring of trade, cannot prosper unless trade prospers, and so any expression of these institutions become a reflex of general conditions. In this sense the recently closed marked a general prosperity throughout Canada. Interest is centered, however, less in what has been than in what is to be. We know that the turning of the road has been reached, that prices have declined, and that confidence cannot longer be felt that purchase of goods at the current price assures sale at a later higher price. Sir Herbert Holt, the President, and Mr. Edson L. Pease, the managing director, touched on this subject, and in doing so were able to establish from the accounts that through the period of contraction the bank has given a helping hand to its clients. No other proof of the policy than an increase of $40,000,000 in current loans at the end as compared with the beginning of the year need be cited. And in this connection it is to be observed, as Sir Herbert Holt emphasized, that the sanctity of contracts is the very basis of stable trade. Credit is sensitive. It is the motive power of commodity exchange; without credit a business calamity would fall; and while not fatal, the repudiation of contracts begins to destroy that confidence called credit upon which confidence is founded.

The addresses at the Royal Bank meeting are instructive and very comprehensive. Few features of the world-wide situation have been overlooked. Matters specific in respect of certain trade, and matters in the large are touched upon, and from the retrospect Sir Herbert Holt turned to the prospect. He was no soul for pessimism, but he does not ignore facts. We may not have reached the end of reaction in prices. Further liquidation is inevitable. The United States, moved by similar conditions to those which prevail in Canada, sets the pace because of its greater immensity, diversity and influence. Economic history for many decades has proved that as the United States sets the pace, so will Canada follow. In that country the bound upward preceded the like movement in Canada, and in that country the contraction began first to occur, and to quote the language of Sir Herbert: "I see no change from the common level." This is to say, we in Canada must lapse in prices as the American level, and having yet done so the recession with us is not completed. The encouraging view is that in the United States business is reaching rock bottom, that the reaction will not long deferred, and the hopeful fact is that Canada is not to be paralleled in the course of its neighbor without serious distress or impairment of the natural resources upon which its sure foundation rests.

"The great and good Socrates was married to a scold. Otherwise, perhaps, he would have spent more time at home and less time in the market place finding fault with the Athenian government.

"This thought occurred to me at a school, where I asked a bright little girl:

"How did Socrates die?"

"He died," the little girl replied, "from a dose of wedlock."

National Chorus CONDUCTOR

Dr. Albert Ham of Toronto, conductor of the famous National Chorus, says, —"PEPs are excellent, and you are at liberty to publish this expression of my opinion."

Madam Clara Butt, writing on behalf of herself and husband, Mr. Kennerley Rumford, says,—"We have formed the very highest opinion of PEPs after using them regularly for some considerable time. They are quite unique in their invigorating effect upon the throat and chest."

PEPs strike directly at the seat of lung and throat trouble. As they dissolve, they release rich, healing pine fumes, which are breathed down right to the lungs. Cough mixtures, syrups, etc., only go to the stomach.

For hoarseness, sore throat, coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma and all ailments of the throat, chest, and lungs, PEPs are best. Sold in tin boxes. 50c. box, all druggists and stores, or postpaid from PEPs Co., Toronto, Winnipeg, or Montreal.

PAINS SO BAD 'STAYED IN BED

Young Mrs. Beecroft Had Miserable Time Until She Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Hamilton, Ont.—"I have suffered for three years from a female trouble and consequent weakness, pain and irregularity which kept me in bed four or five days each month. I nearly went crazy with pains in my back, and for about a week at a time I could not do my work. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the Hamilton Spectator and I took it. Now I have no pain and am quite regular unless I overwork or stay on my feet from early morning until late at night. I keep house and do all my own work without any trouble. I have recommended the Compound to several friends."—Mrs. EMILY BEECROFT, 269 Victoria Ave. N., Hamilton, Ontario.

For forty years women have been telling how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored their health when suffering with female ills. This accounts for the enormous demand for it from coast to coast. If you are troubled with any ailment peculiar to women why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? It is made from native roots and herbs and contains no narcotics or harmful drugs.

For special advice women are asked to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of forty years experience is at your service.

Fifty-Second Annual Meeting of the Royal Bank of Canada

Sir Herbert Holt, President, Stated That Considering the Times, Canadians Are a Fortunate People — Government Ownership of Railways and Fleet More Expensive Than Pension Charges and Other Legacies of War.

Edson L. Pease, Vice-President and Managing Director, Points Out That Business is Being Brought Down to a New and Sounder Basis — Foreign Branches Important Factor in Building Up Foreign Trade of the Dominion.

C. E. Neill, General Manager, Reviews Most Successful Year in History of the Bank — Total Assets Now Stand at $594,670,013, an Increase For the Year of $61,022,928.

The fifty-second annual meeting of the Royal Bank of Canada marked the close of the most successful year in the history of the bank, and was also featured by a number of interesting announcements by Sir Herbert Holt, the president, and Edson L. Pease, vice-president and managing director.

"The past year has been one of unusual developments throughout the world, and many problems have naturally developed for the larger banks. Sir Herbert Holt made a particular reference to the situation in Canada at the present time, and touched on what the bank considered to be the outlook. In discussing this subject, Sir Herbert said:

"The position of Canada is fundamentally sound. Considering the times, we are a fortunate people. No nation has escaped the aftermath of the war, and throughout the world there is disturbance or unrest. In China, famine spreads desolation, confusion and terror reign in Russia, while Europe is grappling with complex problems. Even in progressive Japan, industry is paralyzed. Contrast this with our condition. Our crops are the most valuable in our history, even at the reduced prices obtainable; bank deposits have doubled since 1913; most merchants have set-aside reserves in the years of plenty to tide them over a lean period, and a great part of the bonded indebtedness of the country is held within the Dominion. Moreover, our friendship and cordial relations with our neighbor render unnecessary the expenditure of armaments which is strangling Europe. Unemployment is less, and business failures are fewer, comparatively, than in the United States, and when our war debt liquidation is over, we should be among the first to enter upon a new era of stable prosperity."

High Cost of Government Operation.

Sir Herbert also dealt with the Government control and pointed out the tremendous load that is now being inflicted upon the country through the ownership and operation of railways. Discussing the question of Government control, Sir Herbert said:

"Government control has practically disappeared during the year just past—wheat, paper and sugar being the commodities to be freed from regulations. Government ownership of transportation systems has developed. Without any advantage to the public in efficiency or rates, the operation of our national railways during the past twelve months has resulted in a loss which will probably more than absorb the amounts collected as excess profits and income taxes for the year 1919. Nowhere can the percentage has improved, and will probably be 58 per cent. this fiscal year. Our exports last year were notably supported by sales of lumber, pulp and paper. On the other hand, the consumption of those articles for the supply of which we are largely dependent upon the United States, is increasing with the growth of the country. Iron and steel products imported during the six months ending September were of about the same value as those for the entire fiscal year 1913, viz.: $130,000,000. The year's purchases of cotton and its products in the United States were $70,000,000, compared with $17,000,000; automobiles, 11,000 as against 8,000; $12,500,000 worth of automobile parts as compared with less than a million dollars. We consumed 300,000,000 gallons of United States petroleum, gasoline and lubricating oils, as against 190,000,000 in 1913."

In summing up the general situation in Canada, Mr. Pease said:

"In summing up the general business situation, while I feel that casual optimism is out of place, and that we ought all to recognize the fact that business is being brought down to a new and sounder basis, I think that undue pessimism is just as bad as the other extreme. However the difficulties we have to face in the near future, the fundamentals of Canada's position are sound, granted that the Canadian people work hard and exercise reasonable economy."

Best Year in History.

C. E. Neill, the general manager, in reviewing the statement for the past year, said:

"The statement submitted to you today records another year of substantial growth. The total assets of the bank are now $594,670,013.43, an increase of $61,022,928.50 for the year. Total deposits are $458,011,387.62, the growth being $61,463,220.74.

"It will be noted that there is a shrinkage in free deposits, which is accounted for by the fact that on November 30th, 1919, we had large special deposits in connection with subscriptions to the Victory Loan.

"The substantial increase in interest-bearing deposits is a particularly satisfactory feature, inasmuch as deposits of this class to a considerable extent represent the savings of the people.

"The note circulation of the bank continues to expand.

"An increase of no less than $52,951,830 in current loans is the result of our policy of affording legitimate assistance to clients of the bank during a period of great trade expansion. The percentage of current loans to total assets of the bank is now 48.16.

Revaluation of Assets.

"The substantial reduction in our holding of Government securities is due chiefly to repayment of loans granted to the Imperial Government for war purposes.

"In view of the heavy demands made on us by commercial borrowers, it is satisfactory to note that the liquid position of the bank is well maintained; liquid assets being 50.50 per cent. of liabilities to the public, our actual cash and deposits in the bank being over 30 per cent. of our total liabilities.

"I desire to draw particular attention to the fact that in addition to writing off all bad debts, the full-est provision has been made for any loans of a doubtful character.

"In view of existing conditions, a particularly careful revaluation of the assets of the bank has been made, and it is gratifying to know that our position is a very satisfactory one. In this connection I wish to draw special attention to the fact that the loans of the bank are very widely distributed and that we have no unusually large individual advances of any kind on our books."

WISE AND OTHERWISE

"I just got fired."
"What for?"
"For good."

Corns disappear when treated with Holloway's Corn Remover without leaving a scar.

Teacher—What, Oscar, is the Ancient Order of the Bath?

Young Oscar (puzzled)—I dunno; Johnny usually comes first, then Willie, then the baby.

Peevish, pale, restless, and sickly children owe their condition to worms Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator will relieve them and restore health.

Teacher—You remember the story of Daniel in the lion's den, Robbie?

Robbie—Yes, ma'am.

Teacher—What lesson do we learn from it?

Robbie—That we shouldn't eat everything we see.

The Poor Man's Friend.—Put up in small bottles that are easily portable and sold for a very small sum, Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil possesses power in concentrated form. Its cheapness and the varied uses to which it can be put make it the poor man's friend. No dealer's stock is complete without it.

Bacon—I see one of the National League pitchers is going to act in the movies.

Egbert—Think he'll make a hit?

Bacon—He sure will if they let him throw the pies.

Miller's Worm Powders save the medicine for children who are found suffering from the ravages of worms. They immediately alter the stomachic conditions under which the worms subsist and drive them from the system, and, at the same time, they are tonical in their effect upon the digestive organs, restoring them to healthful peristalsis and giving immunity from further disorders from such a cause.

"You don't attach much importance to the applause an actor receives?"

"Not much," admitted Senator Sorghum. "There is bound to be applause. You can't expect an audience to sit still all evening and do absolutely nothing."

"The storm burst upon us so suddenly we had no warning of its approach," related the tornado victim. "In an instant the house was demolished and scattered to the four winds. Here I escaped being hurt to pieces, do not know how."

"Good Lord!" ejaculated little Willie. "That reminds me. I almost forgot to do an errand for my wife this morning."

The Beauty of a Clear Skin.—The condition of the liver regulates the condition of the blood. When disordered liver causes impurities in the blood and these show themselves in pimples on the skin. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills in acting upon the liver act upon the blood and a clear, healthy skin will follow intelligent use of this standard medicine. Ladies, you will fully appreciate this prime quality of these pills, one use them and the certainty that the effect will be most gratifying.

"Why so melancholy, old man?"

"Miss Brown rejected me last night."

"Well, brace up; there are others."

"You're no judge of beauty."

"Why?"

"No; this is not the most beautiful infant in the baby show by long odds."

"My eye for beauty is all right. Have you seen the baby's mother?"

"No."

"Take a look at her."

"Who is the indignant caller?"

"One of our prominent citizens," said the editor of The Times-Clarion, "who gave an interview to our local reporter and expressly stipulated that his name must not appear in print."

"Then it evidently got into the paper."

"Yes, and he's mad because it was spelled wrong."

Mr. Gladstone, according to the recently-published biography of Herbert Bernbohm Tree, the English actor, once came onto the stage after the play and asked Mr. Tree as to the political opinions of the theatrical world.

"Conservative, on the whole," was the answer, "but," he added hastily, as he saw a darkening in his distinguished visitor's face, "the conservatives are Radical almost to a man. They parted firm friends.

PLAIN TALK NO. 3

Dear People,—

'Tis possible to fool some of the people all the time and all of the people some of the time, but when a person tries to fool everybody all the time, it's a sure sign somebody is subject to temporary attacks of insanity.

Now folks, we are fairly smart ourselves. We don't have to prove it, we just admit it; others will tell you, for we are without doubt a pair of smooth guys. We will half-sole your shoes just as neat as any man and in about half the time. Try us out, for although we don't want everybody's work, we do want yours, and can do it right, for we don't ask anyone to leave their boots with us. We are too anxious to get the money, and will do them while you wait if necessary. We also put on Rubber Soles for $1.00. These soles are invisible and put an end to slippery sidewalks. Skates sharpened, concaved and oil finished, 25c. We cordially invite you to look over our work and to sit down and rest while you are in town.

You may speak as you like of the weather,
Or the beautiful birds that sing,
But when you are down on your uppers
Just keep on smiling till spring.

We know its just the real thing,
Besides that, our work is unequalled
So to us your shoe repairs bring.

We'll do you a job that worth notice,
For we can fix any old thing;
To satisfy tinker or tailor
For we have done work for the king.

Rose Brothers' Re-Union.

An event quite out of the ordinary occurred last Sunday morning, Jan. 9th, in Deloraine, Manitoba, when all the Rose Brothers, four in number, came into Union Church together, the first time since they were boys or young men in old historic Switzerville, Lennox County, Ontario, the oldest Methodist Church then in use, and where the first Methodist Conference was held. There they always went with their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Rose, and filled up the family pew, brought up to attend regularly the services of God's House, from which they have never departed. Robert A., of Seattle, Wash.; James M., of Deloraine; Nelson D., of Napinka, Man., and Geo. A., also of Deloraine. They are all past middle life, in fairly good health and looking vigrie for their years, although hard working, men of integrity and not easily turned aside from what they felt to be right. They have been for years officials of the church they love, never aspiring to de wonderful things but to do faithfully the things at hand. Long may they be spared to enjoy life and show by their consistent living that it is worth while to walk uprightly.

PLAY, TO BEAT FATHER TIME

New York Physician's Advice to Those Who May Be Conscious of the Passing Years.

Don't grow old—or rather, though you grow old as far as years are concerned, do not get old otherwise. It is easy to stay young, according to Dr. Louis R. Weltmiller, physical director of West Side Y. M. C. A. He avers that most people grow old because they cease doing young things; not because they need new glands.

"A man is young," said this doctor, "because he plays; he doesn't play because he is young. He is the product of his own actions. The old man who sits down after dinner, grouchy because the children make a noise, has already 'passed on.' He ought to be Osterized. All he is worth to the family is the pay check he brings home.

"But look at mother, who plays games with the children, sympathizes with them in their troubles and has a part in all they do. She remains flexible; she hasn't had time to grow old.

"It is dangerous for some men to retire from business. You know the kind who work at high tension for long years, doing nothing but strive for money. They get it and then announce their retirement; a little later you read a nice obituary saying what a success they had made. They hadn't.

"To keep young one must do young things. Don't be too dignified to play baseball, old cat, leapfrog or other lively things which keep the muscles in trim. Have young associates—and be a boy with them. Spend time each day studying to be young. Fish, hunt, golf, if you like it, and don't cry quits the first time a muscle twinges; get into the game harder and go to the gym to work out the ache, or play with the kids until you forget it.

"Take youth with you as you go toward the old age. You can lead Father Time a merry race by thinking young, playing young and keeping physically fit."—New York Sun.

Food Plentiful in the Woods.

It is said Daniel Boone could take his rifle and a bag of salt and live in comfort on what the woods provided. Several men on wagers have gone into the forest virtually naked and worked out a living and suitable clothing equipment.

According to foresters of the New York State College of Forestry at Syracuse, it is still possible to live in the forests of the state, even without the use of the gauge which is so carefully protected, sufficient food to make life not only possible but pleasant, says the New York Evening Sun.

The forest food supply is divided into several groups such as fruits, nuts, herbs, roots and vegetables. And this makes no allowance for the types of edible mushrooms, for a special knowledge of varieties is necessary if one is not to be poisoned by the deadly toadstool.

An Author's Depository.

Last year the Sutro branch of the California State library, located in San Francisco, offered to authors a safe keeping the manuscripts of unfinished books. The idea has worked out so well that a substantial collection of manuscripts has been established, the collection being described as the Author's depository. One hundred authors have taken advantage of the offer and have sent their manuscripts, either printed or unprinted, finished or unfinished, to the depository, and letters from authors indicate that the depository is much appreciated by writers as a means of preserving valuable data that might otherwise become lost. A permanent author's depository is also maintained in the California department of the state library, which is located at Sacramento.

His Size.

John's expenditures at college had grown to be of such dimensions that father demanded they be decreased. To help out in this he required an itemized account of all money spent for same. So when John wished a dog as several of the other elite collegians had, he had to send in this request: "For one bulldog with a pedigree, $25."

The answer came in due time. And besides the small check in the envelope was this note: "I am sending you $5. If you have to have something with a pedigree, buy a canary bird. It's about your size."

Simple Explanation of "Haunt"

The mystery of haunted houses often has a simple explanation. In Boston, where the occupants of a house insisted they heard mysterious sounds, it was found that a flue leading from the furnace leaked, filling the rooms with enough carbon monoxide to produce a slight poisoning, which affected the judgment and caused them to believe they heard mysterious noises. When the leak was discovered and repaired there were no longer records of the noises which had existed solely in the minds of persons affected by the gases.

Names "Wickedest Place."

"Fort Said still is the wickedest place on earth," said Brig. Gen. J. H. Barnes, returning out of Western civilet, in an address to soldiers at Cardiff, Wales.

"I knew Calcutta, Bombay and Madras better than I know London," he continued. "I have had to live in the worst for a quarter of a century, and I know what Cairo and Ismailia are; but I have seen more sin and apparent sense of sin in one hour in Port Said than in all the rest of my experience."

IN UNEQUAL FIGHT

Himalayan Bear's Foolish Combat With Stone.

Like Too Many Members of the Human Race, the Animal Is a Victim of His Unconquerable Obstinacy.

Most wild animals, it appears, are stupid as well as greedy and obstinate. But for sheer brainless obstinacy in the face of opposition there is, the best authorities contend, no animal like the Himalayan bear. If he finds a thing in his way he will always push it aside if he can, even though it would be easier to go around the obstacle.

The wily natives of India have observed that trait in his character and from it have contrived a trap to catch him. They select a tree with a suitable horizontal bough. At a point on the bough about ten or twelve feet from the fork they fasten a bait likely to attract the bear—honey, for example, or goat's flesh. Then from another bough above that one they suspend a heavy block of stone. The rope is so fastened to the upper bough that the stone hangs between the bait and the fork of the trees.

The bear scents the bait from a distance, comes to the tree, sees the food on the bough and climbs up the tree. Reaching the bough, he walks along it to get at the bait. But suddenly he comes the obstacle in his way and pushes it aside with his paw. The stone swings out of the way for a second; then it swings back and hits the bear on the paw. With a growl of irritation the bear pushes it aside more, violently. The stone swings away again; then it returns with greater force and hits the bear on the cheek.

With a snarl of rage the bear gives the stone a tremendous thrust and sends it up into the air in a wide curve. Then down comes the stone in a similar curve and hits the bear a thumping blow on the ribs.

Most animals would desist after that third blow; not so the bear. He is now in a perfectly mad rage, and a bear in a good temper. He hits out with his paws, right and left and sends the stone buffeting forward in a still wider curve. Then, after a few seconds, the stone comes back and hits the bear a terrific "uppercut" on the jaw.

But that the bear never went to school and learned the law of gravity. Every blow he hits the stone is returned tenfold. And as the stone insists on refusing to be knocked out, it is the bear that gets knocked out.

Then the wily natives hiding below in a net and throw the bear's prisoner. And that is how any "sport" or menagerie gets its Himalayan bear.

Co-operative Law Library.

An interesting experiment in library co-operation is being worked out in the Long Beach public library. Long Beach, Cal., forty-six attorneys of the city of Long Beach have sent law books from their private libraries to the public library for the purpose of forming a co-operative law library. These contributing books in this way are entitled to take books from the general public library, keeping them for a period of five days, and the general public is allowed to consult the books in the library. The books are marked, "Loaned to the Long Beach Public Library." None of the attorneys joining in the plan have each contributed as many as 200 books to the co-operative law library. It would seem that this idea might be worked out successfully in other lines of endeavor, thus making the resources found in books available to the largest possible number of people.

Nickel Money.

Nickels—which are really copper-nickel, being a mixture of the two metals—were first coined in this country to give encouragement to nickel mining, important deposits having been found in Pennsylvania.

Since then many other uses for the metal have been found, and at the present time 85 per cent of the world's supply of nickel is derived from the mines of the Sudbury district, in Canada, where the reserves of ore are enormous. Of the balance, France produces the bulk, contributing 11 per cent.

It has been suggested that Great Britain, practically controlling as she does the world's nickel, might switch from cheapened gold and make the entire metal the basis of her currency. —Philadelphia Ledger.

"Let's Pretend."

Everybody has things to put up with. There are sure to be ups and downs, and even days when everything seems so out of time that it only never be right again. To make home a happy place is the housewife's business, but unless she can at least appear happy herself she is not likely to make a success of it. The only thing to do, for if she has had her early training in the game of "let's pretend." Very few of us make the most of all the chances for happiness that come to us. It's a difficult thing to do. But we can all try to do so, and that is half the battle!—Washington Post.

HELGOLAND OF THE ADRIATIC

Island of Cherso Has Become Point of Importance on the New Map of Europe.

The Versailles conference set Americans searching the gazetteers for Yap; the San Remo conference turns the spotlight to another obscure island —Cherso.

"Practically unheard of on this side of the Atlantic, dwelling most travelers, even escaping many of the seekers after the little-known places of Europe, Cherso neither is inaccessible nor unattractive," says a bulletin from the National Geographic society. "It dangles like a pendant in the Gulf of Quarnero, low hung from the neck of Fiume. It is the Long Island of that port, its shore line rising 12 miles to the south of D'Annunzio's present stronghold. Its slender form extends to the southwest for 40 miles, though it never exceeds seven miles in width, and its area is somewhat more than twice that of the District of Columbia.

"Holding in mind this location, near the head of the Adriatic, in view of the tentative plans to make Fiume a buffer state between Italy and Jugo-Slavia, the strategic possibilities of Cherso become apparent. Indeed, one may picture it as a potential Heligoland of the Adriatic.

"Cherso lies off the shores of the northern part of Dalmatia and the Croatian littoral, a region formerly known as Morlachia. The Morlachian channel preserves this name, originating with the Slavic invaders of Dalmatia, who 'called the Latinized people they found there Vlachs, or Mavro-Vlache—black Vlachs.' Thus the Slavs of this region have come to be known, by a corruption of this title, as Morlachs.

"In rural districts Morlachian women retain their historic costume, which includes a kerchief for the head, many strands of beads, a waist band from which hang amulets and various trinkets, and, over a blue cloth gown, an apron of exquisite embroidered pattern. About her neck an unmarried girl wears a string of coins and rings which comprise her dowry. Formerly the men wore their hair in a plait, which their wives were expected to comb, adorn with ribbons and charms, and anoint with fats."

Massasoit Statue.

It is thought that the bronze statue of Massasoit which is to be presented to the town of Plymouth by the national organization of the Improved order of Red Men will be located on Watson's hill instead of Cole's hill, where some of the Pilgrims lie who died during the first winter after their arrival at Plymouth. This latter place is considered more appropriate than Cole's hill, as it was resorted by Indians and they not only lived there but had feasts, as remains have shown, while skeletons of the original inhabitants have been found. The name given for the place was Cantaugantaset. It was south of this hill the settlers first heard the Indians and on the east side of the hill they appeared to the people in the colony. It was there also they came from when Massasoit died. It was across Town brook to make the famous treaty with the whites.

Interested persons have been looking over the hill to ascertain what it offered for a site for the monument to the great Indian sachem, and there is at least one open lot which commands a fine view of the bay and town.

The Winner.

There are brides and brides and after all of them we often hear some one speak longingly of "the old-fashioned bride," but the other day we met one who certainly beat all the old-fashioned ones we had ever heard of. She was in a furniture store hunting the furniture to put in their new home. The clerk was vainly trying to talk her into buying some which she felt that they could not afford. As a particular inducement he said: "But really this is a wonderful bargain, you can't afford to let it go."

The girl smiled at him. "But I can't afford to buy it," she returned in a perfect good humor, "and besides I've got such a wonderful husband that I don't need other wonderful things—not even bargains."

Regrowing Legs.

A starfish, seized by one of its arms, surrenders this to the captor and escapes with the other four, regrowing the missing part at its infinite leisure. A starfish may jerk off each of its five arms seized in succession; it may cast off an injured or parasitized one; in rare cases there is multiplication by division. Sea cucumbers discharge their viscera in the spasms of torture and may thus escape from an astonished foe. The replacement of the food canal is sometimes accomplished in ten days though it may take as many weeks.

World's Laziest Town.

A little seaport in New Zealand, called Russell, was described as the sleepiest place in the world. Herbert Garrison, a lecturer, said residents of the town took life so easily that, although the fish were jumping out of the water asking to be caught, the people preferred to eat tinned salmon from British Columbia. Rather than be put to the trouble of milking their own cows, they imported condensed milk from Switzerland.

Air Travel to be Popular Soon.

Henry Ford says that Berlin, London and New York will, within a few years, be only a day apart. The Pacific will be crossed by air and transcontinental travel in light and speedy airships will be common within three to five years.

CARE OF VEGETABLES IN STORAGE.

(Experimental Farms Note.)

There is always much loss of vegetables from rotting or drying up during the winter, but with a little watchfulness and care much of this could be prevented.

This year the late blight of potatoes caused much rot, and many tubers were stored with the disease in them. It will be found to pay well to look over the potatoes from time to time if a winter's supply has been stored and remove those which show the disease or are rotting so that others will not be infected. It will not be long before the potatoes will begin to sprout, and if the sprouts are removed promptly the tubers will remain in much better condition than if they are allowed to grow long. It will be necessary to go over them two or three times or more before spring to remove sprouts. If potatoes are in boxes or bins where sprouts can be readily seen one is more likely to remove the sprouts in good time than if they are kept in bags.

If onions are rotting, put them in a drier place and spread out well. For best results they need to be kept very dry.

If carrots, beets, parsnips and turnips are withering, a good plan is to put them in boxes and keep a damp bag or piece of sacking over the top of the box. To keep well all these vegetables should, however, be stored where it is cool but not very dry.

If cabbages are rotting, keep the heads apart so they will not touch one another and so there will be a good circulation of air about them. While they should not be in a very dry place, yet one that is fairly dry is better than one that is inclined to be damp, particularly if it is rather warm and not well ventilated. They should be kept cool, but will not stand many degrees of frost.

Squash and pumpkins if kept in a cool place may have rotted by this time, but if they are still in good condition they will keep much longer if put in a room where the temperature is above 50 degrees Fahr.

If celery has begun to rot, the plants should be all gone over and diseased parts or plants removed, and when replanted see that the tops are kept dry as long as the plants last and if there is room have a small space between the roots of the plant. To keep celery in good condition during the winter the tops should be dry but the roots in moist soil, hence if watering is necessary great care should be taken not to wet the tops.

It is not difficult for a farmer to care for his vegetables in winter, but he has, as a rule, a good cool cellar, but in cities cellars are usually too warm for such vegetables, hence where the main cellar is too warm wherever possible a part of it where cool air can be admitted should be partitioned off from the rest for a vegetable room.

THE "FLU" Dare Not Return

The "Flu" will certainly get a warm reception this winter if it dares show its ugly head in our peaceful midst, for the people are confident now that they can deal it such a smashing blow it will never survive. In every village, town and city in Canada, families are fortifying themselves with the greatest "Flu" ammunition known to science—Buckley's Bronchitis Mixture. Colds, coughs, etc.—the advance guards of Flu—are met with withering fire, and relief from these troubles is sure every time. One hundred thousand Canadians are only too willing to testify to the great healing power this remedy contains. It has conquered coughs of 25 years' standing. It can not fail to do for you what it has done for others. You have everything to gain and nothing to lose, as it is sold under a money-back guarantee to banish coughs, colds, bronchitis, bronchial asthma and prevent you from getting the "Flu." It is not a syrup but a scientific mixture, 20 times stronger than any other cough cure. One dose gives instant relief. Price, 75 cents. Take no substitute. None genuine without my signature. F. Denison, on Wednesday, Jan. 12th. The programme was one of unusual interest. The subject for discussion was "Nerves, and How to Care For Them". The injurious agent in cigarettes comes principally from the burning paper wrapper. The substance thereby formed is called Acolein. It has a violent action on the nerve centres, producing degeneration of the cells of the brain which is quite rapid among boys. Unlike most narcotics this degeneration is permanent and uncontrollable. At the close of the meeting an enjoyable half hour was spent in social intercourse. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Burnell Denison, of Feb. 9th.—Mr. and Mrs. Homer Richmond have returned from their wedding trip. A number of their friends gave them a shower on Friday evening at the home of her father, Mr. G. S. Sexsmith.—Mrs. Hugh Fitzpatrick, of Napanee, spent a few days last week at Mr. J. A. THE HORSE STILL THRIVES.

Motor power has largely invaded the province of the horse, but the animal still lives and strives and still has its accepted usefulness. The great war had its devastating influence on the horse and also developed the value of machinery in its place. But experience has proven that there are still many uses for which the horse can be better applied than motor or steam power. When trains came in the horse was to disappear. When the trolley was applied to public service, a crippling blow was dealt the horse. When the motor vehicle became a furore the horse became an object for scorn. When the automobile, and later, the tractor appeared the horse was to vanish; but he maintained his ground. His numbers are not decreased to any noticeable extent while his quality has ever an upward trend. Breeding stations are being established and every effort is being made to maintain breed type. Saskatchewan's success in winning championships at the recent International Stock Show in Chicago is an evidence of the marked success that has been met with in Canada. But the West is not alone in the march of horse improvement and development. Than the French-Canadian horse there is probably no breed that is more hardy or agriculturally useful. The French-Canadian Horse Breeders' Association has long been in affiliation for record purposes with the National Live Stock Record Board at Ottawa, and in the last two years that Association has turned over to the Dominion Department of Agriculture for twenty years a farm of five hundred acres at St. Joachim, Que., to be mainly used for the breeding of its particular type of horse. There are at present 67 French-Canadian horses on the farm, all registered, and these were made at some of the more prominent fall fairs in Quebec and on each instance first prizes and championships were won. The December number of The Agricultural Gazette of Canada gives full details of the work that is being done at the recently acquired French-Canadian horse breeding farm.

1st Vice-Pres.—Mrs. Herbert Daly.
2nd Vice-Pres.—Mr. J. F. Smith.
Secty.-Treas.—Mr. W. S. Herrington.

Directors—W. S. Herrington, J. F. Smith, W. J. Shannon, E. J. Pollard and J. G. Daly.

Fatal Accident.

On Friday afternoon last the dead body of Mr. Jas. Reid, a well known Ernestown farmer, who lived with his brother, Sir. Geo. Reid, was found lying on the floor of the barn. Deceased went to the barn about 4 o'clock to do the usual chores and Mrs. Geo. Reid went out later to milk the cows. After finishing milking, and not seeing anything of Mr. Jas. Reid, she started looking for him and was horrified to find his body lying on the floor of the barn where he had evidently fallen from the hay mow. Dr. Cameron Wilson, Napanee, was called at once and found that the dead man had been killed evidently from a fall, and that his neck was broken. Dr. Wilson notified the coroner, who after making due inquiry, deemed an inquest unnecessary. The late Mr. Reid was a bachelor and about 70 years of age.

House Destroyed by Fire.

A vacant house, belonging to Thos. J. Russell, near Selby, was totally destroyed by fire on Sunday morning, and William Whick, about 70 years of age, said to be a German, was placed under arrest on a charge of arson by Chief-of-Police Barrett. The fire occurred at 7.30 o'clock, and Chief Barrett, who was notified of the fire, made an investigation and placed Whick under arrest at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning. The house was a small frame. The loss is estimated at $1,000, with no insurance. The fire was first noticed at 7.30 o'clock, and it was reported that an old man had been sleeping in the house for a couple of nights, and it was thought that perhaps he had been responsible for the fire. Chief Barrett was given a description of the man, and as a result of quick work on his part, Whick was rounded up near Lonsdale. Whick admitted being in the house at first, and later also admitted that he had started a fire there, that it got beyond his control, and then he made off. This makes the second arrest in Napanee district within a few days for arson. A young man named Albert Doupe is now under arrest in Napanee charged with setting fire to the barn of a farmer named McKeown near Centreville, on Christmas. He was arrested, following an investigation carried on by Provincial Fire Marshal Bishop.

OBITUARY

Hawley Lasher.

The death of Hawley Lasher startled the whole community, Apparently in robust health and in the prime of life he was stricken down on December 22nd, and died the following day. Hawley Lasher was well and favorably known. Practically his whole life had been lived at Grieve's Corners, in business matters he was thoroughly reliable. As a neighbour he was highly esteemed. In the family circle he was kind and unselfish. His wife predeceased him by two years. The surviving children are a daughter and son. The funeral service was held in Selby Methodist Church on Sunday, Dec. 26th. It was conducted by his Pastor, Rev. C. J. Wilson, of Roblin. The weather was bitterly cold but the church was well filled with a sympathetic audience. His memory will be cherished by a large number of residents in the country extending for many miles around Napanee.

Mrs. John Nelson Jones.

The death occurred in the City of Edmonton, of Ethel May Jones, beloved wife of John Nelson Jones, on Wednesday noon, January 5th, the cause of death being typhoid fever. She was taken sick on Dec. 27th, and although all was done, the doctor had to give her up. She lived in Napanee fourteen years. She received training at the Collegiate Institute, and removing to Ninga, Manitoba, resided there for a period of fifteen years. The later part of her life was spent in Saskatoon, Sask., and Edmonton, Alta. She lived a true Christian to the end. She has done what she could and henceforth there is a crown laid up for her. She has left a husband and mother and father to mourn her loss.

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE.

Moscow Orange Hall,
December 1st, 1920.

To Bros. Clifford and Donald Frink.

Dear Brethren,—It is with a deep measure of regret that we, the members of Moscow L.O.L. 2711, are called upon to convey to you our sincere sympathy in the irreparable loss of your beloved mother.

None but those who have sat in the shadow of a great bereavement can justly weigh such a sorrow as you recently came to you. Those who have gone down into the valley of suffering, and stood at the bedside of a loved one as hope after hope dropped away as petals from a fading flower, know that such anguish cannot find solace in the tenderest words.

We commend you to our Heavenly Father. He alone can give you the needed grace and strength to endure in the midst of so great a trial. May He keep and sustain you until the day dawns when you will join hands with your dear mother, who has gone before.

Signed on behalf of the Lodge,
JOSEPH FOSTER,
Wor. Master.

CURLING.

The Tankard Primaries in Group No. 1, comprising the Campbellford, Belleville, Kingston and Napanee Clubs, were played off here on Monday and Tuesday of this week, the winners being the Belleville Club.

The first game was between Kingston and Napanee, Napanee winning handily by a margin of 16 shots, Leonard's rink giving 19 up on Hansen, and Mayhee three down to Reid. This last game was very close, the score at the 17th end being a tie.

Campbellford having defaulted, Kingston then went on and played Belleville in the evening, and after a very close game, Belleville won out by 4 shots.

Tuesday morning Napanee played Belleville and it was uncertain which Club would win until the last stone was played. Mayhee's rink went off like whirlwinds and established a commanding lead over Davison of Belleville, finally winning their game by 9 shots. Leonard's rink, however, failed to repeat their performance on Monday afternoon and were whalloped by 10 shots, the only reality had beating this rink has had in a great many seasons, thus putting Napanee 1 shot down.

The inter-rink matches have been postponed considerably by the weather and the postponement of the Tankard games and skips are requested to get their arrears played off as soon as possible. It is not necessary for skips to wait until the date set for the playing of any postponed game as there is always one or more sheets of ice available. Entries are not coming in very rapidly for the doubles. Get your names down as the entry list will be closed in a few days.

FORMER NAPANEE BOY GIVES SONG RECITAL.

On Friday evening, January 14th, the Ladies' Musical and Literary Society presented Mr. George White, Ottawa's most popular tenor, to a Napanee audience for the first time in several years. The recital was anticipated with much pleasure by those who remembered Mr. White's voice of days gone by, when he was soloist at the Church of St. Mary Magdalene, and was not disappointed.

His first selection was from Hadlye's Oratorio "The Creation", the recitative and aria being most suitable for the clear rich voice. In the Grand Opera number from Puccini, the expressive tones vibrated to every part of the hall, and in this, the singer showed not a little dramatic ability. Two lighter songs were given to vary the programme and were greatly appreciated. The final number was a difficult one, "Where You Walk", from "Semile", but was immediately a favorite with the audience. Each song was encored with enthusiasm, and every one hoped that Mr. White would soon be persuaded to repeat his engagement.

Those who assisted with the evening's entertainment were Miss Juanita Thompson, who sang "The Meadow Lark" very sweetly, and the Misses Hawley and Wartman, who played a duet during the evening with wonderful execution. Miss Wartman also provided much pleasure by piano accompaniments with the splendid interpretation of the Allegro movement from Beethoven's "Waldstein Sonata".

The two accompanists were: Mrs. Black and Miss Wartman, who were more than equal to the demands made upon their musical ability.

WEDDING BELLS.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Patrick's Church, Napanee, on Wednesday, January 12th, 1921, by Rev. Father O'Connor, when Miss Beatrice, second eldest daughter of the late John and Mrs. Moran, became the bride of John Joyce, son of Matthew and the late Mrs. Joyce, Camden East. After the ceremony the bridal party, including Rev. Father O'Connor, motored to Mr. Clarence Joyce's, brother of the groom, where a dainty wedding breakfast awaited them. After a few pleasant hours, the happy couple left on the five o'clock train for a short honeymoon and on their return will reside in Napanee.

U. F. O. NEWS AND VIEWS.

The Canadian farmer has been hit hard by falling prices. From seven eight cents a pound wool has dropped to eighteen cents and slow sale at that. From twenty-two cents per pound, rough hides have dropped to six cents, while wheat, oats, corn, cattle and hogs have all dropped. In 1918 a well-known sheep breeder shipped his wool for the first time to a certain wool buyer. For 175 pounds shipped he received as an advance cheque, $75.00. In 1919 he shipped almost the same quantity of wool to the same agency and received for it as advance cheque $35.00. In 1920 when his local buyer would not buy wool, at any price, he shipped to the same agency and received his advance cheque for $8.00. This is two years the returns on wool to this producer had been reduced from $75.00 to $8.00, that is, it had fallen 86 per cent. It could not fall much more and leave anything left for the producer at all.

Yet what about the price of clothing? What about underwear and socks and gloves and suitings? True the grade of wool marketed does not enter to any great extent into the manufacture of these articles, But what about carpets and other coarse textiles into which it does enter? What about blankets for which it takes probably less than three pounds to make a sweater coat or the $40 or $45 suit which it contains possibly less than five pounds of wool? In answer to these questions may be found in the multitude of experiences which we have all had during the last two years, we have wished to buy any of the above-mentioned articles two years ago we found that an immediate advance had been made necessary because the price of wool had just gone up. We did not buy but put off our purchases for another year. In the meantime the price of wool had dropped somewhat, and imagine our bewilderment when we found their clothing was still advanced higher. We asked why and were told that the old stocks of high-priced wool were still unexhausted and therefore, we could not expect cheaper clothes. Now the time for it is. Hon. F. C. Biggs says, "The textile part of the factories refused to take the advance in the price of wool two years ago by telegraph, but the news of the fall in the price of farm products reaches their ears to-day by canal boat."

There is too wide a spread between the prices that the consumer pays and the price that the producer receives. That is why the consumer in many factories is not inclined to be really in sympathy with the organized efforts of the farmer. Some days ago in a boarding man of the Belleville type, one of our daily papers, "asked experts of farmers why it was that somewhat price they were getting for their hogs and the answer was from all to $15.00. When I told them that bacon was being sold in the city of Toronto at 70c. a pound and 80c. a pound they were astonished. From the time the hog is bought at the market to-day. So may I ask bacon barons why the difference between 15c. a lb. and 70c. to 80c. a pound for bacon? To-day hogs were fetching $16.50 for selects and we think that price I challenge any of the packing companies of Toronto to disprove my statement that 45c. a pound retail they would not be making a good profit." The same wide margin between the farmer's prices and the consumer's exists in many lines as well as meats. The farmer gets about one and one-half cents a pound for his wheat, but the consumer in Toronto pays nine and one-half cents a pound for his bread. The cost of commodities in cities, instead of corresponding with the falling prices on the farm, have increased over a year ago. According to the Labor Gazette, food, fuel, lighting and rent for a family of five was $26.12 a week for November, 1920, as compared with an $22.19 for November, 1919. While at that time the prices of farm products had made an average drop of 50 per cent.

It is for this reason that the United Farmers of Ontario are every day gaining multitudes of sympathizers in town and city. Every day consumers and laborers in town and city are forced to realize that producers' organizations must get together to see that the farmer receives a price for his wares are, as a result, pressed on every hand to open their organization to their own advantage regardless of all classes. Whether this be done in time or not we shall soon see, of course. But of one thing the consumer may rest assured that his co-operation, organization and solidarity is appreciated and accepted by the farmers.

The seven year old design which appears on the U. F. O. button is that of the hands clasped, "The hand is the Consumer's, the other is the Producers'. It is a noble device which the producer extends to the consumer. Designed several years ago by a farmer in these days it is the honest interest of a weak organization and indicates the need for a symbol of the manner in which consumers and the great Dominion-wide organization of producers, or Co-operating for a common end of purpose.

Friday, Jan. 14th, was a busy day at Ernestown Station, when the members of the Ernestown U. F. O. Club and Co-operative Company shipped hogs and unloaded coal and salt.

With the exception of one or two other counties in the Province, Lennox and Addington U. F. O. was the only organization to be represented before the Tariff Commission when it was sitting at Ottawa and Kingston. Mr. J. L. Haycock was our only capable spokesman and among other things corrected some very wrong opinions which Premier Meighen had expressed in Massey Hall, when referring to the Tariff and the Binder Twine Industry.

NEWBURGH.

Next Sunday the re-opening of the Methodist Church will take place. There will be services in the morning at 10.30 and evening at 7 o'clock, at which Rev. C. W. DeMille will be the preacher; and on Monday evening there will be a first class concert. There will also be a Sunday School rally at 3 p.m. Sunday. The services on Sunday will be the first held in the Methodist Church since the cooperative union with the Presbyterian congregation, and how that all are moving into the larger building which is to be their church home for the future, considerable interest is attached to the occasion, and large and enthusiastic gatherings are expected at all the services. Everyone will be ready to welcome Rev. Mr. DeMille back to Newburgh as an old pastor and friend.

Some time ago we predicted, in the Beaver correspondence, that there would be likely to come a time when the centralizing influences that have been going on for years, would have a re-bound, and places like Newburgh that have facilities for different activities, would come to their own. This time, we believe is fast approaching. Thousands of people are being thrown out of employment in the larger places where house rents are high and living conditions are anything but satisfactory. These people are turning their attention to the smaller places where living conditions are better and cheaper. Many are realizing that moving picture shows, and the like, are poor substitutes for bread and butter.

We cannot but regret that the N. E. T. S. is not meeting with much success, as "stubble" is still the prevailing facial ornament.

Mr. James Paul, who has for some years been in the employ of a Buffalo firm, as bookkeeper, is coming to Newburgh to reside, where he will breathe his native air and be amongst the friends of his youth.

Mrs. Craig, of Glenburney, is visiting her sister, Mrs. McNeily.

Rev. Mr. Cooke preached the final sermon in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday last, and it was one well worth remembering. The subject was "The Lure of the Christian Life".

The holiday season was not allowed to pass without a final kick. A number of free and easy gatherings were held in the hall and in private houses where the people enjoyed themselves to the full.

Mr. Chas. Welbanks spent a short time in Picton this week, visiting friends.

ENTERPRISE.

At time of writing we are having zero weather, splendid wheeling but poor sleighing, making it bad for parties drawing loads and wood.—We are pleased to see Mr. Harry Jackson at his post again, in charge of our station here. The play given by the young people of the Methodist Church last Wednesday, the 19th, was well attended and enjoyed by all.—We are glad to hear that Miss Bertha Hagerman is able to be around again.—A gloom was cast over this village and vicinity by the sudden death of Mr. Thos. Brown, last Wednesday. The funeral services were held in the Methodist Church, and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Robinson, under the Order of the A. F. & A. M., of which he was a member for a number of years, and highly respected by all the Brethren, and looked upon as one of the best members of the Lodge. The remains were placed in the vault here, awaiting burial. He is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters, who have the sympathy of the whole community.—Mrs. Dunlop returned to Napanee, after spending a couple of weeks in the village.—Mr. Sam Brien, High County Constable, met with a bad accident here last week. When passing a tractor and clover dresser, his cutter upset, and he was thrown against the tractor wheels, cutting his head and injuring badly. He was hurried to Bell's Hotel, and attended by Dr. Herrion, who had to put several stitches in the cuts on his head and face.—The Glee Club are giving a dance at Keech's Hall this week.—W. S. Fenwick & Sons unloaded a car of coal, this week.—The play, "The Prairie Rose", given by the Enterprise Dramatic Club, in aid of St. John's Church, on Monday evening, February 8th, in Jackson's Hall, is expected to be the event of the season. Don't miss it and look for bills later.

The weather is fine at time of writing.—Mr. Ray Ferguson spent the past week with his sister, Mrs. J. R. Herd, Trenton.—Mr. Jap Hawley at E. Fenwick's.—Messrs. Harry Tennant, Lorne Wagar, Clarence Bell, Arthur Keech and the Misses Della Bell, Bessie Smith, and Freda Wagar spent Sunday last at Mr. and Mrs. L. Jackson's.—Miss Gertrude McGregor has returned to Toronto, after visiting friends in this vicinity.—Mrs. Mellow is visiting at W. Mellow's.—Miss Hazel Kellar is visiting friends in Belleville.—We are pleased to hear that Mrs. W. Bell is improving nicely.—Mrs. E. Powell, of Napanee, called on friends recently.

Ontario Motor League

14th ANNUAL MEETING.

Membership.

A year ago the total membership of the Ontario Motor League was 6,607; to-day the total number of members in good standing is 11,115. The increase of 4,508 members has been fairly evenly distributed among active and affiliated members, as shown in the following table:

	1919	1920	Increase
Active	2,576	3,517	1,941
Affiliated	3,931	5,598	2,567
Total	6,607	11,115	4,508

Nearly all the affiliated clubs show a gain in membership during the year. Two of the most notable increases are, Hamilton Automobile Club, from 488 in 1919 to 1,355 in 1920, an increase of 867 members; London Automobile Club, from 290 in 1919 to 900 in 1920, an increase of 610 members.

Finances.

With the increase in membership there has been a corresponding increase in revenue and expenditure. Owing largely to the growth of membership from year to year, the League has been able to carry on its work effectively without raising the annual fee, which has remained fixed at five dollars since the inception of the organization in 1907. In the near future, however, it may be necessary to make an increase in the amount of the annual fee in order to provide funds for additional membership benefits, more extensive road sign work, and a general expansion of the scope of the organization commensurate with its remarkable growth in membership and influence. The finances of the League will be fully dealt with in the Annual Financial Statement to be submitted by the auditor.

Service to Members.

Assistance and advice has been given to thousands of members through the various departments of the League,—Touring, Legal, Chauffeurs' Employment, etc. The great extent to which the facilities of service afforded by the League have been taken advantage of by the members at large would indicate an appreciation of their value. Many thousands of touring queries were dealt with and legal advice given in scores of cases.

If a member thinks he has been summoned unjustly for breach of the Motor Vehicles Act, he is entitled to consult the O. M. L. solicitor, and if the case is one involving an important principle affecting the interest of motorists in general, it will be conducted by the League without expense to the member. Many such cases have been taken up by the League, with success in almost every instance.

Advice as to road conditions, routes, hotels and garages should be obtained before starting on a motor trip. Complete and reliable information of this character is available only at the O. M. L. Touring Department. The Leagues gives material assistance to its members in passing their cars through the Customs at the border. Automobile Clubs have headquarters in practically every city and large town in Canada and the United States. By reciprocal arrangement, membership in any Club is recognized in all others. A member of the Ontario Motor League, therefore, might tour anywhere in North America and enjoy the privileges of club membership on presentation of his O. M. L. card. Motorists who may not make a great deal of use of their club facilities at home, find such services of the greatest value when on a tour. The Touring Department of the League has listed many hotels and garages in the United States which have agreed to accept Canadian money without discount from touring members on presentation of the O. M. L. membership card. At prevailing rates of exchange, this service on a single trip leaves members in pocket many times the small amount of the annual membership fee. Moreover, the Ontario Motor League is affiliated with the Royal Automobile Club of Great Britain, and members visiting the Old Country enjoy the privileges of Associate Membership in this powerful organization, with its agents, affiliated and associated clubs throughout Europe. By a special arrangement with the R. A. C., the Ontario Motor League is able to issue pass sheets to members which enable them to take their cars into Great Britain for touring purposes without having to make the cash deposit of one-third of the value of the car otherwise required.

Road Signs.

Extensive road sign work carried on during 1919 was continued on a still greater scale last year. Throughout the Spring and Summer, the O. M. L. Road Sign car travelled the roads of the province covering over 10,000 miles of highway, which were adequately sign-boarded. A total of over 4,000 direction signs of all kinds were put up by the League. Appreciation of the service afforded by these signs has been expressed by many of our members.

Road Map.

No review of the League's activities for the year would be complete without a reference to the new Road Map of the Province of Ontario and International Main Travelled Routes, published by the League. This map made its appearance early in 1920, after a long period of preliminary work, involving the inspection by the League's staff of thousands of miles of roads.

This map shown in accurate outline the best roads in Ontario, Western Quebec, New York State, and Eastern Michigan, and gives full details of all the cities and principal towns and villages, lakes, rivers, and summer resorts in this area of over 200,000 square miles.

The roads shown extend all the way from New York City to Sault Ste. Marie and from 100 miles east of Montreal to 100 miles west of Detroit. A motorist planning a trip anywhere in this district will find the O. M. L. road map of great assistance. The relative importance of roads has been shown by three classes of lines—heavy, medium and light.

The map has been compiled from the most reliable sources of information and has been designed with the one object of meeting the requirements of motor tourists. It is the best map of the kind to be published in Ontario and the only map in existence covering equally well the roads on both sides of the international border. On the reverse side of the map are printed a number of city plans, speedometer readings for important routes, a list of ferries, local and international, and full information regarding customs and license regulations to be observed by motorists in crossing the border between Canada and the United States.

The map is lithographed on the finest quality of bond paper (38 in. by 24 in.), and folded in pocket size (4 in. by 9½ in.).

Nearly thirty thousand copies of the map have already been sold, which evidences how well its merits are appreciated by the motoring public.

Canadian Motorist.

During 1920 the monthly issues of Canadian Motorist have been larger and more profusely illustrated than ever, and have maintained previous high standards editorially. Attractive cover designs, changing every month, have added to the interest of the paper. The circulation has practically doubled during the year and is now in the neighborhood of 15,000 copies per month.

Canadian Motorist has been adopted as official organ of the Automobile Club of Canada, Montreal, the Quebec Automobile Club, and the Nova Scotia Motor League. It has by far the largest circulation of any automobile magazine published in Canada.

Entertainment.

More than a thousand orphan children were entertained in Toronto by the League last year at an automobile outing and picnic held at Scarboro Beach Park, all the amusements of which were placed at the disposal of the League for the day through the generosity to the Toronto Railway Company. An outing was held also for patients of the Hillcrest for Incurables in Toronto. Similar Outings were held by many of the affiliated clubs.

Good Roads.

For a number of years the League has advocated that all moneys collected by the Province from motor vehicle licenses be set aside to form a fund for road improvement. This proposal at first met with disfavor in governmental circles, but last year a decision was reached to take the matter into consideration and that motor license monies are now credited directly to the Department of Public Highways. We congratulate the government on taking this step.

We have observed with approval the planning of a system of provincial highways by the government to serve all the people, and the liberal resource of great satisfaction to note that permanent roads are being given to the importance of main trunk highways. The work of construction is being proceeded with on a large scale and with reasonable speed, having regard to the immensity of the task.

The results of the year's work are not as evident to the public as they will be after another season when many miles of road have been surfaced, but a great deal has been accomplished already in the way of grading, ditching, building culverts and bridges, and widening roads to conform with provincial standards. We feel that a sane and safe policy is being followed by the Department of Public Highways in this respect and that the administration of the work is in most capable hands.

Tours of Michigan Pikes Association.

International motor touring has been given a tremendous impetus by the 1920 tour of the Michigan Pikes Association which last July traversed the highways of Ontario and Michigan, from Windsor via Toronto, North Bay and Sudbury to Sault Ste Marie and thence through the State of Michigan to Detroit. The cause of Good Roads was well served, too, by the tour, for at every city and town en route, if not a stopping place for special ceremonies, the tourist passed long enough to hold a public meeting out of doors, which was usually preceded by a few selections played by the splendid band of the Ford Motor Company of Detroit, which accompanied the tourists throughout the entire trip of 1,400 miles. A total of 88 road meetings were conducted during the tour. At every place visited the tourists were received with open arms and the towns vied with one another in the erection of welcoming arches, banners, and decorations, the preparation of banquets and distribution of souvenirs. In order to stimulate enthusiasm for good roads, 50,000 buttons were distributed by the tourists in towns along the way. The success of these carried the flags of the United States and the Province of Canada, and the inscription "United for Good Roads".

Especially did the Michigan Pikes Tour draw attention to the opening up of Northern Ontario, and the visiting tourist by traversing the recently completed road from Sudbury to Sault Ste. Marie and reporting it to be on the whole in better condition than some stretches of road encountered in southern Ontario. The entire tour of fifty passenger cars and twenty trucks made the trip from Toronto to Sault Ste. Marie on schedule time and without a mishap. It is inevitable that, as a result of the widespread publicity attending the tour, many other motorists will be encouraged to follow the route of the Michigan Pikes through Northern Ontario, and their experiences in turn will result in the attraction of many others to this beautiful country now made accessible to motor tourists.

To the Michigan Pikes Association, and especially to those enterprising citizens of Sault Ste. Marie who were primarily responsible for the routing of the 1920 tour, the Province of Ontario owes a debt of gratitude.

It is pleasing to note that the 1921 tour of the Association is to bring the tourists into Ontario once again, this time over the South Highway from Duluth to Port Arthur and Fort William.

Motor Vehicle License Fees.

Towards the close of the year announcement was made by the Ontario Government that the fees for motor vehicle licenses were to be on a higher scale for 1921, and to be levied on a slightly different basis. The new fees are as follows for passenger cars:—

25 horse-power or less, 4 cylinder, $15.00; 6-cylinder, $15.00; 8 and 12-cylinder, $25.00.

More than 25 and up to 35, 4-cylinder, $15.00; 6-cylinder, $20.00; 8 and 12-cylinder, $25.00.

More than 35 and up to 50, 4-cylinder, $20.00; 6-cylinder $30.00; 8 and 12-cylinder, $35.00.

More than 50, 4-cylinder, $30.00; 6-cylinder, $35.00; 8 and 12-cylinder, $40.00.

All electrically driven passenger vehicles will pay $15 instead of $10.

According to the Honorable W. C. Biggs, Minister of Public Works and Highways, the increase in motor vehicle license fees has been made in order to provide additional revenue for the road improvement work in which the Provincial Government is now engaged. Mr. Biggs declares that, as automobile use the roads the most, they should pay a big share of the cost of the highways.

The revenue for 1920 from motor vehicle licenses was approximately $2,000,000. With the new scale of fees in effect, and a normal increase in the number of cars in use, the revenue for motor vehicle license fees for 1921 should be close to $3,000,000.

The expenditure on provincial highways and county roads in Ontario during the last year was approximately $7,000,000. Of this amount, $1,450,000 was spent on provincial highways, including the amount to be paid by the Federal Government (probably $1,250,000).

The increase in fees was put into effect despite the representations made to the Government by the Ontario Motor League. The League took the position that no increase in fees should be made until the Government's road program was further advanced and evidences of improvement in roads were more noticeable than at present. The League did not object to motorists paying their share of road improvements, but pointed out that it must be kept in mind that the use of public highways is not confined to motorists, or the improvements made purely for the benefit of motorists. It is recognized that the main motive in improving the highways is to aid agriculture and by cutting the cost of marketing, to bring closer together producer and consumer. It is only fair, therefore, that the province as a whole should bear the main proportion of the cost of road improvement.

The League pointed out that it would be more reasonable, therefore, as expenditure on roads is a capital expenditure not to meet it out of current revenue, but to bond for the cost of improvement of roads through bond issues, and apply the fees from motor vehicle license fees partly towards the annual maintenance cost, and partly to provide a sinking fund to meet these debentures. The League suggested as an alternative to the increased fee next year, that the Government raise the additional amount required by bond issue.

The League also showed that the fee in Ontario, which is only beginning the construction of provincial highways, was considerably higher than in many States across the border with quite advanced road systems.

While the representations of the League did not have the effect of preventing the increase being made in license fees, there is reason for believing that they resulted in the Government's original program being considerably modified.

Automobile Insurance.

Largely as a result of representations made by the Ontario Motor League some time ago to Mr. Justice Meredith when holding sittings as Insurance Commissioner, automobile insurance in the Province of Ontario is to be materially simplified. The Department of Insurance is now drafting a bill for

YOUNG WOMEN AVOID PAIN

This One Tells How She Was Benefited by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Regina, Sask.—"For two years I suffered from periodic pains and nausea so I was unable to get around. My mother had me take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am much better and able to go about all the time, which I could not do before. I recommend Vegetable Compound to my friends if I know they suffer the same way, and you may publish my letter if it will help any one, as I hope it will."—Miss Z. G. BLACKWELL, 2073 Osler Place, Regina, Sask.

If every girl who suffers as Miss Blackwell did, or from irregularities, painful periods, backache, sidesache, dragging down pains, inflamation or ulceration would only give this famous root and herb remedy a trial they would soon find relief from such suffering.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who will continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world.

For special advice women are asked to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of forty years experience is at your service.

Ontario Motor League

presentation at the next session of the Legislature, which will embody statutory conditions to govern automobile insurance. The work is being done under the direction of Mr. Evans Gray, Superintendent of Insurance. The Ontario Motor League is representing to the Department the viewpoint of the automobile owner while the Canadian Association of Automobile Underwriters is representing the Insurance Companies in the negotiations.

Car Parking Problem.

After numerous conferences with representatives of various public bodies, the Toronto Police Commissioners last Spring put into force new regulations governing the parking of cars in the congested business section of the city. The regulations also provide for making a number of streets one-way streets.

A Citizens' Committee, under the chairmanship of Mr. J. J. Gibbons, made an independent study of the parking problem from all angles, obtaining data from all the large cities of the United States and Canada as to their parking regulations and inviting expressions of opinion by letter to all Toronto automobile owners and the principal business interests concerned. The findings of this Committee were printed, and together with recommendations, submitted to the Police Commissioners.

At the outset the Police authorities proposed to allow no parking privileges whatever on the main business streets, but through the earnest representations of the Ontario Motor League, finally agreed, as an experiment, to permit a half-hour limit, except on Yonge, King and Queen Streets where a fifteen-minute limit was decided upon. These limits, however, are reduced to five minutes during the rush hour, from 4.45 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Legislation.

Perhaps the most important development of the year in respect to legislation has been the gratifying effect of a regulation prohibiting the use of glaring headlights. A test of various lenses has been made by the Department of Public Highways and a list of approved devices has been issued by the Minister of Public Highways. Every applicant for a motor vehicle license is required to state whether or not his car is equipped with an approved device for eliminating headlight glare. The Department of Public Highways has issued a statement that the law is to be rigorously enforced and has so advised the police authorities of municipalities throughout the Province.

Efforts have been made by the League during the year to secure the passing of regulations requiring horse-drawn vehicles to display lights at night.

An application to the Board of Control in the City of Toronto for a municipal by-law to be submitted to the City Council was turned down owing to the extreme hostility shown to the measure by representatives of Teamsters' Associations and Cartage and forwarding concerns.

We have been pleased to note the passing of a resolution by the Western Ontario United Boards of Trade advocating a provincial law requiring lights on all vehicles at night. Similar resolutions have been passed by a number of automobile clubs and forwarded to the Minister of Public Highways.

Other regulations for promoting safety and convenience in the use of public streets and highways, which the League is advocating are:

(1) The regulation of pedestrians to prevent jay-walking.

(2) The establishment of safety zones opposite street car stopping places, on streets sufficiently wide to permit of the movement of traffic between the zone and the curb.

(3) The licensing of all drivers.

(4) The abolition of the fee system of paying constables and magistrates engaged in handling automobile cases. Arguments against this unpopular fee system were presented by the League before the Public Service Commission of the Province of Ontario, appointed to enquire into the administration of Justice.

(5) Uniformity in traffic regulations throughout the Dominion of Canada. The League is working in conjunction with the Canadian Automobile Association, representing the Provincial Automobile Leagues and Associations, with this object in view.

FRONTENAC REGIMENT.

Arrangements are being made for the organization of a local Company of Militia, to form part of the Frontenac Regiment (late the 47th Regiment), and with this in view a meeting has been called for Thursday, January 27th, at 8 p.m., in the Town Council Chamber.

We have in Napanee one of the finest Armouries in Canada, but on account of our not having a Militia Unit here, it has not been available for general use to anything like its full possibilities.

With the establishment of a Company here the Armouries will be open the year round and members of the Company will have the privilege of playing indoor baseball, basketball, etc. The Rifle galleries will be open to members of the Company and it is hoped that arrangements will be made whereby the Civilian Rifle Club will also be able to make use of them.

Special concessions we understand will in all probability be given to semi-military and allied organizations, such as the Civilian Rifle Club, Boy Scouts, Red Cross Society, I. O. D. E., Navy League, etc., in connection with the use of the Armouries.

In the re-organization of the old 47th Regiment, now called the Frontenac Regiment, we understand that the present scheme is to locate one company in Napanee, one in Enterprise and the surrounding district, one in Kingston, and the fourth at Westport. One of the great drawbacks in pre-war days was that it was not possible in many instances for members of the rural Militia to get away for the 12-day annual camp training. The Government we are told has recognized this difficulty and in future training will be done locally by Companies, and in some cases by Platoons.

Napanee has a number of Returned Officers and N. C. Officers who should form a strong cadre for the local company. It should be remembered that the old Militia of Canada the "Active Militia," was in Enterprise and the surrounding district, one in Kingston, and the fourth at Westport. HOCKEY.

The hockey record on Wednesday night is the score of two of the highest battles since the beginning of hockey history.

Town and Gibbards staged their first league game and it was a tie as usual in the other league games. Nothing to be a habit." The Town team started at a very fast pace and scored Gibbards in the first period, but Gibbards made a strong come back and tied the score in the second period. In the last period the town's fighting spirit could not be kept down nor the fast pace of the first showing and Gibbards held them to the score without scoring one more.

The real game was a little rough, between two weights of Adolphustown and the local speed artists, by Barker. It looked like a walk away for the country visitors when the teams lined up, but soon the superior speed and dick handling of the fighter fans left no doubt as to the final outcome. Pollard and Roblin for the visitors showed good form, while Ritte and Lou Spencer were the stars on the Bankers' line up, while Mosher, Young and Ivan Spencer displayed their usual class, and had much to do with defeating the visitors by a score of 2-2.

PICTURES FOR CHILDREN.

By H. ADDINGTON BRUCE.

You want your children to grow up moral, honest, kindly with sympathy for their fellowmen and a contempt for the vicious, the tricky, the cruel.

Be exceedingly careful, then, as to the pictures you let them gaze upon.

Children—keep this always in mind —are almost incredibly quick to catch ideas. They are profoundly impressionable, and, because the critical faculty is undeveloped in them, they are profoundly imitative.

Let anything make a strong impression on their minds, and they tend to translate it into action.

And they learn more quickly, and are impressed more readily, through their eyes than through any other means.

When, therefore, children are permitted to feast their eyes on pictures that are immoral, vulgar, or otherwise unpleasant, there is a real danger that character-spoiling may result, no matter how careful the parents otherwise may be in the managing of their little ones.

Disagreeable traits may soon become manifest, disquieting conduct result. As in the case of a certain little girl of six, whose father appealed to me for advice because of a singular eccentricity she had developed.

"The child is a good child, as I know," he said, "and we have tried to bring her up most carefully. But she has acquired the strange habit of creeping up behind her nurse and striking the nurse savagely.

"She does this, she says, because she thinks it is funny to do it."

"Yet the child is not exactly to blame," I pointed out to him. "Kicking people is regarded as funny by quickly so-called comic artists. Your little girl has probably been taking lessons from some of their drawings."

To tolerate in the home pictures that may contribute to the distortion of character, the inspiring of ideas of cruelty, viciousness, or fear, should be a cardinal rule with every parent. Parents, likewise, should allow their children to attend no "movie" theatre where such pictures are shown.

Then we should have "movie reform" in a hurry—the making of pictures guaranteed to enlarge, not stunt, the growing mind and soul; pictures tending to make good citizens, and undesirables and neurotic never-do-wells.

Whence Comes Turpentine.

Most people know that turpentine is a product of the pine tree, but are not acquainted with the means by which it is obtained.

Beneath the bark of the tree are resin-secreting cells, whose output is noted by narrowing, but open wounds.

If the skin of the tree be wounded severely, many more of these cells, much larger in size, develop and pour out great quantities of resin.

Hence to procure the resin, the bark is well scarred with cuts (generally made in a series at parallel V's), and a receptacle is placed beneath to catch the fluid as it exudes.

The fluid is then distilled and the volatile part of it, which passes over, is turpentine. The residue is what is called "rosin" and is used for many purposes, both of a simple nature, as in manufacture of explosives, Kalsomine and soap.

America's Telephone Industry.

According to the report by the bureau of the census showing the results of the census of telephones compiled for the year 1917, there are 21,234 operating companies in the United States, and systems operated 28,827,188 miles of wire in the United States—enough to girdle the earth at the equator 1,155 times—and connected 11,716,529 telephones and 21,175 public exchanges.

The messages or "talks" sent over these wires aggregated the stupendous total of nearly 22,000,000,000 in the exact, 21,845,772,235. Figured on the estimated population of the country in 1917, this gives 211 messages per annum to every man, woman and child.

Heart Expels Bullets.

During the war surgeons did some extraordinary operations on the heart. An account of these and of the technique is given by Sir Charles Ballance, consulting surgeon of St. Thomas' hospital, London, in the Lancet. An interesting fact related by him is that bullets that penetrated the heart were often expelled through the veins with the blood and were found at remote parts of the body where they had stuck in an artery.

"Bump the Bumper" for Electric Iron.

In one of the large electric manufacturing companies which is among other things engaged in the manufacture of electric irons, a specimen iron from each hundred or so is taken and subjected to a severe test by a series of bumps on a hard surface, reproducing as far as possible the shocks which it receives while in use on the ironing board. A well-built iron will stand the treatment from 16 to 24 hours before it fails.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On Friday evening, January 21st, about eighty-five neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Martin, to bid them farewell, and to enjoy once more the hospitality of their home before their departure for Moscow, where they now reside in Yarker.

The evening was very pleasantly spent in social intercourse, music and song. At a late hour, Mr. and Mrs. Martin were invited to come forward, when the following address was read by Mr. A. A. Armstrong, and a beautiful library table presented to them by Mr. H. N. Huffman, on behalf of their friends of Marysville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Martin.

We, your neighbors of the vicinity of Moscow, have assembled in your home to-night, to bid farewell upon your departure from among us. For thirty-eight years it has been our privilege to know your household in genial friendship, and in the varied walks of neighborly and social intercourse you have contributed abundantly toward making life pleasant in the circle in which we have moved. We do not forget that when the laugh was merriest, your happy presence added pleasure to the scene and when sorrow visited our homes, your words of consolation and sympathy made the load easier to bear. Recollecting the pleasant years made agreeable through your acquaintance, your presence herewith we present you with this library table, and desire your acceptance of the same as a small expression of the great regard we hold for you. May its presence in your home ever remind you of this occasion, and of the regret we feel at losing you both from Moscow community. While we deplore the fact that circumstances have forced you to abandon the activities that have occupied so great a place in your lives, yet we congratulate you upon the prospect of the well earned rest, and our prayer for you is that kind Providence may prolong your lives to cheer each other and brighten the spot where you reside for many years.

Signed on behalf of Committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin very feelingly replied and expressed their deep regret at leaving the home where they had lived for many years, but assured their friends that their new home in Yarker would always be open for them.

The evening was brought to a close by all joining in the hymn, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds".

THE LATE J. F. ROBERTSON.

Many Glowing Tributes Paid to Prominent St. John Merchant Whose Death Occurred on Saturday.

The death in St. John, N.B., on Jan. 15th, of James F. Robertson, President of Manchester, Robertson, Allison, Ltd., whose widow before her marriage was Miss Josephine A. Hooper, of Kingston, was the subject of a sermon of moving eloquence and deep feeling on Sunday last delivered by Rev. Canon G. A. Kuhring in St. John's (Stone) Church, St. John, of which the deceased was a member.

Very many fine tributes were paid by the speaker to the sterling integrity, intensely human nature, generosity, and deep religious convictions of the deceased. He quoted the hymn, "When on my day of life the night is falling", as seeming to express best the simplicity of the hopes and aspirations of the late member of his congregation.

The newspapers of St. John all united editorials to the passing of the late Mr. Robertson, expressing the loss which the entire community felt of so fine a citizen. A resolution of sympathy to the bereaved was passed by the members of the Retail Merchants' Association of St. John on Saturday afternoon.—The Kingston Standard, Jan. 21st, 1921.

Gold edged Playing Cards at Wallace's.

A Happy and Prosperous New Year Is Our Wish For All Our Friends.

We have to tender our thanks to our Patrons for the very liberal patronage extended to us during the trade of the holidays, which was the largest we have ever experienced since we took over the old Bookstore more than fifty-six years ago. We think that result was largely due to the fact that we had the class of goods the public generally wanted at prices that suited them.

We had a very large stock of Books by popular authors, and we had large sales; but we have yet in stock a good assortment, with good, instructive Books for boys and girls.

Our stock of Popular Games was so large and varied that, we thought there was no probability of running short of any, and yet many are completely sold out. We will have a new supply before this appears in print.

At this time of year most people want something to entertain and instruct during the long winter evenings, and intelligent people generally look to reading. If you are going to take a Magazine or Newspaper, no matter where it is published, you will save time and money by applying at once to your Bookseller.

If you have Pictures to frame, bring them to us, and have them done promptly and at lowest prices.

This is a very important question and one that carries great responsibilities. On our answer will depend results. Mrs. Wm. Hanes, Press Secretary.

SWORE BY 'TEDDY'

Yellowstone Park Rangers With Roosevelt to a Man.

Colonel's Characteristic Greeting of Down-and-Outer, Whom He Had Known in Happier Days, Is Still Remembered.

Of the few out-of-season visits paid to the Yellowstone, that of Colonel Roosevelt, who, when president, spent 24 days of the late winter of 1903 there, has the most prominent page in the annals of the Spread-Eagle rangers. He found the scouts, then serving as chaperons for luckless cavalry troopers and doing their own work besides, to be men after his own heart, and did not hesitate to say so. Before he had been in the park a week every ranger was swearing by him.

Jim McBride, the present chief ranger, who was then assistant chief of the park scouts under the late Buffalo Jones, knew a Bill Jones, wood chopper and ne'er-do-well, chiefly remarkable for an insatiable thirst and a knack of ministering to it in a bone-dry park. He was about the last man in the Rockies for whom a president of the United States would be expected to inquire.

"Bill put me into office once," said Roosevelt. "I want to see him, drunk or sober."

He further explained that the derelict had been sheriff during his own days as a ranchman and had made him a deputy in a horsethief posse.

"It took three days to find that old horned toad and bring him in," said McBride, in recalling the incident, "but just to listen in at the colonel's hearty greeting of that down-and-outer was pay in full.

"'Well, Ted, you got a right swell job since I seen you last,' Jones remarked when they had exchanged how'd'ye-do's; 'but that needn't stand between friends—I got something on my hip.'

"Colonel Roosevelt didn't partake, but he did spend the best part of an hour swapping yarns of the days when Bill was a 'white man' and sheriff of his county. The woodchopper tried to buck up after his talk with the president, but it wasn't to be done. The next Friday we found him dead in the brush over on Bear creek.

"The colonel was enthusiastic over the sport of ski running, and was something of a performer on the slats himself, for a novice. He strapped his feet into them as often as opportunity offered. One morning on a slide near the Canon hotel he broke one ski and came a heavy cropper.

"The government has fallen at last!" he cried with a mock showing grin, as I coasted down to help untangle a living president and a pair of dead sticks.

"He was looking at the wreck he had made of the hickory slats when Capt. John Pitcher of the First cavalry then in command of the park, arrived.

"'Have you plenty of those?' Teddy said.

"'Only a few pairs, and they are the property of the interior department,' replied the officer.

"'In less than three weeks there came a rush shipment of a hundred pairs.

"Next afternoon the president challenged me to a race on snow shoes from Canyon to Mammoth, a distance of thirty-one miles. Those with him decided that the trip would be an unwise strain upon him, and began to argue against his attempting it. He got me to one side after a while and whispered:

"'Well let them talk, McBride. Just you stick around until midnight. They'll be asleep then, and we'll hit the trail.'

"It took Harry W. Child and Captain Pitcher two hours to talk him out of that. He wasn't at all pleased at having to veto his own plan for a secret departure."—Ethel and James Dorrance in Munsey's Magazine.

Bird Study of Interest.

A novel opportunity for studying the influence of extremes of climate on birds is offered by the English sparrow. This bird was introduced into New York city soon after 1850, did not reach California until 1871 or 1872, but has recently been found by Dr. Joseph Grinnell of the University of California to have settled in the heart of Death valley, in Greenland ranch. This location is 178 feet below sea level, with a temperature at times exceeding 120 degrees F. and great dryness. How development will be affected is a matter of much interest.

Navy Dirigibles World's Largest.

Two superdirigibles, the largest in the world, are planned by the navy, and one of them now being built in England will attempt a transatlantic flight next fall, Captain Craven, director of naval aviation, recently told the house naval committee. American naval officers and enlisted men who will fly the British-built ship to America are in England training. In asking $2,700,000 for construction of a second superdirigible, Captain Craven said it would be 50 feet longer than the British-built craft, which is 644 feet.—Scientific American.

KOH-I-NOR'S STORY ENDLESS

Complete Tale of Matchless Diamond, Now One of British Crown Jewels, Was Never Told.

All the world has heard of the Koh-i-nor, or, as it has been sometimes called, the Great Mogul diamond, and it would seem that there was nothing more to be said about it, remarks Eleanor Maddock in Asia Magazine. Yet, in point of fact, not a tenth part of its history has ever been traced, so far does it extend back into the vistas of the past.

Perhaps one of the strangest things about it is that it cannot be long, to the world indefinitely. It was brickedand plastered up in a wall and miraculously found after its former owner had been murdered. It was twice thrown away as a bit of glass and once went to the washerwoman in the pocket of an Englishman's drill suit.

This matchless gem is called in India the "Mountain of Light" and the "Talisman of Kings;" the latter because it was said to bring sovereignty to its possessor. Strangely enough, after it fell into the hands of a Turkish slave of illegitimate origin, a line known as the "Twin Kings" sat on the throne of Delhi for eighty years, during which period the desire to possess the talisman amounted to a frenzied obsession. Suddenly it disappeared in the chaos that brought the slave dynasty to an end in 1290.

The Koh-i-nor later scintillated without bloodshed through the reign of Shah Jahan down to his son Aurangzeb, who exhibited it to a number of Europeans whom he was entertaining at his court. Among them was Tavernier, the French jeweler, who later wrote a descriptive account of it for the delectation of Europe. After being tossed like a shuttlecock in the Delhi loot, and remaining for a period of years with the Sikhs in the Punjab, this most celebrated diamond in the world now rests on a purple velvet cushion among Britain's crown jewels in the grim old Tower of London.

How Wit Helps Legislation.

It is sometimes said that a reputation for wit is fatal to a serious legislative career. But the statement is not altogether true, for more than once a bit of wit has prevented legislative folly.

It is a tradition in Philadelphia that during the constitutional convention it was proposed to incorporate in the Constitution a provision that the United States army should never exceed 3,000 men. According to the tradition the debate, which was possibly informal and outside the regular sitting, was abruptly cut short when Benjamin Franklin solemnly suggested that there be inserted at another clause making it part of the organic law of the land that no foreign nation should ever invade the country with an army of more than 3,000.

A somewhat similar point was scored in the state legislature a few years ago when, during a discussion not over well heard, it was suggested by a shrewd Yankee from the hills of Sunderland, P. L. Whitmore, that a law should be enacted prohibiting that no one should be obliged to work between meals.—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

Tasmania Has Rare Mineral.

Tasmania now promises to become the world's chief producer for some time to come of the rare mineral osmiridium. The various osmiridium yielding centers of this extensive serpentine belt on the west coast are apparently giving profitable employment to 200 men, and it is an easy matter for an industrious digger to earn up to £10 a week, while many are making double that and more. A complete bulletin on this highly interesting mineral occurrence is in course of preparation, and its publication, it is expected, will attract the attention of the whole mining world to Tasmania. Last year 1,570 ounces of osmiridium was produced in Tasmania, the value being £24 per ounce.

Machine Needed.

Cotton might become much cheaper if some ingenious inventor would devise a mechanical means for picking it—the work of picking being the costly item, in time and labor.

There are cotton-picking machines on the market, but none of them is very satisfactory. One of them operates on the principle of a vacuum cleaner, sucking the bolls off the plants through rubber tubes. Another utilizes steel blades for entangling the bolls.

When a really practical contrivance for the purpose is obtained, an area as large as farm family in the South will be able to produce forty bales of cotton in a season, instead of seven bales.—New York Times.

Kill a Million Prairie Dogs.

Complete extermination of what was considered one of the largest prairie dog "towns" in the West has been reported to the predatory animal inspector's office at Phoenix, Ariz., by the Cleveland Cattle company of Pechuise county, southeastern Arizona.

More than 1,000,000 prairie dogs have been killed at last, the company's ranch of more than 50,000 acres until the management started an offensive campaign against them. Now their vast honeycombs of underground burrows are utterly deserted, the company reported.

REMAINED SLAVE OF CUSTOM

Augusta Housewife was "Set" in Her Ways, and Nothing Was Going to Change Her.

A man in an Augusta car seat talking to another man who appears to be his friend:

"Persistent? Say, my wife is that and some more. She is the most tenacious to habit of any person I ever saw. Once that woman has become addicted to a habit there's no breaking her. Honest, I think that if my wife should ever by accident start sweeping with the wrong end of a broom she'd never sweep any other way, and no law of heaven and earth could change her habit."

"Some persistent, I'll say," agreed the other.

"You bet," said the first speaker. "Why, here last summer I put a bay window on the front room of our house. There was a week while we were doing it that the whole end of the house was open as a hay field in August; there wasn't a single thing to prevent man or animal entering our house at any hour of daylight or darkness. Fact! But what do you think; I couldn't make my wife understand that it was, under those conditions, a waste of time to lock the doors. Every night and every time she went downstreet she made a complete circuit of the house, carefully locking doors and windows, so's to keep the wicked folks out."—Kennebec Journal.

ETHEL'S MEMORY WAS GOOD

Sweet Child Remembered Only Too Well Remark That Her Mother Had Let Drop.

Cousin Robert from the country, had come to dinner, and little Ethel had been allowed to sit up as a great treat.

Now, Ethel is one of those children one meets nowadays who hear a great deal too much for their years, and moreover, who don't believe in the saying about children not being heard. You can't stay near dear little Ethel without hearing quite a lot.

Which all gets on with the story of the night when Cousin Robert came to supper.

"Do have another helping of the pet-pie, Robert" said Ethel's mother, after Robert had already caused two platefuls to disappear.

"Well, Cousin Mary, I think I will, once you are so pressing," replied the guest.

"You win, mother!" exclaimed Ethel suddenly; and mother, caught napping, turned to her with a smile and asked:

"Win, dear?"

"Yes, I heard you say to father this morning that you bet a dollar that Cousin Robert behaved like a pig!"

Individual Airplanes.

Whether or not the average citizen welcomes the idea of individual airplanes jaunting about in the air over his head, the inventors have been busy enough trying to invent them. Several small planes are already more or less on the way to such use in England, Italy and France, one reads of planes already perfected, and that "small and light, and capable of being landed at low speed, they are just the type for flitting about the country, from one club to another." Italy is said to have produced the smallest, a triplane only 11½ feet wide, and engining for its operation "about as much skill as the attachment of a sidecar to a motorcycle." Seeing, says the adage, is believing; and the pedestrian who takes scant pleasure in the notion of a gentleman flitting about the country from one club to another may well wonder how soon he will have to believe in them.

Peanut Oil Gaining Favor.

The production of peanut oil, including both the cold-pressed and the hot-pressed, in the United States has increased from 454,000 pounds in 1912 to 35,056,000 pounds in 1918, an increase of more than 21,000 per cent. The importation of peanut oil increased from 7,020,000 pounds in 1912 to 68,466,000 pounds in 1918. Practically all the imported peanut oil is hot-pressed. Complete statistics for 1919 are not yet available.

It is apparent, say specialists, that cold-pressed peanut oil is winning for itself a place on the American table, justified by its flavor, nutritive value and digestibility.

Nothing There.

Before the consolidation I held an agency for one of the old express companies. One day several patrons were in the office when the superintendent and two other officials of the company came in unexpectedly. A woman had just asked for a package, and evidently the unexpected visit of the officials flustered me, for, after looking over the on-hand register and not finding anything listed for her, I returned to the counter, took down the receiver from the telephone, and said: "Hello, there is nothing here for you." My customer was standing right near the telephone, and every one laughed.—Calcago Tribune.

EXPLAINS ORIGIN OF "JAZZ"

At Last the Secret (?) Is Given to the World, and by an Englishman, Too.

Writing about the jazz reminds me that the subject is of such importance that a long cablegram was recently sent from London concerning the origin of the word. According to the cablegram, the secret is out, and it is an Englishman who gives us the valuable information.

He tells us that, while Englishmen should not be held responsible for the vernacular of their brethren in the Western continent, the word jazz, he admits, is now as much a household word in England as in America. And then he goes on to say that the word came from the South and from the negroes. Now in the South, he tells us, there is a germ known as the hookworm, which affects all true southerners. Some unkind employers call it "loafer-itis." The white employer, according to the erudite Englishman, in the South has many thousands of negroes working for him, and consequently many overseers. Not being able to remember the names of all his foremen, he generally names each man Jasper, which, according to this Englishman, is a term of the highest esteem. Through the very human love of abbreviation, Jasper became "Jas," and as the overseer's principal means of getting work out of his underlings is through harsh and abusive tongue, he was often requested to "Jass up" the work. The Southern drawl makes "Jass" sound like "Jazz." And there we have the word itself. And jazz music, no matter what classic-loving critics may say about it, at least inspires energy. Hence the derivation. —Musical America.

TRAVEL IN "GOOD OLD DAYS"

Description of Journey Made in Early '50s Recalls the Hardships of the Pioneers.

The hardships of pioneer life in Wisconsin during the early '50s are vividly described by Dr. John C. Reeve, in an article entitled, "A Physician in Pioneer Wisconsin," in the Wisconsin Magazine of History, published by the State Historical society.

The difficulties involved in the practice of medicine in a country almost devoid of roads, and with only the necessaries of life, and with practically no money, are related by Doctor Reeve, who practiced in a small village in Dodge county. Of a journey made in January, 1852, he writes:

"Called to Cleveland by the critical illness of a sister, I left home on a Sunday morning in a sleigh, a private conveyance, and reached Milwaukee, about 50 miles away, that night. From there on runners to Chicago. Thence some 30 miles by Michigan Central railroad, and then by vehicle across to the Southern Michigan at that time building from Toledo to Chicago. The appointments of the road were not yet made, so several times the train stopped, the passengers alighted and chopped fence rails to make fuel for the locomotive. From Toledo, on wheels, to a point on the railroad from Sandusky to Cincinnati; I think the place was Galion. I reached my destination just at dark on Saturday night. I had traveled during the whole week, passing but two nights in bed."

More Ministers Needed.

It is from the families of the farmers and from the parsonage itself that new preachers come, according to a survey now being taken by the American education department of the Interchurch World Movement. The farms lead. The survey shows that out of every thousand pupils who enter the first grade of our American schools, only 38 enter college and only 14 remain to complete the course.

It is from these 14 that the churches recruit the great majority of their ministers. It is also disclosed by the survey that it requires about 5,000 new men every year merely to replace the gaps in the ranks of the ministry at home.

Possibly He Had.

As I was passing a yard where some children were playing I saw a little fellow fall from a high porch rail. He did not move for a minute so I ran to his assistance, but when I reached him he jumped up on his feet apparently unhurt.

"Why, my dear little boy," I said, "I felt sure you must be hurt. I am sure I should have been had I had such a bad fall."

"Oh, but you see," he said in explanation, "I've probably had lots more practice in falling than you."—Exchange.

No Cork Wasted Now.

The best cork has hitherto come from Spain, but the richest forests of fair grade cork are now in Sardinia. High prices are now paid for cork that was not salable a few years ago, for even the refuse is valuable now in making conglomerate for building and for insulating refrigerators, cork being the best non-conductor of heat and sound.

Moving Picture Statistics.

It is estimated that the gross yearly income of moving picture theaters in this country is about $750,000,000. In 26 years' time the public has been educated to spend this huge sum. There are 15,000 theaters, with a total seating capacity of 8,000,000. This year 1,200 more theaters will be built at an aggregate cost of $72,000,000.—Argonaut.

Softening Hides.

There are two simple ways of softening leather and raw skins. One is to rub in thoroughly neat's foot oil. Another way is to dissolve three ounces of alum, seven ounces of salt and one and one-half ounces saleratus in sufficient hot rain water to saturate the skin. When cool enough not to scald the hands soak the skin in it for 12 hours; wring out and hang to dry. When dry repeat this operation two or three times until the skin is sufficiently soft.

Eggstraordinary Coincidence.

The custom has prevailed with a certain Episcopal church in California of presenting each scholar of the Sunday school with an egg at the celebration of Easter. On one occasion, when that point in the service was reached which had been set apart for this interesting ceremony, the clergyman rose and made the announcement: "Hymn No. 4th, Jingle, My Soul, the Exalted Lay,' after which the eggs will be distributed."—Boston Transcript.

Color and Disease.

Color really does fight disease. Take for example the ultra-violet ray. Here we have a most convincing proof of the healing force that resides in color. This famous ray exerts a very potent curative effect upon certain diseases of the skin. A ray of ultra-violet light is concentrated upon the diseased part, and immediately a new process is set up by which the disease is eventually destroyed.

The Original Budget.

The word "budget" was originally the name of the leather sacke in which the cavalry used to rescue my destination just at dark on Saturday night. I had traveled during the whole week, passing but two nights in bed."

Dividing the Day.

The division of the day into hours dates from the original sun dial; and the notion of 60 minutes and 60 seconds must be traced back to the Babylonians, who combined the decimal and the duodecimal systems of numeration, and chose 60 as a convenient measuring aggregate because of its large number of exact factors.—Scientific American.

Wholesale Arrests Canadians With Coughs

Hall! Who goes there? Someone with a cough. Pass friend! Stop cough! you are under arrest. Thousands of such arrests are being made every day in all parts of Canada. So long have coughs and colds evaded justice and caused untold suffering to humanity, but at last they have been cornered and overpowered by Canada's famous cough detective—Buckley's Bronchitis Mixture. Did you ever hear of this wonderful remedy? Why, everybody is talking and writing about the great work it is doing in curing coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma, etc.

The following is one of thousands of letters received:—"Kindly accept my sincere thanks for the benefit my wife derived by the use of one of your bottles of Bronchitis Mixture. For over thirteen years she has suffered acutely. After spending dollar after dollar upon various remedies, no relief was obtained. Hearing of your most marvellous remedy she decided to give it a trial and I am glad to say one bottle had made her well. You are at liberty to use my name and should be only too pleased to answer any inquiries. Sincerely yours, John Holmes, Yorkville Ave." The original of this letter may be seen at W. H. Buckley, Limited, 142 Mutual St., Toronto. Don't allow a cough or cold to linger with you. Away with it! Hail Buckley's Mixture and have cough arrested. This remedy never fails. WINTER RATION FOR MILCH COWS.

(Experimental Farms Note.)

The general principles involved in the feeding of milch cows may be outlined, but the most economical ration can be determined only by the feeds available, their cost and the capacity of the cows that are being fed. The feeder alone can determine what his individual cows should have, to give best returns.

It may be definitely stated that a meal ration of from 1 pound meal to each 3 pounds milk produced, to 1 pound to each 4 pounds milk, is the profitable limit. It is also known that digestive troubles, due to the heavy feeding of meal which is necessary under high production, can be largely overcome by giving an abundance of succulent feed along with the hay and meal ration. In considering a ration for milk, therefore, a good quality of hay, succulent feed, and meal mixture must be considered as definite requirements.

The quality of the hay is a big factor, as poorly cured hay is not appetizing and may cause digestive troubles as well. The value of good clover hay as compared with the grasses is too little appreciated. Where should there is abundant evidence to show that the legume hay will materially reduce the meal feed requirements over the average hay.

Hay and meal alone cannot give best results. This is not because hay and meal does not contain the necessary constituents for milk as the corn silage or roots but rather because the animal is kept in a better physical condition because of the succulent roughage and is therefore able to make full use of the meal and hay fed without ailments that are likely to follow heavy feeding of these alone.

The succulent feeds are corn and roots. Corn silage alone can be fed more abundantly than roots, for the reason that the bowels are not kept so open. A good combination is one-third roots and two-thirds corn silage together. Cows ranging around 1100 pounds may be fed 50 pounds of the above mixture per day and those 1400 pounds may take 60 pounds without being too loose. It is necessary for the feeder to watch his stock as cows cannot do well if purged excessively.

In compounding a meal ration bran should be one of the principal ingredients. Of all the mill products from wheat, bran seems to be the best and this with cracked oats should approximate two-thirds of the meal ration. To this is added the cottonseed or flaxseed meal which are more concentrated. A combination which has given good results in feeding at the Kentville Experimental Station is made up of 500 pounds bran, 200 pounds crushed oats, 200 pounds cotton seed and 100 pounds linseed meal. This is mixed together and 1 pound salt added to every 100 pounds of the mixture when mixing.

With reasonable care there is little danger of trouble from overfeeding with bran and oats but with cottonseed there is danger and it is doubtful if it, even in small lots, is ever advisable to give a cow more than 4 pounds of cottonseed per day, and if very heavy feeding is practised so that above that amount is given, we would increase in the linseed and correspondingly reduce in the cottonseed. Cottonseed may be dropped out and the linseed meal used entirely as the latter is a safer concentrate, but generally the cottonseed is the cheaper and can be used in part to advantage.

The practice at this Station is to feed during the winter 1 pound meal to 3 pounds milk produced, and 40 to 60 pounds roots and considerable mixed two-thirds corn to one-third roots, either turnips or mangels and 10 to 12 pounds hay for each cow per day.

The first feed is given directly after milking in the morning consisting of half the ensilage and roots with half the meal scattered on it, and followed by half hay. This is followed by an afternoon feed of ensilage and roots with meal, to be given at the next milking time, and the balance of the hay is given after milking.

Water is before the cattle all the time and exercise is given in the yards on fine days.

Another Lecture on Palestine Before the Historical Society.

Those who heard Professor Morrison lecture before the Historical Society about a year ago, "With Allenby in Palestine", will be pleased to learn that we are to have another lecture along the same lines by Professor Prince, who will begin where the other lecturer left off. Professor Morrison was with the Expeditionary Force and was enabled to speak from first hand knowledge. Professor Prince was with the army of occupation during the transition period from war to peace conditions, and has first hand knowledge of what took place. This is the first visit of Prof. Prince to Napanee, and as he comes most highly recommended, there should be a good turn-out to hear him. The meeting will be held in Historical Hall two weeks from tonight. Remember the date, February 11th. The address will be illustrated by lantern slides.

Motor Funeral Car.

Mr. W. A. Masters, the leading undertaker in Napanee, and successor to Carscallen Bros., was in London on Monday and purchased a McLaughlin Master Six hearse from A. B. Greer & Son. The car is a beautiful conception of the manufacturer's art and reflects credit on Mr. Masters for his progressiveness.

Accident on Roblin's Hill.

Mr. Alex. Mills, of Morven, had both legs fractured and other injuries when a large stone came through the roof of the eating cabin on Roblin's Hill yesterday noon during the blasting. Mr. W. J. LeMaistre, who was also in the cabin, received a severely cut leg and cuts on the head. Mr. Reid's motor ambulance from Kingston took Mr. Mills to Kingston Hospital yesterday afternoon.

MUSICAL AND LITERARY SOCIETY.

On Tuesday evening, the fourth meeting of the Napanee Musical and Literary Society was held as usual in the Town Hall. A most interesting programme had been arranged, with Aldcroft of Toronto, as the special artist for the evening. Mr. Aldcroft, who only a few years ago came from Manchester, England, is now one of Toronto's best baritones and soloist at the Eaton Memorial Church.

On Tuesday evening he first favored his audience with the beautiful, pathetic "Farewell Song" from Faust ("Dio possente"), following it by its antithesis, an exhilarating composition called "Tis the Day", by Leoncavallo. The next three groups were taken from 16th and 18th century and modern music. The 1st group were two lovely old Italian songs written by contemporaries of Handel; the 2nd, an Aria from Mendelssohn's Oratorio, "St. Paul"; and last of all three delightful modern compositions, (a) "Morning", (b) "Vale", and (c) "Invictus". It will be easy to see that few could suggest a favorite number in this splendid choice of musical gems. Mr. Aldcroft's voice was one that left nothing to be desired and everything he sang was given sympathetically and artistically.

He was ably assisted by Miss Rowena Smith, A.T.C.M., who played two difficult selections with executive skill and good expression. Although Miss Smith was heartily encored, she did not respond, much to the disappointment of those present.

The Misses Marguerita and Jean McCorkindale, students at the Hamburg Conservatory of Music, were received with enthusiasm. Both young ladies possessed remarkably high soprano voices, and sang several numbers which showed their splendid training to perfection. With such marked talents and pleasant personality, these charming young singers without a doubt have a wonderful future ahead of them.

Mrs. O. M. Meyers, who accompanied each vocalist with her usual wonderful understanding, added much to the success of the evening.

The season for colds is here. Guard against catching one by taking one "Rikers' Cold Break Up Tablet" each day. For sale in Napanee only at Wallace's.

OTTAWA WINTER FAIR

INTER COUNTY LIVE STOCK JUDGING COMPETITION.

In order to encourage a deeper interest in live stock on the part of the young men in the Province, the Ottawa Winter Fair Board has inaugurated a special competition, to be open to one judging team from each County. These teams must be selected by the Agricultural Representative from those who have attended a four to six weeks course in agriculture and who have never taken a regular course in an Agricultural College. The young men must be under 29 years of age and three men will constitute a team.

The members of the judging team representing Lennox and Addington were Bruce Smith, Odessa; James Robson, R.M.D. No. 1, Napanee, and Rod Sharpe, R.M.D. No. 2, Napanee. All three young men attended the annual course in agriculture held at Bath last year. These young men did excellent work in the judging competition, Bruce Smith standing second high man in the competition and the County team standing fourth. Bruce Smith won 1st in Beef Cattle, 4th in Swine, and 6th in Dairy Cattle. While the other members of the team were not successful in winning any individual prizes, still they did good consistent judging and were responsible for the high standing of the County. Taking the above considering that the three teams winning ahead of Lennox and Addington travelled extensively and were trained at the Guelph Winter Fair, this County made an excellent showing, and the young men are to be congratulated on their good showing in the judging competition.

COAL TO DROP 1st OF MARCH.

Montreal, Jan. 26.—The Star says: About the first of March a reduction of from $3 to $4 a ton in the price of hard coal may be expected, according to a prominent fuel merchant, though the heavy freight rate and exchange will prevent anything like a drop to the old levels. The decrease is anticipated in the price at the mines, which is said to be from $1.50 to $2.00 higher per ton than last year at this time, and while hard coal is not mined ahead as is soft coal, and there are no stocks of anthracite on hand, as there are of bituminous, this dealer thinks that there will be a decided drop in the present high rate with the approach of warm weather.

While optimists among coal merchants are looking forward to a late spring, the coal buying season is said to be already more than half over and so far business has been exceptionally quiet, though no one is prepared to give an estimate of the lessened consumption. It is by no means local, however, for throughout the eastern United States as well as Canada, the season has been exceptionally mild, and there has been a decreased demand for hard coal, they say.

Many questions were asked but were readily answered to the farmers' satisfaction. The Manager, Mr. McLean, also gave assurance that the community would do all in their power to help along anything which promises to open up in the early spring. U. F. O. NEWS AND VIEWS.

Writing in "The Christian Guardian" of January 5th, 1921, Rev. G. B. King, M.A., B.D., gives a minister's unprejudiced reasons why he is giving his support to the Great Farmers' Movement, and some reasons why the social and economic welfare of our country depends upon this movement. In an article entitled "Out of the Furrow", Rev. Mr. King says, "The delerium of unrest must holds away in the large centres of population where men are crowded together, and where too often conditions of poverty and disease exist. In the country is to be found steadiness, balance, sameness of thought and action. It is only when men leave the farm and the land and crowd together in cities, that they become deranged in thought and affected with a spirit of unrest."

Mr. Hoover's Statement.

"Is this an over-statement? Well, Herbert Hoover, whom, with all due deference to our American cousins, many of us here in Canada thought ought to have been the new President of the United States, does not think it is. Writing in the Saturday Evening Post on April 10th of last year, on the ill-balance between industrial development and agriculture in his country, he says: "There is a jeopardy in industrial over-development. * * * In times of industrial depression or great increase in the cost of living in industry over-development * * * In times of industrial depression or great increase in the cost of living in industrial over-development * * * with misery, turn to political remedies for matters that are beyond man control. They naturally resent the lowering of their standards of living, and they inevitably resort to industrial strife, to strikes and disorder. Theirs is the breeding-ground of radicalism for all such phenomena belongs to the towns and not to the country. * * * Social stability of our country, the development of our national life, rests in the spirit of our farms and surrounds our villages. These are the sources that always supplied our country with its true Americanism, its new and fresh blood, its initial and its moral strength.

Rev. Mr. King's Opinion.

"The desertion of the land," Rev. Mr. King continues, "is a world-wide phenomenon. It is rather acute even in Canada to-day, the ill-balance between city and country population is one to be adjusted, as must be adjusted if the delerium that affects the industrial life of Europe away. In this connection it is good to learn that ninety-three per cent. of our returned men who took land under or under the Government's re-establishment plan have remained on it.

"But Herbert Hoover is not wholly correct, for to-day I read in my paper that the Ex-Kaiser and Crown are hoiding back their wheat. In nearly every Province of Canada they are kicking over the traces, or endeavoring to do so.

"But there have been occasions when the farmer has left his furrow to seek greater gain of his country and times. When the Hebrew tribes were disunited and in danger of extinction, Barnes' Deborah, called the men of plough, and built them up into a nation. When Rome was tottering on the brink of moral and political suicide, Amos came from the country-side and gave a new lease of life to the nation the eternal principles of righteousness, and to-day the moral health of any people. Cincinnatus was taken from his farm to save with and he had accomplished his task he went back to it, after his masterful life of service, that its soil imparts strength and sinew, the broad reaches of the countryside give vision and perspective—whatever it is, the land produces leaders as the city does not. This is what Canada's Farmers' Government has given us a commendable administration. This, at least, is my opinion", says Rev. Mr. King. "And I did not vote for their candidate, and deprecate the movement at its inception as a class movement. I fancy the question the old-time politicians are asking is, "Will the farmers, like Cincinnatus, give back to their farms when their work is done?" Others are asking, 'Ought they?' I leave the question with you. It might be accused of delirium if I tried to answer it."

Owing to a slight error in the copy of last week, the statement referring to the price of wheat was incorrect. It should have been $2.00 per bushel pound for his wheat.

Preparations are being made for the public meeting to be held in the near future at which Mr. Denyes, M.P.P. and Hastings, will be one of the principal speakers. The meeting will likely be held in the Town Hall, Napanee. Watch for the date. Everybody is welcome and a large attendance of U. F. O. members throughout this County is especially anticipated.

NEWBURGH.

The re-opening services in connection with the Methodist, or perhaps we might say the Union Church, on Sunday, fulfilled all expectations. The weather was fine, the roads in good condition, the turnout a record one, and the services most inspiring. The Church itself in its renewed and rejuvenated form, in which it is completely modernized and tastefully furnished and equipped, did much to brighten the services, while the addresses of Rev. Mr. DeMille, the service of the Choir, and the whole spirit that seemed to prevail, made it a joyous time, and brought to mind a verse from the 122nd Psalm, "I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the House of the Lord". The whole cost of the renovating work was $4350.00. A couple of years ago a start was made towards raising funds towards this work and the sum of $700.00 was subscribed. To this sum was added $500.00 by the Willing Workers, $276.00 by the Sunday School and Dramatic Club, making in all $1,320.00 on hand at the beginning of the re-opening services. The offerings at these services, morning and evening, totaled $1650.00, and the concert on Monday night $180.00, which leaves a balance of $900.00, which it is hoped will be wiped out within the next ten days. The offerings were made without personal appeal and resulted as above. Much credit is due the Building Committee and also the Pastor, Rev. Mr. Cooke, and his good wife for the work and the leadership given in this most commendable enterprise which has resulted so satisfactorily. His Honor Judge Deroche came from Belleville back to his native town and presided at the concert on Monday, adding much by his cheery presence to the success of the occasion. Next Sunday the opening services will be continued. The service in the morning at 10.30 will be in the regular communion service, which will furnish opportunity for special thanksgiving and communion at this God who giveth all. The services, morning and evening, will be taken by Rev. Dr. MacGillivary, of Kingston.

The connection which has existed between Mr. G. F. Hill and the grocery on the corner for the past twelve or fifteen years, first under Mr. Ryan, and later under Mr. Quail, was severed on Monday. Mr. Hill has been such a familiar figure in that particular spot that the public will scarcely know what is to be minus for a time. Miss Emma Shorey takes the place vacated by Mr. Hill.

Mrs. John Yeomans celebrated her 91st birthday anniversary on Tuesday, surrounded by her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

The 44th annual meeting of the Lennox and Addington Mutual Fire Insurance Company was held on Saturday afternoon last and a goodly crowd was in attendance.

Mr. A. C. Parks, President, occupied the chair.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and on motion were approved.

Mr. Mearle Sills presented the Auditors' Report of receipts and expenditures, and Mr. S. C. S. McKim presented the assets, and on motion the report of the Auditors was received and adopted.

It was shown by the Auditors that the financial position of the Company is on a stronger basis than at any period in the past, despite the heavy fire losses of 1920. There were 998 policies in force on December 31st, 1920, covering an insurance of $2,102,600.00, and the total assets were $63,100.00.

The Auditors also paid a tribute to the Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. W. E. Lott, saying that the books were neatly and correctly kept and his work was very methodical.

In referring to a small asset of unpaid payments of prior years the attention of policyholders was drawn to the fact that unless a premium is paid within the specified time, notification of which is sent to each policyholder by the Secretary-Treasurer, their policy is null and void and the assured has not, legally, one cent of insurance on his property. This is a very important fact and policyholders should look sharply to their payments.

On motion Messrs. John C. Hudgins and A. C. Parks were re-elected Directors for the ensuing term of three years.

On motion Messrs. S. C. S. McKim and W. Mearle Sills were re-elected Auditors for the ensuing year.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors, held directly after the annual meeting, Mr. A. C. Parks was re-elected President, and Mr. H. A. Baker was re-elected Vice-President.

M.-D. FRALICK BEATS FARMER OUT OF HIS VENISON.

M. D. Fralick is the "Champeen" hunter of this neck of the tall timber, if you don't believe it just ask an old resident hunter living in the neighborhood of the big Hebron swamp who had been setting on a deer runaway in the vicinity of that big tangle of tamarack, spruce, cedar and tag alder and everything ever since the deer season began, and no doubt for many days before, expecting at every moment to see the big he denizen of the big swamp walk out onto him. He was off his path a short while one day this week and along came Mr. Fralick who planted out onto him. He was off his beat innocent of any intention of ever coming face to face with a deer in that place, but that looked like the softest deer hunting he could see anywhere around and the boys accompanying him advising him to station himself there as he could do little harm there as anywhere. His coming panicks had hardly got out of sight in the tangle of swamp when out walked a fine big buck right up almost close enough to eat out of the expressers hand and venison has been the principal article on the bill of fare at the Fralick home ever since. M. D. didn't get the least bit of buck fever, but instead he just pulled up that old shot slinging flute he was armed with and punched a hole right in the midship of that animal and just then along came the old neighbor who had abandoned his post for a short while. Talk about hot, that old sport was mad clear through to think a city guy would come out and just while he was off watch bag the prize he had been waiting for. It's darn handy to be a born lucky guy. Bill Wenger, another of the Fralick crowd, had quite the opposite experience while he was after the elusive deer. Bill had roamed the wildwood all day without seeing anything bigger than a chickadee to shoot at, when he came back to the car to come home he unloaded his gun at a spot on a big tree and had just fired off the last cartridge when a fine deer came prancing along right close to him, looked him over at close range then pranced off into the tall timber again. Gosh, darn it, what Bill said would fill a ten ton truck tires to the bursting point.

M. D. Fralick is an old Napanee boy, now living in Cheboygan, Michigan, a brother of Mac and Harry Fralick, of Calgary.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION.

P.O. Box 21,
Trail, British Columbia,
Canada.
Jan. 11th, 1921.

To Miss Rhea B. Perry,
Napanee, Ont.

I am returning the enclosed card, which one of my boys found only about 10 minutes ago, Jan. 11th, 1921, 7.45 p.m. Being an ex-Canadian soldier, enlisted September, 1915, along with my eldest son, in Calgary, Alta., and was discharged February 4th, 1920. About December, 1919, I remember being issued with two pairs of socks, one was light colored wool and one pair dark grey. The latter I brought home with other apparel. This evening one of my boys whom I left home in 1915 was a very little chap of 9 years, and only 4 ft. 4 in. Upon returning home, I found him a strapping lad 5 ft. 6 in. He was going out skating, and asked his mother for a nice thick pair of socks. Yes, my boy, I'll get you a beautiful warm pair, nice and thick, that your father brought home. Ma, after examining pairs of socks issued to me during 4 years and 8 months. Hence my haste to appreciate, your kind endeavours and ministry fo service to the many boys away from home who appreciate such warm footwear as these your busy hands knit. Accept my appreciation of your services, almost forgot, but pleasantly revived in this unforseen incident of a boy asking his mother for a warm and comfortable pair of socks.

Year 1921 is still very young, therefore I will ask you to accept my sincere wishes for a very prosperous year; yes, in a threefold way, namely soul, body and pocket.

Sincerely yours,

ROD AND GUN IN CANADA.

Canadians have long known the wonders of big game hunting in Canada but this month's Rod and Gun in Canada contains an American's impression of what he terms his greatest big game hunt. Merrill Denison, the famous American writer and big game hunter visited British Columbia last fall and with camera and pen he tells an interesting story of big game hunting in his own inimitable manner. In addition to this article, there are sixteen stories and articles dealing with the great outdoor life in Canada. The writers include Bonnycastle Dale, F. V. Williams, A. Byran Williams, Harry M. Moore and others equally well known to the readers of Canada's greatest sporting monthly. The various departments are up to their usual high standards in this issue. Rod and Gun in Canada is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

H. W. Kelly has fresh Prunes, Peaches, Stewing Figs, and Apples and Honey for sauce, and all kinds of Jams. Be sure and get some while fresh. 4b

GAIN IN CASH ASSETS BY DOMINION BANK.

New High Records Touched in Net Profits in Bank's Jubilee Year.

Scarcely anything can be more gratifying to a bank, or reassuring to the public, than to experience a steady strengthening of its cash assets. This, as financial authorities are well aware, has been the experience of The Dominion Bank, which has recently completed the fiftieth year of its history.

The annual statement for the year ending December 31st, 1920, shows that the cash assets increased during the twelve months by the substantial sum of $2,758,000, their total being $34,661,617, the highest point ever reached, while their proportion to the bank's liabilities to the public is 27.65 per cent, or 2.66 points above the figures for 1919. Total immediately available assets stand at $64,321,757, or equal to 51.21 per cent of the liabilities to the public.

New High Record in Profits.

Net profits, amounting to $1,188,511 also establish a new high record, and show an increase for the year of $188,807. This net is 9.14 per cent on the bank's capital and reserve, as compared with 9 per cent at the end of 1919. After paying dividends at the rate of 12 per cent and a bonus of 1 per cent, carrying off the total of $780,000, writing $200,000 off bank premises, and contributing $35,000 to officers' pension fund, the sum of $669,218 (larger by $173,511 than in 1919), was carried forward to profit and loss account.

Big Gain in Savings Deposits.

Notwithstanding the quieter trade conditions obtaining in Canada during the last half of 1920, interest bearing deposits with The Dominion Bank were in excess of those at the end of December, 1919, by $16,565,782, the total amounting to $84,889,459. As a result of the Dominion Government withdrawing the proceeds of the last Victory Loan, non-interest bearing deposits decreased by about $17,000,000 during the year.

Commercial loans, standing at $66,740,000, experienced a slight increase. Capital stock was unchanged at $6,000,000 and the reserve at $7,000,000.

How the Bank Has Expanded.

"Nineteen twenty" being the jubilee year of the Dominion Bank it is appropriate that some reference should be made to the growth that has characterized it during the last few decades. The figures given in the following table show the progress made by The Dominion Bank since its inception in 1871.

1871	$ 345,881	$ 157,160	$ 137,640
1891	5,390,654	3,437,422	275,162
1901	15,621,245	10,783,045	784,845
1911	35,823,245	18,577,617	1,184,841
	79,170,602	39,000,000

The outstanding feature of these figures is the persistent gathering of strength in the items indicating the financial position of the bank. Total assets for 1920 show a gain of 122 per cent in the past 10 years, 569 per cent in 20 years, and rather better than 1,000 per cent when compared with 1890. The proportionate gain in liquid assets is even more marked, being nearly 192 per cent in ten years, 732 per cent in twenty, and 1,447 per cent in thirty years.

Net profits increased by 80 per cent in ten and by 424 per cent in twenty years. Total deposits made a gain of 96 per cent-over 1911, 461 per cent over 1901, and 1123 per cent over 1891. Since 1907 the reserve has exceeded the paid up capital by one million dollars, and compared with 1880 shows an increase of 1,371 per cent, while the increase in the capital during that period was but 515 per cent. Branch banks number 126, compared with 80 in 1916, 22 in 1900, and 16 in 1890.

QUALITY GOES CLEAR THROUGH

The bore of the Gray-Dort Cylinder has been increased. This is one of the most important refinements made in the Engine. Greater smoothness, surplus of power are the results.

Already the smoothness and hill-climbing power of the Gray-Dort are favorably known to motorists. It carries to still further high standards of the corner stone of the Gray-Dort structural idea—simplicity.

With simplicity primarily in mind, strength, sturdiness, reliability, accessibility and longevity are the more easily achieved.

Slow depreciation of Gray-Dort Cars is Gray-Dort's proudest claim.

CHILDLESS WOMEN

Please Read This Letter And See What Normal Health Will Do For You.

Berwick, Ont.—"I had organic trouble, and after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Medicine all my troubles passed away. I was made strong and well and have been ever since. Now we have a fine baby boy six months old, and I know that I should not have this baby and would still be suffering if it had not been for your remedies. My husband and myself say that your remedies are worth their weight in gold, and I recommend them to my friends. One of my aunts is taking them now."—Mrs. NAPOLEON LAVIGNE, Berwick, Ontario, Canada.

Among the virtues of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is its ability to correct sterility in many cases. This fact is well established as evidenced by the above letter and hundreds of others we have published in these columns.

In many other homes, once childless, there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

PLAIN TALK NO. 3

Dear People,—

'Tis possible to fool some of the people all the time and all of the people some of the time, but when a person tries to fool everybody all the time, it's a sure sign somebody is subject to temporary attacks of insanity.

Now folks, we are fairly smart ourselves. We don't have to prove it, we just claim it; others will tell you, for we are without doubt a pair of smooth guys. We will half-sole your shoes just as neat as any man and in about half the time. Try us out, for although we don't want everybody's work, we do want yours, and can do it right, for we don't ask anyone to leave their boots with us. We are too anxious to get the money, and will do them while you wait if necessary. We also put on Rubber Soles for $1.00. These soles are invisible and put on and be slippery as ice. Skates sharpened, concaved and oil finished, 25c. We cordially invite you to look over our work and to sit down and rest while you are in town.

You may speak as you like of the weather,
Or the beautiful birds that sing,
But when you are down on your uppers
Just keep on smiling till spring.

We know its just the real thing,
Reader dear, our work is unequalled
So to us your shoe repairs bring.

We'll do you a job that worth notice,
For we can fix any old thing;
To satisfy tinker or tailor
For we have done work for the king.

HAVE ANIMALS SIXTH SENSE?

Hard Otherwise to Explain How Wild Beasts Know That the Great War Was Over.

Frightened by the noises of battle the wild beasts of East, Central and West Central Africa went scurrying north and south, traveling sometimes hundreds of miles in their fright and taking refuge in localities entirely new to them.

But just as the rules of northern France have drawn human beings back to them—men and women who dwelt there before the German occupation—hope has claimed the wild animals and most of them are now back in their native haunts.

How did the wild beast know that the war was over?

The elephant, gorilla, giraffe, antelope, buffalo, rhinoceros, lion, leopard and porcupine are certainly all perfectly aware of the fact.

Human beings have their various avenues of sending news, chief among these the newspapers, the post and the telegraph.

Peace was no sooner accomplished than the African natives began to see the homeward migration of whole companies of wild beasts through their territories, animals never familiar in these particular communities and obviously passing through.

Four years previously they had come crashing through the undergrowth, bound in an opposite direction. They were in great headlong haste and possessed of fears and phobydeems and carnivora traveled together, the age-old war of the jungle forgotten in a common plight.

Birds may become accustomed to the sound of firing, but wild animals loathe it. Fear of strange noises is instinctive with them. Animals born in captivity invariably show this insensitive dread. And it is a well-known fact in zoological parks that apes can be controlled instantly by the display of a musket, even when as far as is known they have never seen one spit fire.

Women's Rights in China.

A paternal government in the province of Hunan, China, is endeavoring by official action to bring the women of the province into the control of their own affairs. "Women and girls are not permitted to wear extraordinary clothes," runs the official order which the police have been instructed to enforce. "The women's dresses, which were generally adopted by the Chinese people previous to the first revolution in 1911, are better suited to young women because they are not too short or too narrow, and they should be used again." The official order leaves further particulars of the absence which it alleges have taken place by which, in the matter of clothes, it is not possible to distinguish the Chinese women of "respectable and good families from those who are not." But the significance of this solicitude on the part of the military governor of Hupeh is found in the part of the order which states that the importance of bedding and clothes is to be recognized, "in view of the fact that women are playing an important part in modern politics in western countries, and there is sufficient reason to believe that this awakening of the gentle sex will soon be extended to the far East."

Gruesome Find.

An extraordinary story comes from Shanghai (China) of a find by some railway men at Harbin. A box car addressed to Colonel Rulikoff, who is the Russian representative at Hailar, was opened and found to contain apparently bags of flour and firewood. Under-neath these were found eight caskets, each one duly labeled, six bearing the names of grand dukes and duchesses and the other two the name of a princess and a valet of one of the grand dukes. To make sure there was no ruse, one casket was opened and a body re-vealed. In addition to the names of the dead there was also written, who had killed them and where. The question is being asked who had forwarded these bodies and for what reason, and where they were ultimately destined to be sent. In these days when railwaymen expect to find hidden away gold, jewels and other precious articles, to be confronted with caskets containing murdered persons is indeed a gruesome and unwelcome find.

If She Doesn't Talk Too Much.

The worst woman hater I know is my husband's brother. He is a bachelor M. D. and although busy with his patients, never forgets himself. He seems to dislike women through jealousy of them. As he is only forty-three, we intend starting a campaign at once to convert him. I have invited him to dinner Friday evening. I have also invited an amiable and beautiful young woman, who is a practitioner at the bar of justice. She has my cue to hold the floor for and in favor of women everywhere. She may win him over. If this interests you I will send you the next chapter.—Exchange.

Dub Golfer but Star Casuist.

The latest yarn from the Duke concerns a duffer who took a 10 in making the third hole, and said to his opponent, who had a 6: "I'll take 8 here; 10 is too many. I don't like double figures."

"Why not say 9, instead of 5?" suggested the other.

"Well, you see, 9 is a bad number," was the reply. "You can't divide it by 2; turn it upside down and it's 6, but 8 is 8, no matter how you look at it."—Boston Transcript.

CONDITIONS NOW AND IN 1865

According to General Sherman's Memoirs, History Seems to Be Merely Repeating Itself.

A single page in the story of the Civil war, the Memoirs of General Sherman, carries observations by two Ohio men prominent in that war, General Sherman himself and Secretary of War Stanton, that have a strangely familiar sound now amid the distressing conditions that have followed the World war here.

General Sherman has arrived with his story at the opening of the year 1865, and he is dealing with the closing events of the Civil war. He is at Savannah and the secretary of war is there, partly on an official visit and partly for recreation. The policy of enlisting slaves in the Union decision and the order giving the freed slaves the right to occupy seized lands is agreed on.

"He professed to have come from Washington for rest and recreation," writes General Sherman, "but he spoke unreservedly of the bickerings and jealousies at the national capital, of the interminable quarrels of the state governors about their quotas and more particularly of the very existence of the government itself.

"He said that the price of everything had so risen in comparison with the depreciated money that there was danger of national bankruptcy, and he appealed to me, as a soldier and patriot, to hurry up matters so as to bring the war to a close.

"I was quite impatient to get off myself, for city life had become dull and tame, and we were all anxious to get into the pine woods where we knew the impertinities of Southern women asking for protection, and of rebellion from the North who were coming to Savannah for cotton and all sorts of profit."

"High prices," weariness of the war conditions, eagerness on all sides for the return of peace, swarms of people at Washington—official and private—filtered with axes to grind, and speculators from the North pushing right down to the hostile lines in pursuing their profiteering enterprises. But we came through it.—Columbus Dispatch.

Cured by Gold Injections.

The very latest post-war discovery is the curing of certain ailments by gold injections of diluted gold. This very expensive method of restoring lost health was discovered by a French doctor. Who has completely cured a wealthy Parisian of a complaint similar to shell-shock. Although gold is very scarce at present, a limited supply is available for medicinal purposes. The price for one injection of good quality gold sometimes reaches the fifty-pound mark, while in one or two exceptional cases gold injections have cost over a hundred pounds each. Consequently, only very rich persons can at present undergo the gold treatment, which has been successful in rescuing several cases of complete insanity. It should be remembered, however, that the gold itself is of no great value as a tonic. The idea in making the injections is to liven up the patient and present him or her from brooding too seriously. In this done, doctors believe that half the battle is won. Strange to say, the injections are not made through the usual type of syringe, but generally through a conical-shaped tube of pure platinum costing over twelve hundred dollars.

Money.

After having studied the careers of many of our richest men, and after having obtained from many of them the conquering of their inmost thoughts my conclusion about money is this, says a writer in Forbes Magazine:

"Money is a very desirable thing, even a lot of it. Its possession excuses one to a great many things which are impossible if one lacks it. There is no such potent material instrument for sending one to do worthy deeds in large numbers and on a large scale. Money, indeed, is so desirable, so useful, so rich in possibilities for worthy accomplishment, that one should exercise every honorable effort to acquire it. Provided that one can earn, but there is not enough money in the world to compensate one for turning even one sharp corner. I never have I known an instance of ill-gotten money to have yielded true happiness to possessor and his offspring."

Bird Protection Important.

Preserving birds as game is only one part of the duty of the government. They are even more valuable as enemies of noxious weeds and insects. They are the farmer's best friends, though he is too often oblivious of the fact, says the Philadelphia Inquirer. Those who care nothing for their beauty of plumage and song must recognize the circumstance. Yet the birds have been too long the prey of their human hunters. Some species have been wellnigh exterminated in consequence. To protect them in the United States and Canada will accomplish much, though to make the protection of many of the migrants complete Mexico and Central American countries should join in the work.

Seal Herds Increasing.

The protective measures adopted by the government for the protection of the seals in our waters has been entirely successful, as indicated by the phenomenal number of animals seen to be returning to the Arctic sea. The migration was three weeks earlier than usual and an unusually large amount of animals were noted on their way to the north.

AUDITORS' REPORT TO SHAREHOLDERS

We have compared the above Balance Sheet with the books and accounts at the Chief Office of The Dominion Bank, and the certified returns received from the Branches, and after checking the cash and securities at the Chief Office and certain of the principal Branches on December 31st, 1920, we certify that, in our opinion, such Balance Sheet exhibits a true and correct view of the state of the Bank's affairs, according to the best of our information, the explanations given to us and as shown by the books of the Bank.

In addition to the examinations mentioned, the cash and securities at the Chief Office and certain of the principal Branches were checked and verified by us at various times during the year and found to be in accord with the books of the Bank.

All information and explanations required have been given to us and all transactions of the Bank which have come under our notice have, in our opinion, been within the powers of the Bank.

A Chautauqua Lecture.

On Monday evening, Jan. 24th, in the School Room of Trinity Church, a large and representative audience again had the pleasure of listening to a Chautauqua lecturer, in the person of Mr. C. H. Poole, M.P., of New Zealand, a man with a message and the appeal of personality, the force of character, and the power of oratory to drive it home. Understanding, sympathy and good fellowship in this difficult reconstruction period was the keynote of his talk, and the marvellous development of a country from cannibalism to a model democracy in the short space of seventy years, was the fascinating story he told. He enthralled the imagination with his graphic word pictures of the New Zealand of his young manhood as compared with the New Zealand of to-day, prosperous, contented, and happy under a government that, understanding natural wealth to be the property of its people, recognizes no limit to its public utilities; understanding the advantage of an educated over an illiterate people provides free education right through its universities; and understanding that a country is sound financially and morally only as its rural life is stable and healthy, spares neither effort nor money to keep its people on its farms and to make farm life irresistibly attractive. He reached the high note so invariably reached by Chautauqua speakers, when in concluding, he appealed to the young men in the gathering to so order their lives that they might make this country worthy of the sacrifice of those Anzacs and Canadians who sleep on the barren sand hills of Gallipoli and in the poppy-strewn fields of France.

Certainly we people of Napanee have cause to be most grateful to those enterprising and public-spirited citizens who make the rare treat of these Chautauqua lectures possible, and surely there is hope for a town whose people so enthusiastically appreciate the intellectual feasts provided by the Music and Literary Club, the Historical Society and the annual Chautauqua.

Death of Mrs. E. S. Lapum.

Another of the older generation and a life long resident of our town has passed away, in the person of Mrs. E. S. Lapum, who died very unexpectedly on the early morning of January 25th, 1921. Her maiden name was Margaret Lavina Dutcan, and she was born in the Township of Fredericksburgh, just east of the town, on February 14th, 1851, but her family moved into Napanee when she was yet a little girl. Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, Fred S., of Mexico City, and Hartley, of Napanee, and one sister, Mrs. E. A. Shaw. Mrs. Lapum had not been in good health for the past ten years or more, but she bore any troubles she may have had as only one whose faith was of the highest and who lived up to them, could bear them. Her immediate relatives have our sincere sympathy in the loss of one who goes loved by those who knew her well in Napanee and also respected by everyone who knew her at all. The funeral, which was a large and impressive one, was held on Trinity on Thursday, January 27th.

"What is that?"
"If he remains rooted to the spot, he can't branch out."

Benefit Dance.

On Wednesday evening, the Driving Park Committee gave another dance in the Armouries, the funds to go towards the new skating rink. A splendid crowd gathered at nine o'clock, and were rewarded with excellent music as furnished by Garrett's "Brockville Orchestra". The supper was donated by the ladies of the town, the patronesses serving throughout the evening, and a very satisfactory sum was realized. Every one had a most enjoyable evening, and the members of the Committee are to be congratulated upon the success of their enterprise.

Season of 1921

Of late years many housekeepers who contemplate having certain rooms re-papered, especially those requiring the better class of paper, have had it done early in the season, in February or March, because there is less danger of delay through the paper hangers being busy. We are prepared to meet such cases. We have a full stock of the different lines, Kitchen, Dining Rooms, Bed Rooms, Parlors, Halls, Bath Rooms, etc., and there have been two or three advances in prices since we bought.

Our new stock contains some lines of American made paper that we can sell at prices lower than is asked for same qualities to-day. We invite inspection of our stock and prices.

We have added to our stock of Room Mouldings, White, White and Gold, Oak, different sizes, at old prices. Our stock of Picture Frame Moulding has just been filled up—some quite new in design and finish.

AT THE BARGAIN HOUSE

We take our loss now. Our prices are down to stay. We will follow the market downward.

We would consider it an unwise policy to endeavor to realize a profit on what the goods cost us in view of the fact that the replacement value is much lower.

During our sale we disposed of several thousand dollars worth of goods. To replace them we have purchased as many new goods at much lower prices. By the end of this month we will have on hand a new stock of UP-TO-DATE GOODS at DOWN-TO-DATE prices.

Carhartt Overalls

I FIGURE that when a man wears overalls he wants to be able to bend, twist or stoop freely without being conscious of them. So I purposely make my Carhartt's extra roomy, and double stitch every seam. The suspender buttons stick as if they were imbedded in concrete. Interlacing suspenders give you shoulder ease you never knew before —and they stay together in the wash, while the first-grade denim cloth I use has a staunch durability that ensures a surprising length of service.

BIG FUSS OVER SMALL FOX

Extensive Litigation in Prospect Because of Winter Sport in Dutchess County, New York.

Every sportsman in Dutchess county is interested in a lawsuit over the skin of a fox which already has involved two hunters, two farmers, four justices and one justice of the peace, bidding fair to take a trail leading straight into the Supreme court, a dispatch from Poughkeepsie to the New York Evening Sun says.

Reynard was shot and wounded while in woods belonging to De Witt Clinton Flanagan, formerly member of congress. The wounded fox reached the farm of L. C. Hart, where it was discovered by Edward Meade, an employee of Mr. Hart. Meade used a club and dispatched the animal, taking possession of the skin. The two sportsmen demanded possession of the trophy, but this was refused.

One lawyer representing the sportsmen found an ancient law which provided that a wild animal shot by hunters belongs to them whether it is recovered immediately or escapes to other parts.

In a justice's court Meade was arraigned on a charge of having hunted without a license, his weapon having been a club, but he was promptly acquitted.

But the question of the pelt remained unsettled until the justice found a colonial statute which states that whenever a vixen (disclosed holding of land) is invaded by a predatory animal said animal may lawfully be seized or killed. Under this ruling the fox skin was awarded to Meade.

STILL CLING TO RAG DOLL

Simplest of All Playthings Remains Enthroned in the Heart of Small American Girl.

The old rag doll still retains its supreme seat in the realm of child fancy, despite the invasion of airplanes that fly, biscuit dolls that walk, talk and roll their eyes, wireless sets that wire and automobiles that auto, according to Homer Stephens, president of the American Toy Exhibitors, Inc., the New York Evening Telegram states.

"Although we have every form of toy imaginable which can and does please the heart of the child, there is nothing like the old rag doll," Mr. Stephens said. "There were more rag dolls manufactured and sold last year than ever before, and I understand the demand has increased this year.

"All toy manufacturers have inventors who turn out new articles every year. This year's innovation is the popular-priced toy phonograph, which plays any record and costs but a few dollars. Toys this year have been made especially to promote what might be called 'juvenile engineering.'

"They are built for the purpose of instilling the constructive spirit in the child, and we have found a market for those things even among the grownups.

"But the American child still demands its rag doll."

As It Used to Be.

A young member of the Uniform Rank, K. of P. lodge was making arrangements to go to the annual party which his chapter gave. The affair was called the "annual-annual," and he talked a great deal about it at home.

One evening his mother became interested in the party. "I don't believe your lodge has enough affairs," she told him. "Now, several years ago when your father attended lodge regularly there used to be something almost every night." "Let's see," she mused, "what kind of night they called them."

The younger man winked at his chum. "Probably nightcaps then, mother," he retorted. "You remember that was before we went dry in Indiana."—Indianapolis News.

Some Excitement in Oil Wells.

Competitive drilling plays a great part among wells in a single vicinity because all oil leases leak at the edges, and whether you get your neighbor's oil or he gets yours is largely a matter of speed. Consequently a well in the middle of a large tract is usually let alone by the owner, or, at least, he undertakes further drilling with deseration, but if he strikes oil near his boundary he drills his borders with all haste, knowing that his neighbor will "offset" his wells on the other side of the boundary just as fast as he can get the equipment on the ground.—Ray Morris in the World's Work.

Need Birds the Year 'Round.

The fruit packet of eggs that would have given rise to thousands of caterpillars from hibernation for the winter birds. In the orchards irregular holes through the loose flakes of bark attest to the usefulness again for they tell of their inroads upon the hibernating codling moths. Summer is not the only time for birds, says the American Forestry Magazine. If we had more of them during the winter we would not need so many in the summer.

Forests in New England.

The forest area of southern New England is now about 46 per cent of the total land surface. This is equivalent to 17,000,000 acres of forest land, says the American Forestry association of Washington. The area forested is apparently on the increase. In 1910 the forested area was estimated at 41 per cent. In 1830 as 32 per cent and in the Connecticut portion of the territory in 1820 as about 26 per cent.

HAVE HIGH VALUE

Four South American Animals of Great Utility.

The Llama in Particular, Well Called "Ship of the Desert," Is Prized—Alpaca Is Bred for Its Splendid Fleece.

When first seeing a llama, an alpaca, a vicuna or a guanaco, in their native habitat your first comment would be: "Too big for a sheep, too small for a camel, yet looks like both," while you might add mentally, as did the yoked when he saw the giraffe at the circus: "There ain't no such animal." These extraordinary creatures, little known outside of the southern Andean region of South America, have their range from southern Ecuador through the elevated plateaus of Peru and Bolivia southward along the Andes Andes to the plains of Patagonia and Tierra del Fuego. All are of the very highest utility for men's needs for food and clothing.

The four are merely different breeds of the same race, varying only as they have been bred in domesticity for certain specialized purposes, or modified by their environment when left unhampered in their native wilds. Possessing a head like a sheep, a swaying, curved neck like a camel, without the camel's hump but drawn in at the withers like the camel and with the camel's "wobbly" look, apparently insecurely braced upon its tall, slender legs, with the camel's cushion-like splay feet, the llamas undoubtedly belong to the camel family. They have the camel's nature, for though more vigilant than the camel, they possess the same dull imperturbability, and their identical stubborn, morose disposition, and seem to consider man their hereditary foe, only to be obeyed by compulsion and with spiteful spittings and groans.

The Llama family in prehistoric times had a much wider range than at present, their fossil remains being found from the republic of Columbia northward to Central America and even as far north as central Colorado. The llama and alpaca are domesticated, the guanaco and vicuna are still in the wild state, and this is one of the instances where domesticated animals range to-existent with their wild congeners. Of the four kinds the guanaco is the most numerous, and is found in bands of 5 to 500, and ascends to the high table lands elsewhere, in Patagonia their range is over the plains and lower lands as well.

Both the guanaco and vicuna are easily tamed and readily take to captivity, and from the wild guanaco and vicuna have sprung the domesticated llama and alpaca. The alpaca is kept upon the wild uplands near the eternal snows and is only driven in to be shorn of its beautiful fleece of black or brown wool, which is so long that it often falls over its sides and look like a curling cascade reaching to the ground.

When Pizarro and his fellow conquistadores conquered the aboriginal Peruvians they found the llama the only domesticated beast of burden. Under Spanish domination more than 300,000 llamas were used to carry silver from the mines to the seacoast, but the coming of the horse, the burro, and more than all else, the railway began gradually running it out, as it is timid and slow, and can travel with its 100-pound pack only 12 to 15 miles a day; yet it retains a certain advantage, as it is never fed on the trail, but forages its own living.

Baboons and an Airplane.

Writing of the passing of an Avro biplane over Uitenhage en route to Port Elizabeth, a South African newspaper has the following to say: "Mr. Norman Chase relates a peculiar experience he had in connection with the plane. He was bathing at Kamiesk, when he noticed a number of baboons which were in the vicinity showing unmistakable signs of fear. They crowded together and whimpered, giving every indication that something unusual had disturbed them. Mr. Chase's dog, a well-trained Airedale, and known to be plucky and fearless, also became uneasy, and appeared to be in dread of something. On looking round for the cause of all the trouble, Mr. Chase observed the airplane flying overhead at a comparatively low altitude. The sound of the engine and the huge birdlike appearance of the plane no doubt spoke the equilibrium of the baboons."—Scientific American.

Danger in Improper Cooking.

In the Italian experiments indicating that much of our food is uncooked, or at least not cooked enough to destroy bacteria, a large joint of corned beef that had been boiled three and a half hours showed a temperature in the center of less than 140 degrees Fahrenheit. This is harmless to most disease germs, including tubercle bacilli, with which beef is believed to be especially liable to be infected. A meat pie eaten by a number of people caused two deaths, and, while this appeared to be well baked outside, the middle gave evidence that it had not been heated above 165 degrees Fahrenheit.

Best Battery for Winter Use

COLD weather driving makes heavier demands upon any storage battery. Engines are stiff—oil is sluggish—gasoline vaporizes slowly—lights burn longer—and the severe cold tends to cause battery deterioration. Only a battery of maximum power and vitality can meet these demands.

The Prest-O-Lite Storage Battery has proven in the toughest of cold weather tests, to be by far the best battery for winter use.

Why be satisfied with anything short of the best? There's a Prest-O-Lite for every car.

LIGHT NOW PLACED ON MAP

After seven years the "mite" light in the lighthouse on the roof of the Seamen's church institute has obtained official recognition on the government charts of New York harbor. For years this green beacon was ignored, later it was recorded as a "fixed point." Now it is marked with a star on maps.

The lighthouse was erected to commemorate the heroes of the greatest marine disaster in the modern world, the sinking of the steamship Titanic off Newfoundland April 15, 1912. The lighthouse was dedicated on the first anniversary of the disaster as a memorial created by public subscription and the work of prominent women. The light called "mite" by seamen, soon was guiding pilots who, as they "turned the Hook" 15 miles or more away, might make out the green and brilliant star supplied by the 32-candle power of three Cooper Hewitt quartz electric lamps 211 feet above the city streets. This green light on the starboard especially provided an excellent range for vessels making their way to the East river.

The lighthouse also has carried since November 1, 1913, a time ball 4 feet in diameter which drops each day at "standard mean" noon, when, as Arry remarks to Bill down in "the ship," "she's 5 o'clock in London."

WERE BURIED IN PYRAMIDS

Aztec Dignitaries Had Imposing Tombs in the Little Village of San Juan Teotihuacan.

The little village of San Juan Teotihuacan, which in the Aztec language meant "City of the Gods," was in the early days of Aztec history the scene of extraordinary religious ceremonies. The two pyramids, one dedicated to the sun, the other to the moon, are known to have been the tombs in which hundreds of tribal dignitaries were buried and excavators have exhumed wrought stone containing human bones, obsidian knives, terra cotta heads with broad faces and flat noses, fragments of rare pottery and great numbers of arrowheads. One of the most powerful and most valuable discoveries was a jadeite mask of some past monarch, with the brow covered with the diadem known to early Mexican history. The pyramid to the sun and the one to the moon both contain chambers and their several stories are complete temples in themselves, but connected by winding stairs.

The inscriptions having Chinese characteristics were discovered through excavating in the ruins of what has generally been known as La Ciudadela (The Citadel), but which, according to recent reports of investigators, are what is left of a pyramid larger and, perhaps, older than the two pyramids to the sun and the moon.

ELDERLY CAN "COME BACK"

Physician Tells How He Succeeded in Throwing Off the Shackles of Advancing Years.

Dr. I. Leo Nascher tells how he made himself over into a young man, in an article in People's Magazine for May. "It is something any elderly person can do," he says. "Here is the simple proposition. A man ages many years in the course of a sickness lasting several weeks. After a few weeks' vacation he looks and feels many, but to a certain extent the cause was taken ill. Having in mind hundreds of cases in which this has proved true, it is logical to ask if we cannot rejuvenate the aged, make them grow young again, just as we make the prematurely aged invalid become young. And, through recent experiments, that can now be answered in the affirmative, I speak from personal experience.

"It is a fact that there is not a single one of the objective manifestations of senility, those that give the appearance of old age, which cannot be removed, suppressed, or hidden, or at least a youthful substitute found for it.

"To restore the spirit and buoyancy of youth is more difficult. This requires the will, not only the desire, but the determination and the energy to be young, to feel young and look young. Most old persons have the desire, some have the determination, but few have the energy to carry out the measures necessary for rejuvenation. In many cases the old man or woman who would like to do so is afraid of ridicule, of being called giddy and foolish if he or she suddenly appeared in youthful attire and adorned with the artifices of the beauty parlor. Yet under some special stimulus, usually the desire to attract some particular individual of the opposite sex, both men and women have gone beyond the limit of propriety to look younger than they are and feel younger than they look. And if they went about it the right way they usually succeeded.

"I tried it a couple of years ago, not to attract any particular individual, but to see if it could be done, and how it felt to grow young.

"In one year the change in my appearance and actions and feelings was so complete that persons who had not seen me since the earlier days, when I was aged, did not recognize me."

Yields to March of Progress.

One of the oldest banks in Wall street has finally yielded to the march of progress—and installed a telephone. It will only have one phone at first, for it is difficult to uproot prejudices of many years. They have never had a telephone because they believed that confidential business could not be conducted over a telephone and their atmosphere of the old bank, the oldest in the city, is that of a staid institution in some old town settled in Colonial times. Absolute quiet prevails. The employees retain the old-fashioned good manners. Instead of a lusty laughing creature who tells the world the line is busy in thrilling soprano, the bank will select for their first telephone operator a person with a hushed and a bass voice, able to endow his lightest utterances with a certain profundity.

New and Valuable Resin.

A new synthetic resin is stated to be a suitable substitute for many purposes for Dumar and Kauri gums and common resin. It is produced from coal tar distillate, and has been named Cumar. It is soluble in coal tar solvents, vegetable oils, carbon bisulphide, carbon tetrachloride, ether and acetone. It is insoluble in alcohol, and this unusual property gives it a special value for varnishes. It finds use also in leather dressings, polishes, artificial leather, printing inks, waterproofing paper, linoleum, and as a binder for molded materials. Its color may vary from light yellow to dark amber, and the melting points of the various grades range from 50 degrees to about 100 degrees centigrade. With many mineral and vegetable waxes it gives mixtures of remarkable properties.

A New Outfit.

The man next door to four-year-old Allen has a new car and little Allen is much given to accompanying him to the garage to keep him company while he tinkers with it. He sometimes seems to get as much pleasure out of it as does its actual owner. Only the other day something happened which threatened for a time to dim his enjoyment. The owner of the car came home with a jumper suit in which he appeared the next time he went out to work on his car.

The next time he started out to the garage he whistled for Allen but no boy came. Then he went over to Allen's house and hunted up the little fellow. "Come on out to the garage with me, son," he said.

Allen looked at him sorrowfully, "I can't," he said sadly. "I haven't any garage underwear like yours."

According to the Tokio Jipao the experiment of mixed education has not been a brilliant success in the capital as it stands at present. Fights between girl and boy students in the government university. It appears that during school hours some of the boys attempted to "cut out" the swains of some of the girls, and these, becoming jealous, tried to wreak vengeance. The government has dismissed all the participants in the scrap and has decided that the present moment is inopportune for mixed education and will drop the scheme.

A Remarkable Case of Eczema.

"My hands broke out," says Mrs. Hector McDonald, of Oyster Ponds, N.S., "into a fiery irritable rash which the doctor called eczema. When his treatment failed to check the trouble I tried various salves and so-called blood-purifiers. But I got steadily worse and what were just isolated sores at first became one large mass of eczema. For over a year this went on, and you can imagine my suffering.

"Then I got Zam-Buk and I shall never forget how it soothed the dreadful fiery pain and itching. Even the first box of Zam-Buk effected wonderful improvement. Day by day the sores lessened and died away until, in time, the last sore healed. Zam-Buk banished every trace of disease."

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. Mr. Loyst presented a By-law to repeal By-law 396, allowing the Town of Napanee to direct their portion of County Road grant up to $3000 per year, toward paying for the paving of Dundas Street. Committee rose and reported progress.

Considerable discussion took place regarding the By-law. It was found that Napanee was not receiving a special grant but merely diverting a portion of their usual grant from the outlying roads to Dundas Street. In drawing up the By-law, it was found necessary to call it a special grant as the appropriations to Amherst Island, Bath, Newburgh, Kaladar, Denbigh and Napanee are all called special grants in the original By-law, making such appropriations of County road expenditure. The only liability the County will have under the By-law will occur should the County appropriation for road purposes drop below $54,000 per year, which is unlikely, as last year's expenditure was over $87,000. The By-law to repeal said By-law received its third reading and may be brought up again at a later session.

Council adjourned.

A communication from Dominion Bank, re advances to County, stating rate of interest will be 6 per cent. Ordered filed.

The Warden, Clerk and Reeves of Camden and Ernesttown prepared a memorial to the Legislature, asking that counties be relieved from any further payments in respect of Provincial Highways. Report adopted.

KAISER BRONCHITIS IN EXILE

Thousands Liberated

What! have you not heard the joyful tidings? Bronchitis has been exiled—kicked right out of society—and 100,000 Canadians liberated from the bondage of this disease. Every trace of bronchial trouble is blown to atoms by the world's most effective disease-destroyer, Buckley's Bronchitis Mixture. No wonder people are rejoicing! No longer do they dread the effects of coughs, colds, asthma, etc., and so anxious are they that others should benefit also, hundreds of letters have been written describing the merits of this wonderful miraculous remedy. Here is one letter:—To Whom it may Concern: "This is to certify that I had been suffering for over three weeks with bronchitis and was advised to try Buckley's Bronchitis Mixture. I purchased a bottle and after the third dose I received relief, and before the bottle was finished, I was perfectly well. In making the above assertion I have no hesitation in saying it is the best remedy I ever came in contact with for heavy colds and bronchitis."—(Signed), Mrs. M. Harding, c/o Dustless Brush Co., Toronto. The original of this testimonial may be seen at W. K. Buckley, Limited, 142 Mutual St., Toronto. This mixture, which is thousands of Canadian households, will give the sure relief. It cannot fail. Seventy-five cents is the price that stands between you and the road to health. HOCKEY.

Bankers Tie Town Team.

The Bankers held the Town team to a 2-2 score in the fastest league game at the covered rink last Friday evening, before the largest crowd of the season for a league fixture.

The Bankers kept the big crowd spellbound for 40 minutes of the contest by their frantic effort to win out, and it was not until the last five minutes of play that the Town team accomplished their aim to tie the score.

For the Town, T. Blute and Schamehorn played a very strong game, while Harry Steacy, in goal, surprised them all and played a wonderful game for his team. The other members of the Town team played well.

The Bankers were easily the better team on the evening's play, and should have won the game by a good margin, but had hard luck throughout and scored one goal that they did not receive credit for. It would be hard to pick a star, as the boys put up a fast checking contest, while H. Hiscock played a sensational game in goal. The teams were:

The citizens of Napanee and district who are not attending these games are missing a real good sport. Come, everyone, and give the boys a boost Friday evening.

On Saturday, Jan. 29th, at the local rink, the Boy Scouts defeated the Gibbard junior team in a hotly contested game. The score was 3-2 Ving and Sagar scored for Gibbards, while Wheeler, Stewart and Rogers scored for the Scouts. The teams:—Gibbards: Goal, Bentley; right defence, Miles; left defence, Doyle; centre, Ving; right wing, McCumber; left wing, Sagar; subs., Pybus and Babcock. Boy Scouts: Goal, J. Stewart; right defence, Daly; left defence, Cavanaugh; centre, Rogers; right wing, Stewart; left wing, Wheeler; subs., Gleeson and Perry.

Referee—Lawrence Douglas.

YOUR GROCER IS NOT A PROFITEER

Have a heart!

Your grocer is not a profiteer!

He is passing along to you reduced prices, as fast or faster than they come to him. Just because prices on many good things are still high, don't blame him. It is usually the poorest quality of everything that shows the greatest decline.

If he is as good a man as the average, your grocer is still doing his utmost to give you the best value for your money. But don't push him too hard. He is only human.

You don't know, but we do, that he is recommending goods that pay him less profit than other well known brands which he might easily persuade his customers to take if he cared to do so.

We know this because he pays us more for Red Rose Tea and sells it at less profit than other teas, so when he recommends you to buy Red Rose Tea, you will know it is because he believes it the best and is willing to take a little less profit for the sake of giving you the best value he can.

We are publishing this because we believe the more our people know of the true facts concerning the profits made by those they deal with, the more generous they will be in their judgments.—T. H. Estabrooks Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

Golden Wedding.

A very pleasing event took place at Napanee, on Wednesday, Jan. 26th, 1921, when Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Vanalstine celebrated their fiftieth anniversary. They were married in the year 1871, by Rev. Halstead, Selby, and lived in Richmond until eighteen years ago, when they retired and moved to Napanee. Their children and grandchildren were all present, being Miss Emma, at home; Mr. and Mrs. John F. Vankennen and family, town, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Vanalstine and family, on the old homestead. After congratulating the bride and groom of the day, they all repaired to the dining room, where a well laden table of all that tempts the appetite awaited them and to which they did ample justice. Toasts were rendered the happy couple and the afternoon passed pleasantly with games and music, after which the company dispersed, wishing the aged couple many more years of happy wedded life.

ALCOHOL AND MORTALITY.

Lord & Abernon's Commission recognizes that evidence exists in British Life Insurance Companies to show that while a normal man of thirty if a total abstainer, has a life expectancy of a further thirty-nine years, he must deduct from this period three and a half years if he prefers to be a moderate drinker. But the Commission warns us against concluding too readily that this proves that alcohol by the direct action shortens life. The real explanation may lie elsewhere—namely in the established fact that the chief factor in spreading venereal diseases which are the chief cause of enhanced death rate among respectable people is to be found in the use of alcohol. Thus the shortened life among moderate drinkers may be explained not by the direct effect of the alcohol, but by its effect in increasing exposure to venereal diseases and street accidents. However, this plea may lighten the verdict against the influence of alcohol, it affords slight comfort to the womanhood of Canada. So one asks whether the view set forth is confirmed by Canadian authority.

At the recent meeting of the Public Health Association, the medical officer of Manitoba, Dr. Gordon Bell, ridiculed the idea that the main cause of the recent spread of venereal disease is to be found in feeble-mindedness. He claimed that the experience of competent physicians disproves this and assigns the chief place to whiskey. "The importation of liquor into dwelling places, especially apartments, said Dr. Bell, "lessens that higher self-control which is the main protection against the spread of such diseases among respectable people." In reply to a question from another health officer, Dr. Gordon Bell admitted that the consumption of small quantities of alcohol changes the otherwise normal man into one who is for the time being defective—defective in just that higher control which is essential to full morality. The British Royal Commission on venereal diseases also asserts that alcoholism is the main factor in the destruction of the race by venereal diseases.

Their First Baby Carriage.

Miss Beard tells the following story which, she says, is typical:—"A nurse was hailed from across the street by a woman who was an expatient. 'Come over and see my baby carriage,' she said. 'I'm ten years with eight children to carry around in my arms, I have never been able to buy a baby carriage. Now, thanks to prohibition I have a baby carriage instead of Jack hanging around at the corner saloon."

"I wonder," remarked Mr. Crosslots, "if it wouldn't be a good idea for us to sell the home and buy a sailing vessel."

"But it takes so long for a sailing vessel to get anywhere," suggested his wife.

"That's the advantage. We would be able to keep the same cook for two or three weeks at least."

Though she draws him, she will follow,
Useless one without the other."

SHEEP AND SWINE MARKETING

By George Price.

The Sheep and Swine Marketing Short Course, which was held in the Armouries, Napanee, on February 2nd, 3rd and 4th, was very interesting as well as instructive. Mr. MacLaurin opened the course on Wednesday afternoon with a short talk on the Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, in which he explained fully the different departments working under that head, also their work.

He then gave an interesting address on the different breeds of sheep, the best wool producers being the Merinos which are not common in Canada. The larger breeds that are common in Canada are of more value for mutton than wool, although some of the smaller breeds such as Southdowns and Shropshires produce a very good quality of wool. Mr. MacLaurin thinks that a few sheep should be kept on every farm, as they are very useful as weed destroyers and are not subject to tuberculosis; therefore mutton is the healthiest meat there is. It makes excellent fresh meat on the farm for summer as a change or lamb can be consumed in an average sized family before there is danger of spoiling. He also gave a short talk on the best methods of castrating and docking lambs.

In the afternoon three lambs and three bacon hogs were brought in. Mr. MacLaurin told briefly the points to be looked for in the mutton sheep and the bacon hog, and then the audience were given score cards and asked to judge the lambs and hogs to the best of their ability. He then gave a demonstration in shearing with the use of the power clipper. By the time the job can be accomplished much quicker and with less injury to the sheep. The wool can also be kept in better shape.

A demonstration was then given in fitting a lamb by the local butcher, showing that it is not necessary for the wool to come in contact with the meat. Many people refrain from using mutton because they think it has a wool taste.

On Thursday forenoon, Feb. 3rd, Mr. MacLaurin gave a talk and demonstration on preparing the wool for market. Always use paper twine in tying it up, as it can be removed from the wool better than any other kind of twine. He briefly outlined creative marketing of wool, as it is then graded and paid for according to quality, thus inducing farmers to produce a better quality of wool. The sheep census in the last census was 2,000,000 but not yet full of chaff and dirt, which will decrease its value. He also described the method of tolling a sheep's age by its teeth.

In the afternoon the carcasses of the lambs and hogs were brought to the Armouries and information was given on the different breeds. Mr. Fraser then gave a talk on the grading of wool, after which Mr. MacLaurin put on a series of pictures entitled "A Visit with the Flock", which was very interesting.

On Friday forenoon, Feb. 4th, Mr. MacLaurin discussed sheep dipping. Sheep should be dipped at least once a year to remove ticks and lice. It also conserves and improves the fleece for when sheep have ticks or lice, they are always rubbing and will rub out a certain amount of wool. He then described the different diseases of sheep and how they may be cured. In all of Mr. MacLaurin's lectures he emphasized strongly the benefit of co-operation, especially for purchasing, shearing and marketing of lambs.

On Friday afternoon, Mr. McMillan Chief of the Sheep and Swine Department, Ottawa, gave a very interesting address on the problems confronting hog raising.

NEWBURGH.

The re-opening services of the Union Church have been the general topic of conversation. They have lent new interest to Christian work in Newburgh and have very much heartened all the workers. Rev. Dr. MacGillivery, of Kingston, preached two thoughtful and optomistic sermons on Sunday, in which he showed the importance of man in God's sight and man's importance in God's service, and what these two great ideas, wrought into life, meant to the world.

On Monday the Quarterly Board met to transact business effecting the circuit. At the close of same Lunch was served by motion unanimously carried, Rev. Mr. Cooke was invited to remain on the circuit for a fourth year. There was also a unanimous motion of appreciation of Mrs. Cooke for services cheerfully rendered over the whole Circuit, particularly in connection with the service of song. This is what we would expect, for the services of Rev. and Mrs. Cooke have been most unselfish and worthy and have given them a place in the hearts of all the people. Mr. Cooke accented the invitation subject to the approval of the Station Committee.

A public meeting will be held in the Standard Bank Hall on Monday evening, the 14th, at 7.30, to consider the question of the village providing a shed for the accommodation of vehicular traffic. This was a live subject at the time of the Municipal election, and the purpose of this meeting is to give all the ratepayers an opportunity to express their views on the matter.

Mr. Simon Mulholland has purchased a new horse. This horse he reports as fast, and Mr. Mulholland expects, when he has time, to try and throw dirt in the eyes of all comers.

We would like if the writer of U. P. D. News and Views would tell us who is at fault that we have had to pay as high as 50c.00 per ton for hay, 60c. and 65c. for butter and up to $1.00 a dozen for eggs.—As he seems to be out to cast blame on some one, he might do a real service by doing a little locating in this connection. Or he might do a little figuring, for instance how many pairs of boots a pig would buy. I mean the price of a pig although we would not be so very much surprised if pigs were out after boots as they are veritable autocrats. Anyway, this U. F. O. man will do a mighty service if he succeeds in making the farmers believe they are abused. This service might make votes for some one some day. It is hard enough to make a man feel abused when he has a good bank account, and a fine automobile to fly around the country in, unless he is convinced he should have the moon. We would like to hear next week if the British embargo on Canadian cattle is going off for if it is Cincinatus wasn't in it with Downing Street when Mrs. Cincinatus go back 'to their farms?' Faith will they? Writers such as the author of News and Views are not likely to entice them that way.

HOCKEY.

Gibbards 6, Town 3.

The weather was ideal, the ice was in elegant condition, and the hockey players were chuck full of pep at the new covered rink on Friday evening last. The opposing teams were Gibbards vs. Town team and the Gibbard bunch were successful in winning from the town aggregation by a score of 6-3. Both teams worked hard for a victory, but the boys with the blue jackets were considerably faster than the boys with the red jackets, and this in a great measure accounted for the score piled up by the winners. We might single out several of the players for complimentary remarks on either team, who starred during the game, but it would hardly seem fair to the other players who did their best and worked hard all the time. There was a good attendance at the match but yet there was room for more.

Bankers 3, Town 1.

In a league game on Monday night, the Bankers defeated the Town team by the close score of 3-1. It was anybody's game, and the spectators were given their money's worth. The Bankers scored the first on a scramble in front of the goal owing to the goal post not being stationary. The puck was forced in, and as the goal judge stuck up the flag, the referee upheld his decision. Both teams had chances to score, and Babcock in the Bankers' goal saved several hard shots. There was no scoring in the second period. In the third period McLaughlin shot in a hard one which Babcock stopped but kicked in while trying to clear. Leon Spencer scored for the Bankers on a lone rush. "Curly" Wolfe passed the Bankers' third goal, which was practically a gift. Harry Scott had the puck and "Curly" sauntered down the wing and leisurely took the puck away from Scotty and scored. Both teams back checked hard all night and it was seldom that a man was left unchecked or allowed any chance to shoot.

Only a small crowd was present, but the hockey dished up was good and deserved better attendance. This win now places both Gibbards and Bankers tie for first place, and Friday's game will decide the first half of the championship. Gibbards seem quite confident of winning, and already several bets are up on the game. Oyster suppers will be given by the boys if Gibbards win, while a similar offer comes to the Bankers should they win.

The brand of hockey displayed in the town rink was good, and already several promising material has been dug up. A packed house should greet both teams on Friday night.

On Monday next the second round commences and Gibbards and the Town team will be seen in action. There is also talk of Frontenac Juniors coming to Napanee for a hotly picked team, and no doubt Napanee will be able to put up a good game. The exact date is not known yet, but it will be announced later.

Napanee 4, Queen's 1.

Queen's Science Team year '22, of Kingston, and Napanee play hockey at the covered rink on Wednesday evening before a large crowd, and Napanee defeated Queen's by the score of 4 to 1.

The ice was heavy and made puck carrying difficult. On numerous occasions both teams broke away for nice rushes, but either overskated the puck or kicked it. The referee was right on his job and very little escaped his eye. The Napanee team played good hockey and if anything had it over their opponents in skating and combination plays. It would be hard to single out any player for conspicuous playing, as they all gave their best, and what is more played clean hockey.

Napanee was the first to score, Freddie Huffman doing the trick ten seconds after the face off, on a shot from close in. Freddie was hurt and had to retire for repairs, and McNeil replaced him. "Bo" seemed to take the eye of the crowd, as he was given a great reception when he came on. Play was up and down the ice, both teams having shots on goal. L. Spencer got away to a nice rush and kicked the puck when in a nice position in front of Queen's goal. Young and McNeill worked a combined rush, which resulted in Napanee's second goal. Young doing the trick.

In the second period Queen's forced the play and the puck hovered around Napanee's goal for some time. The Napanee team made it hot for Queen's and the visitors' goalie was forced to save several in succession. With a man short, Affick, of Queen's, broke through on a nice rush and drew Steacy out of the net and scored. The ice became very heavy and for a time play lagged considerably.

In the third period the Napanee team paid more attention to combination and had some fast results. On a nice rush Huffman scored on a pass from Young. Tully, of Queen's, missed full length of the ice, but Spencer relieved nicely. Blute rushed and shot on goal but his shot was wide. Queen's broke away for a three man rush but Napanee's defence seemed hard to penetrate, and McNeill back checking secured the puck and rushed down and had hard luck. "Bo" secured the puck, however, and on a scramble in front of the net scored the last goal. The bell rang with the puck in Napanee goal. The line-up:

Queen's — Goal, Bleakney; Defence, Tully and Affick; Centre, Peyser; L. W., Handsfield; R. W., Bracken; Subs., Wilson, Thorburn and Taylor. Mr. George Walters, of Napanee, referred a hard game and was careful in his rulings. Very little rough stuff was permitted, and he was also strict in kicking the puck and offsides.

TOWN COUNCIL

The regular meeting of the Council was held in the Council Chamber on Monday night.

Present — Mayor Graham, Reeve Boyes, Councillors Harfman, Ming, Paul and Wilson.

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved of.

A message was read from Mr. C. H. Lapum, thanking the members of the Council for their resolution of sympathy and floral offering.

A communication was received from Jas. Poulus, applying for a renewal of his billiard license. On motion the license was renewed for another year.

From F. F. Miller, re claim for damage to his motor car on East St. in December last. It is understood that the Gas Co. will settle the claim of Mr. Miller.

The matter of storing a surplus supply of stone from the cut on Roblin's Hill at a suitable place within the corporation, for the Provincial Highway people, was left to the Street Committee.

Councillor Wilson, Chairman of the Market and Police Committee, read the following interesting report of the Committee:—

Napanee, February 7th, 1921.

The Market and Police Committee beg leave to report as follows:—

That they have investigated the recommendation of the Mayor in his inaugural address, regarding the complaint of certain parties about loitering of men and boys in doorways and hotel entrances on Front Street and find that these objectionable practices together with expectorating profusely in said doorways and also over the sidewalk in front of such places to be a practice all too common.

There is also considerable furious driving past street intersections and we would recommend more vigilant attention of the Police to these irregularities.

We are of the opinion that our Chief of Police should patrol more frequently and regularly on Dundas Street, feeling that his presence alone would go quite a way to correct some of these evils.

With regard to minors in pool rooms considerable complaint is made by some proprietors of the difficulty they experience of keeping minors from frequenting these places. They would welcome the hearty co-operation of the officers of the law, and we would recommend that the Chief and Nightwatchman continue to frequently enter these places and do all that can be done to see that the laws governing these places be respected and judiciously enforced.

Regarding the request of the nightwatch for a great coat we find on investigation that it has not heretofore been the practice of the Council to supply more than the regular uniform In view of this and of the increase of salary granted last year to help meet the increased cost of living, which is now decreasing, the Committee do not feel like recommending any action in the matter at the present time.

Your Committee are investigating the advisability of installing a signal light in front of the telephone office for the purpose of being able to more easily and quickly inform the nightwatch that his services are needed in some particular place.

We regret that we have not been able yet to secure sufficient information regarding cost of installation and up-keep to be in a position to make a recommendation, but expect to be able to do so in the near future.

We are also looking after the repairing and repainting of the silent policemen in order that they may be ready for spring use.

D. B. WILSON.
A. E. PAUL.

On motion of Reeve Boyes, seconded by Coun. Paul, a resolution was drafted to be forwarded to Premier Drury, endorsing and suggesting some amendments to the recommendations of the Social Service Commission appointed by the Ontario Government to enquire into the manner in which police magistrates are appointed and how they are paid. In substance the Commission strongly recommends the abolition of the fee service, that the magistrate receive a yearly salary, one-half to be paid by the Government, and the municipality or county to pay the other half. In the opinion of the mover and seconder of this resolution this system will give better service and make more efficient magistrates.

Coun. Paul, Chairman of the Town Property Committee, got busy the past week and had the floor of the Council Chamber painted, and the walls kalsomined with an attractive tint, giving the room a most cheerful appearance.

'Chaps'—Read This

Once you know how "chaps" are caused, you will appreciate why your skin needs Zam-Buk. The keen frosty winds of winter and early spring dry up the skin—make it hard, brittle and without elasticity. Thus the outer tissues break open into smarting sores and painful sores. That's how the trouble starts.

In cracked hands, chilblains, frostbite, eczema and other obstinate skin troubles, use nothing but Zam-Buk. This unique healing balm, derived from a blending of rich herbal essences supplies the skin's deficiency of natural oils. If your trouble is on the hands, use Zam-Buk at night and slip on a pair of old gloves with Zam-Buk smeared inside. This precious balm will soothe away pain, inflammation and irritation, and grow new soft healthy skin.

Redness, roughness, smarting or soreness is readily healed, through Zam-Buk's refined herbal ingredients being absorbed into the underlying tissues. Zam-Buk is powerfully antiseptic. The germs of skin trouble simply can't exist wherever it penetrates.

Keep Zam-Buk always at hand for dealing with cuts, burns, scalds, scalp sores, ulcers, abscesses, piles, eczema, poisoned sores, salt rheum, ringworm and all skin sores and injuries. All dealers 50c. box, 3 for $1.25. For TRIAL SAMPLE send 1c. stamp to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

THE MUTUAL LIFE OF CANADA.

The Annual Statement of The Mutual Life of Canada, which appears on another page, must be gratifying to the Directors and Officers of the Company, and will doubtless be received by Policyholders from Coast to Coast with the deepest satisfaction.

Although the year 1919 excelled all its predecessors, yet every department of the Company's operations in 1920 shows a marked increase over that of the previous year. In income, assets, new assurances, surplus earned, total surplus and assurances in force, the year 1920 was a phenomenal success.

During the later months the Company had increased its assurances in force to $200,000,000, and at the close of the year the figures stood at over $206,000,000. To protect these obligations, the Company has accumulated assets of nearly $43,000,000, a sum which the surplus above exceeds by $5,000,000 the amount necessary to guarantee the payment of all policies.

The success of a Life Insurance Company depends largely on its investments and it is noteworthy that while the reserves have been calculated on a 3 per cent. and 3½ per cent basis, the Company has earned interest at the rate of 6.41 per cent.

The excess interest, as well as all other profits, becomes the property of the policyholders of the Company and is used to reduce premiums, to increase the insurance, or is payable in cash.

The Mutual of Canada, as most of our readers are aware, is unique in that it is the only example of a Company which has been established and conducted in Canada on a strictly co-operative basis. This means that all the policyholders of the Company share equitably in its prosperity, and the experience of the Company during the year 1920 was such that, in spite of the heavy strain put on its resources during the last six years, the Directors felt justified in increasing the dividends for 1921 by 50 per cent over those paid in 1920.

Altogether the 51st year has proven to be in every way the banner year in the long history of Canada's Only Mutual", and we congratulate the Directors, Officers, and Policyholders of the Company on the splendid results achieved.

THE FARMER OF THE FUTURE.

The farmer of the future must be a mechanic rather than a day laborer, remarks D. D. Gray, Superintendent of the Central Experimental Farm at Ottawa in the December number of the Agricultural Gazette. This of course must not be taken in a literal sense, but rather as suggesting that the future agriculturist must combine with a multitude of other things the requirement of a greater knowledge of mechanics than has been formerly had. Accepting this suggestion as his text, Mr. Gray lists of records that have been kept at the Central Farm on the cost of operating three makes of tractors. The cost of operating the smaller tractor is shown to be greater than the cost of operating the larger, that is re gard to horse power. The cost of discing with the smaller is shown to be less due to greater speed possible than with the greater. The cost of ploughing with the smaller is more than with the larger. The lighter machine burned gasoline at a cost of 45 cents per gallon and the heavier machine, kerosene at 25 cents per gallon. Cylinder oil costs 85 cents per gallon.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh becomes worse than when they are in good health. This fact proves that such Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. Take HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE, a blood purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body. Thus it reduces the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

DON'T NEED SCENT

Why Perfumes Are Not Over-Popular in America.

Writer Sees Cause for Congratulation in the Fact That Heavy Artificial Odors Are Not Needed Here, as in Europe.

That the sense of smell is sadly neglected is an opinion expressed every once in a while by those who pride themselves on a highly cultivated olfactory faculty. Just the other day a perfumer complained about the lack of appreciation of the pleasures of smell, especially among Americans.

Well, for our own part, we are glad that Americans are lacking in the cultivation of this most neglected of the senses. We are especially thankful that the men of our race and country almost entirely neglect the use of perfumes.

The perfumer who is making the complaint points out the fact that, while we cultivate the sense of sound, touch, taste, to a certain degree, and the sense of sight, we leave that of smelling practically uncultivated. Well, there is the difference—that the man or woman who indulges her appreciation of odors by wearing perfumes necessarily inflicts these odors on all who come near her. Even the woman who wears bright and clashing colors does not do this, for we can look away—but there is no way of avoiding a perfume. While we breathe we have to use our smelling faculties.

Can't you recall how often your pleasure at the theater and your powers of concentration at church or the lecture have been well nigh destroyed simply because of a nearby perfume? No matter how artistic the perfume may be, if it is kept in a closed auditorium or near to you for long at a time it is sure to become annoying, not to say really sickening.

As a matter of fact one reason why we Americans go in so little for perfumes is because we are of all nations the most free from unpleasant odors. Our cities, our houses, our theaters are sweet to the nostrils compared to the cities and public places of Europe. In Italy, where no one can visit Venice or Florence without being shocked by the smells of the city, one finds a high appreciation of perfumes.

In the orient, where the faculty of smelling is developed to a fine art, the impression of the city odors is something that the occidental traveler never forgets. The characteristic odors of Bombay, of Calcutta, of Constantinople and Hong Kong, made up of a murderous complex of mistakes of sanitation, is something that the traveler cannot describe, but the recollection of it is unpleasantly vivid all his life.

For our own part we like the American way best. The most desirable fragrance that we can find in our cities, in our dressing rooms or theaters, is the fragrance of fresh air, air so fresh that it is sweet to the nostrils.

And what can compare with the smells of the country? The pine tree, the fresh-mown hay, the hillside after a storm, the breezes that blow over 2,000 miles of ocean, the apple orchard and the grain field? These are the smells that the Americans appreciate and love.—Buffalo Express.

Early Booksellers.

The first bookseller's catalogue in the English language, so far as is known, is one bearing a date of 1595 and issued by Andrew Hounsell of Lothbury, England, and contains an elaborate dedication to Queen Elizabeth. The first booksellers in England were migratory peddlers, who carried their small stock on their backs, and they may more properly be called pioneer book agents.

In the course of time some of the more prosperous hawkers of literature set up small stalls or booths and thus became known as "stationers." This is the origin of the word stationer, now generally applied to dealers in "stationery," which has come to mean writing materials, paper, pens, ink and similar articles. Booksellers in England were for centuries treated as near-criminals and subjected to many restrictions, which were not wholly removed until 1758. The booksellers of both England and America now have powerful associations, the former dating from 1829.

Alike.

Four-year-old John was visiting his auntie. Now, he had not intended staying so long and had not brought an entire change of clothing. So he was much distressed about not being clean.

The afternoon before his uncle was to take him home auntie took him to the first vaudeville show he had ever visited. And the comments he made were loud and amusing to the members of the audience around him. But nothing exactly startling was said until a young woman in black tights came on the stage to do some acrobatic stunts. Then his clear little voice called out so that most of the people there heard him. "Oh, auntie, she has on a dirty union suit too."

Another Cruise of the Carnegie.

The engineers' survey yacht, Carnegie, after lying out of commission at Washington for a year was fitting out at the end of September for a new cruise (her sixth), to cover a period of two or three years. Her route this time will lie mainly in the South Atlantic, Indian and Pacific oceans, the ports of call for the year being Dakar, Rio de Janeiro and St. Helena.—J. F. CHINA ADDS TO DEMON LIST

At Least Five New "Influenzas" Have Come to That Country With Spreading Civilization.

China is a land of demons and spirits. For untold ages every business, every dwelling and every condition of life has had its particular demon or flock of demons. The ancient Chinese religion constituted the ministry of rites to either propitiate or render powerless the evil spirits and encourage the attendance of the good ones. The category of demons was so complete that it was not until modern civilization began to work its changes that there was room for any more.

Now, however, there are at least five new devils, according to Dr. W. H. Hudson of Kashing, whose lectures in Shanghai on the Chinese conception of ghosts and spirits have been reported to the San Francisco Chronicle.

"Among the modern new devils," Dr. Hudson said in one lecture, "are the malaria devil, the opium devil, the red match devil, the railway devil and the gunshot devil. In the provinces of the malaria districts have learned that mosquito netting is very efficacious in combating the malaria devil. But that method is not very impressive, and the Chinese, especially those in the back country districts, insist on being impressed. So the priests and native doctors have devised charms and exorcisms whereby they claim to banish the demon without recourse to the netting. The foreign doctors naturally are skeptical, but if noise and banners and general impressiveness have any virtue, the method should be effective.

"The opium devil calls for a particular set of incantations and paper prayers, as does the red match demon. This is a comparatively new demon that came into being about the time that the Chinese discovered that eating match heads was a very convenient and cheap way of committing suicide. The railway devil is distinctly foreign, the natives say. He dwells inside locomotives and his special business is to run the engine over people at every opportunity. He is subject to two sets of prayers, one to allay his yearning to destroy, the other invoking his aid for those tired of life and desirous of a speedy end.

"Then there is the gunshot devil, not so distinctly foreign as his brother of the railway, but just as blood thirsty. He has come into prominence since the mode of public execution was changed in most places from beheading with the sword to shooting.

Originator of "Bread Line."

John Leake, a wealthy New Yorker of Revolutionary days, was responsible for the "dole of bread" distributed weekly by Trinity parish, provision for which he made in his will. A portion of his will said:

"I hereby give and bequeath to the rector and vestrymen of Trinity parish, New York city, N. Y., 1,000 pounds, put out at interest, to be laid out in the annual income in sixpenny wheaten loaves of bread and distributed to such poor as shall appear most deserving."

The dole's "wheaten bread" has been distributed for 128 years. Originally 18 poor families were provided for, but only 10 are being taken care of now, due to the high cost of living, and the fact that the same time prosperity has reached out into more homes, and there is less need of it. Each family gets from four to six loaves. St. Luke's chapel parish house has been the scene of the dole for four years, the charity having been distributed before that time from St. John's chapel. Originally its home was Trinity church, where the poor had to apply for it at the altar after the Sunday service.

She Comes No More.

My little friend in the apartment across the hall was a studious pupil who had come to my apartment for a few hints in the execution of her studies when a mutual friend of ours who was known as a chatterbox was seen coming down the street headed for my apartment.

My friend, being more anxious to spend an hour studying than talking, said, "Tell her that I am not here," and hid in a fair sized clothes hamper, expecting the talkative party to leave in a moment or two.

Forty-five minutes passed and to my horror the hidden one sneezed, while in the clothes hamper. I could barely keep from laughing; in fact, a little smile from me seemed to give away the entire proceeding. The talkative friend evidently had discovered the intrigue, for she left immediately, and although this happened some time ago, we have never seen her since.

This certainly was my most embarrassing moment.—Exchange.

Portuguese Feminism.

Recently the diploma of doctor of agronomical engineering was for the first time conferred upon a woman in Brazil. The recipient, Maria Adelaida Pinto de Magalianes Quintanilla, is a young woman of Portuguese birth. She comes from one of the most noted of the Iberian families, being a direct descendant, as her name would indicate, of the famous sailor Magellan. Miss Magalianes is the third woman in the family to have received the doctorate, her two elder sisters having been graduated as experts in law and pharmaceutics. She has made a special study of tropical plants and conditions.

A few significant features of the annual statement presented to the policyholders at the annual meeting February 3rd, 1921, are given in the following condensed summary.

Prosperity. The characteristic virtues and qualities of Progressiveness, Economy, Efficiency and Financial Strength again find demonstration in the figures of the fifty-first annual statement, and disclose a year of marked prosperity.

The Jubilee. The Company celebrated its jubilee by establishing a new record in the expansion of its business. The new assurances, acquired without any undue effort, amounted to $47,000,000, placing the total business in force beyond the two hundred million mark.

Investments. The opportunities offered for the investment of funds at very remunerative rates enabled the Company to invest its surplus funds in a way that will prove of great advantage to the policyholders over a long period of years. In 1920 the Company's investments showed the handsome average interest rate earned of 6.41%.

Surplus Earnings. The prosperity the Company enjoyed is best reflected in the surplus earnings of the year, which show an advance over the preceding year of $354,303, being an increase of 27%. The represents earnings of $38.67 for every $1,000.00 of total assets.

Increased Dividends to Policyholders. The rapid recovery shown by the statement of the year's operations from the effects of the war and the influenza epidemic is very gratifying, enabling, as it does, an increase in the distribution of dividends to policyholders in the current year of about 50% in excess of last year.

MUSICAL AND LITERARY CLUB.

The treat of the season was given the Musical and Literary Club of Napanee on Thursday afternoon of last week, when Mr. Boris Hamburg, 'cellest, and Signor Alberto Guerrero, pianist and accompanist, gave a concert in the Town Hall. Those who had heard Mr. Hamburg on his last visit to Napanee, had looked forward with keen anticipation to this particular concert, and the hall was crowded to capacity.

The first number was a composition of Beethoven,—variations on a Theme by Handel, and was beautifully rendered by Mr. Hamburg, who handles his 'cello with such musical skill as is accorded to few. The full, sweet notes carried the tender melody, while the piano accompaniment so wonderfully set it off, and always the original theme was apparent as in so many of the variations written by Beethoven. After repeated encores, Mr. Hamburg was persuaded to play again.

The second number on the programme was given by Signor Guerrero, and then the lovers of music had a revelation of what is really meant by the "artist like a feather touch of finger tips of velvet" that are held out as the ideal of all students of the piano. Signor Guerrero was without doubt the finest pianist the Club has ever had the honor of entertaining. There were three selections and a response to an encore so insistent that it would not be denied, the final number, a Sonata of Boellman, was perhaps the greatest treat of the afternoon, and after the completion of each movement, the most wholehearted applause must have been proof to the artists of the pleasure they were giving their audience. At the close of the performance, Mr. Hamburg and Signor Guerrero left for Kingston, where they were giving a concert in the evening.

U. F. O. NEWS AND VIEWS.

Honorable Beniah Bowman and H. K. Denyes, M.P.P.

The crowd which gathered at the Town Hall, Napanee, on February 9th, at 7.30 p.m., to hear Honorable Beniah Bowman and Mr. H. K. Denyes, M.P.P., was even larger than was expected. Such a satisfactory response to a meeting so hastily called would almost seem to be only another expression of the interest which the general public never fails to manifest whenever the Farmers' Movement is being discussed.

Mr. Denyes, M.P.P., Speaks.

The first speaker, Mr. H. K. Denyes, M.P.P. for East Hastings, was not an entire stranger to many of the people in the audience. Aside from his being known as a descendent of one of the old U. E. L. families of this County, many of those present recall seeing him at the opening of the Lennox Fair last fall, and many recollect the prominent part he has taken in a few Sunday School Conventions held in this County in the not far distant past. In the beginning of his address, Mr. Denyes dwelt for some minutes on the benefits to be gained from Farmers' Clubs. He declared that if property made use of, a Farmers' Club could revolutionize the social spirit of all farming people living within reach of it. In the past the farmer has lacked a good deal of the sociability and the confidence in his fellow-farmers which goes a long way towards making the farmer's life a happier one. Living apart from each other, more or less independent of each other, farmers have neglected the spirit of mutual confidence and dependence in each other. Pride of friendship, pride of vocation has been neglected. Keep your club meeting from being wholly a business meeting. Bring your wives and sons and daughters to your Club with you. Reserve a share of your time for business, and then spend the remainder of the evening in having a social time together. Get better acquainted, destroy the barriers and the suspicions too prevalent among farmers. Create a spirit of mutual interest in each other. Have debates, strike intellect against intellect, in short change the whole social fabric of rural community, raise it to a higher level by changing the country from a scattered, isolated lonely place to the home of a sociable, friendly, contented, broadminded people, with common interests at heart.

Mr. Denyes pointed out that the farmers have desired to form a Government. They desired only to have equal and adequate representation so that the interests of the farmers would not be neglected. In the last election they had been given more representation than they had anticipated and were forced to shoulder the responsibility of forming a government. He had no desire to say nasty things of governments of the past. They had all served their time and generation. He cited a score of leaders and governments which had been popular, had rendered service and had passed away. Such men as Asquith, Gladstone, Woodrow Wilson, Laurier, Borden, etc., all alike had served their generation and had passed away after the zenith of their fame. To-day the present Farmers' Government is universally popular. Popular leaders in city and town and country have openly declared their confidence and support of it. Like all the governments which have gone, the Farmers' Government has its period of time to serve, has its legislation to give which others could not give. It has its work to do for its country and by the confidence which it is gaining and the appreciation which it is receiving its life bids fair to be a long one.

Hon. Beniah Bowman's Address.

The presence of Hon. Beniah Bowman was especially appreciated, not only because his is the Minister of Lands and Forests in the Drury Government, but because nearly every one recalled the time when two years ago Mr. Bowman came down from Manitoulin Island and sat alone, the first U. F. O. member to be elected to represent the farmers in the Ontario Legislative Assembly.

Hon. Mr. Bowman devoted the largest part of his address to a description of the work carried on by his Department in that interesting romantic north country of ours, New Ontario. He told of the wealth of pine, and pulpwood, of the fertile lands of Temiskaming, already cleared and fit for farming. It costs more to build roads in a new reach land like that. But roads must be built or the country will never be properly developed. And roads were being built back there by a consolidated revenue levied especially for these Northern Roads. Already a few creameries had been started and a few experimental stations were studying the soil and assisting the settlers in ascertaining the best methods of farming in this new land. Farther north beyond Temiskaming the mineral country flourishes and great pulp mills are in operation. The largest of these mills turns out 750 tons or a whole trainload of pulp each day, for according to Government restrictions the pulp-wood cut on Crown Lands must be converted into pulp or paper before it is exported into United States.

Reforestation and Forest Conservation.

In some parts timber is of course being cut which if it is not cut before it dies, but in other sections considerable waste has resulted in the past through wasteful methods of cutting. Land has been cleared that should never have been cleared, and great forest fires have been started to ruin thousands of miles of valuable timber. The piles of debris left in large areas of standing timber have been left a ready food for conflagration. In order to prevent the destruction of our Pulp and Lumber Industries and to have these great natural resources for the generations to follow, a better system of fire-prevention than has been used must be adopted, a better system of supervising the cutting is being introduced so that young growth will come on and that areas will be cut in rotation. Scalers and check-scalers, who are under no obligation to the lumber companies must check the cutting and the sale of lumber and pulpwood. Then in every county in Old Ontario, the vast areas of waste land must be made use of. Trees must be planted where nothing is now growing so that the generations of to-morrow will have lumber and forest. A bill to undertaking this work is now being introduced by Hon. Mr. Bowman at this session of the Legislature. The prices of pulpwood and lumber have been increased so that the people of the Province received 100 per cent. more for the sale of Crown Land pulpwood and 75 per cent. more for the sale of pine than they ever did before.

In concluding Hon. Beniah Bowman said that civilization is advancing and humanity is slowly learning new and better systems of government. The Party System of government has had its day and government by Groups is here to stay. Before the last election as a lone member on the U. F. O. benches he had an opportunity of watching the disregard which a party, in power had for the suggestions of the opposition. With a large majority, the party in power never accept no suggestion made by the other party and could even afford to spurn co-operation. To-day in the Ontario Legislature with Four Groups in the House, suggestions were accepted from all sides and the best suggestions were put into action. There must be no disregard of the minority and always a sincere desire to give just and good legislation for at any time a re-arranging of the Groups would bring trouble on the heads of the offending Groups. The people can always be confident of safe and just government under the Group system.

Of course Hon. Beniah Bowman and Mr. Denyes will not be again in Napanee on Feb. 12th, and there will be no U. F. O. Public Meeting on that day, but the U. F. O. Lennox and Addington County Executive will meet on Saturday, Feb. 12th, at 2 p.m., in the Agricultural Office, Napanee.

THOS. TIERNEY.

Season of 1921

Of late years many housekeepers who contemplate having certain rooms re-papered, especially those requiring the better class of paper, have had it done early in the season, in February or March, because there is less danger of delay through the paper hangers being busy. We are prepared to meet such cases. We have a full stock of the different lines, Kitchen, Dining Rooms, Bed Rooms, Parlors, Halls, Bath Rooms, etc., and there have been two or three advances in prices since we bought.

Our new stock contains some lines of American made paper that we can sell at prices lower than is asked for same qualities to-day. We invite inspection of our stock and prices.

We have added to our stock of Room Mouldings, White, White and Gold, Oak, different sizes, at old prices. Our stock of Picture Frame Mouldings has just been filled up, some quite new in design and finish.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. T. A. Percy.

At the Kingston General Hospital, Friday, February 4th, 1921, passed to rest Cynthia Eliza Joyce, beloved wife of the late Thomas A. Percy, who predeceased her about 20 years. The deceased was the eldest daughter of the late James and Marjorie Joyce. She was born at North Fredericksburgh on March 8th, 1852. Her married life was spent near her old home, but following the death of her husband she resided with her daughter. She leaves to mourn her loss, one daughter, Mrs. F. B. Carscallen; four brothers, Samuel, William, John and Sheldon, and one sister, Mrs. Cartwright Hawley. Mrs. T. H. Richards, who was a victim of the train accident at Bonbeur Station, 1919, was also a sister. Mrs. Percy was a lifelong member of the Methodist Church and her funeral service, which was held at the residence of her daughter, South River Road, was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Dr. Shorey. The remains were placed in Morven vault, to await interment in the Spring.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

On Thursday evening, Feb. 3rd, about fifty-five neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Asselstine, and presented them with a solid oak mantle clock, and the following address:—

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Asselstine and Family,—Once again the ceaseless hands of time have swung around, and we, as closely associated neighbors, are called upon to part, and although your removal from our midst does not take you far, yet old ties and associations with you are more or less severed and broken.

As a neighborhood we have assembled here this evening to spend a few pleasant hours with you, and to show you in a tangible way our estimation of you as neighbours and our appreciation of your friendship. We ask you to accept this clock as a remembrance of the friends you are leaving in this neighborhood, and as the moments and hours pass away and lengthen into years, may its unceasing vigilance serve but to remind you and recall to you old friends, old associations and old memories, for among all life's hurry in this workday world one of the greatest blessings ever granted to humanity is the memory of the pleasant days gone by, and as the poet remarks:—

Then what is the happiest memory,
Is it the foes' defeat?
Is it the splendid praise of the world
That thunders by at our feet?
Nay, nay, to the life worn spirit,
The happiest thoughts are those
That carry us back to the simple joy
And the sweetness of life's repose.
A simple love, and a simple trust,
And a simple duty done,
Are truer torches to life, to death,
Than a whole world's victory won.

And so as you take your journey from among us to form new associates and new friendships, we all join in wishing you and your family peace and prosperity, and trust to see you in your new home and as a frequent visitor among us.

Signed on behalf of the neighborhood,

ED. HEWITT,
FRANCIS McCULLOUGH,
MILTON SAMPSON.

Mr. Asselstine replied briefly thanking the neighbors for their kind remembrance and assured them of a hearty welcome whenever they found it convenient to visit them in their new home.

The evening was very pleasantly spent by all, and after lunch, the company dispersed, all wishing Mr. and Mrs. Asselstine and family every success in their new home.

Double Wedding.

A pretty double wedding took place at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning, Feb. 8th, 1921, at Christ Church, Emerald, when Miss Viola Wemp, daughter of Mr. John Wemp, Jr., was married to Mr. Herman Willard, son of Mr. Heman Willard; and also her sister, Miss Marion Wemp, to Mr. Howard Richards, son of Mr. Argutus Richards, all of Emerald. The church was prettily decorated with evergreens and potted plants. The rector, Rev. J. C. Dixon, officiated, and Miss Edith Willard played the wedding music. The brides, who were brought in by their father and given away by him, looked very sweet and dainty in their bridal gowns of white satin and georgette embroidered in pearls. Their long tulle veils were held with wreaths of orange blossoms and each carried a shower of pink roses. A small reception for the immediate relatives was held after the ceremony at the home of the brides' father, after which Mr. and Mrs. Willard and Mr. and Mrs. Richards left on the 4 o'clock train for points west. On their return they will make their home on Amherst Island.

Best Battery for Winter Use

COLD weather driving makes heavier demands upon any storage battery. Engines are stiff—oil is sluggish—gasoline vaporizes slowly—lights burn longer—and the severe cold tends to cause battery deterioration. Only a battery of maximum power and vitality can meet these demands.

The Prest-O-Lite Storage Battery has proven in the toughest of cold weather tests, to be by far the best battery for winter use.

Why be satisfied with anything short of the best? There's a Prest-O-Lite for every car.

HOCKEY.

Boy Scouts 4, Gibbards Juniors 0.

The new covered rink was the scene of another stride on Saturday, when Gibbards Juniors were defeated by the Boy Scouts by the score of four to nil, making the second game for the Scouts this season.

The game was fast from the clang of the bell, and both teams being evenly matched, made it uncertain who would score the first goal. Several rushes were made by both teams but to no avail, until "Lockley Kavanaugh" came into the limelight by making a rush and shooting the sphere between the nets. The sphere was taken to the centre and Gibbards Juniors were determined that the Scouts would be held. But once again "Lockley" received the sphere from a pass and shot it between the nets, making the first period two to nil, in favor of the Scouts.

The second period Gibbards changed their goal tender who played well. The most interesting part of this period was the way both teams tried to back check. Davis and Vine were like Hotatus at the bridge, and saved many goals for Gibbards, by their good work in checking.

The third period was equally as fast, but the forward lines could not get away together. Both teams were playing to score. Gibbards got away time after time and made many shots at the goal, but they were mostly wide. Several lone rushes were noticeable during this period by the defences. "Lockley" again starred, when he rushed in his third goal, and before the bell clanged again he had scored his fourth goal.

Gibbards—Goal, Miles; Defence, Davis and Bentley; Forwards, Vine, Davis and Sager.

The Tigers from Napanee were defeated by Descronto by 6 to 1.

There died in Peterboro', at his home, at the corner of Romaine and Lock Streets, on Wednesday, February 2nd, 1921, Edward James Wagar. The deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George G. Wagar, of Enterprise, where he spent his boyhood days, being in the grocery business for years, until four years ago when he moved with his family to Peterboro', where he has also been successful. The remains were brought to Enterprise on Friday evening. The funeral service was conducted from the home of his brother, Hubert, first by the brethern of the Masonic Order, then to the Methodist Church, where the sermon was preached by the Rev. J. G. Like the Proverbial Cat, He Will Come Back to His Fixed Abode if There Is Any Possibility of His Doing It.

When I was a boy down on Cape Cod, writes a friend of the Companion, I remember my mother scraping the side of a toad with her hoe while working in the garden. The next day mother noticed there was a large scab in the toad's side. It made her nervous to look at it, and she asked me to put the toad in a box and carry it away. I carried the toad a distance of three miles into the woods and dropped him. He was back in our garden the very next day; and although I repeated the performance three times, it hopped back every time. Finally mother said not to bother him, for the scab was healing.

I never gave that a second thought until I happened to be studying under Professor Sharp at Boston university, when, to illustrate a point to the class, he said that toads, like carrier pigeons, possessed the homing instinct; then I thought of the toad that mother had asked me to carry away from our garden at Provincetown, 30 years before.

It happened next morning after Professor Sharp made the remark about the homing instinct of hop-toads that a freight conductor came into the signal tower where I am employed and showed me a hop-toad he had picked up on the lawn at the Saugus station and brought to Boston in his caboose; he said he intended to put the toad in his garden at Somerville to eat the bugs.

I told the conductor about the experience I had with a toad down on Cape Cod and that Professor Sharp had said that toads did really possess the homing instinct. Finally, we decided to tie a small tag to the toad's hind leg with the conductor's name and address written on it; and he was to turn the toad loose in his garden at Somerville that afternoon. When the conductor's train arrived at Saugus the next noon the toad with a tag on which his name was written was hopping round on the lawn at the Saugus station.

In order to create still further that toads do really possess the homing instinct I took a toad from my garden at Wakefield, ten miles from Boston. Putting the toad in a box, I walked to the Wakefield station and took a train for Boston at half-past ten in the evening. When I arrived in Boston I transferred to the Elevated and rode to Charlestown, and at the corner of Perkins and Haverhill streets, Charlestown, one mile from Boston, near the signal tower where I work, I released the toad. The toad was tagged with my name and address.

As I walked into my driveway in Wakefield at half-past eight the next morning a disgusting toad with a small tag tied to his hind leg hopped across the lawn from the direction of the Metropolitan park reservation, and placed himself under the silk cord where the water dripped on him and bathed his dusty back.

Bright Youngster.

The other day a precocious two-year-old came into the office, and while her mother waited for the doctor the child entertained Dr. Wilson's office. She talked on every subject she could think of, and at last, holding out of the window at the ditty say, She exclaimed: "My goodness! Ain't the smoke the nicest."—Exchange.

and inflamed, the speedy and most effective treatment is to now and again dissolve a Peps infection-killing tablet in your mouth. Peps reach the source of disease which are the parts actually affected in throat and chest ailments. Liquid medicines can't do this.

Just as you breathe in the germs of throat trouble, so you must breathe in the remedy to chase and exterminate these germs, before they feel their way into the windpipe and chest. These soothing, germicidal Peps vapours quickly allay inflammation and soreness; they overcome the hoarseness, difficulty in swallowing, and relishing dry cough.

Free from opium or other habit-forming drugs Peps go to the root remedy and preventive of colds, chills, grippe, influenza and throat troubles.

Beware of substitutes and tablets containing formalin which irritate stimulate the throat and so exasperate.

MACDONALD'S CUT BRIER

¶ MACDONALD'S "BRIER" has become a Canadian institution. Smoked by the men who made history. In the bush, on the trail, in mining camps, prospectors' huts, factory yards, on trains, steamships, in the luxurious homes and downtown clubs of our Canadian cities—Macdonald's has always been recognized as the smoke.

¶ MACDONALD'S CUT "BRIER"—the same tobacco but in new form—maintains every Macdonald tradition since 1858, and gives to smokers—more tobacco for the money.

Color Test Supreme.

The Florida shipping committee has affirmed the decision of a lower court that the color test inside the rind test in citrus fruit in determining their marketable condition. A large grower contends to ship grapefruit that showed an average on the trees of more than one-half colored, undeveloped pigment, under the law. An inspector made an acid test and passed the shipment as immature fruit. The grower appealed to the courts. The state authorities had held that the color test was secondary and that the fruit could not be shipped unless it stood the acid test. The supreme court holds that ripeness is sufficient test for shipment, but if the ripening is delayed, as it sometimes is, until after the fruit is fit for consumption, the grower may profit by the acid test the law has fixed for the fruit.

Linking the Americas.

For the first time North and South America are to be linked together by regular wireless communication. Despite the progress in wireless electricity the region of the equator has continued to set up a barrier against the invisible messages. The most powerful currents could not penetrate the mysterious resistance known as "static." Now, at last, this problem has been solved. Great high power stations in the United States can now communicate with similar stations in Brazil. At a touch of the key at New York or Washington the invisible waves will overleap every barrier and be read an instant later on the south-ern continent. The wireless will knit closer the two western continents.—Boys' Life.

Germs and Microbes.

Germs and microbes are terms which are applied to certain organisms too small to be seen by the unaided eye. Most of those which produce disease are known as bacteria. These are one-celled plants. They are not insects or even animals, being much lower in the scale of life and much simpler in structure than insects. Man always has made use of certain germs, without, however, knowing just what he was doing, for instance, yeast used in baking and other fermentation processes.

"Bothered with time-wasting callers, are you? Why don't you try my plan?" asked the first.

"What is your plan?" said the second.

"Why, when the bell rings I put on my hat and gloves before I open the door. If it proves to be someone I don't want to see I say, "So sorry, but I'm just going out."

"But suppose it's someone you want to see?" asked the second.

"Oh, then I say, "So fortunate, I've just come in", said the first.

OBITUARY

Anna Amelia Edgar, beloved wife of Frederick Harris Pickles, passed away at her residence, 212 Ellsworth St., San Francisco, on January 21st, 1921.

Mrs. Pickles was born in Camden Township, being the youngest daughter of the late James Edgar and Nancy Lockridge. She received her academic education in Newburgh High School and Napanee Collegiate Institute. For a few years she engaged in the teaching profession in this County, and later accepted a position on the school staff in Revelstoke, B.C. From Revelstoke she went to Vancouver, where she attended Commercial College, and subsequently became engaged in business activities in the Western States, being regarded as one of the most capable business women on the Pacific Coast.

A short time ago she married Mr. F. H. Pickles and intended accompanying him and her nephew to India. But before they booked their passage, symptoms of heart trouble developed. On January 12th she was stricken down to her bed, and on the 21st she suddenly expired.

Deceased was well known in this County. Her cheerful countenance, quick perceptibility and ready repartee combined in giving her a charming personality; one with whom you were glad to meet and sorry to part. Three years ago while taking a rest, she spent a couple of months with her sister, Mrs. Alexander Gibson, South Napanee, and again in the fall of 1919 she paid a short visit while en route to New York and Norfolk, Virginia. Her many friends will be sorry to learn of her demise. She leaves four sisters, Mrs. Callery, Camlfton; Mrs. Reid, Enterprise; Mrs. Donovan, Colborne, and Mrs. Denison, Toronto, and four brothers, who reside in the West, to mourn her departure.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

"I thought there was a movement in your town for all the churches to merge into one."

"There is."

"What's the delay?"

"They can't decide which one."

One of the commonest complaints of infants is worms, and the most effective application for them is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator.

"Are you a bull or a bear in Wall Street?"

"Neither," replied Mr. Dustin Stax. "When I'm on the trail of a sure profit I'm a bloodhound; and when I'm scared I'm a rabbit."

Corns are caused by the pressure of tight boots, but no one need be troubled with them long when so simple a remedy as Holloway's Corn Remover is available.

Joe (who has just missed his train, to a friend who arrived a minute after)—Confound it, Fred; just got there in time to see it leaving the station!

Fred—Lucky beggar! I didn't get a glimpse at it at all!

An Oil that is Prized Everywhere.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil was put upon the market without any flourish over fifty years ago. It was put up to meet the wants of a small section, but as soon as its merits became known it had a whole continent for a field, and it is now known and prized throughout this continent. There is nothing equal to it.

A Highland innkeeper remarked of the Duke of Argyll that "he was in a terrible deefcult position because his pride of intellect will not let him associate with men of his ain intellect."

The use of Miller's Worm Powders insures healthy children so far as the ailments attributable to worms are concerned. A high mortality among children is traceable to worms. These sap the strength of infants so that they are unable to maintain the battle of life and succumb to weakness. This preparation gives promise of health and keeps it.

"Where's the office boy?"

"Gone to the football game."

"Gone to the football game!" He didn't ask me if he could go."

"No. That custom has gone out of style. He just said he was going and would be back in the morning, and if you didn't like it he wouldn't be back at all."

An Oil for All Men.—The sailor, the fisherman, the lumberman, the out-door laborer and all who are exposed to injury and the elements will find in Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil a true and faithful friend. To ease pain, relieve colds, dress wounds, subdue lumbago and overcome rheumatism, it is excellent. Therefore, it should have a place in all home medicines and those taken on a journey.

"I hate to hold you up," said the polite footpad, "but you see what happens to people who stay out late."

"But business kept me out late," protested the pedestrian.

"Same here," replied the footpad, as he returned the pedestrian's tin watch and kept his bank roll.

"Dorothy, dear, I hope when you took back the picture book that you thanked Mrs. Naybor for lending it to you."

"There was nobody home, mamma, but the door was open so I went in and put the picture book on the table and said 'Thank you,' an' comed away."

TO WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

This Woman's Letter Tells You How To Pass The Crisis Safely.

Lascelles, P.Q.—"During the Change of Life I felt so weak and run down I could hardly do my work. The perspiration would pour over my face so that I couldn't see what I was doing. We live on a farm, so there is lots to do, but many who felt as I did would have been in bed. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it did me a world of good. I tried other remedies but I put Vegetable Compound ahead of them all, and I tell every one I know how much good it has done me."—Mrs. DUNCAN BROWN, Lascelles, Prov. Quebec.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ear, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness should be heeded by middle-aged women, and let Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound carry them safely through this crisis as it did Mrs. Brown.

You are invited to write for free advice

Tamworth Farmers' Co-Operative Association.

The Annual General Meeting of the Tamworth Farmers' Co-Operative Association was held at Tamworth on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 1st. There was a good representation of the members. The Auditors' Report for the past season was read, and on motion to that effect, was unanimously received and adopted. The report showed the business of the Association to have come out about even for the season. The following were elected Directors:—D. A. Reid, John Morrison, William Tyner, J. A. Howes, Jas. Martin, Ed. Way, Angus Way, Herbert Rogers and John McGregor. At a subsequent meeting John Morrison was chosen President, William Tyner, Vice-President, and John McGregor Secretary-Treasurer. The latter will be glad to receive applications for membership in the Association.

Prof. Prince Lectures To-night Before The Historical Society.

For the first time, to-night, Professor Prince will appear before a Napanee audience. The Historical Society, which has brought so many distinguished speakers to our town, is maintaining the standard by securing Professor Prince to speak upon his experience on the administration of Palestine during the period of transition from war to peace conditions. It would be a pleasure to hear Professor Prince speak upon any subject, but the one he has chosen will prove to be most enjoyable to all who take any interest in the great problems of the world. Who is not deeply interested in the winning of Palestine from the Turk? It was one of the big things accomplished by the British army. The lecture will be illustrated by lantern slides. Here is an opportunity for an intellectual treat that should not be allowed to pass. To-night, at 8 o'clock, in Historical Hall. No admission fee.

"Signal" Section.

On Thursday evening a meeting was held in the Town Hall to discuss the formation and organization of the Signal Section, which is now in process of formation here. Those present were young men of the town who are interested in this branch of the service. They were able to gain all the information they required from Capt. S. A. Lee, M.C., who is in charge of the organization of the Signal Service in Military District No. 3. Capt. Lee pointed out that whatever unit the young men of Napanee joined it was all for the good of the Militia, but as Signals happened to be his branch of the service he was there to explain the details and working of the Signal Service, and to give them any information they wished to know about that branch of the army. Capt. Bradley also spoke of the social organization that would be run in connection with the section. This officer, with the aid of Sgt. Harry Loucks, should make it very interesting and pleasant for the members of his section. All those present expressed their intention of joining "Signals".

CRAZED MAN COMMITS HORRIBLE DEED.

Kingston, Feb. 9.—One of the most horrible acts ever perpetrated here occurred early this morning, when Robert Roy Valentine, aged 28, a milkman, living at 19 Nelson street, committed maltreatment upon his wife as the result of becoming insane over religion. Valentine was impressed with the idea that his wife was possessed of a devil, and decided that he would relieve her of it. His wife, according to those who have knowledge of the awful affair, say that the young woman was a party to his action.

The deed occurred early this morning, and when neighbors heard cries about 8 o'clock they sent a telephone message to this police station. Valentine was placed under arrest, and later became so violent in prayer that he was removed to Rockwood Asylum for the Insane, having been declared of unsound mind.

Mrs. Valentine went to the house of a neighbor and was from there removed to the General Hospital, where she lies in a very critical condition as the result of loss of blood and blood-poisoning.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns, who have rooms in the same house, were called early this morning into the rooms of the Valentine family by the crazed man, whose hands were covered with blood. He said that he had just relieved his wife of a devil. Her night dress was blood-soaked.

The Valentine couple have a two-year-old girl, who is being cared for by neighbors.

They were members of the Standard Church of America, of which Bishop Horner is head, and had been very fervent in their religious devotions at home, neighbors saying that they prayed incessantly as early as 4.30 o'clock in the morning, continuing until 7 o'clock.

I. O. O. F. LODGE INSTITUTED AT YARKER.

The I. O. O. F. is making rapid strides in Frontenac, Lennox and Addington, where a few years ago no order of this nature was known to exist, outside of Napanee and Kingston. There are now lodges in Odessa, Harrowsmith and Yarker, with a membership in each lodge of from fifty to eighty.

Thursday, January 27th, a lodge was instituted in Yarker. There were many members from Yarker, Colebrook, and Moscow, who decided to organize this lodge, and a building was bought from J. C. Connolly, and fitted out for lodge purposes, and a charter was applied for. Thursday, the 27th, Rapid Lodge, No. 467, was instituted by G. M. Brother Parks, Toronto; G. M. Brother Robertson, Barrie; G. Sec. Brother Wm. Brooks, Toronto, and representatives from Enterprise, Harrowsmith and Odessa were present.

The Methodist League Hall was kindly given over in which to hold the banquet. The ladies of Colebrook and Yarker provided plenty for the six o'clock tea, prepared for outsiders, and the banquet at midnight. After installation by the grand officers, about nineteen new members were initiated in the first degree. The officers installed for Rapid Lodge No. 467 are—

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary J. Scott.

Mrs. Mary J. Scott, widow of the late George Scott, passed away at her home, on January 18th.

The deceased was born in the Township of Kingston, near Portsmouth, in 1847. She was a daughter of the late Marmaduke Wellborn. In 1873 she was united in marriage to George Scott, of the Bath Road. They were blessed with ten children, five boys and five girls. In 1881 Mr. and Mrs. Scott with their family moved to Ernestown to their fine stock farm, 3 miles south west of Camden East, where part of the family still reside.

In 1887 Mr. Scott received the one Clear Call and passed into the Great Beyond. Mrs. Scott was left alone with eight children to fight life's battles. She was ever bright and cheerful and struggled bravely in the noblest of earthly vocations—that of a mother and home-maker. She was a woman of unusual ability and sound judgment, honest and upright in all her dealings. Her kindly interest extended beyond her home, and was always ready with a helping hand in times of need or distress.

In religion, she was a member of the Methodist Church from childhood, but through infirmities and cares for many years was prevented a regular attendance at the Sanctuary.

On Tuesday, January 18th, very early in the morning, fossiled by the Finger of God, her mortal was clothed in immortality. Mrs. Scott's passing away brought great grief in her home, which can never be healed and sorrow in the community.

One brother, eleven grandchildren and six children survive her. Three daughters and one son predeceased her. Harry is located at Ladner, B.C. Fred and Mrs. Whiteley, at Montreal; Lillie, a trained nurse, and Percy and George, at home.

The funeral service was conducted by her Pastor, Rev. Mr. Latimer, at her home. The remains were laid to rest in Riverside vault, Napanee, to be taken to Cataraqui in the spring and placed beside her long lost partner, who predeceased her 33 years ago.

PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS.

On the evening of January 27th, about sixty friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chalk to enjoy once more the hospitality of their home before their departure for their new home at Gosport. After the following very appropriate address was read, Mr. and Mrs. Chalk thanked their dear friends for their very kind remembrance, after which the rest of the evening was spent in music and dancing.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Chalk and Family,—We have learned with deep regret that you are about to leave our midst, and we thought it impossible for us to allow you to leave our vicinity without showing our good will toward you, and assuring you that we feel the loss of your removal from our midst; but hoping you may enjoy the pleasure and prosperity of the future years, we ask you to accept these chairs as a slight remembrance of your warm friends you are leaving and thanking you all for your kindness of the past.

Signed on behalf of the neighbors and friends.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR.

To the Editor of Napanee Beaver.

Dear Sir,—I notice in your last issue of The Beaver a paragraph in your Newburgh correspondence touching on U. F. O. affairs. He or she asks the writer of U. F. O. News and views to answer some questions he has I suppose very laboriously made up.

I am not the writer of News and Views, but I think he strikes at farmers in general when he writes as he does, and I hope your very able writer of News and Views will also take it up.

First he wants to know who is at fault in regards to hay being thirty dollars per ton? Answer: If we farmers had our barns full of hay it would not be ten dollars a ton. Can he see through that? I doubt it. What good is thirty or one hundred dollars a ton when but one farmer out of a dozen has hay to sell, and with the scarcity of hay, I very much doubt if farmers can produce butter at the price he mentions, which is about 15c. above market prices, and make a red cent for his labor.

Take for instance, potatoes last year $2.00 per bag, but how many farmers had potatoes? The year they have, what is the price?

Answer: Not the seventy-five per cent of the farmers have lost money on their poultry, even if like our wonderful experiment they could get $1.00 per doz. for eggs. At present 40c. is nearer the mark.

He also wants to know who is to blame? Answer: Himself and others like him. If he wants lower prices let him take off his coat and get out on the farm, and he will mighty soon change his tune about such rich profits.

About his pig buying so many pounds of boots. Let me tell him that by the time that pig pays his keep it would be mighty few boots or anything else it would buy. Then after the farmer raises the pig, and his labor is not worth much.

He also brings up the farmer and his automobile. Who is the wide mouth that has a right to a car if it is not the farmer? The town man can get all he wants, either to buy flour or butcher over the phone, and his goods are delivered at his door. I fancy I see the farmer's wife going to Well, if a farmer has no right to ride around the country", neither has any one else.

What does he mean when he asks, "Will the farmers go back to the farms?" Does he mean retired farmers? Well if a farmer can't get enough ahead in fifty or sixty years of from ten to sixteen hours a day labor to keep him the rest of his life, Heaven help him.

In closing I would say as our politicians at Ottawa say, "There is a light burning in the window for such as he." Let him answer the call and get out and dig."

NEWBURGH.

A meeting of the citizens was held on Monday night to consider the purchase or the building of a shed for the accommodation of the public. The Reeve, Mr. McNeely, presided and reported that he had secured legal advice to the effect that taxes could not be collected for the purchase of property by the corporation. This naturally raised the question, if a shed is to be built, who will build it and who will own it if it is built? And for a time it appeared that if the shed came into the world at all it would be treated with the disgrace of the proper parent. However, after a good deal of discussion and wrangling, a motion by Geo. Rose-Beve Adams went through that the old hotel property, owned by T. I. Wood, be acquired, and that the money be raised by subscription, and that the corporation hold it in Trust and be the official guardian, so to speak.

A social gathering will be held under the auspices of the Willing Workers, in the basement of the Methodist Church, on Monday evening next, at which there will be a programme of entertaining music, general pool cheer. An admittance fee of 25c. will be charged both for comfort and for music.

We are getting so much more like Boston every day that the people here do not know what their next door neighbour is doing. This is why we cannot tell you who the week-end pondents in reporting visitors. Anyway we would like to see people get a good meal once in a while without poaching on them.

Gibbards 4, Town Team 3.

On Monday night Gibbards and the Town team clashed in the first game of the second half of the League, and Gibbards came out victorious, after a hard fought game, by a score of 4-3.

The game was one of the best that has been witnessed at the rink this year, and both teams missed chances on the goal, that had they been perfect would have made a difference in the score. Gibbards can thank their goal tender for saving the game for them, for in the closing five minutes of the game, he stopped many lone rushes when the puck would have broken through the defence and carried it to the goal mouth. Ray Huffman made some wonderful saves, but it must also be remembered that the town team made some poor shots.

Neither team scored in the first period, both teams sticking to their checks pretty well. Blute scored a goal as the bell rang, but was not counted. In the second period the town team scored on a shot from the corner, which glanced off the defence player's skate into the goal.

Gibbards were not long getting it back, and before the period was over made it four, McNeill landing two and Loucks and Richardson one each.

The third period produced some fast hockey and gave the fans enough thrills in this period to generally occur in an entire game. The town team scored on a shot from behind the goal that was kicked into the back, and only a few seconds later McLaughlin made it another from a close in shot. McNeill and Johnston scored but had hard luck in shooting. The Town team started rush after rush, and only the wonderful work of Huffman in goal prevented a score. With only two minutes to play Blute and Scott rushed, but Scott's shot was turned aside. McLaughlin broke away on a lone rush and evening the whole Gibbard team, shot, the puck striking the goal post and bounding across to the other and back into play.

Following is the line-up—

Town Team—Goal, H. Stacey; Defence, Loucks and Blute; Centre, Gilmer; L. W., McLaughlin; R. W., Scott; Subs., H. Stacey and Maracle.

Referee, George T. Walters.

U. F. O. NEWS AND VIEWS.

Happy is the newspaper that wins the love of the Selby U. F. O. Club. In just one week Selby U. F. O. Club has secured 100 new subscribers for "The Farmer's Sun", and Napanee Club with the same high purpose has taken the bit in its teeth and is following close behind. There was always excellent value in "The Farmer's Sun" at $1.50 a year. But when a man and his family are offered a free banquet and an address by J. J. Morrison, in addition to a full year's subscription to a semi-weekly paper of 40,000 subscribers—all for $1.50—well, a man doesn't often refuse any one of the three. By pooling the 25c. commission allowed by "The Sun" to anybody sending in a new subscriber, the members of these two U. F. O. Clubs expect to defray at least a part of the expense of the banquet.

The Canadian Farm Woman.

After all is said and done nearly every farmer's wife has her own silent opinions of life on a farm and nearly every farmer's wife has her own secret way of converting her husband to her point of view. And so in studying the cause of the eternal decrease in the rural population of Canada, we sometimes do not make enough allowance for the modest silent influence of the gentler sex, an influence which in a large per cent. of cases does not tend to keep the farmer on the land.

It is a well known fact that in a great majority of cases a farm, at the prevailing prices for commodities, never earns for its owner the interest on the investment. After taxes, depreciation in value, repairs, losses, etc., have been deducted, a farm does not pay good wages to the men working it. And yet as a general rule, the farmer by practising rigid economy in his home and dress, by taking no wages for himself and by exacting unpaid labor from his wife and children is able to save the interest on his investment and to put it annually in the bank or to save it up and buy an automobile.

Farm Women Must Economize.

The farmer knows that he cannot profitably economize on farm equipment because a lack of labor-saving machinery about the farm materially decreases his little income. The greatest economy must therefore be practised on those things which do not affect the income. It is in the farm home and in the farmer's clothes that privation exists. Many farmers' wives are for a big share of their lives deprived of furniture and carpets and anything but the most primitive kitchen equipment. They work along with a few cheap chairs, a cold-kitchen, a stove, and a few cooking utensils because private water systems, and lighting systems and furnaces are beyond the reach of even the most "well-to-do" farmers.

She Assists in Farm Work.

Consequently in the farm home the housewife toils with wood from the wood-pile and water from the pump and scrubs her clothes in a wash-tub or in a man-power washing machine the same as her grandmother did fifty years ago. But that would not be so bad if in addition to her prior-ous household work the average farm woman did not find it necessary to help her husband at the barn and about the farm. In order to have an income which in any way compares with his city brother the farmer must keep more cows than he and the hired man can milk alone and must raise more fodder than he and the hired man can harvest alone. Consequently, the Canadian farm woman, who has never been afraid of outside work, rises in the morning at five o'clock, assists with the milking of the cows, prepares the breakfast, washes milk pails, milk cans or cream separator, attends to her household duties, and sees that the meals are ready on time, assists in horse-raking, etc., and in these years of short-labor has not even been afraid to toil with her husband in the hay field.

Compared With City Women.

No matter what the spirit of the woman may be, such an unbroken, unremunerated round of toil is bound to affect her nerve and health, and the farmer's wife is some day bound to contrast her lot with that of the butterflies of the city. Well-furnished houses modernly decorated and equipped with electric lights, water works, gas, furnaces, etc., are the everyday conveniences of her city friend. Instead of rising at five o'clock in the morning and hurrying to the barn to assist her husband with the milking, the city woman does not even find it necessary to prepare her husband's breakfast. With the electric toaster, corn flakes, prepared coffee, some fruit and a couple of eggs sizzled on the gas stove, he is satisfied and away to his work by seven o'clock. His wife rises at her own convenience or in time to get the kiddies off to the school around the corner. There is a wide contrast between the dirty farm cow stable at five o'clock in the morning and the convenient milk bottle waiting at the kitchen door with the milk all pasteurized, homogenized and standardized, at 9 o'clock. Groceries, meat, vegetables, likewise, await the city housewife at the kitchen door. The family washing is nearly always sent to the laundry, but even at the worst the modern electric washer or tap washer chug-chugs away all by itself until the washing is done. An hour's daily use of the vacuum cleaner keeps the house eternally "spic and span" and the city housewife finds herself free to do as she wishes an almost any and every afternoon. Hours of leisure allow her to enjoy the little teas and theatres and society that every woman loves. Her husband's wages are sufficient to support his wife and family and himself. The city woman never thinks of going to the mill with her husband and threshing in pratis labor in order that her husband's income will be more. But the farm woman does because the labor not only of himself but of his children and wife is given to reach the wage return of a single worker in an industrial employment.

She Advises Her Children To Go To The City.

Of all these advantages of city life the country woman is aware, and she would be only human if when her husband was in the right humour she suggested that they sell the farm. And her influence does not end in her own generation. Her dreams of life in the city are transmitted to her children and she urges her boys to make something besides farmers of themselves and she insists that her girls marry men who will live in the city.

Women and mothers during and since the war have used their utmost influence and have helped to rightly solve the greatest problems of our nation. War work, social work, temperance and moral reform, have always received the unselfish and sincere response which only woman gives. But with their franchise given them and with no party prejudices yet created women have a vast opportunity of bettering country conditions and preventing our nation's peril of losing her rural population. By entering into the struggle for better country schools, better roads, temperance, better machinery for distribution and an alteration of the tax system whereby the farmer sells his products in the open market of the world and buys in restricted markets —by entering into it with a high purpose the Canadian woman has a great opportunity of benefitting her country and a great privilege of creating for herself and for her children a better land for them to live in.

STUDY BY STATE COLLEGE SHOWS THE COMPARATIVE VALUE OF TRACTOR AND HORSE ON FARM.

Ithaca, Feb. 10.—A study of tractor operation on eighty-seven New York farms for a year by the State College of Agriculture shows wide variation in the relative efficiency of tractors and horses. At heavy work, such as plowing and disking, a tractor accomplished as much in a day on the average, as from seven to nine horses. At harrowing, a tractor accomplished as much as six horses; at binding corn or grain, as much as from four to five horses, and at mowing, as much as three horses. This helps to explain the general opinion of these farmers that the use of tractors is profitable on heavy operations, but that horses are cheaper for the light, rapid operations.

Although a tractor can do as much work as six or nine horses in the heavy field operations, it should not be inferred that farmers can do without anywhere near this number of horses after purchasing a tractor. On each of forty-six farms in a general farming region, an average of 1.6 less horses were kept after purchasing a tractor. At the same time the average size of each farm was increased by nearly seventeen acres. About 8,500 pounds less grain and 11,000 pounds less hay to the farm were fed to horses after purchasing a tractor. The latter was partly due to the fewer horses kept and partly to the fact that somewhat less grain was fed to each horse after the purchase of a tractor. On these forty-six farms the farmers felt that they needed an average of 2.4 fewer horses and four months less of hired labor than would be needed if they did not use tractors.

The number of horses that a tractor will displace on any farm depends largely on whether the tractor is able to replace horses at the time of the greatest pressure of horse work. If the number of horses kept on a farm is determined by the requirements of plowing and fitting, a tractor which will do a large part of this work efficiently will displace some horses.

On many New York farms the number of horses kept is determined by the requirements for haying, harvesting and cultivating crops. Under present conditions the farm tractor is less efficient in the light, rapid operations of haying and harvesting and is not adapted to cultivating. On such farms fewer, if any, horses can be displaced.

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF SUN LIFE.

The year 1921 marks the fiftieth anniversary of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada which is grown to be one of the largest and most successful life insurance companies in the world.

A comparison of the growth of the company's business by decades is perhaps the most convincing proof of the strength of its management and of the steady development of public confidence towards it.

One year after it was organized, in 1872, the company's income was $46,000; its assets, $96,461, and it had written policies for a total of $1,062,250. By the year 1880 the income had grown to $141,402, with assets $473,682, and insurance in force of $3,897,133. From this time onward the development of the company, not only in Canada but in stretching out to many other countries of the world, proceeded at a rapid pace, as the tables for the next four decades indicate:

Income	$ 889,000
Assets	2,472,000
Insurance in force	16,759,000

1900.

Income	$ 2,759,000
Assets	10,496,000
Insurance in force	57,980,000

1910.

Income	$ 9,575,000
Assets	38,164,000
Insurance in force	147,349,000

1920.

Income	$ 28,751,000
Assets	114,870,000
Insurance in force	486,641,000

Such a record stands alone in the annals of life insurance companies in Canada. Nor after such a great achievement is there any sign that the company has any intention of standing still on its laurels, for during the past year there was written in new insurance upwards of $106,000,000 which in itself exceeds by $20,000,000 the high mark of 1919, which up to that date was a record for the company. It is interesting to note that during its fifty years of existence the Sun Life has paid out to its policy-holders or their beneficiaries over $100,000,000. Details of the financial statement of this company for the past year appear elsewhere in this issue, and will be studied with more than usual interest in this jubilee year.

COSTLY NEW YEAR'S CELEBRATING.

The Windsor "Star" reports that along the river front many persons apparently celebrating the advent of the New Year by much rifle and shot-gun shooting. Almost anything seemed to be acceptable as a target. A brand new Bell Telephone cable was filled with holes, many wires completely cut and damage to that cost over two thousand dollars to repair. Between five and six hundred telephones were put out of commission.

NERVOUS, IRRITABLE, AILING WOMEN

Mrs. Britten Tells How She Was Restored To Health After Suffering for More Than A Year.

Another Triumph for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dimondale, Mich.—"I had inflammation and a displacement and weakness, and it had been neglected so long that I suffered great pain, and this affected my mind and nerves so that I was very irritable. I had severe pains every month, so that I was often confined to bed for two days at a time. I suffered for over a year and before my friends said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.' So I purchased one bottle and when I had taken ten bottles, then Lydia E. Pinkham's Tablets and Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I received so much benefit from this treatment that I am now able to do my own housework."—Mrs. JESSIE D. BRITTEN, R. No. 2, Dimondale, Mich.

Another Michigan Woman says:

"I was bothered for a long time with female troubles and was so nervous I felt almost afraid at times. I also had a pain in my right side and was certainly in a bad way. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me and I took it and I can truly say that it has done me a world of good."—Mrs. JESSIE GRANGER, R. No. 8, Box 51, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Good health is a woman's greatest asset. With it life may be the inspiration of her husband's happy motherhood, and the life of the home. Without it she suffers agonies herself, household duties are a burden, and her family is made miserable.

Is it any wonder that these women were nervous and irritable after suffering so long from such deranged conditions? Such ailments act directly upon the nerves. Backache, headache, dizziness, that awful bearing-down sensation, nervous despondency, "the blues," and nervous irritability of women arise from some derangement of the female organism.

If women who are in this condition would only profit by the experience of others and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, much suffering and unhappiness would be averted. As the one known remedy to relieve such ailing mother makes the home unhappy and her condition irritates both husband and children.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

Compound has relieved me of these nervous feelings and pains and I am much better in every way. I don't know just how many bottles I have taken, but I took it for nearly a year and it has done me a world of good."—Mrs. JESSIE GRANGER, R. No. 8, Box 51, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

TELEPHONE SERVICE.

It seems to be the favorite sport of wags to pun and paragraph on telephone service. The comedian who used to get a laugh by the awkward process of stumbling over an ordinary pin, delights in taking pot shots at the telephone.

One of the latest jokes is this:—"How far do you live from your business?"

"Ten minutes motor; twenty minutes trolley; thirty minutes walking, and one hour by telephone."

These jokes are undoubtedly written but for one purpose, and that is to make people laugh. Usually they are written by a person who wants the two or three dollars that the effusion will bring in the joke market.

Furthermore, they are written, undoubtedly, by persons who know nothing of the great problem confronting the telephone people—know nothing and care less.

Born in a spirit of revelry, yet containing poison more deadly than hemlock. A joke at best is no more than frothi, but when it contains a subtle innuendo it more often than not precipitates a superficial judgment, a premature denunciation.

The telephone has never ceased to be a wonder. It is hard to conceive of a world without telephones. If we had to pay for 'phones in accordance with the amount of real benefit they return, and each according to his respective benefit, many would pay hundreds, or even thousands of dollars per month.

Many of us have fallen into the error of complaining of the telephone service, because it seems to be fadish. Let a man or woman use the 'phone 99 times and get perfect service, and then on the hundredth attempt fail to get service and the telephone is englemned in nine lanugages right of which are never seen in print.

We call a man on the other side of the town, the other side of the state, or the other side of the world, and talk to him. In doing so we use equipment that cost many millions of dollars; we have two, five or twenty persons working for us to complete the call; we have an army of hundreds or thousands back of the call, keeping the equipment in such shape as to make our call possible.

If we enter a department store, or a bank, and find the place crowded, we line up to wait our turn and think nothing about it, but when we pick up the telephone, regardless of "the rush hour", we expect to get instant service.

When we consider that we pay the same for telephones that we did twenty years ago, it really is surprising that we get as good service as we do.

The jokesmith who hangs his humour on the telephone does the telephone company a great injustice, but the greatest injury is to the public, for he encourages premature opinions and supervicial thinking.

No great problem is ever solved until the public gives it serious thought.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Charles B. Smith, of Watertown, Mass., second son of the late E. M. Smith, Morven, Ont., who departed this life February 15th, 1920, in his thirty-sixth year.

The day of sadness still comes o'er us
Tears of sorrow often flow,
Memory keeps our loved one near us,
Whom God claimed one year ago.
Though his loving voice is silent,
And his true heart ceased to beat,
Yet we miss his well known footsteps
And his face we used to greet.

Not one day forgotten by his loving wife, mother, sisters and brothers. 7a

Napanee Poultry Association Banquet.

The Napanee Poultry Association's 1st Annual Fowl Banquet was a great success in every way. The beautiful rooms of the Canadian Order of Foresters were secured for the occasion. Napanee has had many successful banquets but none surpassed the Napanee Poultry Association banquet which was held on Monday evening, Feb. 7th, at 8 o'clock. President, John Hayes, acted as chairman.

The speaker of the evening, Professor Elford, of Ottawa, was welcomed by a large audience. The Professor dealt with many interesting lines of poultry keeping, husbandry, bred-to-lay, etc., and went on to show that nothing pays better profits on the farm or town lot than a flock of pure bred poultry. The demand for poultry and eggs is continually increasing. He told of one poultry farm in Canada who did one hundred thousand dollars business a year; kept five stenographers, paid out $1800 for postage stamps, and $10,000 for advertising, and had a clear profit of over $10,000. This certainly shows that poultry can be made to pay, if conducted in a business way. The Professor kept the audience in a happy mood with several laughable stories, and not a dull moment was spent.

It was moved by Mr. J. M. Thomson, and seconded by Mr. George Degroff that a hearty vote of thanks be extended to Professor Elford for his able address.

The tables were beautifully decorated with flowers by the ladies, and after ample justice had been done to many good things to eat, Professor Elford responded to the toast, "The National Poultry Conference", and dealt with it in an able manner. Mr. Anderson responded to the toast of "Ontario" and the audience listened with much interest to his valuable remarks. Mr. McMorine responded to "The Poultry Association" and gave out some good pointers; and Councillor Dr. Ming responded to "Our Town". His remarks were short but to the point.

W. C. T. U.

The February meeting of Newburgh W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. T. I. Winter.

The meeting opened with devotional exercises, led by Miss Bradley in the absence of the President, followed by routine business.

In discussing present conditions it was felt by all that the soldiers of the Dominion are again called to the fore, it was therefore resolved that the 23rd day of February be appointed a day of intercession for guidance and wisdom in the great fight.

Fellow workers, do not let us underestimate the forces of the liquor traffic or fail to realize that it is more virulent than all the wars the world has ever known.

On April 18th we are to record our vote against the evil again. We therefore earnestly appeal to every temperance worker in our Province to see to it that this vote is to stop the manufacture, importation, and transportation of it into this Province.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving memory of dear mother, Mrs. Geo. P. Sills, who departed this life on Feb. 19th, 1916.

It is now a thousand times dear mother,
Since we lost you,
Along life's weary way;
I yearn for thy true and gentle heart
I long for your bright smile to see.

A loving mother so dear to us,
The Lord has called away;
It was then my dearest sorrow fell,
My precious mother dear.

—Daughter, Ida Goudy.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of my beloved husband, Robert W. Lund, who passed away at Napanee, Ont., Feb. 14th, 1920.

When lone in my sorrow the bitter tears flow
There stealeth a dream of sweet long ago,
Unknown to the world you stand by my side,
And whisper "dear loved one, death cannot divide."

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad and loving memory of my dear son, Wilbur C. Card, who departed this life Feb. 9th, 1919.

One precious to my heart is gone,
A voice I loved is still;
A place made vacant in my home
Which no one now can fill.
Oft I think of my dear Wilbur,
And as dawns another year,
In my lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of him are always near.
—Sadly missed by Mother. 7a

—A happy gathering spent a pleasant day at Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Robinson's, Deseronto, on Wednesday, Feb. 1st, in honor of "Grandma's" birthday. Surrounded by his daughters, Mrs. J. A. Fellows and Mrs. Menzo Grooms, Napanee, and their families, also his brother, Mr. J. F. Robinson, Saskatoon, the day passed all too quickly. A letter bringing birthday greetings and congratulations was received from his other daughter, Mrs. John Q. Brandon, Humboldt, Sask.

—The annual Smoker given by L. O. L. No. 1275 in their hall, Deseronto, on Feb. 10th, was a great success and much enjoyed by all present. The concert was filled to capacity; the Rev. E. Radcliffe took the chair, the Master, Bro. Campbell having a bad cold. Brothers Rev. F. L. Barber, of Picton; Rev. A. H. Creeggan, of Tyendinaga, and Mr. Carnow, M.P.P., and Bro. Reid, of Belleville, were the speakers. There was a good programme of music, etc., Messrs. Bert Bowen, W. M. Lowry and Mr. Lyman and Mr. Hewson taking part, which was thoroughly appreciated.

TRACTOR SCHOOL AT HARTMAN & CARD'S.

The following is a report on Tractor School held at Hartman & Card's showroom by International Harvester Company:—

The staff of instructors in charge of Mr. John Berney, one of the best authorities on Gas Power in Eastern Canada, arrived from Ottawa Monday morning, and at noon had everything going full swing.

Six classes are in operation, comprising students from every part of Central Ontario. Here the inexperienced operator is transformed in 5 days into a tractor expert by the wonderful process of teaching in operation. Lectures are given by Mr. Berney twice daily, when he answers all questions relative to tractors or engines.

Six mechanics of high standing assist their respective classes, and the student is taught everything pertaining to traction power, ignition, valve fitting, fitting of bearings, magneto troubles, carburetors, throttle, governors, removal of cylinder heads, etc.

This knowledge is proved on examination day at which time tractors are put out of action and students are given the task of locating the trouble, and later operating same.

This school was in operation last week at Ottawa, where eleven full classes took the course. Mr. Wm. M. Broust, Assistant Manager International Harvester Co. of Canada, Ltd., Ottawa, is looking after arrangements, and has left nothing undone to make it a success. An assortment of International Tractors 8-16 and 10-20 are in use at the school.

The attendance has exceeded the expectations of all concerned, there being over one hundred students enrolled.

The instructors have intimated to us that the Napanee Class are above the average and second to none.

We feel that the farmers of this section are fortunate in having an agency handled by men of the caliber of Messrs. Hartman & Card, who have gone to considerable trouble and expense to have this school held at Napanee, where the users of tractors can get practical knowledge along the above lines.

The school closes on Friday afternoon.

THE ELECTRIC EQUIPMENT OF THE MOTOR CAR.

The Storage Battery.

The Storage Battery or Accumulator, as it is frequently called, does not actually store a charge of electricity. If an ammeter were connected in the circuit on each side of the battery, it would be seen that practically the same current flows away from the battery as to the battery during the period of charge.

From where, then, does the battery derive its power?

If you examine your battery you will readily see that it is made up of a number of units, or cells, connected by means of lead straps or bars. These cell units consist of two groups of plates, a positive group and a negative group. The active material of these plates in the form of a paste, is forced, under heavy pressure, into a grid or lattice work of hard lead, that forms the skeleton or frame of the plate. After a hardening process the plate appears as one compact sheet very smooth and hard. The active material of the positive plate is peroxide of lead, (red lead), and that of the negative plate, litharge or spongy metallic lead. A number of these plates are connected to a strip of lead called a bus bar thus forming a group.

These groups of plates are then assembled in a rubber jar, in such a manner that the plates alternate, there being a positive plate between each pair of negative plates. The plates are then insulated from one another by thin sheets of wood or rubber. The units so assembled are then covered with a sulphuric acid solution having a specific gravity of 1.275 made by adding sufficient chemically pure sulphuric acid to pure distilled water to raise its specific gravity to that point.

The addition of this solution at once starts a chemical action converting the active material of both sets of plates into sulphate of lead and absorbing the acid from the solution.

The charge consists of forcing a direct current of electricity through the cells from positive to negative groups via the solution, thereby setting up an electro-chemical action, forcing the acid out of the plates into the solution, raising its specific gravity, and re-converting the active material of both sets of plates to their original compositions.

When the outside terminals of each group are connected a reverse chemical action takes place producing an electric current in the circuit so formed and re-converting the active materials of the plates into lead sulphate.

WHEN Cold Gets into a Cut

it's smarting painful. Unless you happen to have Zam-Buk handy, the edges harden and get torn open further in the course of work. Then "infection" gets into the broken tissues. Zam-Buk prevents this danger of festering and blood-poison. Applied to any cut, wound, burn or scald, Zam-Buk provides a perfect antiseptic shield for the damaged tissues. It protects your injury against infection—ensures clean speedy healing.

James F. Warren, of Renfrew, Ont., writes:—"Mine was a severe cut with a rusty knife. It happened when I couldn't get my hand properly bound up. Cold and frost got into the injury and the hand went stiff and inflamed.

"When I got home I had the place well bathed, then applied Zam-Buk. It was wonderfully soothing and I used Zam-Buk regularly until all pain and swelling was gone. The cut, though deep and severe, soon thoroughly healed."

Also invaluable for eczema, ulcers, ringworm, abscesses, piles, "cold sores," burns, scalds, and obstinate wounds.

Unless worms be expelled from the system, no child can be healthy. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is an excellent medicine to destroy worms.

"What salary do you expect?" asked the prospective employer.

"At first", was the modest reply, "just enough to live on."

"You expect too much. I can't use you."

An Oil That is Famous.—Though Canada was not the birthplace of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, it is the home of that famous compound. From here its good name was spread to Central and South America, the West Indies, Australia and New Zealand. That is far afield enough to attest its excellence, for in all these countries it is on sale and in demand.

"Why are farmers dissatisfied so much of the time?"

"I suspect," replied Senator Sorghum, "that one reason is that we politicians have for so long made it our regular business to keep the farmer reminded of his troubles."

Requisite on the Farm. — Every farmer and stock-raiser should keep a supply of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil on hand, not only as a ready remedy for ills in the family, but because it is a horse and cattle medicine of great potency. As a substitute for sweet oil for horses and cattle affected by colic it far surpasses anything that can be administered.

"What did Hogan say when Kelly called him a liar?"

"Nothin' much."

"That's funny. Hogan used to be a hot-tempered guy."

"Well, he never said a word except, 'Have ye had enough yet?'"

Wise and experienced mothers know when their children are troubled with worms and lose no time in applying Miller's Worm Powders, a most effective vermifuge. It is absolute in clearing the system of worms and restoring those healthy conditions without which there can be no comfort for the child, or hope of robust growth. It is a most trustworthy worm exterminator.

HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY

The following is a report of the Course in Household Economy held in the Agricultural Office, Napanee, from Jan. 31st. to Feb. 4th, 1921, inclusive, conducted by the Department of Agriculture, and in charge of Mrs. G. H. Greer, Toronto.

A few women of Napanee and vicinity assembled in the Agricultural rooms on Monday, Jan. 31st, to take advantage of the courses offered by the O. D. of A. in Household Economy and Domestic Science.

Mrs. G. H. Greer, our lecturer, soon arrived and we felt sure that there was some good advise and practical help in store for us. The week's programme was announced, some matters of business attended to and the ways paved for the meetings following. We learned with regret that this course was clashing with a very busy time among the various societies of interest to the women of the town.

At 2 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 1st, an enthusiastic speaker turned to the faces of another discouragingly small audience, no less enthusiastic, however, and very soon as our thoughts, interests and sympathies blended we forgot the diminutive bit of floor space which we were occupying.

Mrs. Greer explained the object of these lectures, which is to bring ideas of labour, time and energy saving to the attention of housekeepers of the present and future, hence the regret that more young girls were not with us. Women need to conserve time in order that it may be used to gather ideas for themselves and share them with others, which keeps us from getting into deplorable rut and dragging those dependent upon us over the precipice into the dark with ourselves.

Children, both boys and girls, should be trained very early in life in the judicious spending of money and choice of materials, which should include both foods and fabrics. Ideas of saving should be encouraged also. Our lecture began with the kitchen, in which every housekeeper must of necessity spend so much of her time. It must have plenty of windows to admit sunshine and fresh air, so necessary to health and spirits. Wall and floor coverings were discussed and samples of linoleum, oilcloths, and different carpetings were shown for examination. Linoleum is preferred as much the best floor covering for kitchens and dining rooms on account of its durability, also the spring it gives to the tread. Linoleum and oilcloth should be varnished every year to preserve the colourings and also the fabric. Hardwood floors were condemned as dangerous, especially to those whose sweeps and tallies well into three figures, also to those whose elasticity of step is no longer required.

A kitchen cabinet or its substitute was very strongly advised as it affords a grouping of materials compactly and conveniently placed, and what a splendid substitute we have heard of which had previously served as a book-case. Desks and their development in the chief characteristic of a successful housekeeper all through the various stages from farthings and duties. Cultivate brains develop and uncultivated brains sicken and dwindle. The housekeeper must also not forget herself, though not in a selfish way. Her cheerfulness and characteristic attractiveness must be preserved for otherwise upon those in the home, which calls for an occasional relaxation of nerves and muscles, be sure to have an easy chair or a comfortable couch with washable covers-one in the kitchen. There the King of the Castle or Farm Yard may also have the privilege of enjoying comforts of leisure.

Window dressings need special care in every room and materials from the plainest cottons up afford many and various means of decoration. Patterns may be cut from chintzes and appliqued on cotton and very pretty colour schemes arrived at, as were shown in the great variety of room pictures which were passed through the class. Close soft, restful, harmonizing shades throughout.

Have three tables in the kitchen if possible, one for the vegetables, one for the dishes, and one for the oven products. There should of necessity be a convenient water supply. We should not make a practice of reaching to the limit and a folding step-ladder stool was exhibited and advised as a very necessary piece of kitchen furniture. We should endeavour to grow old very happily, keeping physically fit, for old age let us picture a most glorious, lingering sunset of soft harmonizing hues melting away into a rosy hush, dissolving fears and sustaining hopes.

Cooking utensils were dealt with and the different wares from the heavy iron kettles of primitive days, to porcelain, enamel, granite, aluminum, brown delft and pyrex. Their care, usefulness and attractiveness was dealt with separately and discussed. Clean cooking was recommended as a labour saver as it eliminates extra dishes in serving, and the simmering process brings out the flavours best, as well. A soup-kettle was also recommended, through which to drain all vegetables for they are rich in mineral salts, a factor so necessary to our systems in their 'keeping fit' campaign. A steam-cooker was examined, with special attention drawn to its possibilities as a fuel saver, and it whistles when its water supply gets low.

We also gave some thought to the living-room with its many and various means of decoration according to the family purse, but here also throughout rest comfort need not express an unlimited bank account. Have a fire-place, if possible, as it gives a home-spirit of cheerfulness, attractiveness and happiness that nothing else affords. Make a fire-place in the new home. Have the furniture comfortable, choice arrangement of colour, forms, and lives must all conform to this end. Have no unnecessary furnishings to keep clean.

The attention of the two ladies of most tender years was very emphatically drawn to the children's room. Have a room for the children, in which they may express their surplus energy and glee without offending the nervous sensibilities of the members of the household who have left those days and forms of enjoyment in the dim past. In this room habits of neatness and arrangement may be taught and the child allowed to express his own individuality in decoration as well.

Four o'clock found us disbursing without any preliminaries, feeling that we had spent two very pleasant and profitable hours which would afford us many sanguine reflections of value in our work as housekeepers and home makers.

Wednesday's address was enjoyed by a much more encouraging number, twenty-two ladies having availed themselves of the opportunity of listening to an interesting and instructive address. Mrs. Greer reviewed and continued Tuesday's topic, Labour-saving Devices in the Home. She took up the line of thought beginning with the cooking utensils. Several electric cooking utensils were shown, including the grill, by means of which a delicious meal may really be cooked and served at the table.

Many women labour under very handicapped conditions and it is time to make a stir about it. An endeavour should be made to have a system of running water in the kitchen and a sink. Man's natural aversion to work gave him an inventive sensibility and we find a variety of machines doing his menial labours. Women must awaken and demand these labour savers now we see within reach of a few. We cannot all have vacuum cleaners and dish-washers, but many may fan up their inventive ability and have cold-boxes or refrigerators, dinner-wagons, food-choppers, trays, tweezors, hammers, knives, scissors, long-handled dust-pans, sanitary garbage-pails, clocks, pins, paper and pencils all conveniently placed. Be ever resourceful and see the possibilities of substitutes in discarded articles.

Strictest attention should be paid to working surfaces, base sinks and tables at such a level that the housekeeper does not need to stoop while performing her duties, and a spirit of cheerfulness should be cultivated always. Do not look upon your duties as drudgery.

Our thoughts were later diverted to the organization of a branch of the Women's Institute in Napanee, work now flourishing in one hundred and now scattered over Ontario, with a membership of some sixty thousand women. Mrs. Geo. Switzer, a lady familiar with the work of the Institute, was requested to discuss its advantages and they were made very convincing. She pointed out the individual help that each is sure to receive through the Question Drawer method; also the philanthropic work done by Conway Women's Institute in maintaining a room in the Kingston General Hospital. This Institute also owns a carefully selected library, Mrs. Sanford Amey, of the Maple Leaf Institute, endorsed Mrs. Switzer's sentiments and advised the ladies to organize. Mrs. Greer ably pointed out many advantages including a Home Nursing and First Aid Course, and a Course in Dressmaking practically free to members. Free literature on all topics of interest to women is procurable by members of the Institute. Another great advantage is that it has no class, creed or political distinctions to make it at all exclusive. Now that women have the franchise they need a broad intelligent outlook to enable them to use this right wisely—the Institute holds one means of broadening this outlook. A standing vote was taken of those who thought such an organization wise, and it carried unanimously.

Mrs. Greer then recited the officers necessary and the duties of each, and the following were elected to conduct the Napanee Women's Institute:—

President—Mrs. Alpine Woods.
1st Vice-Pres.—Mrs. Geo. Switzer.
2nd Vice-Pres.—Mrs. S. C. S. McKim.
Secty.-Treas.—Mrs. W. J. Trenouth.
Assistant Treasurer and Corresponding Secretary—Miss Eva A. E. Herrington.

Directors—Mrs. E. J. Corkill, Mrs. Thos. Symington, Mrs. W. S. Herrington and Mrs. P. Gleeson.

Auditors—Mrs. J. W. Robinson and Mrs. N. Wagar.

The work of forming committees was left until the meeting of the Institute or as occasion required. The meeting was then dismissed informally and many lingered to examine more leisurely Mrs. Greer's collection of kitchen treasures.

Thursday's meeting was set for 1.30 p.m. instead of 2 o'clock, to accommodate the ladies who wished to attend the Musical; however, we missed several who had expressed the desire and hope of attending. Nevertheless, the vacancies were filled by enough new faces to bring the attendance well up in the twenties.

Mrs. Greer again explained for the benefit of the new comers the advantages of the Women's Institute not received in any other women's organization, and besides it holds the distinction of being the only one having the support of the government. The address began with a continuation of labour saving devices in relation to cleaning. Here the crying need of a good water system again was emphasized. Women are working too hard and consequently growing prematurely old, losing their natural sweetness and carving deep furrows of care on otherwise attractive countenances, as they tread with steps growing heavier back and forth to the pump or spring, handle that water, two or three times and carry it outside to be emptied. Women carry tons of water daily and walk miles and miles unnecessarily while attending to household duties. The subject of the family washing was discussed, beginning with the primitive method of steam washing, followed by stone-rubbing, still practised in some countries. The stone-rubbing was superceded by the washboards of tin, granite and glass. Then came the hand-power machines and lastly the electric machines which eliminate all wash-day terrors. Probably many will be glad to learn of the sanitary paper toweling, very necessary and a great saving of laundry, especially where there are inmates of a household whose portraits are frequently silhouetted on the towel. In winter the exposure of hanging out clothes should be guarded against. Then comes the ironing. The first items were the sad-irons next fittingly named you will agree, when you think of their weight and the numberless steps back and forth to the kitchen range to exchange them as their heat becomes exhausted, the fire-pot seems insatiable too and needs continual replenishing. However, these conditions are fast disappearing and many have charcoal or gasoline irons where electric Power is unavailable.

The matter of sweeping was discussed. Brooms may be used, but we need something better. Sweeping is not a sanitary way of getting rid of dirt. We all know the dust it creates. What is dust? It does not need a very fertile imagination to convince you that it is not just good honest soil, but that it may contain deadly organisms just awaiting suitable ground from which to make their attack. The lifting of the nose, throat and internal organs suits them nicely and the minuteness and lightness of these dust particles increases their danger to us. We may possibly just give them a more exalted position on walls or hangings and leave them to abide their time, hence the necessity for something to keep down dust while we sweep, carefully and always, and of sanitary dusters. Carpet sweepers and o'cedar mops are good, but the vacuum cleaner does at it cleans perfectly without dust and saves the labour of taking up carpets. Soon at periodic intervals during the year, we will not hear, "Are you through house cleaning?" We will be always clean. The weary, dismal thud of the carpet beater will be a thing heard and the 'Sunny Meadow and Green Forest people' will hold no more conventions contemplating John, Dearly silent and still on the remote side of the barn, unless his wife beats away with a will. Now John, you must not frown for men's innate aversion for work can be carefully explained to Mrs. Greer by a man in Toronto who is a doctor. With hand power the kitchen has truly been a place to be avoided, but with artificial power you may stretch your weary length upon that comfortable couch in the kitchen always, sinking restfully, all fears of "Dear John, bring a pail of water, please, or turn the washing machine, please," etc., being dispelled. The vacuum cleaner was demonstrated and its possibilities mentioned. Yes, they are a bit expensive, but so are hospital bills and funerals.

We were permitted to examine many inexpensive and useful utensils which are procurable right here in Napanee. It was a surprise, sometimes, to learn that they did not come from "Eaton's". We busy housekeepers are deprived of time to explore the shops of our genial merchants and hence are often forced to shop by catalogue. The Robinson Co. has wooden tongs to lift the clothes from the boiler on wash day, or invaluable in the process of dyeing. The hardware merchants have sets of biscuit and entrée cutters all the way down to fluting knives which make our friend the potato look so appetizing when fried. A year ago we did not need such a knife but times change and are changing. The druggists have "canned heat", with its many possibilities—a wayside hot meal on your motor trip, invaluable in the sick room, or when that wee small voice breaks in upon your slumbers at two o'clock in the morning. It will also heat the cutest little smoothing iron with which you may press the naughty obstinate wrinkles out of your wearing apparel when you are travelling and stopping over night at hotels. Many of our fortunate sisters are "with wealth to spend and power to range" already have many of these labour saving devices. Those of us not in such circumstances will keep the star of hope shining brightly in the interior of our souls. Those of us not in such circumstances will keep the star of hope shining brightly in the interior of our souls. Packing boxes, old brooms, etc., will be given away or leased for dumping grounds and garbage cans are doomed to a shadowy and fading existence. We were given a talk on canning, as no fruit was available for a demonstration. I am sure that each one was benefitted as questions were asked, answered and discussed. Mrs. Greer as an expert canner. Visitors from overseas who attended Toronto Exhibition last year and saw exhibitions of canned fruits and vegetables asked the Ontario Department of Agriculture for a collection to be used in the interests of immigration. The request was granted and received such interest and admiration that two more cases were sent for and are now on exhibition in the Mother Country. Mrs. Greer and her sister did the canning for the Department. She is very enthusiastic over the work and said that she would be delighted to come and give us a demonstration in the canning season if it is the wish of the Napanee Women's Institute. Racks and lifters and tongs and kettles with their possibilities were demonstrated during the progress of the meeting, and we left feeling that we would like to know more. Mrs. Greer's fruit cupboard is kept, and a determination to increase our knowledge of locks.

On Friday, the attendance showed new faces and the subject was "Millinery". It was dealt with first from an economic standpoint. A wave of extravagance has engulfed very, very many during the last few years; purses have bulged often for the first time. They had not been taught or had not learned foresight and the true value of things and they bought unnecessary and extravagant things. They spent injudiciously, and when the tide turned they were lined up with those seeking charity.

Hats are expensive. Some stormy day we may amuse ourselves by making a second best hat perhaps, as the demonstration afforded us some good ideas. The degree of success attained may be arrived at from a study of the countenances of our friends in the Women's Institute, if courageous enough to wear it.

The meeting closed and all said good-bye, personally, to a speaker whose practical, common sense, personal magnetism and charm had won our highest esteem. She seemed a true testimonial of one of her quotations—"The more you give of yourself the happier you are". We hope to have the privilege of having her with us again.

I have not by any means told you all which I would like to tell, but I have from the President of Napanee Women's Institute a most cordial invitation to extend to all the women of Napanee and vicinity, who wish to join the Institute to be present at the first meeting if possible, the date of which will be announced later in the local papers.

EVA A. E. HERRINGTON,
Corresponding Secretary.

LENNOX AND ADDINGTON HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

In spite of the storm on Friday last the meeting of the Historical Society was well attended. The speaker of the evening was a new man to a Napanee audience, but by the impression that he made, it is safe to say that he will have a unanimous invitation to return.

Professor Prince was on the Gallipoli Campaign, and after the signing of the armistice, was stationed in Palestine in an administrative capacity. He introduced his lecture with a number of lantern slides which showed the nature of the country, some of the cities and towns, and gave some conception of the diversity of the people of that interesting country.

The lecturer then proceeded to show that there were some real problems in Palestine on the settlement of which might hang the fate of the whole British Empire. The problem in its acutest form was due to the antagonism between the Christians and the Mahomadans on the one hand and the Jews on the other. The reason for this condition of matters was three-fold, religious, political and economic. It is religious because it is feared that if the Jewish state is set up in Palestine, the sacred places of these other people will eventually be destroyed. It is political because the other nationalities constitute four-fifths of the population and have been in control of the country ever since the first century. It is economic because of the ability which the Jews have to dominate the trade and commerce of the nation. For these reasons the Christians and the Mahomadans are united in their determination to obstruct the progress of this new Jewish state. The result is a problem of the hardest kind for the administrators of the nation. The speaker then went on to fill in the details of this outline of the condition of affairs in Palestine to-day. Because of his accurate and authentic knowledge of the country gained by actual experience, he was able to make the audience feel the force of his argument.

At the close of the address Professor Prince, at the request of the President, gave an account of the proposed Arab empire and the reasons for its failure to materialize. In this part of his address the speaker paid a high tribute to the integrity and the ability of the Arabs who had done so much to assist Allenby in the final overthrow of the Turks, and in no uncertain manner he denounced the secret deplomacy which had robbed this people of what in his judgment was their well earned right.

Altogether the lecturer showed a remarkable grasp of the situation as it exists in Palestine to-day. And with a truly analytic mind he traced the causes of those conditions and pointed out their dangers in a vivid convincing and interesting manner.

After the thanks of the audience had been tendered to the lecturer, the meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

OBITUARY.

John W. Unger.

Daniel Unger, who in pre-union days, was an ordained deacon in the Methodist Episcopal Church, shortly after his marriage settled in South Fredericksburgh, on the farm which has since become the Unger homestead. There was born on Sept. 13th, 1846, a son, who was baptized John Wesley. He had four brothers and three sisters. As a young man, he, having the ministry in view, studied for some time in Albert College. On account of ill health he had to abandon that calling. He was a life long member of Grace Methodist Church, of which church he was one of the oldest trustees and remained an official until his death. His mind was well stored with the Holy Scriptures. And many will not soon forget his recitations of long passages in the Quarterly Fellowship meetings.

During the past year Time's grim reaper has been very active in the Unger family. Only about a year ago Nathan was called to go, about a month ago Nelson followed, and on Feb. 11th, John was summoned to meet his two brothers on the other shore. His wife and two daughters, Ethel and Lilly, predeceased him many years. He leaves to mourn his loss three sons, Schuyler in the West, Edison in Montreal, Gerald on the homestead; and two daughters, Mrs. Vaughn, of Ottawa, and Miss Ella, of Fall River, Mass. A good citizen, a kind father and a Christian gentleman has left us.

His funeral, in charge of his Pastor, Rev. W. P. Rogers, took place on Sunday, the 13th, in Grace Church. The remains were placed in the Riverview vault.

Daniel Wemp.

Daniel Wemp, a well-known and highly respected resident of Emerald, Amherst Island, passed peacefully away at his residence on Thursday, Feb. 3rd, 1921, after a short illness due to the infirmities of old age. He was born on Amherst Island, of United Empire Loyalist parentage, eighty-eight years ago. His father, it is said, was the first white child born on the site of the present city of Kingston. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. C. Dixon on Saturday afternoon at the home of the deceased, and the remains were laid to rest in Glenwood vault. The pall-bearers were his five sons-in-law, J. A. McMillan, R. Instan, A. Reid, W. Wemp, S. J. Morrow and E. Wemp a grandson. He is survived by three sons and six daughters, John and George, of this place; Henry, in Saskatchewan; Mrs. E. Morrow, Mrs. A. Reid, Mrs. W. Wemp, Mrs. R. Instant, residing on the island; Mrs. J. A. McMillan, Prescott, and Mrs. Minerva Ryan, Syracuse, N.Y., also two brothers, John and William, Emerald, thirty grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Season of 1921

Of late years many housekeepers who contemplate having certain rooms re-papered, especially those requiring the better class of paper, have had it done early in the season, in February or March, because there is less danger of delay through the paper hangers being busy. We are prepared to meet such cases. We have a full stock of the different lines, Kitchen, Dining Rooms, Bed Rooms, Parlors, Halls, Bath Rooms, etc., and there have been two or three advances in prices since we bought.

Our new stock contains some lines of American made paper that we can sell at prices lower than is asked for same qualities to-day. We invite inspection of our stock and prices.

We have added to our stock of Room Mouldings, White, White and Gold, Oak, different sizes, at old prices. Our stock of Picture Frame Moulding has just been filled up,—some quite new in design and finish.

DIAMOND WEDDING.

An event of more than ordinary interest took place in the evening of Feb. 18th, when nearly forty guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong, Newburgh Road, to celebrate the sixtieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong. Seldom, indeed, is one privileged to meet with an aged couple to whom time has been so kind. Both are exceptionally active and free of health and cheerfulness that it is a real pleasure to converse with them. Mrs. Armstrong is eighty years and Mr. Armstrong is eighty-four.

Mrs. Armstrong is the only remaining one of a family of eight, having had also a half-sister and brothers. The last sister, Mrs. Geo. Wagar, of Enterprise, was called home last November. Mr. Armstrong has three half-sisters living, Mrs. Young, of Marlbank; Mrs. Wilson of Switzerville, and Mrs. Huffman, of Vancouver Three brothers died a number of years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong's family consisted of two sons, Herbert and Howard, the former having died three years ago. There are five grandchildren and five great grandchildren living.

No pains had been spared to make the evening a delightfully perfect. Tables were laid in the spacious dining-room, beautifully decorated with flowers, and, after a sumptuous wedding supper, Rev. Mr. Storey, in the name of all those things that count for most in the life of a community. The congratulations that they began and supported, especially the churches and schools, have progressed during the years and the responsibility rests with the younger generation to endeavor to make them as worthy foundations our forefathers laid in those early days. Dr. Shorey's interesting remarks were spiced with wit and humor and appreciated fully by old and young.

The bridegroom of sixty years replied to the toast, expressed a high light of Mrs. Armstrong and himself in meeting with their friends on this happy occasion. His heart overflowed with gratitude for God's goodness to them all, and he prayed for all the joys of health and home and loving care in these sunset days of their life.

The remainder of the evening was spent in music and games by the younger folk and happy reminiscing by the older.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong were the recipients of several chequees, but flowers and, at a late hour the guests said good bye, expressing as best they could the joy of their hearts that Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong's remaining years may be full of peace and happiness.

STUDENTS' DAY.

On Tuesday evening the Students' programme was given in the Musical Hall meeting, and everyone who attended was most complimentary to the young people. The work of the leading teachers in town were asked to send in representative pupils and the interesting demonstration of their work was given. Miss Warrington was in charge of the evening's performance, and introduced each number with a short explanation of the grade's work which the student was taking up.

The three vocal soloists for the evening were Miss Mildred Perry, Miss Mary Polly, and Master Gerald Smith, all of whom sang very sweetly and clearly. Two violin numbers were given by Miss Georgie Robinson and Miss Dorothy Scott, both of whom played extremely well. The piano solos were played by the Misses Lenora Black, Margaret Sherwood, Marguerite Kouber, Eleanor Hunt, and Master Beverley Thompson. The evening's programme was full of interesting demonstration of their talent, and some of the selections were given with such expression as to be delightful part of the evening's performance were the two trios given by Misses Vivian Exley, Edith Allison and Geraldine Allan. The teachers are to be congratulated on the splendid results they have achieved.

KNIGHT MacGREGOR LAUDED.

When Knight MacGregor, the Canadian baritone, made his debut in Conlan Hall, New York, recently, the Musical Leader of New York City, commenting upon the recital, said: "It is not often that an unknown young singer makes such an impression that the entire audience is moved to ask who he is and whence he comes. This happened, however, when Knight MacGregor, a young baritone, gave a program under the auspices of the Wolfsohn Bureau. There was an audience of fair size, every one of whom remained long after the program was ended to ask for more. His voice is not only beautiful, but it is very sensitive in production, and his style is finished and polished. In songs for the dramatic type given by the Misses Letitia Woods, Jean McCormick and Frances Mills, and Messrs. Hazen Mason and Gerald Smith, all of whom sang very sweetly and clearly. Two violin numbers were given by Miss Georgie Robinson and Miss Dorothy Scott, both of whom played extremely well. The piano solos were played by the Misses Lenora Black, Margaret Sherwood, Marguerite Kouber, Eleanor Hunt, and Master Beverley Thompson. The evening's programme was full of interesting demonstration of their talent, and some of the selections were given with such expression as to be delightful part of the evening's performance were the two trios given by Misses Vivian Exley, Edith Allison and Geraldine Allan. The teachers are to be congratulated on the splendid results they have achieved.

ARDEN

This community was greatly shocked when word was received that Scobal Peterson, Dead Creek, aged fifty-seven years, had passed away at the General Hospital, Kingston. The deceased had been ailing for some time, but his death was not looked for. The funeral services were held in the Dead Creek Church, by the Rev. Mr. Stalker, Arden, assisted by Rev. Mr. Carson, Harlowe. The deceased had been a member of the Methodist Church for many years, and took a great interest in the spiritual welfare of the community. The deceased went to Kingston for medical treatment, and on arriving there it was found that an operation was necessary, which was successful, and it was thought he would be restored to health, but complications set in and he passed away. He is survived by his wife, three sons and three daughters, namely, Almer, Malcolm and Phillip, and Mrs. Elbern Newton, and Miss Gladys, and another daughter in the West. His wife did not arrive in Kingston to be with him at the end. Mrs. J. E. Hayes, Arden, and Mrs. William Scott Winnifred, Alta., also Miss Gertie Patterson in the West, are sisters of the deceased, and Geo. Peterson is a brother.

Another old landmark has passed in the person of John Wood, at the ripe old age of ninety-one years. The deceased was highly respected in this community, where he lived the greater part of his life. He had been ailing for a long time. Deceased leaves four sons and one daughter, William, Miles and Manson, of this township, and James, Tamworth, and Mrs. S. Peterson, Dead Creek. The funeral was held in the Methodist Church and was conducted by the L.O.L. of this place. The deceased was an Orangeman over sixty years, and only missed being with his Brethren on the 12th of July on one occasion. There was a large turnout of the brethren to show their respect. He will be greatly missed in the neighborhood as well as the lodge room. The sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Stalker, and the remains were placed in the family plot.

NEWBURGH.

Our thanks are due to Mr. Ray F. Perry for answering our queries in The Beaver of 11th February. He answers them in the only way he could and stick to the facts, and I am sure he waits to do that. Sure, say we because of the scarcity of and so was butter and eggs because of natural causes, and the farmer who had these commodities to sell did well to accept these prices for them, but Mr. Perry and his class allow the same privilege to others. As a rule, and we are sorry to say it, every man who engages in the re-sale of any commodity, when prices go up, is regarded as a profiteer. A hold-up man by very many of Mr. Perry's class. The lesson I would wish to teach is that there are a great many honest people outside the ranks of the farmers, and within their ranks every man of them will take the opportunity of selling in the dearest market and buying in the cheapest, and it makes one tired to hear and see people talk and write as though they thought men in business are sitting up nights making plans to beat the farmers. As a matter of fact, there is scarcely a retailer or merchandise who will come through the present slump in prices and secure one in his stock. Who will pay the deficit? Will the farmer come down and pay it as a matter of generosity? Catch him; he would not support a good business. The manufacturers of woolen goods saw loss ahead of them if they continued the high prices, so they stopped buying and the price went down. Was their act a dishonest, one? Did they do it to beat the farmer or simply to save themselves? It was only good business. There are perhaps some dishonest business men, and there are some dishonest farmers, but is that any reason why men should write stuff that will have the effect, if it has any, of setting these two classes at variance and make them suspicious one of the other. What we need is to establish faith among our fellows. Mr. Perry is mistaken if he thinks that a grocery the farmer his automobile; not at all, we are pleased to see him enjoy it and his bank account as well, which, in most cases, is as real as his car, and no amount of reasoning will alter the facts. That talk about work is simply a rhyme. We venture to say that the writer of these notes has pitched more barley and hay than ever Mr. Perry has done, or perhaps will do during his natural life. It was hard work and would soon spoil a white collar, but there are a great many people who find their work just as hard and trying who wear white collars while doing it only it is different, but equally again. But this may become interesting. What a fine prospect for a girl to marry a farmer if the writer of News and Views is correct. She will have to wear her hands and skirts three if she ever expects to ride in an automobile. Girls, that talk is all stuff. No farmer's wife to-day knows anything about such a woman as he describes, and she knows the lives of both farmers and their wives to this describe her.

THE ELECTRIC EQUIPMENT OF THE MOTOR CAR.

How to Get Maximum Service From Your Battery.

In order to properly care for your own battery you must have a hydrometer syringe and a supply of distilled water.

Examine and test your battery regularly, at least once a week. Always return the electrolyte drawn in testing, to the same cell from which it was taken. Keep the electrolyte above the tops of the plates by adding distilled water (enough to cover the tops of the plates to a depth of one-half inch only).

This should be done before starting on a drive in order to ensure it becoming mixed with electrolyte. Test your battery before adding water, not after. A fully charged battery tests from 1270 to 1.200 according to the age of the battery. If the gravity falls below 1.225 your battery should be charged at a service station. If the gravity of any cell differs from the others by 25 points or .025 take your battery to a reliable service station to be given a conditioning charge. If you do not use your car during the winter months take your battery to your service station to be cared for.

After two seasons' service you should have your battery dry-stored for the winter. This treatment means the battery, after being fully charged to force the acid from the plates, is taken apart, the jars washed out and the plates allowed to harden through the winter. Your service station, on being notified of the date in the spring when you are likely to need your battery, will have it re-assembled with new wood separators and fresh electrolyte, charged and ready for service again.

If starting on an extended tour watch your battery carefully to avoid the chance of ruining your battery by continuous overcharging during the trip. If your battery gasses violently during the day's drive, and the terminals feel slightly warms to the touch use your lights to prevent your generator from further overcharging your battery.

Do not let your battery stand in a discharged condition. The lead sulphate formed on discharge if allowed to stand will harden on the surface of the plates thereby reducing the area of active plate surface and consequently the capacity of your battery to do work. This constitutes the trouble known as sulphation. Keep your battery well up to full charge during cold weather to prevent freezing. A frozen battery is a ruined battery.

If these precautions are taken your battery should give you from three to five years' good service.

Next instalment:—"The Generator, its construction and function in relation to battery upkeep."

PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS.

On Thursday evening, Feb. 3rd, a number of friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Craig, Forest Mills, to spend a social evening before their departure for their new home, near Napanee. Rev. Mr. Wilson read the following address, and Mrs. J. R. Ackerman and Mrs. J. P. Benn presented Mr. and Mrs. Craig with a beautiful pyrex casserole and pie plate in a sterling silver frame.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Craig.

Dear Friends,—Not in any formal way, but in all sincerity, we have assembled at your home this evening, to express our appreciation of your worth, as good neighbours and loyal supporters of Forest Mills Methodist Church. Your removal from our midst will be a great loss to the community. We regret your departure and hope that the tie of Christian love will not thereby be severed, but that on many future occasions we may be privileged to renew friendships. As a slight token of our esteem we tender you this casserole and pie plate. That God may bless you abundantly is our earnest prayer.

Signed on behalf of Church and Community,

Mrs. J. R. Ackerman.
Mrs. J. P. Benn.

Mr. Craig replied on behalf of himself and Mrs. Craig, thanking the people for their remembrance, and invited all to visit them in their new home, where they would always find a welcome. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and amusement. Lunch was served, and before leaving all joined in singing, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again".

"Why don't you take up golf, if you need exercise?"

"I prefer gardening. The implements are cheaper than those used in golf and there's always the sporting chance that you may raise something fit to eat."

DEATH OF MRS. MILLER.

After a long and painful illness, Mrs. M. A. Miller passed away Friday, February 11th, 1921, to the "Place of Eternal Rest". The funeral took place Monday, February 14th, from the residence, Rebecca St., Interment in New Liskeard cemetery.

Services were conducted at the residence by Rev. Geo. Lawrence in the presence of many friends paying a last tribute to one well beloved for the late Mrs. Miller was most kindly thought of by all who knew her.

The deceased was born in Frontenac County in 1844. When a young woman she married Mr. Jas. Rutter, who died within a couple of years, and later she married Mr. Elias Jas. Miller, of Hastings Co. There were born to Mr. and Mrs. Miller five children in all, two of whom died in infancy, a third living to the age of eleven years. Mr. Miller died in August, 1894, and a short time afterwards Mrs. Miller and the remaining children removed to the vicinity of Elmvale, Simcoe County, where they lived for about twenty years, then moved to New Liskeard. The older son, Charles, enlisted and went overseas with the 159th Batt., and while on active service in France, lost one leg. He was later invalided home and honorably discharged from the army.

Mrs. Miller had been, since a young woman, a sincere Christian and as soon as her health permitted, an active worker in church and Sunday School. Of the members of the family are left two sons, Charles, of Elmvale, and Harold, of town, to rejoice in her present happiness but to feel most keenly the loneliness of separation. There are also a brother, S. S. Sparks, of Napanee, and two sisters, Mrs. W. H. Miller, of Napanee, and Mrs. Ed. Redfern, of Kingston.—New Liskeard "Speak-r".

LATE JOEL THOMAS.

The funeral of the late Joel Thomas was held at the home of his sister, Mrs. James Shane, Odessa, last Sunday afternoon. Rev. G. Nickle officiated. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. The remaining members of the family are Mrs. James Shane, and Charles, Odessa; Mrs. John Shane, Newcastle, and Ira, of Niagara Falls, N.Y. The pall bearers were S. Sprague, W. Boughner, Ty. T. Graham and M. McDonald. The remains were placed in Wilton vault to be interred later in the family plot.

EXPRESSION OF SYMPATHY.

Mrs. Thomas Brown and Family.

We, the officers and members of L.O.L. No. 431, Enterprise, feel it our duty to extend to you our sincerest sympathy in the loss of your husband.

We therefore trust that the Divine Hand that has taken from our midst one whom we will loved and honored shall sustain and support you and yours through life, always remembering that though we cannot understand these things now, some day our eyes shall be opened and they shall be revealed to us in the clear light of eternal day.

EMPIRE MILKING MACHINES

The best hand milkers are uncertain. Hired men are often too anxious to "get through with the chores"—they milk carelessly and often do not milk the cows dry. But the Empire is dependable 365 days per year. It is an absolute necessity on every dairy farm that is operated for profit.

Think of it! When you've installed an Empire Milker with its wonderful new Super-Simple Pulsator you'll never have to milk by hand again.

The new Empire Super-Simple Pulsator, without a piston, solves the last problem of perfect machine milking—but, wait! We are getting ahead of our story. We'll tell you all about the New Super-Simple Pulsator later.

And the Empire saves over half the milking time, too. No more seven and eight o'clock suppers. Set your alarm clock an hour or an hour and a half later, and still finish the milking much earlier than you ever did before. Spend more time in the fields than you ever used to spend, and still have more leisure.

But that's not all—

An Empire Milker outfit in your dairy will save its own cost in a few months. It will enable you to get along with fewer hired men—and even if it only takes the place of one man the saving will be so great that the Empire won't cost a cent. And after it has once paid for itself it will keep right on saving money—day after day, year after year. It isn't like a plow or a cultivator, a reaper or a threshing machine that you only use for a few days once a year. You use the Empire twice a day, every day.

And the Empire Milker will bring you added milk profits by lengthening the cows' period of lactation—exactly the same way at every milking.

THE ELECTRIC EQUIPMENT OF THE MOTOR CAR.

How to Get Maximum Service From Your Battery.

In order to properly care for your own battery you must have a hydrometer syringe and a supply of distilled water.

Examine and test your battery regularly, at least once a week. Always return the electrolyte drawn in testing, to the same cell from which it was taken. Keep the electrolyte above the tops of the plates by adding distilled water enough to cover the tops of the plates to a depth of one-half inch only.

This should be done before starting on a drive in order to ensure it becoming mixed with electrolyte. Test your battery before adding water, not after. A fully charged battery tests from 1.270 to 1.300 according to the age of the battery. If the gravity falls below 1.225 your battery should be charged at a service station. If the gravity of any cell differs from the others by 25 points or .025 take your battery to a reliable service station to be given a conditioning charge. If you do not use your car during the winter months take your battery to your service station to be cared for.

After two seasons' service you should have your battery dry-stored for the winter. This treatment means the battery, after being fully charged to force the acid from the plates, is taken apart, the jars washed out and the plates allowed to harden through the winter. Your service station, on being notified of the date in the spring when you are likely to need your battery, will have it re-assembled with new wood separators and fresh electrolyte, charged and ready for service again.

If starting on an extended tour watch your battery carefully to avoid the chance of ruining your battery by continuous overcharging during the trip. If your battery passes violently during the day's drive, and the terminals feel slightly warm to the touch use your lights to prevent your generator from further overcharging your battery.

Do not let your battery stand in a discharged condition. The lead sulphate formed on discharge if allowed to stand will harden on the surface of the plates thereby reducing the area of active plate surface and consequently the capacity of your battery to do work. This constitutes the trouble known as sulphation. Keep your battery well up to full charge during cold weather to prevent freezing. A frozen battery is a ruined battery.

If these precautions are taken your battery should give you from three to five years' good service.

Next instalment:—The Generator, its construction and function in relation to battery upkeep.

PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS.

On Thursday evening, Feb. 3rd, a number of friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Craig, Forest Mills, to spend a social evening before their departure for their new home near Napanee. Rev. Mr. Wilson read the following address, and Mrs. J. R. Ackerman and Mrs. J. P. Benn presented Mr. and Mrs. Craig with a beautiful pyrex casserole and pie plate in a sterling silver frame.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Craig.

Dear Friends,—Not in any formal way, but in all sincerity, we have assembled at your home this evening, to express our appreciation of your worth, as good neighbours and loyal supporters of Forest Mills Methodist Church. Your removal from our midst will be a great loss to the community. We regret your departure and hope that the tie of Christian love will not thereby be severed, but that on many future occasions we may be privileged to renew friendships. As a slight token of our esteem we tender you this casserole and pie plate. That God may bless you abundantly is our earnest prayer.

Signed on behalf of Church and Community.

Mrs. J. R. Ackerman.
Mrs. J. P. Benn.

Mr. Craig replied on behalf of himself and Mrs. Craig, thanking the people for their remembrance, and invited all to visit them in their new home, where they would always find a welcome. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and amusement. Lunch was served, and before leaving all joined in singing, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again".

"Why don't you take up golf, if you need exercise?"

"I prefer gardening. The implements are cheaper than those used in golf and there's always the sporting chance that you may raise something fit to eat."

Daly's Good Tea combines strength, flavor and quality. The ideal Tea for family use. Sold in 1, 5 and 6 lb. packages, at Wallace's.

After taking 1000 ZUTOO TABLETS Says they are Harmless

Mrs. (Dr.) Sinnitell, of Costicook, says "I must have taken 1000 Zutoo Tablets. After trying every remedy within reach, I discarded them all four years ago for ZUTOO, which I have taken ever since. ZUTOO is harmless and effective. I find the tablets a harmless and efficient remedy for all kinds of headache."

DEATH OF MRS. MILLER.

After a long and painful illness, Mrs. M. A. Miller passed away Friday, February 11th, 1921, to the "Place of Eternal Rest". The funeral took place Monday, February 14th, from the residence, Rebecca St., interment in New Liskeard cemetery. Services were conducted at the residence by Rev. Geo. Lawrence in the presence of many friends paying a last tribute to one well beloved for the late Mrs. Miller was most kindly thought of by all who knew her.

The deceased was born in Frontenac County in 1844. When a young woman she married Mr. Jas. Rutton, who died within a couple of years, and later, she married Mr. Elias Jas. Miller, of Hastings Co. They were born to Mr. and Mrs. Miller five children in all, two of whom died in infancy, a third living to the age of seven years. Mr. Miller died in August, 1894, and a short time afterwards Mrs. Miller and the remaining children removed to the vicinity of Elmvale, Simcoe County, where they lived for about twenty years, then moved to New Liskeard. The elder son, Charles, enlisted and went overseas with the 159th Batt., and while on active service in France, lost one leg. He was later invalided home and honorably discharged from the army.

Mrs. Miller had been, since a young woman, a sincere Christian and as long as her health permitted, an active worker in church and Sunday School. Of the members of the family are left the two sons, Charles, of Elmvale, and Harold, of Ontario, to rejoice in her present happiness but to feel most keenly the loneliness of separation. There are also a brother, S. B. Sparks, of Napanee, and two sisters, Mrs. W. H. Miller, of Napanee, and Mrs. Ed. Redfern, of Kingston.—New Liskeard "Speaker".

LATE JOEL THOMAS.

The funeral of the late Joel Thomas was held at the home of his sister, Mrs. James Shane, Odessa, last Sunday afternoon. Rev. G. Nickle officiated. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. The remaining members of the family are Mrs. John Shane, Newburgh, and Ira, of Niagara Falls, N. Y. The pallbearers were S. Sproule) M. McDougherty, T. Graham and M. McDonald. The remains were placed in Wilton vault to be interred later in the family plot.

EXPRESSION OF SYMPATHY.

Mrs. Thomas Brown and Family.

We, the officers and members of L.O.L. No. 431, Enterprise, feel it our duty to extend to you our sincerest sympathy in the loss of your husband.

We therefore trust that the Divine Hand that has taken from our midst one whom we all loved and honored shall sustain and support you and yours through life, always remembering that though we cannot understand these things now, some day our eyes shall be opened and they shall be revealed to us in the clear light of eternal day.

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE.

To Bro. Hugh Wagar.

We, the Brethern of L.O.L. No. 431, wish to convey to you our sincere sympathy in this your recent bereavement.

We will miss him in our lodge. His demise came as a shock to our community, where he spent his boyhood days. It is always difficult to part with brothers of such noble character, but we believe that his kindly influence will ever live in our memories. We should not sorrow as those without hope, he has gone before, we shall follow after, for the souls of the righteous are in the hands of God.

Yours fraternally,

EMPIRE MILKING MACHINES

The best hand milkers are uncertain. Hired men are often too anxious to "get through with the chores"—they milk carelessly and often do not milk the cows dry. But the Empire is dependable 365 days per year. It is an absolute necessity on every dairy farm that is operated for profit.

Think of it! When you've installed an Empire Milker with its wonderful new Super-Simple Pulsator you'll never have to milk by hand again.

The new Empire Super-Simple Pulsator, without a piston, solves the last problem of perfect machine milking—but, wait! We are getting ahead of our story. We'll tell you all about the New Super-Simple Pulsator later.

And the Empire saves over half the milking time, too. No more seven and eight o'clock suppers. Set your alarm clock an hour or an hour and a half later, and still finish the milking much earlier than you ever did before. Spend more time in the fields than you ever used to spend, and still have more leisure.

But that's not all—

An Empire Milker outfit in your dairy will save its own cost in a few months. It will enable you to get along with fewer hired men—and even if it only takes the place of one man the saving will be so great that the Empire will pay for itself in short time. Quantity of milk, purity of milk, future tone. Wholesale Arrests Canadians With Coughs

Halt! Who goes there? Someone with a cough. Pass friend! Stop with a cough. Pass friend! Stop cough! you are under arrest. Thousands of such arrests are being made every day in all parts of Canada. Too long have coughs and colds evaded justice and caused untold suffering to humanity, but at last they have been captured and overpowered by Canada's famous cough detective—Buckley's Bronchitis Mixture. Did you ever hear of this wonderful remedy? Why, everybody is talking and writing about the great work it is doing in curing coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma, etc. —

The following is one of thousands of letters received:—"Kindly accept my sincere thanks for the benefit my wife derived by the use of one of your bottles of Bronchitis Mixture. For over thirteen years she has suffered untold misery. After spending dollar after dollar upon various remedies, no relief was obtained. Hearing of your most marvelous remedy she decided to give it a trial and I am glad to say one bottle has made her well. You are at liberty to use my name and should be only too pleased to answer any inquiries. Sincerely yours, John Holmes, Yorkville Ave." The original of this letter may be seen at N. K. Buckley, Limited, 142 Mutual St., Toronto. Don't allow a cough or cold to linger with you. Away with it! Hail Buckley's Mixture and have cough arrested. This remedy never fails. On every bottle is a guarantee to refund the money if not satisfactory. Delays are dangerous. Order now from your druggist. 20

NOISE HARSH AND CONSTANT

Impossible for Any One to Escape From the Din That Marks Modern City Life.

They say that a canary bird intended by nature to live in the quiet woods suffers constant torture while in captivity from the harsh noises all around it.

But before the Antiquity society starts in to turn loose all canaries for that reason it might take up the case of its own cats, writes "Girard" in the Philadelphia Press.

The motor bus on the stream and the airplane in the sky, the auto horn's piercing scream and the chow-chow pushing by are only a few of the ear-rushing by are only a few of the ear-crushing sounds which put us all in a frame with the bird in the gilded cage. And especially that auto horn.

There seems to be keen rivalry among dealers to market the horn that can split the most ears, as you can see by a few ads which I quote:

"Loudest signal of its kind."

"Has the quick, snappy shriek."

"Hears the way half a mile ahead."

"It makes the pedestrian jump."

"Has a piercing get-out-of-the-way sound."

Can You Build a Bird House?

The most talented singer in the world, not even excepting the nightingale, says the American Forestry Magazine of Washington, is the hermit thrush. A bird house building contest is arousing great interest among school children and the magazine is giving blue ribbons to the prize winners in schools throughout the country.

ABLE TO DO HER WORK

After Long Suffering Mrs. Peasey Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Toronto, Ont.—"I suffered with irregular menstruation, was weak and run down, could not eat and had headaches. The worst symptoms were dragging down pains, so bad I thought I would go crazy and I seemed to be smothering. I was in this condition for two or three years and could not seem to work. I tried all kinds of medicines and had been treated by physicians but received no benefit. I found one of your booklets and felt inclined to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I received the best results from it and now I keep house and can do my work and am like a new woman. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to my friends and if these facts will help some poor woman use them as you please."—Mrs. J. F. PEASEY, 387 King St., Toronto, Ontario.

If you are one of these women do not suffer for four or five years as Mrs. Peasey did, but profit by her experience and be restored to health.

CONTENT IN THEIR ISOLATION

Citizens of Little Republic of Andorra Ask Nothing of the World Save Toleration.

While new republics are engaging attention, a very old one continues living its life in northern Spain and seemingly well enough content to remain comfortably hidden in the Pyrenees. Covering perhaps 100 square miles of fertile valley among the mountains, a census of the republic of Andorra would number no more than 5,000 persons, many of whom make matches; to buy those matches in Andorra a purchasing agent of the Y. M. C. A. journeyed from Paris during the war, and his account of the adventure in the pages of Travel introduces the little republic to the readers of that periodical. Charlemagne, one learns, gave the Andorrans their liberty something over 1,100 years ago, and there they have remained ever since, too small and at the same time too inaccessible, presumably, to have their liberty taken away from them. The bridge still stands, arching a mountain stream, on which the ancient Andorrans are believed to have signed their treaty with Charlemagne in 810. A "picture-book country," says the seeker for matches, and enumerates "black mountains with real caverns, ruined towers and bridges, peasants in scarlet and green and tam-o'-shanter caps, driving pack mules and herds of sheep along the mountain roads." A contented little republic, apparently where all that the people ask of the outside world is that it buy their matches and other native products, and otherwise leave them alone.

HARD TO BEAT THAT SYSTEM

Negro Waiter's Method of Securing Tips Apt to Be a Trifle Bewildering to the Uninitiated.

In New Orleans there is a negro waiter who is the acme of polite attention and skill. There really isn't much for one to do but open one's mouth when John is the servitor. The other day a man came in who was sized up by the experienced John as probably a "little close," but the service was fully up to the usual high standard. The bill came to 80 cents and the patron handed over a dollar bill.

John proceeded to present the man with his bat as though it were a coronet, at least, and was in the middle of his second bow of dismissal when the man asked:

"Where's my change?"

"Change, sah? Dat wasn't none, sah, 'cepting my tip—thank you, sah!" John replied with another bow.

"But I hadn't given it to you," the man protested.

"Oh course not, sah!" John responded with still another bow and smile. "Ah wouldn't think ob permittin' you to go to all dat trouble, sah!" and the customer went slowly out, looking a trifle dazed.

New Portable Furnace.

A recently designed portable industrial furnace is self-contained, requiring no wire or pipe connections as it is moved about in shop or field. Its fuel is kerosene, which is reduced to a gas the moment before being ignited, and is claimed to give a temperature ranging from 2,500 to 3,000 degrees Fahrenheit. The kerosene is held in a storage tank supported under the burner on the stand carrying the burner. The capacity is sufficient for a ten-hour shift, in which the ordinary consumption is not over seven and one-half gallons, and the oil is supplied to the burner by air compressed to 80 to 100 pounds, one charge of air sufficing for the day's work. The noncoking character of the flame permits leaving hot metal in the furnace a long time without damage. The furnace is especially adapted for heating rivets and for hardening tools, but may be useful in many other operations.

War Memorial in China.

At its last meeting the Shanghai war memorial committee considered the various suggestions for a civic memorial to those of the allied citizens who died in the war, and it fought and died in the war, and it was unanimously agreed to erect a cenotaph at the junction of the Bund and Avenue Edward VII. The tram lines will have to be diverted to either side of the memorial. Shanghai architects are to be asked to submit designs for the cenotaph, and presumably they will base them upon home models, with due allowance for local conditions and space at command. Provision will of course be made for a roll of honor, as complete as it can possibly be made. The memorial will be paid for by public subscription, with the possible addition of grants from the foreign and French municipal councils.—North China Herald.

His Way.

"Dong Doolittle is our most public-spirited citizen," said the landlord of the tavern at Perweewubbyhump. "No matter what time o' night the fire bell rings, he leaps from his bed, pours out of his front door and goes tearing down the street like the Charge of the Light Brigade, struggling into such of his clothes as he don't drop and not stop for. At the scene of devastation he gets in the way of the firemen, whoops and yells like a madman, and otherwise does his duty as he sees it. And if it happens to be a false alarm, he goes homeward pickin' up his clothes a piece at a time along the way and cussing and growling as if the misfortune of nothing to burn was a personal insult to himself."—Kansas City Star.

Fair Customer—I'd like to try on that one over there.

"Perhaps the penalty for bootlegging is not severe enough."

"It isn't," replied Uncle Bill Bottletop. "A bootlegger ought to be made to drink his own licker."

Many mothers have reason to bless Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator, because it has relieved the little ones of suffering and made them healthy.

"My employees have clubbed together and taken a half-interest in the concern."

"That's nothing. My employees never did have but a half-interest in my concern."

Useful in Camp.—Explorers, surveyors, prospectors and hunters will find Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil very useful in camp. When the feet and legs are wet and cold it is well to rub them freely with the Oil and the result will be the prevention of pains in the muscles, and should a cut, or contusion, or sprain be sustained, nothing could be better as a dressing or lotion.

"No, I know nothing about music," "All you have to do is to jangle this cow-bell."

"But suppose I come in at the wrong place?"

"You can't do that in jazz."

Nation-wide Fame.—There is scarcely a corner of this great Dominion where the merits of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil have not been tried and proved. It is one of the world's most efficient remedies for sore throat, lame back and many other ailments arising from inflammation. Rubbed on the skin its healing power is readily absorbed, and it can also be taken internally.

Homely Spinster—You know, doctor, I am always thinking that a man is following me. Do you think I suffer from hallucinations?

Dr. Blunt—Not a shadow of doubt about it, madam.

Miller's Worm Powders act mildly and without injury to the child, and there can be no doubt of their deadly effect upon worms. They have been in successful use for a long time and are recognized as a leading preparation for the purpose. They have proved their power in numberless cases and have given relief to many children, who, but for the good offices of this compound, would have continued weak and enfeebled.

A stout woman always took two theatre seats for herself so as to be more comfortable. On one occasion the attendant said: "Excuse me, madam, but who is going to use your second ticket?"

"I am going to occupy both seats," replied the woman.

"Beg pardon, like, madam, only they happen to be on opposite sides of the aisle."

Jimmy was on third base in an exciting ball game. His mother sent a chum for him, and he yelled at Jimmy:

"Jimmy, your mother wants you. She sez you ought to be home long ago."

"Aw, let her come and try it," replied Jimmy.

An old negro butler in a Southern family came upon the lady of the house finishing some work neglected the day before.

"Miss Ginnie! Miss Ginnie!" he remonstrated, "you shore is breakin' de Sabbath day."

"But, Uncle Clay," she argued, "the ox is in the ditch and—"

"Miss Ginnie," broke in the old man, "dat ox ain't nothin' but a stumblin' block for folks to mind stumblin' block for folks to mind scriptures. De Scripture do say if he is in de ditch to pull him out, but it ain't nowhere say to push him in on Sat'day so's to have a chance to pull him out on Sunday."

HOCKEY.

Bankers 3, Gibbards 2.

In a game chuck full of excitement, The Bankers defeated Gibbards in a very hard game on Monday night, by the close score of 3-2. It was anybody's game, and although The Bankers had the edge on their opponents throughout most of the game, yet Gibbards started a bombardment in the third period and came near pulling the game out of the fire. In the third period, Babcock, the Banker's goaler, lost his stick, but played in his stocking feet and stopped a shot. He grabbed Spencer's stick and the fans were yelling themselves hoarse until Babcock got his big stick back again.

Mounts scored the first goal for the Bankers on a nice rush from his own goal. Babcock made a nice save on Huffman's shot. Wolfe's shot was knocked aside. Spencer rushed but Gibbard's defence relieved. McNeil rushed but Babcock made a nice play on him, preventing it going to the corner.

In the second period the Bankers scored again on a rush up the boards by Donohue who passed to Wolfe right in front of goal, and Wolfe scored. Wolfe made a nice rush and nearly got through the defence, but Gibbard relieved. Right on goal, but Babcock saved. Loucks was penalized for boarding Spencer, and with this advantage, the Bankers pushed matters. Young and Spencer broke away and on an almost certain score Huffman threw his stick and the referee rang the bell and rushed the Bankers of a dandy chance. Young was penalized and Gibbard passed the puck to Huffman, who scored Gibbard's first goal.

The third period was the best of the game and was full of "pep". Shortly after the period started Ivan Spencer scored with a shot from the side. Bankers lay back to play a defensive game and they had a very busy time of it, warding off their opponents. Gibbards started rush after rush, but could not get a clear shot on goal. On a pass from the corner Ivan Spencer missed, Johnston scored Gibbard's second goal. With only one goal needed to tie the game Gibbards worked hard to score and sent all their team up to the forward line and they kept the Bankers right in their own goal most of the time. Spencer broke away and shot, Huffman making a nice stop. Babcock lost his stick and Gibbards rained shots on goal, but either went wide of the mark. Just as the period ended Ivan Spencer and Johnston started a scrap over in the corner, but the bell rang and ended the play.

This was the first defeat of the season for Gibbards and now places the teams for second half in a better position. The next game sees for the Bankers and the Town team ought to be a hummer, as the Town boys need to win to keep in the running, and a win for the Bankers will put them in the lead. Both teams are getting better and the brand of hockey played is high class.

U. F. O. NEWS AND VIEWS.

Civilization Is Co-Operation.

In earlier days the individual was self-sufficing. He lived and supported his family on the products of his labor. Then, as communication was extended, social life and the industrial system became more complex, competition more acute, and individuals joined successively in partnerships, joint-stock companies, industrial pools, trusts, holding companies and mergers. Small activities and small businesses were gradually but surely suppressed, bought out or submerged into larger and more powerful organizations. In the agricultural implement industry and in the automobile industry, we have examples with which we are all familiar. On every hand competition is being gradually suppressed through concentration of capital under legal regulations for its development and protection. In consequence the problems arising out of the concentration of capital and its control over competitors, over state and individual become the leading questions of public policy. Under these relations a large share of the individuals enjoying the benefits of proceeds live not on the product of their labor as formerly did, but upon the profits of such government protected mergers.

Labor Organizes Also.

These movements toward co-operation and organization, have advanced among laboring men as rapidly as among capitalistic interests. It became impossible for the laborer to deal as an individual with organized capital and adequately protect himself. Under present industrial conditions the barrier between his employer and himself is almost insurmountable. The capitalization of industry therefore, has forced the laboring men to organize into labor unions, trades unions and industrial unions and to amalgamate these separate units into larger central organizations, the purpose of which is to protect the interests of the members in dealing with their employers, to develop favorable labor legislation, to protect themselves against unjust laws, etc. Like the concentration of capital, the organization of labor has almost eliminated free competition for it from the ranks of organized labor there is no competition for a job by a laborer offering to work at less than the scale of pay. And so by organization the relations of labor to capital have become a matter of grave question of public policy.

The Farmer and Co-Operation.

So we see that in present-day life the movement towards organization and co-operation is almost universal. Almost every branch in the realm of capital and labor is organized to protect itself. Manufacturers, railroad men, doctors, lawyers, musicians and even the newsboys and bootblacks have their organizations for their benefit and protection. Co-operation is in many respects the same thing as civilization for in the development of man any tendency to co-operate, referring to work or anything animals or men toward co-operation has been always regarded by scientists as a sign of intelligence and civilization. We farmers are therefore, only getting in step with civilization when we organize and draw upon our strength and draw opposition down upon our heads for organizing or co-operating is hard for any one to understand.

Partly isolated from his neighbors, and often the farmer like all other classes, the farmer has not been sufficiently inclined to co-operate in solving common problems. He has been slow to realize the need of co-operation, however, and with the coming of better communication in the country, the advent of the telephone and the rural mail there has now begun at last, where the farmer like all other classes, has adopted the co-operative principles which in the course of events he will be sooner or later bound to be adopted by him.

The farmer to-day everywhere realizing that a tremendous loss in rural efficiency results from the lack of organization always meeting with his own opposition, he is everywhere realizing that he cannot meet single handed the problems that confront him either in business or public policy. In business he finds that single-handed he must combat the fact that everything he buys — food, wearing, machinery, transportation, etc., is either manufactured or the price controlled by capital often operating in an unregulated monopoly. In business he finds that single-handed he has to face the fact that everything he has sold—cattle, cheese, wheat, etc., has been sold to meet the terms of capital which also may have operated as predatory combinations. Furthermore capital has always accumulated in cities monopolies and organizations have nearly always been confined to cities. The pressure brought to bear upon governments has always been directed by these organizations, the aims of which have always been to develop to the highest extent the interests of capital and city organizations. The farmer therefore, has realized that in dealing single-handed with other business interests, he has been helpless, and in endeavoring to deal with public policy questions he has as an individual gained nothing more than to destroy the vote of his neighbor, whose interests and needs are exactly the same as his own.

And so in organizing and co-operating, farmers are not destroying society or other interests. They are doing what is the most natural thing in the world for them to do. They have been accused of being Bolsevists but there is nothing more than to destroy the vote of his neighbor, whose interests and needs are exactly the same as his own.

TRACTOR SCHOOL.

All day Friday the streets of the town were alive with tractors. Each machine carried five or six husky young men from the Tractor School which was being held at the show rooms of Hartman & Card. Judging from the number of pupils in attendance, and in conversation with some of them, the school, which ran from Monday morning to Friday night, was an emphatic success. The object of the school was to teach the students how to operate, repair and equip tractors, look after magnetos, solve difficulties and make defective engines work. One hundred and three students were in attendance. The students, teachers, etc., had their pictures taken in front of Hartman & Card's show rooms Thursday afternoon.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Earl Burt.

A very deep gloom was cast over the vicinity of Wilton, when on Saturday evening, Feb. 19th, 1921, Jessie J. Mills, beloved wife of Earl Burt, passed peacefully to rest. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mills. She was born 28 years ago, and spent her life there at Wilton, endearing herself to all who knew her. Her kindly interest extended beyond her home and she was always ready to lend a helping hand in times of need. Mrs. Burt's passing away brought great grief, which never can be healed, into her home and great sorrow throughout the community. She leaves to mourn her loss a loving husband and four small children. Besides these she also leaves a father and mother, and three sisters, Mrs. T. Babcock, of Wilton; Mrs. R. Gallagher and Mrs. W. Melville, of the West; and two brothers, William and Bernard, both of Wilton. The floral tributes were many and beautiful, there being represented the Presbyterian Church, W. M. S., P. E. L. and Dramatic Club; also individual wreaths, etc., from husband, father and mother, brothers and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. R. Ovens, Mr. Baxter Guess, Mr. and Mrs. S. Simmons and Mrs. Geo. Simmons. Four lady friends of the deceased, namely Mrs. K. Martin, Mrs. A. Simmons, Miss L. Simmons and Miss K. Babcock, were flower beagers. The service was conducted by her Pastor, the Rev. Mr. Farrell, at her late residence on Monday afternoon, and the remains were laid to rest in Wilton cemetery. 8b

Fair Customer—I'd like to try on that one over there.

Salesman—I'm sorry, madam, but that is the bandmaster.

Young Husband—Well, Ethel, I've just succeeded in persuading Uncle George to lend me a thousand pounds to start that business.

Ethel—Oh, Jack, I always knew you'd make good!

A stout woman always took two theatre seats for herself so as to be more comfortable. On one occasion the attendant said: "Excuse me, madam, but who is going to use your second ticket?"

"I am going to occupy both seats," replied the woman.

"Just as you like, madam, only they happen to be on opposite sides of the aisle."

The Weight of Light.

It seems odd to talk of such an unsubstantial thing as light having weight.

Yet such has been proved to be the case, and the principal proof came from tests made during the famous eclipse of the sun on May 29, 1919.

It was then shown that a ray of light had sufficient "body" in it to be acted upon by the sun to the extent of being displaced by a certain definite amount. The light, in short, might for all the world have been matter, but matter of an extremely "light" kind.

That being so, a facetious reader might ask how much of it goes to the ounce. But a brilliant astronomer has been able to calculate even that; it is an appalling amount.

For example, the cost of light supplied by gas and electric light companies works out at something like $40,000,000 an ounce. Yet the sun gives us no less than one hundred and sixty tons of this valuable stuff every day.

Letting Light In Through the Ears.

An invention which gives promise of being one of the most remarkable so far developed by man and one which of the utmost importance to the blind is the type-reading optophone. This marvellous instrument, the invention of Dr. E. E. Fournier d'Albe, actually reads ordinary printed matter and it reads aloud very slowly or comparatively rapidly according to the will of the sightless hearer. Of course, it does not speak any hitherto known language but as its mechanical eye sweeps over the printed type, it utters musical sounds which vary with each letter, so after the blind hearer has learned this new musical linguage, he can readily understand what the optophone is saying. The mechanical eye is a selenium cell which acts as a light-operated valve to control the flow of current through a circuit. There appears to be no doubt that the otophone has opened up to the blind the whole of the world's literature.

The "Life Plant."

There is a creeping moss found in Jamaica, in Barbados, and other islands of the West Indies, which is called the "life tree," or, more properly, the "life plant." Its powers of vitality are said to be beyond those of any other plant. It is quite indestructible by any means except immersion in boiling water or application of a red-hot iron. It may be cut up and divided in any manner, and the smallest shreds will throw out roots, grow and bud. The leaves of this extraordinary plant have been plated in a close, air-tight, dark box, without moisture of any sort, and still they grew. It is without question a very remarkable plant.

The Grasshopper Glacier.

At the headwaters of the East and West Rosebud rivers, in the Beartooth mountains of Montana, is a glacier, known as Grasshopper glacier, from the fact that there are thousands of grasshoppers imbedded in the perpetual ice in as perfect a manner as if preserved in alcohol for exhibition. Scientists believe the insects were caught in the storms in attempting to cross the mountain range.

A sequel to the recent visit of R. H. H. the Prince of Wales to Canada is seen in the grant of a Royal Warrant appointing the Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, Limited, as tobacconists to His Royal Highness. The Royal Warrant has just been received at the head offices of the Company in Montreal.

HAD GREAT INTELLECT

LEONARDO DA VINCE MOST BRILLIANT MAN EVER BORN.

Italian Who Lived In the Fifteenth Century Excelled In Both Art and Science—He Painted Famous Pictures and In Other Fields of Thought He Was Centuries In Advance of His Time.

THE epoch of human progress in which Leonardo da Vinci lived encompasses the latter half of the fifteenth and the first half of the sixteenth centuries, distinguished as the period of the Italian Renaissance.

In the jery midst of this interesting period he was born in 1452 in the village of Vinci near Florence, Italy, as the natural son of Ser Piero da Vinci, a councilor of the seignory of Florence, and Caterina, a woman of the peasant class. In the year of Leonardo's birth his father married a young woman of his own social level and his mother married a peasant farmer, and we lose all further track of her. Ser Piero da Vinci married three times and he had eleven children, Leonardo having reached the age of twenty on the birth of the first legitimate child.

As a young man, Leonardo became interested in music and in making sketches and plaster reliefs and became apprentice in the art shop, or bottega, of the great Florentine master Verrocchio, where he acquired knowledge and practice in every branch of pictorial and plastic art.

As a mere youth he had acquired the habit of jotting down in rough sketches, scrawls and hasty notes what he saw. The notes, which are now extant, date after his formal admission to the painter's guild in his thirty-seventh year, and he continued to compile data and material for his manuscripts without serious interruption during the succeeding thirty years of his life. It is through these that he reveals himself to us rather than through any contemporary chroniclers or any other products of his genius. He left all of his books, sketches and paintings to one of his pupils, who preserved them carefully but at the time of the latter's death they became widely scattered so that there are still extant nearly 5,000 sheets of his notebooks written on one or both sides. Most of these are to be found in the Ambrosian Library, Milan; the Library of the Institut de France; the Forester Library, South Kensington; the British Museum and the Royal Library, Windsor.

It had been Leonardo's evident intent to compile various treatises, but the span of his life made their completion impossible, but there have been since brought together a remarkable text-book called, "A Treatise on Painting." "A Treatise on the Motion and Measurement of Water," and a booklet on the "Flight of Birds," to which he had evidently intended to add numerous others. His treatise on painting is ever to-day used as a text-book in French art schools and has been translated into many languages.

He stands in the front rank among the great artists, both in the products of his pen and of his brush, with such masterpieces as "The Lord's Supper," "Mona Lisa" and numerous other great productions to his credit, and he was no mean sculptor, though little of this remains except references relating thereto in his manuscripts and by contemporaries.

In astronomical research many of his opinions relating to the stars, the sun and the moon are reflected in those of the present day, and he had a true cosmic conception of the relation of the heavenly bodies to the earth.

In his work on geology he discussed the probability of a universal flood having covered the earth, arising from his observations of geological formations, fossils, shells, etc., and his observations were so far over practically the whole of the then known world, which is one of the mysteries surrounding this remarkable man.

In botany, both as painter and botanist his work was remarkable.

In the sphere of physics Leonardo understood the theory and practical application of many of the fundamental formulae, such as the resolution of forces and the relations between force, velocity and time, and he went into the theoretical and practical considerations relating to friction and the like with surprising insight.

A hundred years before Galileo he made careful investigations of the strength of materials; he developed and used a crude testing machine in which the strain was applied gradually by means of sand dropping into a pail.

In mechanical engineering Leonardo accomplished much in developing plans of complicated machinery and apparatus so that they could be readily understood or read by any one reasonably versed in engineering. He also went into the utility and application of the various methods of transmitting and multiplying forces, and even designed roller bearings and numerous other approved present-day methods of transmitting power. His work in machine design was of a high order, including the invention of automatic machinery, a large step in advance for his time.

In the matter of aviation we are prone to think of men like Channie, Lilienthal and Means as pioneers in this field, which they truly were, but it is surprising to note that Leonardo da Vinci, some four centuries earlier, had elucidated both in manuscript and drawings the principal elements entering into the problems of heavier-than-air flying machines, but he was without the necessary means of propulsion found in the internal combustion engine of to-day.

"Statistics prove that marriage is a preventive against suicide," said Mr. Gabb.

"Yes," growled Mr. Gabb. "And statistics also prove that suicide is a preventive against marriage."

SYDENHAM.

In the General Hospital, Kingston, on Thursday morning, at four o'clock, death claimed a resident of this village, in the person of Hugh Reid, which, although not entirely unlooked for, came as a shock to his friends. The end was not entirely unlooked for, as deceased had not been well for a time. He had lived in this section for some years, and up till a few weeks ago was employed on the railway. The death is a particularly sad one, as five young children are left, the eldest of whom, Gordon, is at high school. His wife also survives him, and a brother living at Gananoque. Deceased was a member of the Orange Order. The sympathy of the community goes out to the sorrowing family in their bereavement.—Mr. and Mrs. Phippen, Bath, are spending a few days with relatives here.—In a game that was rather slow because of the soft condition of the ice, on Saturday last, Sydenham series won from Regiopolis College team, Kingston, by a score of 7 to 3.—A number of Orangemen from here attended the funeral in Harrowsmith last Saturday of the late D. Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them more than when they are in good health. This fact proves what we claim Catarrh is a local disease. It is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

The Flag of the Mayflower.

The proposed celebration in Manchester of the seventeenth day of sailing of the Mayflower may revive it of interest to direct attention to a curious anachronism in the ancient fresco in the palace of Westminster, in which the departure of the Pilgrim Fathers is depicted. Mr. Gilbert Bayne in flying a Union Jack. The Union Jack, as every one knows, did not come into existence till the passing of the first Act of Union in 1800—one hundred and eighty years after the departure of the Pilgrim Fathers. All the formalities connected with the Irish Union was a new standard combining the three crosses of St. George, St. Andrew and St. Patrick, which was hoisted in the capitals of England, Scotland and Ireland.—Manchester Guardian.

Much Sugar in This Maple.

The hard or sugar maple is by far the most important of all the maples. The lumber is valuable for many purposes, but the unique thing about the tree is the abundance of sweet sap which it furnishes, says the American Forestry Magazine of Washington. While all the maples have sweet sap none of the others are as important as sugar producers. This was appreciated in early times and a century and a quarter ago when the real estate men of the time were attempting to lure New England men to Pennsylvania lands "out west" they put on their maps in big letters, "The Sugar Tree Grows Here."

It will be called the Scots' Kirk and College in Jerusalem.

In addition to these two stories there are six others of equal interest by such well known nature writers as George R. Belton, Harry M. Moore, Harry W. Laughy, and E. T. Martin. The firearms law is dealt with editorially and in a strong appeal to the sportsman by Ira Lloyd entitled "An Unexpected and Indigestible Law." This issue contains the final trapping department installment and will be read until the season ends with interest, along with the other departments of guns and fishing which are up to their usual high standard. Season of 1921

Of late years many housekeepers who contemplate having certain rooms re-papered, especially those requiring the better class of paper, have had it done early in the season, in February or March, because there is less danger of delay through the paper hangers being busy. We are prepared to meet such cases. We have a full stock of the different lines, Kitchen, Dining Rooms, Bed Rooms, Parlors, Halls, Bath Rooms, etc., and there have been two or three advances in prices since we bought.

Our new stock contains some lines of American made paper that we can sell at prices lower than is asked for same qualities to-day. We invite inspection of our stock and prices.

We have added to our stock of Room Mouldings, White, White and Gold, Oak, different sizes, at old prices. Our stock of Picture Frame Moulding has just been filled up,—some quite new in design and finish.

HOCKEY.

Queen's 5, Napanee 5.

On Thursday evening of last week Queen's Science '23 Class, of Kingston, and Napanee played a tie game of all-star the local rink, before a large crowd of enthusiastic spectators. The Kingston boys played good hockey, and near the end of the second period had the best of a 5-2 score, but the locals came right back and scored three goals in succession, making it a tie game. Referees Walters announced that the players wished to catch the 10.10 train for Kingston, but would be willing to come to Napanee again and play off the tie.

Referee—Geo. T. Walters.

R. M. C. 5, Napanee 3.

The Intermediate O. H. A. hockey team from the Royal Military College, Kingston, visited Napanee on Saturday evening and gave the Napanee players their first defeat of the season, the score being 5-3. The boys from the Limestone City were a fast team, splendid checks, good stick handling, and played a nice clean game of hockey.

Perhaps the largest crowd of the season was in attendance, many "fans" from the country coming in to see the game, and all were well rewarded, as this was by far the fastest, cleanest and best game played in Napanee this season.

The first period ended in a tie—1 each. Napanee had the better of the second period, the score being 3-2, but in the third the visitors netted the puck three times and won the game. The locals put up a stiff uphill game in the last five minutes of play and made several shots on the visitor's goal, but were unsuccessful in scoring.

R. M. C.—Goal, C. E. Price; Defence, A. C. Price and Hamilton; Right Wing, Wacher; Centre, Mackenzie; Left Wing, Swabey. Spares, R. G. Carr-Harris and R. M. Carr-Harris.

Napanee—Goal, R. Huffman, Babcock; Defence, T. Blute and R. Loucks; Right Wing, L. Spencer; Centre, McNeill; Left Wing, F. Huffman. Spares, McLaughlin, F. Blute, G. Johnson, Wolfe.

Referee—Geo. T. Walters.

Town 7, Bankers 5.

In one of the most exciting games of the season the Town team defeated the Bankers on Monday evening, by a score of 7-5, two 10-minute periods of overtime having to be played to declare a winner. The ice was pretty soft, but the players stuck to the hard going with a vim and the small crowd of spectators thoroughly enjoyed the game. The score at full time was 5-5, and in the second overtime period the Town scored two goals and won the game.

MOSCOW.

On Tuesday evening, February 22nd, the many friends of Mrs. Neil Milsap gathered at her home to express their appreciation of her services as organist and choir leader for so many years. They presented her with a well filled purse. The address read as follows:—

Dear Mrs. Milsap.—It is with a great deal of pleasure that we, your friends, have met here this evening in Church, find ourselves in your home, and have received at your hands such a hearty welcome to this social gathering to-night.

We were indeed sorry when we learned of your intention of severing your official relationship with the choir of which you are Leader and Organist, a position you have filled with distinction and have served us faithfully and faithfully for so many years.

Your long service has contributed so largely of your talents for the interest of the Church, we know that it has been without thought of honour or remuneration, and in all that time you have not been unappreciative of your services.

As highly as we have appreciated your work, and realize that the Church has been greatly benefitted thereby, we cannot but admit that you owe more than earned a release from the responsibilities of the position.

Feeling after all that words alone are but poor mediums by which to convey to you our appreciation, and finding ourselves unable to select a gift suitable for the occasion, we ask you to accept at this time, and in the spirit in which it is given, this purse, and we by words of little intrinsic value, but ask you to accept it as a slight token of the esteem of your many friends.

Our united prayer is, that you may be spared for many years to labor in the Master's vineyard and for the interests and advancement of your home and Church.

Signed on behalf of the congregation.

J. F. EVERSON,
A. A. ASSELSTINE,
Secretary.

Mrs. C. A. Baker read the address, and Mrs. Ned Asselstine made the presentation. Mrs. Milsap replied in a few well chosen words, after which Rev. J. F. Everson, Pastor of the Church, and Mr. H. A. Baker, a former Choir Leader, spoke a short addresses in connection with the work of the choir and church. Refreshments were served, and all spent a very pleasant evening. At the close Mrs. Milsap said he with you till we meet again."

NEWBURGH.

We once knew a woman who had such faith in her husband's selective ability, she said of him that when Bill gets anything he always gets the best. We would like to believe that about Newburgh, and indeed we may go as far as to say that when Newburgh has anything it always wants the best, and this ambition keeps our standards higher both in mind and morals. Looking around for things to admire we stumbled into Breese's saw mill the other day, and we decided that this was the best of its kind. This sawing outfit is Mr. Breese's own patent and manufacture, of band saw construction, cutting both ways it is a delight to watch it slice the logs apart and leave them in even smooth surfaced boards.

Mrs. Samuel Kellar, who has been visiting her sister in Detroit, has returned, and is at present confined to her bed with a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism. Mrs. Kellar reports times very dull in the border city. This notwithstanding all the whiskey that has been smuggled across.

Spring moving has started. Mr. Gasper Lewis is moving on the farm purchased from Mr. Henry O'Connor. Mr. O'Connor's sale on Thursday drew a large crowd. It did not prove a bargain counter, however, as all his stuff was good and brought good prices. Mr. J. Ed. Harrison is moving into the homestead vacated by Mr. Lewis, where with his large young family he will enjoy the privileges of old Newburgh, with its good schools and intellectual atmosphere.

Mr. Ed. Graham and his mother, of Camden, are moving into the old Barclette homestead.

In the past Newburgh has been called the widow and old maids' paradise, but just now the widows and spinsters have nothing on the widowers and old bachelors. What a pity we cannot amalgamate.

Up to the present time we have not heard of any serious results, which goes to say that the Yarker men have a good capacity for oysters and any other thing that is good to eat.— Mrs. J. Jaynes visited at S. Hart's, on Wednesday.—Quite a number from Yarker attended the sale at S. Emberly's.—We are pleased to know our mail from Kingston arrives thirty minutes earlier now under the new time table.—Mr. Brown is moving in his house this week.—Remember Parks is back on his old run from Tweed to Kingston. He has been conducting it for years.— Miss Ella Evans at Alf. Martin's this week.

MORVEN.

Old Man Winter takes an opportunity occasionally to prove to the citizens that the exceptionally balmy weather of this past week should not be taken as conclusive proof that he had vacated his throne in favor of Miss Spring. On Saturday just to show the Mercuries that he still had control of things, he sent the mercury down around the zero point above with snow and a strong north wind.— We are pleased to know that Mr. Chas. Mills is home from Kingston Hospital. He is improving slowly.— Miss Belle Greenwood returned to Detroit on Monday.—Mrs. Ketcheson, of Toronto, has been renewing acquaintances in this vicinity recently. —Mr. and Mrs. F. "CAP SHORTS" CROSSES DIVIDE AFTER SIXTY YEARS OF ROAMING IN B.C.

On Thursday last at Hope another step was made in the very thin ranks of the real pioneers through the death of Mr. Thomas Darling Shorts, "Cap Shorts" as he was called familiarly by his friends—that is, by everybody. He was born at Adolphustown, on the Bay of Quinte, Ontario, on June 14th, 1837. The family soon removed to Newburgh, in the County of Addington, where he received the elements of his education. But it was the book of nature and of wild life that attracted him; his school days, with their exhibitions of courage and love of adventure, were but the forecast of the line of his future life.

A quiet boy, but filled with the spirit of adventure, he could not resist the magnetic attraction of California, whose placers in the early fifties were day by day producing wealth to an extent hitherto unknown upon this continent. The stories of these old days of gold, but none of their interest in the retelling. Fired by them with hopes of fortune, "Cap Shorts" joined the argonauts. He mushed on the Yukon and the Stanislaus, followed like so many others the will-o'-the-wisp that led the changeful miners hither and thither, oftentimes from the substance to the shadow. In the inevitable lulls he turned his hand to anything and everything, farming, fruit-growing, cattle-raising and contracting. At one time he assumed the management of a ranch in Mendocino County. There he had a most thrilling experience, a midnight hunt for a grizzly, the story of which he frequently told in his own inimitable manner.

Skagit River Rush.

Tiring of such a bucolic life, he longed for excitement, and in the seventies took part in the rushes to Omineca and Cassiar. He mined on Germancon, Thibert and McDame creeks, but like almost all the others who tried those deceitful streams, he found himself in the end little richer save in experience and knowledge of the world.

Then came the Skagit River excitement of 1881-2. Again he joined the worshippers of the yellow goddess and made his way to that much overrated region. The rush soon collapsed He with the rest had but one desire—to get out of the Skagit country into civilization once more. He walked from Ruby Creek on Skagit River to Yale, which at that time was the centre of C. P. R. construction. Tired now after thirty years of adventure and roaming about, he entered the service of the C. P. R. as a bridge builder.

Soon this work palled on him and off he rambled to the then unknown Okanagan region. Its possibilities as a fruit-growing district appealed to him to such an extent that he took up a piece of land on the west side of Okanagan Lake, known as Shorts' Point. The gradual growth of the community and the consequent necessity for transportation induced him to establish himself as the plunger of the freight and passenger service on Okanagan Lake.

Bought First Steamer.

For years he carried on this work by means of a large open boat, which he himself sailed and towed, maintaining a regular schedule between Penticton and O'Keefe's. So successful was he in this venture that the open boat soon gave place to a small steamer, the first on Okanagan Lake.

The building of the Shuswap and Okanagan Railway and the advent of the C. P. R. steamers on the lake rendered his undertaking no longer profitable. He disposed of his possessions in the Okanagan, and having heard once more the call of the wild, set out in 1898 for the Yukon gold fields. There he had his fill of hardship and adventure, but little substantial return for his energy and labor.

His Last Days.

Returning again to British Columbia he settled near Hope Station, on some timbered land which he cleared sufficiently to make a desirable residence and garden site. He even projected and commenced the building of a lumber mill on this property, but in the end, after expending a considerable sum, abandoned the scheme.

A short time later, at the age of about 75, Mr. Shorts removed to the town of Hope to spend his last days in the quiet surroundings of that beautiful spot, after a life more than ordinarily filled with change and adventure. Hale and hearty, cheerful and enterprising to the last, he was respected and admired by all. His varied life and experiences gave him many topics of conversation, and as he was a pleasant raconteur, his stories and descriptions of the incidents of the past made him a most agreeable companion.

In one of the intervals of his wandering existence Capt. Shorts was married, but both his wife and his son, who was a doctor in Michigan, predeceased him.

On February 10th he was missed from his accustomed haunts and on search being made he was found lying dead in his house. His passing had evidently been sudden and painless. Capt. Shorts had made his last move.—The Daily Province, Vancouver, British Columbia, Feb. 17th, 1921.

In the old days of the draft—storyies are popping up about them even at this time—an amusing one was putting Sambo through the usual course of questions.

"Any previous military experience?" he asked.

"Yes, boss," replied Sambo. "I'se an old-timer. I'se been shot at three times befo' they ever was a war."

LADY JUMPS FROM TRAIN.

While Grand Trunk train No. 18 was travelling at a speed of over forty-five miles an hour near Collins Bay, early Friday morning, a woman passenger, known to the conductor, Johnston, Toronto, broke the glass in a window opposite her berth in a Pullman and attracted the attention of the man conductor, C. Morrison, heard a noise, and investigating, saw the woman jump. The train was stopped and the track searched without result, except for the discovery of the woman's hand bag containing the above name and address.

Later she was discovered at a farm house unharmed, except for a few bruises. According to the conductor, the woman, who was en route to Yorkdale Hill, was placed on the train at Toronto by a man, who said that she was suffering from a nervous breakdown.

On Friday morning it was learned that the woman remained in charge of the train, went to the home of a farmer by the name of Abbott. On Friday morning she was brought to Rockwood hospital.

THE ELECTRIC EQUIPMENT OF THE MOTOR CAR.

THE GENERATOR.

Before proceeding with a detailed description of the generator as installed on the modern motor car, let us consider the principles of induced electricity.

What electricity is we do not, and probably never shall know. We only know it is one of nature's prime forces and its presence is universal.

If we take a coil of wire and pass it quickly between the poles of a common horse-shoe magnet, we produce a flow or current of electricity in the wire by induction.

The wire in passing between the poles of the magnet must cut the invisible lines of magnetic force and the current so induced depends on the strength of the magnet, and the rapidity with which these lines of magnetic force are cut.

The generator of this principle evolved, first, the magneto which consists of but two principal parts, a permanent magnet and a revolving core or armature on which are wound many turns of fine wire.

Usually one end of this wire was fastened to the armature core forming the ground or metallic return part of the electric circuit, while the other end was brought out through an insulating bushing in the end of the armature shaft to a spring contact with the wired circuit to ignitor or lamp bulbs.

As the current so induced was alternating, i.e. first in one direction and then at another depending on whether the coil was passing under the north or south pole of the magnet, and as alternating current cannot be used to charge a storage battery, the direct current generator came into use on the motor car.

When we speak of the magnets as permanent magnets, we use the word advisedly, as these so called permanent magnets gradually lose their magnetism through heat and vibration and require re-magnetizing.

If the ordinary horse-shoe magnet be heated to a red heat, or if it be only moderately heated and be struck a sharp blow with a hammer, it will be found to have lost its magnetism.

The generator differs from the magneto in that its magnets are electro-magnets. If you wind a short bar of iron or mild steel with a number of turns of fine insulated wire and pass a current for a few dry cells through the wire, you will find that the bar at once becomes a magnet.

On disconnecting the dry cells you will find the bar to have lost all or nearly all of its magnetism.

This is what is known as an electro-magnet.

Strong Position of Standard Bank

During the period of industrial readjustment such as Canada is now in with the other countries of the world, is now passing through, the statements of the leading banks of the country have a special significance.

The Standard Bank of Canada is now forwarding its annual report to shareholders and it discloses a position that will be found particularly reassuring. The strength of the Canadian banking system was never more clearly proved than during the war period. At the present time the advantages of the system are also being reflected by the manner in which the banks are getting back into the ordinary lines of business and lending constructive assistance to the trade and commerce of the country.

The business of every section of the Dominion is growing and the Standard Bank is making provision to handle a still larger amount of the business in its territory by increasing both its Capital and Reserves. During the war period various thrift campaigns were carried out. It is evident that they have had a good effect on the Canadian people. Even during the past year the Standard Bank is able to report a substantial gain in savings deposits, notwithstanding the fact that in the earlier part of the year large withdrawals were occasioned by people who had made purchases in connection with the last Victory Loan campaign.

Careful and conservative management has always been the policy of the Standard Bank and in view of this policy it must be particularly satisfactory to shareholders to know that the management have found it possible to recommend to the Board of Directors an increase in the dividend distribution from 12 to 14 per cent.

With the larger resources at its disposal, the Standard Bank should be able to play a still more important part in the development of the district which it serves and at the same time pay a good return on capital to its many Canadian shareholders.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

On the evening of Feb. 22nd about sixty friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bristow to enjoy once more the hospitality of their home before their departure for their new home at Bethel, near Picton. After the following very appropriate address was read by Miss Flora Sine, Mrs. Joe Howie and Miss Ida Hill presented Mr. and Mrs. Bristow with a beautiful parlor lamp and mahogany rocker.

Mr. and Mrs. Bristow,—We, your friends and neighbours, have gathered here to-night to spend a social evening and to extend to you our regrets at your departure and our best wishes for the future.

You will be missed in both the social and religious activities of the neighborhood, especially Mrs. Bristow, who has been organist of the Church for some time. We cannot allow you to pass out of the community without some expression of our good will, so we ask you to accept this silver piece service and trays as a token of esteem, trusting that their continued use may serve to remind you of the years spent at Sambrook. We all join in wishing you many happy and prosperous years in your new home.

Signed on behalf of their friends and neighbors,

MRS. JOE HOWIE.
MISS IDA HILL.

Mr. Bristow replied on behalf of himself and Mrs. Bristow, thanking the people for their remembrance, and invited all to visit them in their new home, where they would always find a welcome. Lunch was served, and the remainder of the evening was spent in games and dancing, and before leaving all joined in singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow".

EMPIRE MILKING MACHINES

The best hand milkers are uncertain. Hired men are often too anxious to get through with the chores"—they milk carelessly and often do not milk the cows dry. But the Empire is dependable 365 days per year. It is an absolute necessity on every dairy farm that is operated for profit.

Think of it! When you've installed an Empire Milker with its wonderful new Super-Simple Pulsator you'll never have to milk by hand again.

The new Empire Super-Simple Pulsator, without a piston, solves the last problem of perfect machine milking—but, wait! We are getting ahead of our story. We'll tell you all about the New Super-Simple Pulsator later.

And the Empire saves over half the milking time, too. No more seven and eight o'clock suppers. Set your alarm clock an hour or an hour and a half later, and still finish the milking mate earlier than you ever did before. Spend more time in the fields than you ever used to spend, and still have more leisure.

But that's not all—

An Empire Milker outfit in your dairy will save its own cost in a few months. It will enable you to get along with fewer hired men—and even if it only takes the place of one man the saving will be so great that the Empire pays for itself. And after it has once paid for itself it will keep right on saving money—day after day, year after year. It isn't like a plow or a cultivator, a reaper or a threshing machine that you only use for a few days once a year. You use the Empire twice a day, every day.

And the Empire Milker will bring you added milk profits by lengthening the cow's period of lactation. The Empire does this by milking the cows thoroughly and uniformly—exactly the same way at every milking.

KAISER BRONCHITIS IN EXILE

Thousands Liberated

What! have you not heard the joyful tidings? Bronchitis has been expelled—kicked right out of society—and 100,000 Canadians liberated from the bondage of this disease. Every trace of bronchial trouble is blown to atoms by the world's most effective disease-destroyer, Buckley's Bronchitis Mixture. No wonder people are rejoicing! No longer do they dread the effects of coughs, colds, asthma, etc., and so anxious are they that others should benefit also, hundreds of letters have been written proclaiming the merits of this wonderful medicine remedy. Here is one letter:—To Whom it may Concern: "This is to certify that I had been suffering for over three weeks with bronchitis and was advised to try Buckley's Bronchitis Mixture. I purchased a bottle and after the third dose I received relief, and before the bottle was finished, I was perfectly well. In making the above assertion I have no hesitation in saying it is the best remedy I ever came in contact with for heavy colds and bronchitis."—(Signed), Mrs. M. Harding, c/o Dust-less Brush Co., Toronto. The original of this testimonial may be seen at W. K. Buckley, Limited, 142 Mutual St., Toronto. This mixture, as proved by thousands of Canadian households, will give you sure relief. It cannot fail. Seventy-five cents is the price that stands between you and the road to health. Take no substitute—insist on the bottle with the "Satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded." Ask your druggist. 19

What the Arab Laughs At.

An Arab laughs at the idea of walking in the street with his wife or of ever vacating his seat for a woman, and his wife walks behind him. He has no use for clothes, tables, knives, forks or even spoons, unless they are wooden ones. Bedsteads, barrows, and hay-racks are also regulated worthless by him. On entering a house an Arab removes his shoes, but not his hat. He mounts his horse on the road side, while his wife mills the cow on the left side. He puts mostly all his compliments on the outside of his letter he writes. He uses no in that his head is always occupied mentally even in conversation, and he does not feel entirely, often going bareheaded in the winter. He reads and writes from right to left. He eats little for breakfast, little for dinner, but overeats at one time, when the work of the day is done, he sits down to a low round swinging table and eats his meal for. His sons eat with him, but the women he waits until his feeding is done.

THE DRAMA OF LIFE.

Clemenceau Speaks of the Problem of Living.

"I know of no greater error than to suppose that extraordinary adventures are what make life interesting," says M. Clemenceau, lately President of France, in a book of short-stories just published entitled "Surprises de la Vie."

"If," he continues, "one looks closely one finds that the truly marvellous things are those that happen to us every day, and that daily, though rather thrusts, even automobile accidents, with accompanying hatred, jealousy, betrayed love, and treachery, are in reality the vulgar incidents in the enormous drama of our existence from birth to death.

"We cannot deny that signs of altruism, born principally of life, manifest themselves on all sides in the beast themselves on all sides in the animal world. The defence of the young is the commonest instance of it. The curiosity of the male is also marked by exhibitions of generosity, even as it is on the human scale. We do not find a worm, does he not summon his entire harem and make responsibility fear to them the savoury morsel?

"Everywhere in the world people are born, they live and they die without knowing exactly why, and without arriving at any reasonable explanation of the strange events. The creation of the world is untroubled by the difficulty of the problem. When they came into the world their first business is to lament. All their life long they lament over the labor involved in preserving their lives, but when it comes to dying they cannot make up their minds to it without lamentations."

BELA KUN'S PLANS.

His Invasion of Hungary Foiled By the Poles.

Although Bela Kun disappeared entirely from view after the collapse of the Communist Government in Hungary, he has not put aside his ambition to become one of the leading disturbers of the peace of Europe. Bela Kun is undoubtedly a clever organizer. When he was driven into exile with a price on his head, he went immediately to Russia, and in that country, according to correspondents, he has been very active. Bela Kun immediately set himself the task of organizing a Red Army on the lines of that controlled by Trotsky and Lenine. He found many Hungarian prisoners in Russia, men who had not been able to return home when the Allies made peace with the Central Powers, because the Soviet was not working with any of the other nations. These prisoners had a certain amount of freedom, but had not the money to take them home, and if there had been facilities available for travel. They were making their way slowly back to their native land when Bela Kun got the ear of the Soviet and suggested that the return of the prisoners should be halted. He immediately began his propaganda among the weary and bitter men. His suggestion was that they should return to their own country as conquerors rather than beggars, and the idea appealed to many of them. After organizing the army he drilled them with considerable care, and Hungary was on the brink of a terrible civil war when the Polish army broke the Bolshevik. The defeat of the Russian Communists reacted upon the Hungarians. Lenine was forced to withdraw his active support of Bela Kun's enterprise, and the Hungarians apparently began to wonder if their plan was a wise one. The disintegration of Bela Kun's army set in with the collapse of the invasion of Poland. At the present time, he is endeavoring to hold together the remainder of his Red organization, and Hungary is safe from invasion by its own sons.

A Town of Nymphs.

In the town of the Nymphs, as the settlement near the city of Ishinomisky in Japan is known, the women rule.

The wives support the husbands and children, and are the acknowledged heads of the family. The husbands keep house, care for the children, and do other work that, in other places, is usually performed by women.

Because their cleanliness is to dive for pearls the women are called nymphs by the Japanese. The settlement is on Sebiam Bay, where pearl shells are numerous, and are taken from the bottom of the sea. In summer the women divers work in the water for ten hours a day, remaining for two or three minutes at a time below the surface.

The birth of a boy is considered bad luck, while great rejoicing hails the arrival of a baby girl. Men are regarded as inferior in every respect.

At the early age of four, girls are taken to the sea and taught how to swim and dive. When they get to fourteen they begin to work in earnest.

The women who are good divers can easily support their families. At forty they usually "retire." Very often they are already grandmothers at this age, and they spend the rest of their lives in educating their daughters and granddaughters, particularly in swimming and diving.

Fate's Grim Jests.

The strange tricks fate plays with the lives of men is illustrated by the recent case of a diver who met his death through drowning in an ordinary bath.

The incident calls to mind the case of a sword-swallower who used to perform outside public-houses, thrusting a formidable blade several feet long down his throat as often as his admiring audience required him to do so. Yet this redoubtable steel-eater died from suffocation as a result of swallowing a small fish-bone.

There is an account of a Spanish child-fighter who had earned considerable repute in one quarter of Spain only to receive a fatal kick from a young steer on the farm of one of his friends.

A similarly unlucky end was that of a circus performer whose particular feat was to plunge into a pond, chained and manacled, and liberate himself before appearing on the surface. While taking a bathe one evening this performer took a dive into a river, and, becoming entangled in some weeds, lost his life.

New Textiles.

The search for a new fibre has resulted in the invention by a Frenchman of a machine for extracting fibres from the leaves of wild pine-apples, the banana, white nettle, and numerous other growths in tropical countries, and using them in place of hemp and flax. The best results are obtained from the wild pineapple, whose leaves produce long fibres, which after treatment may be likened sometimes to silk. Men may yet wear pineapple suits, women try the experiment of banana robes, and all of us sleep between palm-tree sheets.

Colloidal Metals.

The colloidal state of matter is one of comparatively recent intensive research, and the results have been of a far-reaching character. In many departments of industry the peculiar state of the colloidal condition play an important role. Colloidal particles are groups of molecules or atoms with a dimensional variation of from five to 100 millionth of a millimetre. This is partially beyond the range of the microscope, and the particles are only observable under the microscope by reason of their reflection of a beam of light impinging upon them.

HOW KINGS HAVE DIED.

Violent Deaths Are Not Uncommon Among Crowned Heads.

King Alexander of Greece is probably the first monarch who came to his end by the bite of a monkey, but the occurrence recalls the fact that even kings have met death in a great a variety of forms as any class of human beings.

Comparatively few, especially in the good old days, were able to die on their bed as did "the Merrie Monarch" when he made to his assembled courtiers the apology, so witty as it was gracious, "I am afraid, gentlemen, I am an unconscionably long time a-dying."

Priam, the last King of Troy, a venerable figure in the twilight of history, was stabbed by Achilles on the altar of Jupiter. Xerxes was murdered by Artabanus in 465 B.C., and Ptolemy XIII. of Egypt was drowned in the Nile while endeavoring to escape from the Roman legions.

Stranger still was the death of Nitocris, Queen of Egypt. Herodotus relates that "she destroyed by death many of the Egyptians." It was an act of vengeance. Her brother had been murdered, and Nitocris caused an underground chamber to be constructed, and invited hither her brother's murderers to a sumptuous feast. While they were feasting she let the waters of the river into the hall by a secret conduit, and drowned them all. To escape the vengeance of the populace the queen threw herself into a room full of hot cinders.

For high tragedy nothing can approach the manner in which the Roman emperors quitted earth's stage. Julius Caesar was assassinated on the ides of March, Tiberius was murdered, Claudius was poisoned by his wife, and Commodus by his favorite mistress. Galba was slain by the Praetorian guard; Caligula, after having declared himself to be a god, was murdered; while Nero committed suicide to save himself from the hands of the executioners.

English kings died from various causes. Edward the Martyr was stabbed at Carle Castle. Hardicanute died of overeating at a wedding feast. William I. and William III. died as the result of falling from their horses. Henry Beaclerc fell a prey to his gluttony, and Henry II. died of a broken heart when he found his favorite son John plotting against him. Edward II. and Richard II. were murdered, and Edward V. was smothered in the Tower, and the hapless Charles I. ended his days on the scaffold at Whitehall.

Robert Bruce, the victor of Bannockburn, died of leprosy. St. Louis of France from plague, and Louis "the well-beloved" from smallpox. Louis XVI. and his Queen, Marie Antoinette, me, death by the guillotine amid the terrors of the French Revolution.

King Alexander of Serbia and his Queen Draga were brutally murdered in their palace at Belgrade. King Humbert of Italy was shot by Bresci, an anarchist, at Monza. King Carlos of Portugal was shot in the streets of Lisbon, while King George of Greece met similar fate at Salonika.

The whole story of royalty has no equal to the royal tragedy which ended the proud dynasty of the Romanoffs.

Getting the Truth.

How often during the war the armchair critics declared "we would get the truth after the war." And now Admiral Scheer, of the German navy, tells it. Per his report, belated but from reasons over which he had no control, the German navy came out and wiped the floor with off the map of the Battle of Jutland, May 31, 1916. It returned home, and came out again in August, and finding no foes to conquer, went home.

This victory—called the German high seas fleet to remain in port during the remaining four months of 1916, through the twelve months of 1917, and eleven months of 1918, till ennuied by twenty-seven monotonous months of victory it went out in a body and surrendered to the British fleet. In the meantime the unconquered men had been transported across the Atlantic, and from England into France, without interference from the victorious navy.

Land-Going Warship.

There is a new type of armored craft which in war may be utilized on land as well as on the water.

It is an armorclad motorcar mounted on the deck of a boat, the propeller of which it drives, by the help of suitable gearing, with its own gasoline engine. But, if there be occasion, it can run off the boat and operate in the ordinary way as an armored motorcar.

One use suggested for this amphibious vehicle is that of transporting troops from vessels to the shore, the car being provided with a machine gun for defensive or offensive purposes.

Umbrellas.

Umbrellas are not of modern invention, as they are found sculptured on the monument of Egypt and in the ruins of Ninevah, and were used in China and India in ancient times, while in Greece they had an important part in funeral services.

English Dolls.

The war was a large factor in the establishment of the doll-making industry in England, and that country will have no further use for the dolls of German make. The ranks of designs of dolls numbers fully 1,000, and many of the models are equal to those which formerly were imported.

Father Was Wrong.

Mother—"No, Willie, for the third time, I cannot let you have that you can't have another copper."

Willie (in despair)—"I don't see where you get the idea that you're always changing your mind."

"Trouble at home?" inquired the sympathetic friend.

"Serious", replied Mr. Meekton. "My wife went through my pockets last night."

"And you are highly indignant?"

"No. She is. She didn't find a thing."

The coming Referendum

Vote and Vote "Yes!" on April 18

THE Ontario Temperance Act as a war-time measure was an unqualified success.

On October 25, 1919, the people of Ontario voted by an overwhelming majority in favor of the permanent continuance of the Ontario Temperance Act, prohibiting the sale of intoxicating beverages.

The "Bootlegger" Must Go

On December 31, 1920, came the repeat of the Federal Order-in-Council—which was also a war-time measure—prohibiting importation, manufacture and export of intoxicating beverages.

Thus it became possible for individuals in prohibition provinces to import liquors for consumption in the home; thus the "bootlegger" is able to offer the same for sale contrary to law, and thus the expressed will of the people in this province is being defeated.

Importation Must Cease

Everything that applied in the last vote against the sale of intoxicating beverages within this province applies equally to the Use of them, and their Importation for beverage purposes should also be prohibited.

Hence arose necessity for further legislation and another Referendum.

Shall the Importation and the bringing of intoxicating Liquors into the Province be Prohibited? YES!

GROCERS TAKING LESS PROFIT ON MANY LINES

RED ROSE TEA PEOPLE MAKE A FURTHER STATEMENT.

Some of our friends among the grocers, in speaking of our letter to the press on grocers' profits, have indicated that apparently it has been misconstrued by our readers to mean that Red Rose Tea was the only article on which the grocer takes a smaller profit, in order to give his customers a higher quality.

It was not our intention to convey such an impression, as we know that most grocers sell well known brands of other goods at less profit than they could make on some brands equally well known, and for the same reason that they recommend Red Rose Tea, simply to give their customers the best possible value.

In our letter we mentioned Red Rose Tea because it naturally came first to our mind and because we knew that grocers were selling it at a less profit than they make on other teas.—T. H. Estabrooks Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Hobo—Yes, lady, dere was a time when I had money to burn, an worse'n dat I did burn it.

Old Lady—Andwhat did you burn it with, my poor man?

Hobo—With an old flame o' mine.

Monaco Prince May Reform

FOR the second time the report is current that the Prince of Monaco may put the lid on the gambling games that afford him his great income. It is not explained why he should feel this uplifting urge, but it is inferred that the lessons of the war have worked out to this answer in his case. We present the rumor with caution, for it seems all too likely that if Monte Carlo were to be closed some other nation would open up something "just as good" or just as bad in order to draw patronage, and thus help the national debt. We do not know that Lenine and Trotzky would have any scruples, for instance, and suppose that there are places in Austria and Germany where the spinning wheel would be welcomed if it promised to turn up anything but bad luck, of which these countries have had a record-breaking run. We also reflect that Monaco is the cheapest country in the world for its citizens. The visitors pay all the taxes. Anything that a native of the island receives for whatever he does he can keep. The Government demands no rake off. The citizenry is not likely to approve a reform that will cost money.

Once before the report that the prince would stop gambling was current. It was soon after he had married again—and marrying again has been quite a custom in the life of the prince. His wife on this occasion was the widow of the Duke of Richelieu, who was a favorite with Queen Victoria. Now the prejudice of Queen Victoria against any kind of dissipation is well known, and also she was strongly opposed to divorce. But the fact that the duchess of Richelieu was a great friend of hers prompted her to overlook the fact that she was marrying a man to whom marrying people was no longer a novelty, and she consented to receive the princess. But she stopped short of receiving the prince. He felt this affront, for he had long had a morbid desire to be presented to the Queen, and in order to break down the barriers he announced that he was about to abolish gambling.

It was explained in his behalf that the club, which had the gambling rights in Monaco, namely, the Anonymous Society of Sea Baths and Strangers' Club, had a lease that could not be immediately cancelled, though it would appear that the reigning prince could cancel any lease on a moment's notice. The lease, however, was about to fall in, and the prince said that it would never be renewed. The Queen received the prince, and died in the belief that Monte Carlo would certainly be abolished by the time came to discuss the lease it appeared that there were difficulties in the way of refusing to continue it. The prince forgot his promise to the Queen, and did renew the lease until 1947, and gave the club the right also to renew it until 1963. It may be his intention not to carry the obligation further than 1963, in which case he will gain the moral credit for an act of renunciation, the consequences of which will fall upon the shoulders of his son or grandson.

It is announced that there is no immediate intention of stopping gambling, unless the social conditions of the realm permit it. The reform will be undertaken only when Monaco can afford the loss. Still it is hinted that if gambling goes Monaco is likely to be forced into the bread line. The place is one of the most beautiful in the world, with a matchless climate. Would not people go to Monaco even if they were deprived of the means of losing their money? The idea suggested is that the place of the Casino should be taken by newer hotels, community centres and parks, which, with the natural advantages of the place, would still make it one of the most delightful places in Europe to visit. Moreover, it would attract people who now shun the spot as though it were a plague.

The Prince of Monaco is likely to appear to the average man as something of a hypocrite. For many years he has received a great income from gambling, and more than once it has been hinted that the gambling is not on the square. He has defended himself on the ground that the rental he receives is spent for the betterment of mankind. He is one of the greatest of contributors to oceanography, and as a scientist has a name more than respectable. But the real scientists never have need of so much money as Prince Albert requires for his investigations. He keeps a large staff of servants, a palace, a chateau in Northern France, and a noble house in Paris. His income has been estimated at from $350,000 to $1,000,000 a year, and we do not see that science has had an adequate return. Obviously he has been holding out. Moreover, he is now 72 years old. For many years he has had all the profits of an institution that has been one of the scandals of Europe, in addition to some respect as a scientist. Now that he is able to get along without either he becomes repentant—really desiring to be remembered, maybe, as one of the great moral reformers of his age.

Savage Iron Workers.

Explorers have been astonished to find in the wilds of Africa savages acquainted with the smelting of iron from the ore and working it. To melt the ore they use a primitive furnace of baked mud with charcoal for fuel and bellows to secure the required temperature. It is altogether likely that the knowledge of these processes was originally derived by prehistoric men from the Arabs and Phoenicians who, then, as in later times, overran most of Africa.

—On Saturday the death occurred in Notre Dame de Grace, Montreal, of Mrs. Louise Tobey. Her death followed a lingering illness. Her husband, the late Edward Tobey, Napanee, died thirty-eight years ago. The late Mrs. Tobey was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Johnston, well known residents of Elizabethtown, and was aged 66 years.

Essence of Pearls.

"See that!"

It was a glass jug half full of a wonderful fluid that the science worker held up. Colorless the contents were except for a gleaming iridescence most beautiful to the eye.

"Pearl essence," he explained. "A fish product. You know, perhaps, how artificial pearls are made, by lining little hollow spheres of glass with a substance derived from the scales of a small fish called the bleak.

"We in this country import all of our artificial pearls, because we don't know how to make them. All of the processes, from the separation of the substance to the lining of the glass spheres with it, are trade secrets carefully guarded.

"But we have been studying it out, and have found that the same substance occurs in the scales of many kinds of fishes, notable the herrings. It is the stuff that gives to fish scales their peculiar irridescence.

"Another thing we have ascertained is that the substance occurs in much greater quantities in the spider- mie of certain fishes, in the swimming bladder and in other membranes. There is relatively little of it in the scales.

"It is plentiful in fishes of the carp family, to which the goldfish belongs. But the golden hue of the goldfish is due to a pigment and not to the substance of which I speak.

"There is no such thing as a goldfish in nature; it has been produced by breeding. Likewise the silverfish, which is merely another variety. But in the silverfish is strikingly shown the iridescence of this substance, called 'pearl essence.'

"With further experimentation it ought to become practicable to obtain the pearl essence in quantity at moderate cost, and it should be utilizable not only for the making of artificial pearls, but for many other purposes."

Cow as Symbol of Fortune.

The first coin ever struck off by Rome had a figure of an ox on it, and the cow has been in most patriarchal epochs of society the symbol of fortune. "This family is mine and these are my cows," says the Arab sheikh, dweller in tents, and this has been the cause of the use of the root of languages which stands for cow being used in many terms that mean money. For instance, the Latin root pecus forms many such words. Pecuniary reward first meant a payment in cows; peculiarity originally referred to the number of cows a man had. The old Teutonic root for the word cow furnished the words "cent" and "scot-free"; a man who paid his bill or "scot" did so in a certain percentage of the value of a cow, and if he got into trouble but escaped without being mulcted in cows he was said to have managed it without losing one of his cows.

Chinese Railroads.

Of 6,836 miles of railway in China in 1918, more than 4,000 miles of main and branch lines were owned and operated by the Government, these comprising fourteen railways in fourteen out of the eighteen provinces. In addition there were eleven provincial and private railways (some owned by mining companies) aggregating 435 miles and five concession lines aggregating nearly 2,300 miles.

WHAT GERMANY ASKED

FRANCE HAD TO PAY HEAVILY IN 1870.

Teuton Protests Over the Severity of Allied Terms Recall Treatment Received by French Nation Fifty Years Ago—Germans Better Able to Pay Indemnity With Vast Riches in Coal, Iron, Potash and Manufactures.

HOWLS of wrath, mixed with loud lamentations, arise from all parts of Germany. Alackaday, the erstwhile big bully has been ordered to settle for his crimes. The Supreme Council of the Allies has presented the war bill—$56,000,000,000 in gold, to be paid in instalments over a period of 42 years. Also a little additional tax in the meantime of 12 per cent. on all exports from Germany. Hence the howls and the frantic protestations that "the Fatherland cannot possibly pay this insane bill pay."

Just fifty years ago the shoe was on the other foot. It was France who had to pay then, and Germany gave little heed to her condition. Broken and bleeding, France was ordered by Bismarck to hand over her two rich provinces of Alsace and Lorraine to Germany and into the bargain to pay an indemnity of one billion dollars in four years time. And remember that at the purchasing power of a dollar in 1871 the above sum would represent about $2,500,000,000 to-day.

To increase the agony of France at that moment civil war broke out. And what did old Bismarck do? He threatened to occupy Paris unless the loyal French troops squelched the forces of the Communists immediately, and as a punishment to France that "man of blood and iron" made the peace terms harsher than had been proposed by him in the beginning.

Says the official communication of the Imperial German Chancellor to the Reichstag in this connection:

"The terms of payment of the war indemnity have been shortened; the first half milliard francs ($100,000,000) will be delivered within thirty days following the occupation of Paris by the Versailles army. The second payment, amounting to one thousand million francs ($200,000,000) is to be made in the course of this year by the end of December. Not till then are we bound to evacuate the forts before Paris. The fourth half milliard ($100,000,000) had to be paid by May 1, 1872. With reference to the last three milliards ($600,000,000), the stipulations of the preliminaries of the Treaty of Peace will be adhered to and the payments will be concluded by the 1st of March, 1874. The French Government hopes to be able to satisfy our requirements."

Thus France not only lost her two provinces but was ordered to pay within four years an indemnity of what would at present values amount to practically $2,500,000,000. Instead of whining about it as Germany is doing to-day, France bravely set about the task of discharging this—under the circumstances — appalling debt. Theirs, the first duties of the new republic, had loans floated and directed its great genius to the speedy liquidation of that debt. For until the last farthing had been paid German troops were to remain in France. Thanks to the wonderful industry, frugality and patriotism of the French people every copper of the indemnity was paid off in the amazingly short space of four years. Bismarck's sole regret as he expressed it was that he had not imposed double the indemnity on France.

Germany is in better condition today to pay than was France in 1871. Germany has double the population France had fifty years ago, and modern machinery has enormously increased the means of producing wealth. Just before the war, Germany with a total annual trade of $5,350,000,000, ranked second to Britain only as the world's greatest commercial nation. Germany has great natural resources. Quite apart from the coal in the International Saar Valley, Germany has vast areas of coal in several places well within her own boundaries. The deposits in Silesia alone are said to be almost inexhaustible. In 1913 Germany mined 320 million tons of coal. Germany also has huge deposits of lignite from which all the dyes and chemicals forming so important a branch of her trade are manufactured. Germany's iron ore smelted in 1912 amounted to 20 million tons. Her sugar crop is 2,800,000 tons.

But potash is Germany's greatest natural product. Germany is about the only country in the world where potash is found in vast quantities in its natural state. The whole world is really dependent on Germany for potash, for potash and its derivative chemicals are vital to trade and commerce. The whole crop of the German potash field by the war forced other countries to supply their needs by the expensive processes of extracting potash from ashes and from other minerals which hold a small content of it. A plant was started at Muskoka Wharf during the war to try and extract the needed chemical from the seams of feldspar in the granite. To-day, everyone will seek the natural product. Potash, chiefly used in preparing fertilizer, is becoming more and more vital to the agricultural life of Ontario. The demand is world-wide, and outside the deposits in Lorraine now under French rule, Germany has nearly all the natural potash in the world in the huge deposits in Prussian Saxony. In 1912 Germany, chiefly from Saxony, mined almost 16 million tons of potash rock and salt. Potash is worth $200 a ton in Toronto to-day. And such raw products were only an item in Germany's trade which lay mainly in her manufactured articles.

Cheapest of all Oils.—Considering the qualities of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil it is the cheapest of all preparations offered to the public. It is to be found in every drug store in Canada from coast to coast and all country merchants keep it for sale. So, being easily procurable and extremely moderate in price, no one should be without a bottle of it.

MAY CREATE LIFE.

Mexican Scientist Thinks He Has Discovered Secret.

Are men right in thinking that chemistry holds the secret of life? Ever since the science of chemistry has been known men have been experimenting these hundreds of years in an effort to reproduce life. To create life artificially scientists have tried to produce by chemical means such living cells as give life to plants and animals, but until the present all their work has been in vain.

However, the very remarkable series of experiments recently concluded by Prof. A. L. Herrera, director of biological studies in Mexico, apparently have been successful, according to the account this Mexican scientist gives of his researches to La Nature, a leading scientific journal published in Paris.

"In my first experiment," says Prof. Herrera, "I followed Hartinge's technique. I put into a crystallizer 15 cubic centimeters of colloidal silica with a density of 1.030 and two solu ble salts, chloride of lime and fluoride of potash. Through slow diffusion and in complete crystallization there was a formation of remarkable imitations of amoebas and cells; a slow perfecting of the conditions of diffusion at last produced extremely remarkable fac-similes of organic elements.

"The method finally adopted is to compress two solutions, one of silicate of potash with a density of 1.100 and containing traces of bifluorate of potash; the other of chloride of lime with a density of 1.220.

"The solution of silicate should contain as little potash as possible. It is prepared by dissolving gelatinous silica in 150 cubic centimeters of water to which 10 grains of caustic potash has been added and heating in a vulcanizer at as high a temperature as possible.

"In my latest experiment I compressed a drop of silicate under a weight of 22 kilograms, while the drop of chloride of lime was compressed under five kilograms. The films were covered with a film held containing moist cloths, and the edges of the bell were sealed with plaster to prevent the drying of the solutions. The compression is for the purpose of showing the difference of the liquids. After 24 hours they were washed, placed under the microscope, hardened and mounted like ordinary sections in balsam. The structures are so hard and so feebly permeable that it is necessary to use Kneline's blue with mordants.

"The waves of diffusion produce periodic precipitates and the exhaustion of the chloride of lime causes a gradual transformation of the waves into smaller segments which reproduce with extraordinary fidelity the structure of cells.

"In the preparation of May, 1920, there was a colony of cells, complete with membrane, spongy cytoplasm, nuclear membrane, nucleus, nucleolus and filaments. Under high magnification the enormous nucleus showing the finely granular structure and other well known details of real cells. And, what is more astonishing still, is the tendency of all these cells to divide.

"By compressing the films under a weight of 60 kilograms I have succeeded in getting colonies of dividing cells, showing all the stages between those with the nucleus without the division of the protoplasm, the division of this latter, and the complete separation of the daughter cells.

"How explain these results? It is less easy and less interesting than the facts.

"A hypothesis—I have not said a certainty—presents itself at once to our thoughts. Can life have had a similar origin, due to the slow infiltration of salts into silica containing fluorates? A large number of organic compositors of fluorine and silica, even fluosilicates, are known, and it may be that on a mineral skeleton the natural forces of heat, sunlight, etc., have produced protolife capable of living by their own motions. However this may be, the observed fact of complete cells in division is new and of profound interest."

The editor of La Nature comments as follows on Prof. Herrera's experiments: "However, we carefully observe that the structures of natural cells obtained after treatment by classic histological methods scarcely resemble the appearance of the same cells when alive. In trying to imitate the structure of natural cells by means of precipitates of different solutions, men often take the histological cell as a model instead of the living cell. This fact makes it necessary to look with much prudence upon the conclusions that might be drawn from such experiments."

Soap In China.

Unfortunately, soap is relatively unfamiliar to the 400,000,000 of population in China, and they need to be educated in its use. If this could be accomplished the opportunity would be enormous. But so far as laundry soap is concerned, the Chinese housewife adheres to the old-time custom of washing her clothes at the village pond or creek, where they receive a hard beating over a stone at the edge of the water and a sort of, tallow derived from "soja beans" serves her as a detergent.

This tallow is obtained by chopping the bean pods very fine and grinding them to a paste. It is largely used by the Chinese as a cosmetic, and the native barbers apply it as a salve to the heads of their customers.

There seems to be a better chance for the introduction of toilet soaps in China. Put up in fancy boxes, they are in great demand among the higher-class Chinese.

Wood Charcoal.

The uses to which wood charcoal is put are numerous, chief among which may be mentioned its use as a source of cheap power for running gas turbine engines, for smelting purposes, and for smithy work. It is also used as a smoke-box feed and in the manufacture of ammunition. On account of its porous nature and the very large internal surface it contains, charcoal has the power of absorbing large amounts of gases.

"Did the laundryman find those cuffs he left last week?"

"No, John."

"The shirts are no good to me without the cuffs."

"Evidently he figured it that way, too. This week he lost the shirts."

In Time of Need It's always Zam-Buk

"We Find It Indispensable, whenever the children get cut, bruised or burned," writes Mrs. T. Fothergill, Ridge Farm, Bousman River, Man. "Once when my wrist was badly cut and the doctor tried stitching it, it would not heal. Zam-Buk soon put it right. I have also found Zam-Buk a soothing remedy for skin rash and irritation, also for piles.

"Our eldest boy was recently badly cut about the face by one of the cattle. At first I was afraid he might lose his eye. But we kept the injury clean, regularly dressed it with Zam-Buk, and it healed perfectly.

"My husband always carries Zam-Buk about with him on the farm, prepared for any accident. It one time rid him of a nasty outbreak of boils."

Zam-Buk with its wide range of usefulness saves worry and doctor's bills. It conquers eczema, ulcers, piles and ringworm as surely as it grows new skin over a cut, burn or scald, or place charged with cold. Splendid also for sprains, rheumatism and muscular pains. Zam-Buk derives its wonderful properties from certain rare herbal extracts. It's the most wonderful healer ever discovered. 50c. all dealers. 3 boxes $1.25c. Sample for 1c. stamp. STANDARD BANK OF CANADA MAKES RAPID STRIDES

Savings Deposits Continue to Show Healthy Gain—Larger Business Offering Results in Increase in Capital and Reserve — Dividend Increased to 14 Pe: Cent. Per Annum.

A year of steady expansion is reported to shareholders by The Standard Bank of Canada. There is always special interest in the statement of The Standard Bank, because of the very large connections which it has throughout the Province of Ontario. From year to year the business of the Bank has been showing rapid gains and in order to be better equipped to handle it the Bank has now completed arrangements for an increase in Capital and Reserve.

From the standpoint of the general public there will be special interest in the increase reported in the savings deposits. In the past five years these deposits have shown an increase of approximately $20,000,000 indicating a tendency on the part of the people of the Province to add steadily to their liquid resources. At the end of the current year the savings deposits of the Bank amounted to $53,911,997, which compares with $33,990,616.

Lent Full Assistance.

During the war period the Bank gave its full assistance in carrying out special undertakings on behalf of the Government and this year's statements would indicate that these accounts are gradually being adjusted and that the Bank is getting back to its more normal lines of business. As a result, there is a reduction in the deposits in the Central Gold Reserves from $3,500,000, at the end of the previous year, to $2,400,000, while Canadian, Municipal Securities and British, Foreign and Colonial Public Securities, other than Canadian, now stand at $6,076,973, down from $8,262,889. At the same time the Bank continues to handle a large amount of general business, current loans and discounts in Canada now totalling $56,-[illegible]-004.

The total assets of the Bank gain-[illegible] to $80,183,979, an increase of [illegible] to $10,909,009 during the past [illegible] months.

As a result of the arrangements [illegible] for the increase in Capital, [illegible] amounts already made have resulted in the Capital Account now standing at $3,802,001, while the Rest Fund has been increased to $4,800,000.

Substantial Gain in Profits.

Shareholders will be particularly interested in the Profit and Loss Account. This shows the largest profits in the history of the Bank. They amounted to $784,269. To this amount was added the balance carried forward from the previous year of $360,537, while an amount of $226,500 was received as premium on new stock issued. These amounts, added to the profits, made the total amount available for distribution $1,371,407. This amount was appropriated as follows:—

Dividends at the rate of 14 per cent. per annum.....	$492,720
War Tax on Note Circulation	35,943
Reserve for Dominion Income Tax	40,000
Contributed to Officers' Pension Fund	25,000
Written off Bank Premises Account	100,000
Transferred to Reserve Fund	300,000
	$992,763

Leaving a balance to be carried forward of $378,643. During the year the dividend was increased from 13 p.c. to 14 p.c.

Steady Expension.

Just how marked has been the growth of the Banks is indicated by a comparison of the statement at the end of 1920 with that issued at the end of the fiscal year of 1915. During that period the assets of the Bank have increased to $90,193,979, from $53,822,121; deposits bearing interest now stand at $53,011,997, compared with $33,986,616 and deposits not bearing interest at $14,377,712, compared with $9,112,434. Current loans and discounts in Canada now amount to $50,896,884, against $33,749,339; Canadian Municipal Securities and British, Foreign and Colonial Public Securities $6,-076973, up from $1,345,527, and Dominion and Provincial Government Securities $4,402,234, compared with $1,311,877.

Political Parties of Canada.

Some time ago a man called Seigfried, came over from Europe and made an outsider's careful study of Canadian affairs. Upon his return to Europe he wrote a book for home-readers. This book of European is recorded his observations on the workings of Canadian Politics and was published by the Eveleigh Nash Publishing Co., London, England. Inasmuch as this book was written by a disinterested bystander for his own benefit and for the education of European students of political economy, we may justly regard it as a true and unprejudiced description of Canadian political machinery, and can surely feel that it can carry with it no direct attack on any party. But by explaining the workings of Canadian Politics, it does give to us, very forcefully, the reason why agriculture has always been woefully neglected by governments and the reasons why powerful interests have been the unseen forces which have really governed our country for years. Seigfried says:—

"Great cotton mills always great armies of voters dependent upon them besides having certain public bodies under their control. The support of these concerns to a party must be either corrupt or rendered neutral. In Canada you hear of gas and water companies forcing a municipality to carry out their demands of some huge industrial company, employing thousands of hands, dictating its wishes to a ministry to whom its support is necessary; of some director of a railway through some region with no other line of communication treating on equal terms with members of the government. It is only natural in these circumstances that there should be bargaining. The railway companies especially require to come to terms with the government, for a session never passes in which some new Bills affecting their welfare have not to be passed. It is essential to them to have a majority on their side, and if possible a ministry to bring the Bills forward in their interests."

The History of Canada Full of Such Transactions.

"The entire history of Canada is full of these transactions," continues Seigfried. "In 1872, for instance, Sir Hugh Allan, promoter of the Canadian Pacific, gave more than $300,-000.00 to the Conservative Party for their support. In 1887 a sum of more than $100,000.00 came out of the funds of several great companies eager for concessions and subventions for distribution in twenty-two divisions of the Province of Quebec. In 1891 the promoters of a huge dock enterprise supplied nearly $120,000.00 for electioneering purposes. In 1904 it is notorious that the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Grand Trunk Railway scattered money about lavishly—the former among the Conservatives, the latter among the Liberals, both with a view of controlling the second Trans-Continental line that was being sanctioned. Normally it is understood quite the thing that contributions should be made to the party funds in this spirit, and without them the parties would be at a loss how to conduct their campaigns.

Canada Controlled by Vested Interests.

Mr. Seigfried goes on to draw his conclusions. He says, "The legitimate politics of public welfare, therefore, tends sometimes to become a policy of vested interests. It is believed, in truth, that the financial influence is powerful during the elections do not stop outside the doors of Parliament. It is not enough to have helped towards the victory of a party —it is necessary to go on and profit from it this or that new Bill or concession or tariff or subsidy. In order to secure favours, the great railway companies and the great industrial and commercial establishments find it necessary as well as quite natural to employ special agents in the lobbies. This custom indicates an undisguised, and to say the least, too intimate connection between business and politics. The leaders have a place apart and are above suspicion, but this could not be said of certain politicians who do not hold themselves as responsible as they should to their conscience and their country. Too often their election expenses are in part defrayed by a big company with some new certificate on hand, and in consequence they do not take their votes about solely from the point of them holding perhaps important parliamentary posts, but on better really than the accredited agents of some great group of capitalists. These men are of course exceptions to the general rule and there are also many examples to be seen of sincere disinterestedness but it is nevertheless a fact known to all that certain great companies accumulate funds which power over governments that they can rely upon whenever they may want in regard to almost everything in which they are interested."

Canada Has Suffered.

In short, Canada has suffered the power of finance to exercise its sway over her politics, instead of crushing it down like New Zealand. Thus financial scandals will be doubted. But aside from the fact that his book has been adopted by some universities, Canadian conditions themselves suggest that what Seigfried avers is only too true. The fact that the tracks of three railroad companies lie side by side over miles of this country; the fact that the greatest authority on finance in The British Empire, namely Sir George Paish, declares that we have built two or three times more railroad than we need; the fact that our cities are crowded, as

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. Catarrhal Deafness requires constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

No Return Of The Trouble Since Taking "Fruit-a-tives"

"I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism for over 16 years. I consulted specialists; took medicine; used lotions; but nothing did me good.

Then I began to use "Fruit-a-tives", and in 15 days the pain was easier and the Rheumatism much better. Gradually, "Fruit-a-tives" overcame my Rheumatism; and now, for five years, I have had no return of the trouble. I cordially recommend this fruit medicine to all sufferers."

Prof. Reynolds, of Guelph, says, "with useless 'exotic' governments protected industries kept up by this country; the fact that Agriculture has been so neglected that the rural population of Ontario from 1871-1911 has decreased 111,620, while the cities have increased 1,015,043—all these facts seem to establish the truth of Seigfried's statement, that "Canada has suffered the power of finance to exercise its sway over her politics." And if Seigfried were asked to-day how agriculture will gain its just share of legislation, the only possible answer for him to give would be, "Farmers must elect their own representatives in much the same manner as the Big Interests have elected theirs."

THE VALUE OF CULLING AND SELECTING THE DAIRY HERD.

(Experimental Farms Note.)

For the past eight years an experiment on the grading up of a dairy herd from the common stock of the district by the use of pure bred sires from high producing dams has been carried on at the Experimental Farm at Nappan, N.S. All females, good and poor alike, have been retained in the herd not because it is the usual policy followed by the Experimental Farms, but for experimental purposes. A record has been kept of all feed consumed and all milk produced has been weighed and tested for its butter fat content. Thirty-nine have completed one or more lactation periods.

When checked up by the feed scales, milk scales, and Babcock test methods, eighteen cows in this experiment that had completed their sixth lactation period gave an average yearly production of 6268 pounds of milk testing 3.566 per cent. fat and yielding 225.24 pounds of butter, at a feed cost of $34.18. The average profit over feed was $235.62, or $414.36 for the eighteen. The above average production of milk is higher than that of the average dairy cow of the Dominion and may be considered as high enough to keep the cow out of the boarder class, but not high enough to return much profit. Let us see how selection would have affected the above mentioned results.

An examination of the records shows that 8 of the 18 cows gave less than 5000 pounds of milk, and of these two gave less than 4000 pounds and one less than 3000 pounds. Taking 5000 pounds as a fair standard of milk production 44.5 per cent. of the group would have had to be culled out. The ten remaining cows gave an average yearly production of 6276.8 pounds of milk testing 3.6 per cent. fat and yielding an average of 264.46 pounds of butter. The cost of feed averaged $55.65. The average profit over feed was $14.18 or $141.80 for the ten. That is the ten good cows gave within $72.56 as much profit as the eighteen. In other words if the 8 poor cows had been culled out $417.74 worth of feed would have been saved. This, together with the profits realized from the ten good cows, is $759.54 or $114.18 more profit than was realized from the full group of eighteen cows. Who would feed eighteen cows if he could get greater profit from feeding ten?

The efficacy of the Babcock test was also brought out very strongly by this experiment. For example, of two cows, one gave 6089 pounds of milk testing 2.9 per cent. fat, yielding 205.75 pounds butter at a feed cost of $36.57 and a profit over feed of $17.59, while the other gave 6073 pounds of milk testing 4.5 per cent fat yielding 162.92 pounds of butter at a feed cost of $37.65 and a profit over feed of $17.06. From a butter production standpoint these cows were practically of equal value but if milk were the product sold the former would be much more profitable than the latter. The poorest cow in the eighteen gave 2418 pounds of milk testing on an average 2.7 per cent. fat yielding 72.07 pounds butter at a feed cost of $32.65, proving a loss of $27.42. Such a cow might easily be retained in the herd were not these tests applied.

A careful study of the individuals in a herd to ascertain which makes profitable use of the feed consumed is often warranted. For instance, one cow gave 7999 pounds of milk testing 3.3 per cent. fat, yielding 310.56 pounds of butter at a feed cost of $58.33 and profit over feed of $50.22. Another cow produced 7590 pounds of milk testing 3.7 per cent. fat yielding 330.38 pounds butter at a feed cost of $64.43 and a profit over feed of $49.39 This shows that the latter cow did not respond as economically to feed consumed as did the former for even though she consumed extra feed to the value of $6.10 and had 14 per cent fat in her favor she made 83 cents less profit.

Moral: Fix a standard of quantity, quality, and economy in milk production for your cows to go by. Buy a milk scale (which may also be used as a feed scale) and a Babcock tester; weed out the star boarders; fit them for the butcher; feed the real producers the extra feed; then watch the profits grow.

Building Falls Into River.

When the pier supporting the one-storey frame building at Clayton, N.Y., known as the Johnson warehouse, collapsed this week, the structure crashed through eight inches of ice and is now floating in the river. The building was in process of removal to Bartlett's Point, where it was to be converted into a bungalow.

Peerless Fire Extinguisher Does Effective Work.

What might have been a serious fire took place on Saturday at the home of Wm. Frette, on the Hamburg Road, when the smokepipe from the furnace set fire to the lower floor. An Anniversary Party.

On Tuesday evening, March 1st, a number of friends entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Asselstine, West street, Napanee, and took them completely by surprise, it being their 30th wedding anniversary. The evening was spent in progressive euchre until late, when Mr. and Mrs. Asselstine were presented with a cut glass water pitcher with glasses to match (from their daughters, Mrs. Schuyler French and Mrs. Ernest V. Kerr), to which the bride and groom of the evening expressed their thanks in a few well spoken words. Sandwiches, ice cream, cake and candy were then served by the friends, after which the happy party broke up, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Asselstine many happy anniversaries to come.

Oldest Building in Deseronto.

In the east end of Deseronto, the Post says, Benjamin Richardson is tearing down a building that was undoubtedly erected by or for the late Col. Culbertson before Deseronto was in the dream stage. Of material hewed by hand the building was perhaps the first school at what was then known as Culbertson's village. Some of our older people got their first knowledge of the rudiments of education within the four walls of it. Mr. Hearnes bought the property from Col. Culbertson and in time it passed to his son, James H. Hearnes, now a resident of Deseronto. The building was probably the oldest in the town—going back over a hundred years to the date of erection. The material in it is in a good state of preservation. Mr. Richardson will use it to put up a stable on his property.

N. C. I. Sports.

The boys of the N. C. I. opened their basketball season with their usual inter-form games. Play started on Monday last, when 1B succeeded in defeating 1A by the score of 55-9. The shooting of Clifford Farmer, of 1B, featured the game, he scoring ten field goals. E. Cooke was also good, as also was G. Robinson of 1A. Form II won from 3A on Wednesday by 25-17, in a very keenly contested match. Wallace Perry starred for the winners and the shooting of "Pabe" Scott in the last was the feature of the play and almost won the game for 3A. On Thursday 1B played Form II and because of poor shooting lost by 14-46. Wallace Perry again starred. Hudgins and L. Wheeler also showed that they were on the team. Each game was attended by a large gallery, the girls turning out to see their Form boys play. The standing to date:

Meeting of Creditors.

Representatives of a number of wholesale houses of Toronto, Montreal, Kingston, Belleville, Peterborough and other points, creditors of H. C. Pedwell, late of Roblin, general store keeper, met at the office of the assignee, W. G. Wilson, on Friday, February 25th, and after full discussion of affairs of estate, directed the assignee to see that on behalf of the creditors, agreement of exchange made between the assignor Pedwell and one E. J. Bucknam, be carried out. Mr. Shore Lozyer, representing Fenwick Hendry & Co., Kingston, and Mr. W. P. Peters, Kingston, were appointed Inspectors. Mr. R. B. Priestman, of (Canadian Credit Men's Association) Toronto, kindly offered the creditors present his assistance in determining the value of the Toronto realty and securities and in their disposal. The creditors all seemed willing to give the assignee every chance to make good, and by so doing they anticipate the estate will pay 100 cents on the dollar. Mr. E. J. Bucknam, Jr., an army aviator, returned from overseas, son of the gentleman who proposes to take over the business, and his young English bride, are in charge and are rapidly making friends.

SPRACKLIN'S ACTION WAS INTEMPERATE.

Dean Starr Says That Self-Control Is Real Temperance.

The dean of Ontario preached in St. George's Cathedral, Kingston, on Sunday morning on "Temperance". He referred incidentally to the case of Rev. J. G. L. Spracklin, who was tried for manslaughter, committed while he was trying to enforce the Ontario Temperance Act. Dean Starr said that his action was just as intemperate as the grosser forms of drunkenness. Dean Starr said the word "temperance" was so often misapplied. The best definition was "sovereign self-control", and this was the ideal of Christian life. The dean spoke of the excesses of the present time in all phases of life, even in sports and amusements. The spirit of self-control should be developed in everything.

Season of 1921

Of late years many housekeepers who contemplate having certain rooms re-papered, especially those requiring the better class of paper, have had it done early in the season, in February or March, because there is less danger of delay through the paper hangers being busy. We are prepared to meet such cases. We have a full stock of the different lines, Kitchen, Dining Rooms, Bed Rooms, Parlors, Halls, Bath Rooms, etc., and there have been two or three advances in prices since we bought.

Our new stock contains some lines of American made paper that we can sell at prices lower than is asked for same qualities to-day. We invite inspection of our stock and prices.

We have added to our stock of Room Mouldings, White, White and Gold, Oak, different sizes, at old prices. Our stock of Picture Frame Moulding has just been filled up,—some quite new in design and finish.

FREIGHT WRECK ON G.T.R. AT COLLINS BAY.

A Grand Trunk railway east bound freight train was wrecked at Collins Bay at midnight Saturday. Twenty-two cars ran off the track between the two crossings, and toppled over into the water at the lake shore, and some of them were partly submerged. No person was injured. Many of the cars were built of steel, and some contained grain, but most of them were loaded with soft coal. All day Sunday wrecking crews were busily engaged in clearing the east-bound track, which was blocked.

The point where the wreck occurred is on the embankment just east of the bridge and close to the bell crossing. Had it happened on the bridge, the results would have been serious.

It is definitely stated by officials that the cause of the wreck was a broken wheel on one of the cars. The damage is estimated at between $50,000 and $100,000. Twenty-two cars were derailed and fifteen of them each containing fifty tons, went over the embankment on to the ice, some of them going through to the bottom.

Kingston livery drivers were called to transfer passengers from the passenger trains following, but the work crews got to work on Sunday and cleared the tracks in time for the Sunday night trains. It was clear at eleven o'clock. The cars that went over the bank will be lifted by big cranes coming for the purpose. The locomotive, five cars and the caboose did not leave the track, and this is the reason why no loss of life occurred.

Of late there has been much difficulty experienced in pulling long freight trains, breaking of the couplings being of frequent occurrence.

THE VALUE OF SOME LITTLE USED GRASSES.

(Experimental Farms Note.)

On several occasions, particularly through the medium of "Seasonable Hints", issued by the Experimental Farms Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, attention has been called to the usefulness of several grasses which at present are little appreciated in Canada. The grasses to which in the past particular attention has been called as valuable adjuncts to hay and pasture mixtures are Orchard Grass and Meadow Fescue. The former is considered as one of the best for dairy farms in Denmark where, as is well known, dairying has reached a height of perfection unequalled by any other country. The latter grass is also considered extremely valuable in hay and pasture mixtures wherever intensive farming is practised. Our experience is that, in Canada, these two grasses would, if added to the standard and often stereotyped mixture of "Clover and Timothy", materially help to increase the value of the hay crops and of the pastures.

But besides these grasses there are several others, the introduction of which into Canadian farming would no doubt prove most beneficial provided that they are used under conditions in which they can prove their real value.

We have especially in mind the use of some grasses which, although of little importance for hay, yet are very valuable as pasture grasses, that is to say may be advantageously put in as bottom grasses in hay mixtures and pastured when the hay has been removed. Among these grasses are the Kentucky Blue grass, suitable especially for loamy soil, the Sheep's Fescue and the Red or Creeping Fescue on light land, the Red Top especially under wet conditions, and the Crested Dog's Tail under similar conditions.

In our opinion it would pay to add these grasses in small quantities to grass mixtures seeded down with the taller growing grasses primarily looked upon as hay producers. Indeed, the experience of countries where the farms are small and where consequently the highest possible returns are imperative to make farming a living proposition, strongly points to the advisability of including four or five or even more grasses in hay and pasture mixtures so as to make it the more remunerative.

THE GENERATOR.

The generator is constructed with two or more electro-magnets replacing the poles of the permanent magnets of the currents. The armature windings are evenly distributed over the circumferential surface of the armature and the ends of these windings are not grounded in the armature core.

As stated in our former article the cores are insulated in the windings to avoid short circuits. In order to collect direct current from the windings the generator is provided with a commutator and brushes.

The commutator is made up of a number of small copper segments fitted like the spokes of a wheel around the armature shaft but insulated from it and from each other by means of mica. The armature coil or winding, instead of being one continuous length of wire as in the magnets, is made up of a number of coils so spaced on the surface of the armature that the ends are brought out and attached to commutator bars or segments at a certain distance from each other called the pitch of the winding.

While the commutator is being revolved with the armature, the brushes being held stationary, must come in contact with the segments in succession, when they are at a certain point in relation to the poles of the magnetic field, and they collect a unidirectional or direct current.

The generator installed on the car is of the shunt type, i.e., the field windings which produce the magnetism are connected in shunt or parallel with the armature windings and a proportionate of the current collected by the brushes flows through the field windings.

As stated before, the amount of current produced by the windings depends on the strength of the magnetic field and the rapidity with which the coils cut the lines of magnetic force.

In order to prevent the generator from producing too much power and charging the battery at an excessive rate at high engine speeds, different methods have been adopted for reducing the strength of the magnetic field at high speeds.

Dear Mrs. Brown,—It is the desire of the Society to extend to you our deepest sympathy in the loss of your dearly beloved companion". We cannot always tell why these sad things must be, but God, who is good, "doeth all things well." We realize how faint and feeble are our words of sympathy. Mrs. Thomas Brown, Enterprise, Ont.

Dear Mrs. Brown,—It is with the deepest sorrow we express to you our sincerest sympathy in this your hour of trouble and trial, caused by the seemingly untimely death of your husband, Mr. Brown.

Although one often feels at such times that they cannot bear their cross, you have the prayers of your many Aid sisters that you may be comforted by the only true and loving Friend that can give the comfort needed at such times. We feel at this instance that Mr. Brown was snatched away from this cruel world before his life work was ended. But we must remember that "God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform". We must say from the bottom of our hearts, "Thy will, not mine, oh Lord, be done".

If our faith was only equal to the twenty-sixth verse of the eleventh chapter of St. John, "Jesus said unto them, I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth in me though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever believeth in me shall never die".

We truly believe that Mr. Brown had this faith and that he has left this harsh cruel world to go to a happier home on high.

Though partings on this earth are heart-breaking, we have the privilege to look forward to on the resurrection morning. We will miss Mr. Brown in the Church, with his ready hand and cheery smile to help along the good work.

We know also that it is out and your family that will extend to you a loving hand in the loss of your beloved husband.

As a brother we had known him for several years, and were proud to be a member of this Lodge, he was also a faithful and true friend and neighbor. We miss his presence from among us. As a member of the Craft, by his faithfulness and devotion to the principles of the Society, by his upright bearing and kindly disposition we soon found himself our greatest respect.

Words of comfort fail us in endeavoring to you the extent of the loss of so kind a husband and loving father and we can only commend you to Him that he has won to a reward well merited, and, we shall hope to meet him in the Grand Lodge above.

Signed on behalf of the Lodge,
MARK A. GILMORE, W. M.

"ACORN" QUALITY CORRUGATED IRON

The strongest testimony to the quality of the "Acorn" brand of corrugated iron is the fact that it is giving the best service year after year on thousands of Canadian farms. Every farmer should know, if he does not already know from experience, that there are many grades of galvanized iron. By submitting our iron to the severest tests we have protected the farmers who bought from us, and have thus built up a fine reputation for "Acorn" quality iron. Before the name is stenciled on our sheets the galvanizing must pass the severe acid test to which the British Government submits every galvanized sheet purchased. This is surely the strongest protection for the farmer.

MILLIONS KILLED IN ACTION

Wonderful news! Millions and millions of germs killed in action and thousands and thousands of victims relieved of bronchial asthma, coughs, and colds. There is great rejoicing in the fact that science has at last invented the world's surest death trap for germs—Buckley's Bronchitis Mixture. With the first dose this remedy gets right down to business, and never ceases in its destructive work until every trace of the disease is completely removed and the victim restored to normal health. Letters from all parts of Canada certainly are pouring into headquarters. Read this letter—"Years of suffering from that terrible affliction, bronchial asthma, ordered by all medical men to close my business in Montreal and go south to a warmer climate, but I noticed your ad. in the "Montreal Standard" for the above mixture and I said I would give one more trial to health before I leave my native town, and thank the good maker I did. My bronchial tubes are clear, the hacking cough has disappeared, the wheezing cough has ceased as if by magic, and all discomforts have gone since taking your wonderful mixture."—Herbert Corri, 417 McKay Street, Montreal. There is no reason whatever why you cannot be completely and speedily restored to health if you take this remedy. You are satisfied or the money is refunded, according to our guarantee. Don't delay. FRANCE IN BAD WAY.

Statistics Seem to Indicate Nation Is Dying Out.

The Minister of Labor has completed the vital statistics for France for the year 1918. These statistics, according to the Journal of the American Medical Association, show that the total population of France decreased during the year 1918 by 349,575, not counting the war losses.

These statistics, based on civil records, continue to cover only the seventy-seven departments that were not directly effected by military operations. This is the same as it was during the first four years of the war. It will be the same for the year 1919, and not until the beginning of 1920 will the statistics of all French territory, made complete by accession of Alsace and Lorraine, be included. If one compares the statistics of the years 1917 and 1918, for the seventy-seven departments of which account was taken, one will note that last year shows not only the persistence of an excess of deaths over births, but even an increase of the excess over that of the preceding year. In 1917, the population of the seventy-seven departments mentioned decreased 249,833, whereas the decrease in 1918 has risen to 349,575.

This result is due to the considerable increase in the number of deaths during the second half of 1918, ascribable to the influenza epidemic; for the number of births showed a slight increase over 1917. A comparison of the statistics of the years 1917 and 1918 is given in the accompanying table:

Births	299,041	342,310
Deaths	788,616	613,148
Excess of deaths over births	389,576	269,838
Marriages	177,872	158,508
Divorces	3,121	5,572

An analysis of the table reveals the fact that in 1918 there was: (1) An increase in the number of marriages; (2) a corresponding increase in the number of births, and (3) an increase in the number of deaths. This increase in mortality affects chiefly the second half of 1918. During the first half of 1918, 316,077 deaths were recorded, as compared with 356,951 during the first half of 1917; and during the second half of 1918, 472,539 deaths were registered, as against 256,344 in 1917.

The following figures, the number of civil victims claimed by the influenza in 1918 may be placed at 300,000.

FERTILIZERS FOR GRASSES AND CLOVERS IN FIELD AND LAWN.

(Experimental Farms Note.)

A story which went the rounds of the press recently proclaimed the "discovery" of a "new fertilizer" which would effectively rid lawns of troublesome weeds.

It does not appear how the wonder grew nor how the story found such wide publicity at this belated date. The account is based on a report issued by the Rhode Island Experiment Station (Bulletin No. 170) in the year 1917—nearly four years ago.

Sulphate of ammonia is the fertilizer to which the wonderful influence is attributed, and the bulletin describes how by furnishing nitrogen in the form of sulphate of ammonia instead of nitrate of soda an acid condition of the soil is promoted, a condition which, if intense, discourages the growth of practically all cultivated plants.

Two grasses, however, were found to persist despite the acidity created in the soil and these were bent and fescue—grasses unlovely at best—while clovers and the better grasses, as well as certain weeds, were exterminated.

Last any, having learned only half the truth, should proceed to transform their lawns into meadows of bent and fescue grasses are present, and the owner of the lawn has decided that these are preferable to the more "velvety" kinds the experiment is likely to prove disastrous to the lawn.

Respecting dandelions, which many regard as the most troublesome and persistent weed in lawns, the Rhode Island bulletin has this to say:

"Dandelions and plantains are often very troublesome weeds but apparently are checked to a degree of acidity which is not especially detrimental to the growth of bent and red fescue for example. To check eventually the growth of these weeds it is only necessary to introduce sulphate of ammonia into the top-dressing in place of nitrate of soda. This procedure will of course at the same time check the development of certain grasses like blue grass and also of clover. "Apparently are checked" offers but little hope of getting rid of dandelions by this means.

The following statement from the same source is significant:—

"The sulphate of ammonia in the fertilizer apparently "burned" the grass, for the trouble did not exist where nitrate of soda and blood were used as sources of nitrogen.

The burning was especially noticeable on clover." This "burning" action might well deter one from using sulphate of ammonia as a top-dressing. The mixture used consisted of 250 pounds sulphate of ammonia, 500 pounds acid phosphate and 250 pounds muriate of potash per acre—a heavy dressing.

The first section of the bulletin presents the results from a forty-one (1913-1916) experiment with hay in which various sources of nitrogen were used in connection with a small quantity of phosphate and potash. The statement follows:

The average yields of hay per acre for the four years, 1913 to 1916, combined were as follows:—

Check plot	1.34 tons
Nitrate of soda plots	2.88 tons
Sulphate of ammonia plots	0.81 tons
Calcium cyanamid plots	0.84 tons

This superior influence of nitrate of soda has been irrefutably attested in the records of more than half a century from the famous grass plots at Rothamsted, where the sulphate of ammonia plots have always been inferior to those treated with nitrate of soda. In dry seasons the difference is most pronounced and excavations, revealed a deeper penetration of the grass and clover roots in the nitrate plots and explained the greater susceptibility to drought of the plots dressed on the sulphate of ammonia plots.

To Rothamsted data we owe also the knowledge respecting the rapid depletion of lime in soils through the liberal use of sulphate of ammonia and the consequent need for liming such soil.

Women Smokers.

The mystery of where women cigarette smokers obtain their supply is solved, in part at least, by an uptown druggist, who was asked why nearly all such stores keep their tobacco stands in inconspicuous places, says the New York Sun. He said the reason for doing so is because the druggists cater to women smokers, and this class is rather timid about purchasing in the open. The women, it seems, prefer to glide back to some out of the way corner, where nobody will see them. Of course, there are exceptions.

Pearl Industry.

The pearl industry has taken up the X-ray as a money saver. The oysters are radiographed without the shells being opened, and those containing no pearls are not considered. Those showing signs of small pearls are put back to give the jewel a chance to grow up.

"Old-fashioned family doctor is disappearing." So is the old-fashioned family.

In a recent film one of the characters is skinned alive. The realism is rather spoiled by not representing him as a taxpayer.

YOUNG GIRLS NEED CARE

Mothers! Watch Your Daughters' Health

Health is Happiness

From the time a girl reaches the age of twelve until womanhood is established is a critical time, and the care the thoughtful mother can give.

The condition that the girl is either entering through or is critical and may have to face far-reaching effects upon her future happiness and health that it is almost criminal for a mother or guardian to withhold counsel or advice.

Many a woman has suffered years of prolonged pain and misery through having been the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance on the part of those who should have guided her through the dangers and difficulties that exist this period.

Mothers should teach their girls what danger comes from standing around with cold or wet feet, from lifting heavy articles, and from overworking. Do not let her overstudy. If she complains of headache, pains in the back and lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter, make life easier for her. She needs thoughtful care for a few years.

In all such cases Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be given as it is especially adapted for such conditions. It contains nothing that can injure and can be taken in perfect safety.

Read how Mrs. Eicher helped her daughter. She says:

"At the age of sixteen my daughter was having trouble every month. She had pains across her back and in her sides. Every month her back would pain her so she could not do her work and would have to lie down. My married daughter recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I read the books which were left at my door. She took it faithfully and is now regular and has no pain. We recommend the Vegetable Compound and give you permission to publish this letter in your little books and in the newspapers."—Mrs. KATIE EICHER, 4034 N. Fairhill St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Williams will profit by her own experience. She says:

"When I was thirteen years old I had sick spells each month and as I was very backward I would bear the pain and my mother knew nothing about it. I read in the daily paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took my own spending money and bought a bottle. It helped me so much that I took it regularly after that until I had taken two bottles and I did not have any more pain or backache and have been a healthy, strong woman. I am now 29 years old and have a little girl of my own, and when she gets old enough I shall give her none other than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. C. E. WILLIAMS, 2437 W. Toronto St., Philadelphia, Pa.

For almost fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been relieving women, young and old, of ailments peculiar to their sex. Ask your neighbor about it, for in every neighborhood there are women who know of its merits.

Thousands of letters similar to the above are in the files of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., and for years such letters have been published. Surely it is worth your while to make a fair trial of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION IN TRACTOR OPERATION

Mr. C. H. Spencer, Agent for Hart-Parr Tractor, and Roy Fretts, of Napanee, and Wellington Lockwood, of Enterprise, two of our prominent farmers, returned from Sarnia, Ontario, where they attended a free school of instruction in tractor operation, conducted jointly by the John Goodison Thresher Company and The Hart-Parr Company, covering the Hart-Parr oil tractor.

This school is an annual affair held by The John Goodison Thresher Company and was attended by Hart-Parr owners from points in Ontario from Fort Frances on the west, to Ottawa on the east.

The school was conducted by the Educational Department of the Hart-Parr Company direct from the largest exclusive tractor factory on the American continent, located at Charles City, Iowa.

While in the city the expenses of all visiting Hart-Parr owners were defrayed and the instruction was free throughout the entire week.

The John Goodison Thresher Company are distributors of The Hart-Parr tractor for the Province of Ontario and believe that owners should be thoroughly educated in the operation and the proper care of their tractors.

Mr. Spencer came back highly pleased and with a thorough knowledge of his tractor, feeling that he will now be in position to utilize the potential possibilities of his tractor to the utmost. 10a

CUMMINGS—WOOD.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, March 9th, 1921, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Kellar, when their nephew, Mr. Gussie Wood, of Flinton, was united in bold matrimony to Miss Elsie Cummings, of Napanee. The bride looked charming in her dress of sky blue taffeta and tulle bead veil. Miss Cora Kellar and Mr. Fred Wood were attendants of the couple. Miss Kellar looked very nice in her dress of navy blue serge and georgette. The young couple motored to his home in Flinton before going west. May showers of good luck and happiness follow them.

SWITZERVILLE.

This vigorous little burg finds it impossible to remain exclusive from these columns any longer. The inhabitants are exhibrating over the delightful weather. They believe that blustery Father Winter has vacated his throne to the fairer and worthy successor, Miss Spring. The cheery notes of the little busy birds call to mind the familiar lines heard from the nearby shrubs and bushes, and even the most carefree passerby cannot help but see the budding trees.—The services held here on Sunday night are a decided success and well attended. They show the interest of the people vacated in this village in the further advancement of the church's position. At these meetings local talents is freely called upon and responds willingly and unreservedly.—The Mission Circle will meet on Friday evening at the home of Mr. J. Frink. All business regarding the play, "The Old Oaken Bucket," given by the Circle, will be taken.—Mr. Victor Vandervort's sawing outfit is in great demand. He is kept busy answering the calls of the various farmers, who are preparing their year's supply of wood before the commencement of spring's work.—Mr. Jack Redgewell and Mr. James McGregor have left our village to make their homes in sunny Alberta. We shall miss them greatly from our gatherings and we hope that they will not forget their old friends in the rush of the western life.—The Monthly Community Social was held at the home of Mr. John Spafford on Tuesday evening. In spite of the unfavorable weather conditions a large number gathered there and spent a very profitable and enjoyable evening. A debate formed part of the programme, the topic being "Resolved that we should have Consolidated Schools." The affirmative side was ably defended by Mr. M. Empey and Mr. Vernon Pauli, while the negative side was upheld by Mr. C. Vandervoort and Miss B. Gilson. Affirmative won by 2 points. The future will show whether the decision will become a reality.—Miss Annie Watters has returned home, after a lengthy visit with relatives at Trent River.—Miss Elsie Coulter has also returned home, after visiting friends at Mountain Grove.—Mr. Ivan Miller and his bride, from Hamilton, are enjoying their wedding tour with friends in this community.—Mrs. Bailey and daughter, Isabelle, made an extended visit at Mr. J. Frink's.—Mr. Harry Wartman made a flying trip through here recently with his new trotter.—Mr. Babcock and family, Napanee, at Mr. Earl Craig's.—Mr. and Mrs. Russell Craig spent Sunday with friends at Morven.

Mr. Trumpour is a retired farmer and with his knowledge of farming will be in a position to give you every assistance through the Willoughby Farm Agency in making a successful sale of your farm.

Mr. Trumpour is a stranger to the farmers of Napanee district, and the President of the Willoughby Farm Agency would like the farmers to call on Mr. Trumpour on his arrival in their midst, or drop him a line, and he will call on them with a view to getting acquainted and advising them of the methods used by the old established and reliable Willoughby Farm Agency.

The advantages of listing your farm for sale with the Willoughby Farm Agency are many. We carry advertisements to-day in a great many daily and local papers, as well as our catalogues and general advertising. No one Agent could hope to accomplish what he can do for you through our representative, Mr. Trumpour, as it has taken years of careful study and hard work to build up the large connection we now hold throughout Canada, as well as the United States and England, and it has only been with straightforward methods that we were able to attain that position, and we can only refer you to the many satisfied customers we now enjoy or to any chartered Bank in Canada.

Our business has grown from the smallest to the largest Farm Agency in Canada, through our united efforts and hard work in the sale of farm lands. We are to-day thankful, and indeed grateful, to our many customers who have been dealing with us from time to time.

We solicit from you gentlemen your business in Napanee district through our representative, Mr. Trumpour, for the sale of your farm or the purchase of a farm, and we guarantee that you will receive our best services through the Willoughby Farm Agency and our representative.

We have buyers to-day looking for all kinds of farms, large and small, and we are ready to bring them to see your farm if you list it to-day with our representative.

While there is no guarantee how long this activity is going to continue, and seldom does opportunity knock twice at the same door, let me impress upon you that now is a good time to sell.

In conclusion, I desire, therefore, to solicit from you gentlemen, your business in the sale or purchase of a farm through our representative, believing that with his and our united efforts we shall be able to add you to the list of many satisfied customers dealing with us all the time.

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. Catarrhal Deafness requires constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

Fire at the Merchants Bank.

Friday evening, about 7.30 o'clock, an alarm of fire was sounded for a blaze which had started in the basement of The Merchants Bank. Huge columns of smoke pouring from the building led to the discovery, and for a time it looked as though a serious fire would result. However, the firemen were quickly on the scene and soon had the blaze extinguished. The fire started in some papers stored in the cellar. No serious damage resulted, except that the rafters of the first floor were considerably burned, and the fire broke through the first floor in a couple of places. Everything in the building was smoke blackened as the building was full of smoke at one time.

Oil Drilling at Lonsdale.

Drilling for oil at Lonsdale should start about the first week in May, says Walter S. Reeves, representative of the Transvaal Share Corporation, Limited. The exact location of the first test well to be sunk will be decided by geologists. "We have acquired about all the land we require, and are going to see what drilling will do," said he. "Our leases have been increased to 2,500 acres, which will be large enough to perm" extensive operations." Mr. Reeves leaves the third week of this month for England, and will remain there for about ten days. During his stay in England it will be decided whether to ship out oil-drilling equipment from England or contract to have the work done by Canadian companies. Geologists will accompany Mr. Reeves on his return to Canada. It is some months ago since interest was attracted to Tyendinaga by indications of oil.

MORVEN.

Somewhere in the sunny south a warm wave gathered and rolled north. Apparently the birds all thought the Spring offensive had started for they all came over the top together. Robins, blackbirds, song sparrows and even bluebirds came back on the same day. The birds certainly were convinced that the warm wave meant Spring, and lost no time in coming north. We hope the birds are right and that they will not have to seek refuge or perish from starvation and cold, but we still are sore in doubt concerning Spring.—Miss Hazel Cummings is spending a few days at Bethel Grove.—George Fralick spent last Friday at Wm. HUGH HOPKINS.

Lead Button Killed Child.

Clyde Oliver Johnson, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Cephas Johnson, 18 Bagwell Street, Belleville, passed away early Saturday morning, March 5th, 1921, in Belleville Hospital. About four weeks ago the child swallowed a piece of lead, about the size of an American one-cent piece, unknown to the parents. The only apparent result of the presence of the lead was a wheezing sound in the throat. As the child did not respond to treatment, an X-Ray examination was made and the metal discovered. Friday night an operation was performed in the hospital, but the child failed to rally. The funeral service was held at the family residence on Monday, at 2 p.m., Rev. Mr. Swayne conducting the service. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Following is a list:—Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Gaspen and Helen Annett; sprays, Mr. and Mrs. John Penny, Mr. and Mrs. James Hinds, Mr. and Mrs. A. Spooner and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. The Electric Equipment of the Motor Car.

THE GENERATOR.

When the generator is stationary, a small part of their magnetism is retained by the field poles. As soon as the armature starts to revolve, this small amount of magnetism produces some armature current and as the battery circuit is normally open at low speeds all the current so generated is passed through the field windings and the generator almost instantly "builds up", i.e., the voltage or pressure in the armature windings increases.

As soon as this voltage or pressure exceeds the battery voltage the reverse current circuit-breaker or cutout closes the circuit and the generator begins to charge the battery.

To prevent the generator from charging the battery at an excessive rate during periods of high speeds the manufacturers of automobile electric equipment have adopted various methods. The most practical method of reducing the output at high speeds is by reducing the field current and thereby the strength of the magnetic field.

Different methods are employed such as the vibrating regulator, the heat resistance unit, the carbon pile and the third brush method. Of these the most efficient and popular is the third brush method. The field windings of the generator of this type are not connected directly across the main brushes. Instead a third brush is provided. One end of the field winding is connected to this movable third brush and the brush so placed that the distortion of the magnetic field at high speeds lessens the field current and consequently the generator voltage.

The function of the generator is to keep the battery in the proper state of charge as nearly as possible. But as the service the battery has to perform varies to a marked degree, the generator must be adjusted at the factory to a standard or average battery service demand.

As the starting motor makes the heaviest demand on the battery, it will be readily seen that if all generators were left with the same adjustment the battery on one owner's car would be always undercharged while another would be always overcharging and would be likely to be ruined in a short time.

If your battery does not give you the starting lighting and ignition service for which it was intended you are probably not making use of a standard or average demand on it which your generator is set to compensate for.

This fact of unsatisfactory starting and lighting service has induced the manufacturers of electrical equipment to establish service stations in the larger towns and cities.

Correction of electrical trouble should not be entrusted to motor service but should be taken to a competent electrical service man.

PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS

On Tuesday evening, March 1st, a number of friends and neighbours met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Brown before their departure for Brockville, where the following address was read, and Mr. and Mrs. Brown were presented with two beautiful chairs. Mr. Brown thanked the friends for their kindness. Lunch was served, and the remainder of the evening spent in games and dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown—We, your friends and neighbors, have gathered at your home this evening, to extend to you our best wishes for your future and also to express our regret at your removal from the community.

You will be missed from this neighborhood, where you have always taken a very active part and as a citizen is well known.

We cannot allow you to go without giving some token of good will, so we ask you to accept these chairs, trusting that each time you use them they will bring pleasant memories of Sandhurst.

We all join, not in a formal way, but in all sincerity, in wishing you success and happiness in your new home.

Signed on behalf of friends and neighbors,

HAROLD A. SILLS.

PRESTON SAFE-LOCK SHINGLES.

Once these shingles are nailed into place the roof becomes in effect a solid sheet of metal. It is absolutely impossible to remove a shingle, for they are all locked together securely on four sides. Such a roof is always tight, proof against spreading joints, absolute protection against the weather.

"ACORN" QUALITY CORRUGATED IRON

The strongest testimony to the quality of the "Acorn" brand of corrugated iron is the fact that it is giving the best service year after year on thousands of Canadian farms. Every farmer should know, if he does not already know from experience, that there are many grades of galvanized iron. By submitting our iron to the severest tests we have protected the farmers who bought from us, and have thus built up a fine reputation for "Acorn" quality iron. Before the name is stenciled on our sheets the galvanizing must pass the severe acid test to which the British Government submits every galvanized sheet purchased. This is surely the strongest protection for the farmer.

U. F. O. NEWS AND VIEWS.

The following is a report of Mr. Morrison's address at the U. F. O. Banquet held at Selby, on March 8th:—

J. J. Morrison, the creator of the United Farmers' Movement of this Province, the man who in high places has remained common and humble, the man who has stood firm in face of criticism, firm to his convictions even when sometimes they were contrary to a government which he helped create, Morrison, to-day and always, the recognized and trusted leader of the farmers of this Province, spoke in a quiet, earnest voice.—"There's an awful lot to say for we are making history to-day," he began. "This is a period of reconstruction. We have all expected new and better things, looked forward to changes morally, socially, industrially and politically. The old way got us into trouble and we emerged from the War dissatisfied with old things, expecting new things and not one of us here to-night can say that he is satisfied with present conditions. The U. F. O. is endeavouring to alter conditions and during the last year it has done a big bit of work. It has a big bill of fare, and if the desire for new things is strong enough the U. F. O. will live. It will live if the people are ready for it. We are going through the acid-test now and if the farmers have not yet learned to stand together we will go back. That does not mean that we are to withhold criticism or to uphold things that are wrong. If you show me a man who thinks that everything is right, I'll show you a fool. If you show me a man who thinks his family is right in everything, I'll show you a spoiled family. If you show me a man who thinks that his party is always right, then I'll show you nothing but a bigoted politician. And a thought of the Farmers' Organization must remain firmly together for what is right it will stand for, it must also be right to criticise what is wrong, even in the Government which bears its name. If we don't, we're just as bad as the old politicians who stuck to party right or wrong. "Equal rights to all and special privileges to none", is the motto of the Farmers. It is a beautiful motto, and if we live up to it and stand up for what is right, regardless of party, we will live. This beautiful motto has spread all over Canada with a total membership of 300,000, and the United Farmers in every Province of the Dominion, with 65,000 members in Ontario and 15,000 clubs. The movement is trying to build a new and reconstructing rural business, social standing, organizing, literature and statesmanship, and it cannot fail to give us better things.

Reconstruction in Farm Business.

One thing that the U. F. O. is trying to reconstruct is farm business. The farmers are the only people who have not attempted to sell their own products. We have taken our own produce to buyers and have said, "Here is our produce, what will you give us for it?" Instead of that the Massey-Harris people had said-to us, "What will you give us for our business?" I think that we would get builders pretty cheap. Suppose that the Massey-Harris people said, "We'll produce as much machinery as we can and the best we can, and we won't pay any attention to what we get for it." How long would the Massey-Harris Company do business? And because others set the prices on his produce the farmer has failed. Through the United Farmers' Co-operative Company, which did a twenty million dollar business for farmers last year, the U. F. O. is trying to reconstruct rural business.

U. F. O. Reconstructs Standing of Farmer.

We have been called hay-seeds, clod-hoppers, rubes, Simple Simons, etc. In Toronto the other day a street car ran into a coal-cart. And to vent his wrath the motor-man yelled out to the coal-cart driver, "Hi's on to you ought to be. In other words any man not fit to drive a coal-cart would make a farmer. This contempt of the farmer started back in our own homes. In a family of boys, the father kept home on the farm with him. He depressed him even further for lack of education and took the wages he earned to pay the education of the bright one who when he was bright boy came back as a professional man, he set up his office in town, and refused to parliament any man who knew to further depress the boy who hood the corn. What could be more sure and if it hadn't been the most recuperative industry in the world, it would never have lived. But we have been making school trustees of our boys on the farm and taking the city man to be our members of parliament.

In order to reconstruct this social standing of the farmer, the U. F. O. is making farmers' class-conscious. Class-consciousness is the best thing in the world. Visit the British nation, the most intensely class-conscious people in the world, and they have painted red spots all over the globe. The French, Italians, the Scotch and the Americans are equally class-conscious and the "American eagle screams round the world". But come with me to Africa and you find a muddle of ignorant natives not class-conscious. Go to the people of India and they are ruled by England. Go to China they too are not class-conscious. But go to Japan and they are class-conscious, small in numbers but they stand in the forefront of nations. Show me a preacher, or a doctor, not proud of his profession, and I'll show you a poor preacher and a poor doctor. Show me a wife not proud of her home and I'll show you a dirty house. Show me a farmer not proud of his farm and I'll show you a poor farmer. It is class-conscious-ness, class organization that is going to put your business farming along side of other businesses, and give us respect for our vocation. Nations not class-conscious don't seek government. We farmers became class-conscious and we reached out for a voice in affairs.

Reconstruction in Politics.

Another thing that the U. F. O. are reconstructing is politics. The Farmers' Organizations of the Western Provinces claim the credit for first advocating franchise for women. Hitherto women were put in a class with lunatics, imbeciles, aliens and Indians who have not a right to vote. Even if the women make some mistakes they can't make a much bigger mess of it than the men have. Men have gone off and voted for the whole family without ever discussing it in their homes. But if mother had a vote it would be discussed in the home and the Grit girl would marry a the Tory boy and the rough edges of ignorant partisanship would be destroyed. They and their children will become enlightened electors not from prejudice but from common sense, not believing always that the one side is always right.

Then, too, the U. F. O. has an idea that the two party system is not a good system. Our present system is an evolution and the two party system has been a milestone, but we are rapidly drawing near the next milestone, the Group System, an improvement on the old two party system.

Our present constitution is a development from the tribal system, past the feudal system to the monarchial system, then from the monarchial system to the limited monarchial system. Each advance was affected and better things for the time that the old system was wrong and at last there was evolved a new and better system. So in the course of years it is natural that the two party system should give way to something better.

Under the two party system it is the duty of the one party to say that whatever the other fellows say or do is wrong. It supposes that there is only two channels of thought just as if we said that there are only two sizes of boots. Applying this kind of theory to your home, what would you do in your house if you said that everything your wife said was wrong. How would your business or corporation get along if half of the business tore to pieces everything that the other half did. If it won't work in private business it won't work in public business.

I know of a man who voted the same way for sixty-five years. He had not the use of his intelligence or his head all those years he had only exercised his prejudice. Of course it could be no other result but that he don't use them both for our own welfare and the best interests of our country? There are wrongs to be righted, reconstruction work to be done in rural business, society, politics and we can right these wrongs if we help ourselves. In olden times they put a man in a tub with a dipper in his hand and a water tap over his head, and if he stopped dipping and turned off the tap, he saved himself. We must save ourselves. Our fathers cleared this land for us and left us the heritage of a rich and fertile Canada. We want to leave something to our children as our fathers left a heritage to us, but we are leaving to our children nothing but a heritage of debt. Shall we leave them national debt and worn-out institutions and old systems, or shall we begin the reconstruction for which we longed so much. What shall we leave to our children?"

Be Careful How You Turn.

An ancient belief exists in the virtues of dancing or turning round to the direction of the sun.

Sun dances are still held in Mexico, Chile, and Spain, in which the turning of the dance are arranged astronomically and the movements of the heavenly bodies are followed in the dance both as to time and direction.

We are taught not to stir a hot the wrong way or the sugar in our tea; while mayonnaise sauce would be ruined if stirred one way and then the other.

A story is told of some Scottish boatmen who considered it unlucky to start on a voyage, however short, unless they turned their craft round three times with the sun.

It may be asked why once or twice would not have answered just as well. The number three, however, is one upon which the superstitions set great store. Some of the ancients regarded it as the perfect number, as it represented the beginning, the middle, and the end; it was the Trinity.

So round went the canny Scots' boat three times with the sun.

Visitor (comforting Tommy, who has upset a bottle of ink on the new carpet)—Never mind, my boy; no use to cry over spilled milk.

Tommy (indignantly)—"Any dunce would know that. If it's milk that's spilled all you have to do is to call the cat an' she'll lick it up cleaner'n anything. But this ain't milk, an' there'll be the lickin', is what ails me."

TOO ILL TO GO TO SCHOOL

Mother Tells how Daughter was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Coburg, Ont.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me for my daughter. She had trouble every month for which left her in a weak and nervous condition with weak back and pain in her right side. She had these troubles for three years and frequently was unable to attend school. She has become regular and feels much better since she began taking the Vegetable Compound and having recommended it to others. She is glad to attend school regularly. She is gaining steadily and I have no hesitancy in recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine."—Mrs. Jonn Tracy, Ball St., Coburg, Ont.

Standing all day, or sitting in cramped positions, young girls contract deranged conditions, and develop headaches, backache, irregularities, nervousness and bearing-down pains, all of which are symptoms of woman's ills. Every mother who has a daughter suffering from such symptoms should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

Stories of Cat-History.

Some famous people have been subject to the strange complaint which causes its victims to bolt from a room should a cat enter it. When staying at Schonbrunn after the Battle of Wagram, Napoleon was found in the middle of the night shouting loudly for help. The equerries rushed in to find their master making desperate lunges with his sword at a cat sheltered behind the bed curtains, but his hand was so trembling with fear that he could not drive the animal away.

Miss Louisa Merrick, who painted Lord Roberts' portrait in India, relates that she had to banish her kitten whenever the commander-in-chief came to her studio. "I was told," she adds, "that on one of Lord Roberts' voyages home he asked to have the cat removed as soon as he came on board. An American passenger, unaware of Lord Roberts' identity, said to Lady Roberts, 'Don't you think that gentleman must have been a mouse in a former state?' Lady Roberts' reply is not recorded."

Dr. Weir Mitchell calls this complaint ailurophobia—a term of which the etymology goes back to Herodotus. When the father of history first encountered cats in Egypt he called it "ailuros," or tail waver. Dr. Mitchell says that he personally knew thirty-one people who could detect the presence of a cat though it was neither seen nor heard by them. He thinks that ailurophobia is due to the existence of "olfactory emanations distinguishable by some as odors and by others felt not as odors but only in their results on nervous systems unusually and abnormally susceptible."

Performed "Movie" Stunt.

The Odessa motor stage performed a "movie" stunt in front of the King Edward Theatre, Kingston, Monday afternoon, which was not down on the programme. The motor bus was coming around the corner from Montreal street, when in some manner the driver allowed the car to go up on the sidewalk and run into the front of the theatre. The car did but slight damage to the theatre entrance, but the auto suffered slight damage. Had the auto struck against the office no doubt there would have been serious damage to property and possibly injuries to the young lady selling tickets. The young lady, however, was given quite a scare. Quite a large crowd was attracted to the scene of the accident.

TEA AND SHOWER FOR MISS WARTMAN.

Among the social events given this week for Miss Wartman, was a delightful Tea and Shower, at the home of Mrs. M. S. Madole, Centre Street, the house was prettily decorated with ferns, marigolds and daffodils, the color scheme being carried out also in the bugh basket beautifully draped in yellow satin and filled with handsome gifts. A unique feature of the afternoon was the reading of a "proverb" enclosed in each, which caused much merriment to the guests.

Miss Wartman will be greatly missed in Napanee. She is a graduate of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, and did much concert work in addition to a class of forty-five pupils at her Studio. She was an enthusiastic member of the Red Cross Executive and of the Ladies' Musical Club, both Societies sending remembrances in appreciation of her work.

Miss Wartman left Thursday for Toronto, where she will spend a week with Mrs. F. Cottle, before leaving for her future home in Regina.

Waiter—By the way, sir, that steak you ordered—how would you like to have it?

The Wall Paper Trade

For the season has started early, owing to the mild weather. We are ready to supply all the requirements of housekeepers, having now on hand the very largest stock ever, including the very latest in the different kinds. We can safely guarantee the very lowest prices, as we bought our present stock before the recent advances by the manufacturers. We have the different widths from 18 inch to 30 inch. If you buy the 22 inch paper you pay more for it than for the 18 inch. The manufacturer must pay more for the extra raw material, and for the colors that make the pattern. Every honest dealer will acknowledge that. Our prices run from 15c. per roll up. We are satisfied from the sales we have already made that our stock and prices are right. We have already been obliged to re-stock some of the leading lines, particularly the Oatmeals and their Borders.

A Pink, as the parlor Bolsheviks are now called—got into an argument at a Philadelphia smoker with Editor George H. Lorimer. "We all work and earn each alike," said the Pink. "In other words, we all do the best we can. Therefore, I claim that we all ought to be paid alike, and that would abolish class distinction—rich and poor."

"I don't agree," said Editor Lorimer. "This equality idea leaves me cold."

"But," said the Pink, "don't we all, after all, row in the same boat?"

"Yes," said the editor, "but not with the same skulls."

OBITUARY

William Skinner.

It is with sad hearts that we chronicle the death of the late William Skinner, of Macdonald College, St. Anne de Bellevue, Quebec. He was taken ill a few weeks ago with typhoid fever, and was thought to be out of danger, when he passed away on Friday last. Mr. Skinner was born at Camden East, sixty-six years ago, and was the eldest son of the late J. L. Skinner.

In his early youth he went to California, and thence to Dakota. He then returned to his old home and married Miss Eliza Greenway, daughter of Mrs. and the late Samuel Greenway. He then took up his residence at Yarker, and spent a number of years as blacksmith there. Eleven years ago he moved to Macdonald College, near Montreal, where he secured a position as instructor in the blacksmith department.

Deceased was held in highest esteem, as was shown by the many beautiful floral offerings. He was a good citizen, a kind father, and a loving husband. He leaves to mourn his loss, besides his wife, one daughter and three sons, Kathleen, at home; Samuel, of Toronto; Willie, of Pinkham, Sask., and Clarence, at home; also two sisters, Mrs. C. Edgar, of Yarker, and Mrs. H. W. Davy, of Winnipeg, Man., and two brothers, John and James Skinner, of Camden East.

The remains were brought to Camden East, to the home of his brother, James Skinner. The funeral took place in St. Luke's Church, Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, the service being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Dickinson. The funeral was largely attended by friends from far and near. The remains were placed in the family plot to await the resurrection morn. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mrs. Wm. Whiteman.

On Tuesday, March 8th, 1921, there passed to her eternal rest Mrs. Wm. Whiteman, at her home on the 6th Concession of Tyendinaga.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Mary Jane Piper, was born at Croydon, in the year 1861, and was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Noble Piper. She married Wm. Whiteman, of Tyendinaga, in the year 1880, living all her married life on the farm to which she came as a bride.

The late Mrs. Whiteman, who was a woman of sterling qualities, a loving wife, a devoted mother, a kind and thoughtful neighbor and friend, was very highly esteemed by all who knew her. Becoming a Christian early in life, she joined the Methodist Church of which she was a consistent member unto the end. For a year she has been in declining health, suffering at times extremely, but it was all borne with Christian fortitude and patience.

The funeral services, conducted by her Pastor, the Rev. C. Wilson, of Roblin, were held from her late residence to the Presbyterian Church at Lonsdale, interment in the Lonsdale cemetery. Her six sons acted as pall bearers. The hymns for the service, scripture readings and text were chosen by the deceased.

Mrs. Whiteman leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, Wm. Whiteman, a brother, Henry Piper, of Tamworth; a sister, Mrs. Arch McCutcheon, of Selby, and twelve children, all of whom were present at the burial, viz: Wm. N., Earl, Murney, Clarence and Maysel, at home; Jas. H., of 6th Concession Tyendinaga; Albert, of Merchant bank; Frank, of South River; Mrs. John R. McCrae and Mrs. Mack McCrae, of Lonsdale; Mrs. Alfred Mastin, of 6th, and Mrs. Wm. H. Anderson, of 7th Concession of Tyendinaga.

Gilbert McGreer.

Death came very suddenly on Monday morning to Gilbert McGreer, one of Napanee's oldest and most respected residents. Deceased was at church on Sunday evening, and on his way home was taken with a faint spell and was carried to the home of his brother, Charles McGreer, Deseronto Road, where he lingered in an unconscious state until four o'clock Monday morning. Deceased leaves a wife and one son, Dr. C. G. McGreer, Winnipeg. Deceased was seventy-five years of age.

PERMANENT MARRIAGES.

Well-known Feminist Opposes Some Modern Fads.

To weaken the marriage bond by setting it for a term of years only or by making it terminable by consent, would virtually destroy marriage and family life.

The fact that the bond would not be binding would make persons more careless even than they are at present in the selection of mates, and would thus multiply the number of mis-matings.

The finality of the bond, if it does not always prevent one or both from meeting some other they prefer, prevents the scrupulous, at any rate, from seeking such. Or having found, it keeps many from fostering and from yielding to temptation.

Were marriage terminable, or, as is sometimes proposed, abolished altogether, and love the only bond between the sexes, there would be no confidence, no sense of security between the partners, no stability of family life; and but small existence to retain affections which for many could be easily replaced—and replaced with the zest of novelty.

On the contrary, a curse of unrest would afflict the majority of married folk with the unsettling prospect of meeting their further "fate"; perhaps their second, possibly their third, it might be their seventh "Fate."

Only a few are strong enough of heart and stable enough of character to remain steadfast for a life-time in any undertaking, unless bound stringently to it by authorized obligations, incentives, and penalties. Only a few are deep enough of nature to love a lifetime, or to love so intensely as to justify altering the marriage code in order to spare these few suffering.

The wane of nine out of ten honeymoons impresses the value of an inflexible decree that declines to reckon with disillusion, but sternly bids the disillusioned take up their burden and make the best of it. And having no choice, many do this and make a success of it—as new and, it may be, far higher lines than those they had set out upon.

That but few love so deeply as to love for life by no means implies that marriage for less than a lifetime should be substituted.

It shows, on the contrary, that the majority of persons would prove as incapable of loving No. 2 for long as they had been incapable of loving No. 1; or as they would be incapable of loving No. 3 or No. 10. A bond that rivets them for life to No. 1, therefore, and entails loss or suffering when they fail to abide by it, is a safeguard for these against such a succession of loves as would be as demoralizing to the individual as it must be destructive of society.

Examples of this tendency to amorous license are furnished by the complications of war "widows," who, on report of the death of soldier-husbands, remarried in unseemly haste—only to find the husband return. So, too, by the widowed infidelity of wives to absent soldier-husbands. If the grave and moving circumstance of a husband's fatal death or mutilation in the trenches was not grave or moving enough to keep his wife faithful to him, then we should congratulate ourselves upon a marriage law which, by erecting penalties whereby such a wife suffers material damage, supplies the only argument likely to sober the morale of so light-minded and callous a nature.

Nothing less binding than a life-long contract is sufficiently chastening to bridle woman's native shallowness and curb her instinctive emotionalism. The realization that there is no way out of it is sometimes her finest incentive to nobility, writes Dr. Arabella Kenealy in the Feminist and Sex Extinction. She bruises her impulses against the iron of circumstance. Under the harrow of adversity she feels herself matured. And yet without the sense of marriage-time woman is ever wholly content that she is fulfilling her destiny.

Breaking It In.

One day Mr. Edward Bok, editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, asked him whether it was the only pipe he had.

"Oh, no," Mark answered. "I have several. But they're all like this. I never smoke a new corncob pipe. A new pipe irritates the throat. No corncob pipe is fit for anything until it has been used a few fortnights."

"How do you break in a pipe, then?" asked Bok.

"That's the trick," answered Mark Twain. "I get a cheap man—a man who doesn't amount to much, anyhow; who would be as well, or better, dead—and pay him a dollar to break in the pipe for me. I get him to smoke the pipe for a couple of weeks, then get him in a saw mill, and time operations as long as the pipe holds together."

Old Lady—Yes, I have had her carefully taught, for I have always held that no lady who does not understand housekeeping can properly manage a retinue of servants.

How Zam-Buk Saved My Leg!
"For years I could hardly walk," writes Mrs. Jeffrey, of 31, French St., Methuen, Mass. "I was treated by doctors for an ulceration which started in my ankle and extended to the knee. Though sceptical when I read of other legs being healed by Zam-Buk, I gave the balm a trial.
"While Zam-Buk didn't put my leg right in a day or two, it did ease pain and inflammation wonderfully. Perseverance soon convinced me that, thanks to Zam-Buk, I was at last on the sure road to recovery, and in time the terrible sore thoroughly healed. For three years now, I've had no leg trouble."
In obstinate sores, old wounds and ulceration where destruction of the tissues has occurred, Zam-Buk displays extraordinary healing power.
Sufferers marvel at the way it soothes pain and inflammation, purifies diseased parts and stimulates the growth of new healthy tissue. Whereas ordinary ointments simply cover surface troubles, Zam-Buk healing is permanent for it leaves no trace of disease in the blood.
Zam-Buk proves equally effective in eczema, ringworm, salt rheum, piles, poisoned sores, abscesses, burns, scalds, etc. All chemists and dealers 50c.

WISE AND OTHERWISE
The Beast—You used to say there was something about me you liked.
Beauty—Yes, but you've spent it all now.

Corns cause much suffering, but Holloway's Corn Remover offers a speedy, sure, and satisfactory relief.

Hub—No, no, into the undertaker's next door. You won't see so many things you want.

A pleasant medicine for children is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator, and it is excellent for driving worms from the system.

"I don't like these photos at all," he said, "I look like an ape."
The photographer favored him with a glance of lofty disdain.
"You should have thought of that before you had them taken," was his reply as he turned back to work.

The Oil for the Athlete.—In rubbing down, the athlete will find Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil an excellent article. It renders the muscles and sinews pliable, takes the soreness out of them and strengthens them for strains that may be put upon them. It stands pre-eminent for this purpose, and athletes who for years, have been using it can testify to its value as a rub.

The girl walked briskly into the store and dropped her bag on the counter. "Give me a chicken," she said.
"Do you want a pullet?" the storekeeper asked.
"No," the girl replied. "I wanta carry it."

Always Ready and Reliable.—Practically all pains arising from inflammation can be removed with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Simply rub it on the sore spot and it is quickly absorbed by the skin. Its healing power is conveyed to the inflamed tissue which is quickly soothed. This fine old remedy is also a specific for all manner of cuts, scratches, bruises and sprains. Keep a bottle handy always.

At a recent London dinner George Bernard Shaw was the guest of honor. The toastmaster in introducing him said that a certain club in London recently had voted on "who are the three most famous living Englishmen?" The balloting showed George Bernard Shaw, Lloyd George and Charlie Chaplin far in the lead.
"And I can't help wondering", said the toastmaster, "how Mr. Shaw likes the company in which he finds himself."
"I don't mind Charlie," spoke up Mr. Shaw.

Miller's Worm Powders seldom fail. They immediately attack the worms and expel them from the system. They are complete in themselves, not only as a worm destroyer, but as a highly beneficial medicine for children, correcting weak digestion and restoring the debilitated system to healthfulness, without which the growth of the child will be retarded and its constitution weakened.

An elderly farmer, whiskered and weather-beaten, drove in from his nine-miles-away farm to the polling-place in a village not far from Cleveland, and, after tying his ancient horse, turned to the doorway.
"Hello, Uncle Jed," said a bystander, "how are you? Where's Aunt Polly?"
"She's to home," replied the farmer. "Goin' to vote, ain't she?"
"Course not."
"She registered, didn't she?"
"Yep."
"Then what's the trouble?"
"Well, we argued an' argued, and she stuck to it she was goin' to vote for Cox an' the League, and so finally I drew away an' left her."

An obese gentleman slipped on the muddy walk and fell with such force that if an artist had drawn the scene he would have depicted stars on the ends of wires protruding in every direction from the point where the pave and the lankiest man's person came into juxtaposition. The victim of the accident lay on his back, opening and shutting his mouth like an obfuscated clam, and saying no more. A bright-faced lad in a natty khaki uniform stepped up.
"Unfortunato, sir," he said, just like that. "I am a boy scout. One of the tenets of our order is to do a good turn each day. Before I joined the troop I loafed around a pool hall quite a good deal. Permit me to swear for you!"
"Ah, children, was he not a helpful scout!"

"Well, it takes the combined income of two families to pay for one apartment these days."

"You did me a favor ten years ago," said the stranger, "and I have never forgotten it."
"Ah," replied the good man with a grateful expression on his face; "and you have come back to repay me?"
"Not exactly," replied the stranger, "I've just got into town and need another favor, and I thought of you right away."

Imported "Booze"

Shall the importation and the bringing of intoxicating liquor into the province be prohibited?

WHILE importation of intoxicating liquors into "dry" provinces was forbidden by war-time Order-in-Council, Ontario's jails were half empty.

Since that order was rescinded, imported "Booze" has been filling them up again.

Jail Commitments

—Before and after the Federal war-time Order-in-Council prohibiting importation of liquor into Ontario was rescinded:

Commitments for Drunkenness.	Commitments for All Crimes.

1920 4,511	1920 14,756

Imported "Booze" is demoralizing social conditions, breeding a disregard of law, endangering the home and menacing the youth of this province. Imported "Booze" is defeating the expressed will of the people.

STELLA.

On Thursday evening last the members of Burleigh L. O. L. No. 482 held an oyster supper, the members and a few invited guests being present. About eight o'clock the guests sat down to the tables and were served with oysters, sandwiches and cake, which had been tastefully prepared by the ladies. After the supper a short programme was rendered, interspersed by speeches. It was opened by a solo by Rev. Mr. McCrea, after which the chairman, Bro. S. L. Pringle, gave a short address. Several choral selections were rendered by local talent, and a recitation, entitled "The Old Orange Flute", brought down the house. Short speeches were delivered by Bro. W. T. Hill and Rev. Mr. McCrea and a recitation, "The Village Blacksmith", was well rendered by Bro. W. Saunders. Mrs. T. Morrow held the audience spell bound with her piano solo. The evening closed by the singing of "God Save the King", and all went home to dream of oysters.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR.

R.M.D., No. 3, Napanee.
March 14th, 1921.

To the Editor of the Beaver.

Dear Sir,—As Mr. Perry has decided to close the correspondence between himself and your Newburgh correspondent, and the latter seems sorry at the result, with your permission, Mr. Editor, I would like to say a few words upon the topic between them. As the questions were directed at the writer of News and Views, I hope he will excuse me for intruding, and I suppose I shall be sorry I have butted in. Well, we will wait and see.

The tone of Mr. Newburgh's arguments is that the farmers are responsible for the high price of their product. Now, if he has worked on a farm he must know better than that. Take hay, grain, pork, etc., the prices are invariably governed by the law of supply and demand; the prices are usually controlled by the packing houses, millers who speculate in it as a business, and the farmer has to take it, and his only remedy at present is to grumble. Is it not well known when he takes his produce to town he does not sell it, he just takes the price of the storekeeper, and at the same time if he buys from the storekeeper, he has to pay his price, and the farmer does not set the price on either what he buys or sells. This is not the fault of the storekeeper. Oh, no, it is the fault principally of the farmers in a way, for they are without exception, the only class who seldom, if ever, put the price on their product. Take pork shipped at Napanee, after the dealers, etc., have had their fill and the same pork comes back to Napanee to the consumer, it has doubled in price. Who would blame the farmer for that? The farmers as a class do not board up their produce to get inflated prices for reasons which are well known. In the fall of 1919 I sold some potatoes to a storekeeper for $2.00 a bag, and in the spring of 1920 I bought a bag of potatoes at the same store for $6.00. Whose fault was that? It was caused by the fluctuation of the markets. The potatoes were scarce. He did perfectly right. He had the potatoes; I was my turn to buy, but surely there could be a limit fixed. The grievance of the farmer are due to the system under which he buys and sells, and it is up to us all to alter that. Taking the amount of capital the farmers have invested, his responsibility and his labor, it is without doubt one of the poorest paid businesses we have. And now at last the farmer is out to get value for his labor. We have a class of people popping up and trying to show the bad feeling which does not and never did exist between the town and country people. The only bad feeling that exists, if such there be, is with those who are continually harping about it, for want of something better to do. I will tell Mr. Newburgh that I have had forty-ten years' experience in one of the busiest cities in the world, and the rest in the country, and I will challenge him to show where or how this feeling exists. Maybe he knows. One class of people are just as important to a nation as another, and either surely have a perfect right to a motor car, and if after the hours a farmer puts in, in course of his life, at hard work, I would think he is justly entitled to retire if he feels so inclined, and if Mr. Newburgh has worked on a farm and now living in town, one of two things must have happened, he either run tired, hot, or he was after value for his labor, and if he cannot now assist the farmers to improve their position and the country generally, I would most respectfully advise him to leave the farmer alone and direct his energies into another channel as best suits him.

I am yours sincerely,
W. H. WOOD.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

The members and friends of the Young People's Bible Class of the Odessa Methodist Church gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Thompson, on Monday evening, the 10th of March, to spend a pleasant evening and bid farewell to their daughter, Miss Lottie, who left the following day for the new hospital at Whitby, where she has been enrolled as nurse-in-training.

The evening was spent in music and games. Lunch was served by the class-members, and was followed by a suitable programme.

The teacher, Mr. and Fred Caton, occupied the chair, and the following address was read by the President:—

Dear Co-Worker,—We have learned with regret that you are about to leave us, and will thus be forced to give up the position, which you have so successfully filled for the past few years, that of Secretary-Treasurer of our Young People's Bible Class.

We are the losers, and we have the loser's pride, but nevertheless, we are happy to know that you are not going to leave us entirely, perhaps for a few years, and when your training is over, we hope to again have you back with us. As we did not know that your departure was to be so soon, we ask your pardon for not being better prepared. We ask you to accept this remembrance as a token of our esteem, to do with as you deem best.

Our prayers and best wishes will follow you into your new sphere, and may all the pleasures and rewards of that life be yours.

Your friends and co-workers of the Y. P. B. C.
ANNIE SMITH, Pres.

The Vice-President then made the presentation—a gift of money.

The toasts, to the King and Empire, to the guest of the evening, and to the hosts, were given, appropriately responded to by the members.

Other expressions of good will were received, and all departed, wishing Miss Thompson every success in her new sphere.

QUEENS TO BLAME.

Have Dragged Down Their Husbands and Thrones.

Some queens seem to have been especially apt in causing the downfall of their consorts, not only in the past, but in present times. There can be little doubt that the ruin of the Czar or the Russians was brought about by the extraordinary influence wielded over him by his wife. The Empress was at heart a pro-German, and this fact cost her husband his throne.

Although at the time of writing the fate of Constantine of Greece looks as though it were in the ascendant, there seems little reason to doubt that most of Tino's political manoeuvres and troubles were inspired by his wife, Sophie, sister of the ex-Kaiser.

Poor, beautiful Marie Antoinette brought everybody connected with her to the guillotine, her adoring husband among them, but her influence was never thoughtless and misguided than deliberately wicked.

She firmly believed in the "divine right of kings," and was unpopular with the French from the time she landed in their country on account of her Austrian birth.

Finding that the populace would have none of her, she did everything in her power to make her husband, Louis XVI., show the masses how he despised them.

One of the greatest royal tragedies was the terrible murder of King Alexandeg of Serbia, caused entirely by the bad influence of his wife, Queen Draga. The name of Draga was hated throughout the land on account of her intrigues and the evil power exercised at the councils of the king.

Could she have foreseen the night when her own darling would be dragged from their bed to be murdered by the treacherous officers who had revolted through her conduct, perhaps she might have used her queenly rights in other directions.

These are only a very few instances where royal women have caused the downfall not only of a king, but of a country. To name all who have misused their wide influence in this way would fill a book.

While President-elect Harding was on the golf links at St. Augustine, Florida, he came up with a red-faced golfer who was thrashing wildly in a sand trap. Mr. Harding, noting that the man was silent, said: "Go ahead and swear, old man; you'll feel better."

"I would," was the reply, "but I can't think of any more words."

To Have New Plans,

F. A. Perry, Napanee, who purchased the building on the Desoronto steamship wharf, has begun tearing down the buildings. Mr. Perry has a plan to make the wharf, or part of it, the distributing point for the district for hay, grain, feed, coal, etc. Chutes would be installed, a coal hoist put up for unloading boats from Oswego and other points, and fuel would be loaded on cars there for all outside points.

Noticeable Resolution.

At the annual meeting of the patrons of the cheese factory, Bath, after some discussion of matters of general interest, and especially concerning the working of the act demanding the payment of milk according to the test for butter fat, it was decided that, in view of the difficulties of getting a true test for milk brought in once a day, and the great expense entailed to get a correct and thorough and exact working of it out, to be honest and fair to all, and the very much added work brought upon the cheesemaker, and the secretary, that a resolution be introduced condemning the practical application of the Provincial Dairy Act, to pay for milk received at the cheese factory here, according to its test for butter fat. This resolution was passed unanimously.

Sad Accident at Los Angeles.

News of a startling accident which took place in Los Angeles was received this week with much distress by friends of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Webb, of California. Mr. Webb and Albert Webb, Jr., were crossing the landing of an aerodrome in their automobile, and were struck by a landing plane. Although none of the passengers in the airplane were hurt, Albert Webb, Jr., sustained a fractured skull, a dislocated shoulder and serious bruises which may prove fatal. Mr. Webb, Sr., fortunately, was unharmed with the exception of cuts and bruises. Young Mr. Webb was a flyer overseas during the war and has only recently returned from Australia, where he has been flying with his own plane.

Restrictions Removed.

The sub-committee of seven of the Fish and Game Committee, of which W. D. Black, of Addington, is a member, have had several sittings over various propositions, that if enacted would take the hunt out of hunting. One of these was that no hounds could be used, another that deer could not be killed in water, while a third would have every hound encumbered with a strap and tag which would like as not hang him. Mr. Black as a veteran hunter, showed how ridiculous all these propositions were and succeeded in having the restrictions removed, whereby it will not be necessary to have a license to kill bear, wolf, fox or lynx. Mr. Black spoke up for the settler in the north country, who was being tied up with vexations, red tape regulations under which he was almost afraid to shoot the bear which would devour the young lamb, without first having to make application to Toronto for a license. In the old days there was some fun in hunting. They would get away from Maggie for a week, have a little crack, play a game of five and ten at night and tell the story of the big buck I killed with my first shot.

FOUGHT INSANE HUSBAND.

MRS. VALENTYNE NOT A PARTY TO HIS AWFUL ACT.

It has been learned that Mrs. R. R. Valentyne, whose husband maltreated her to such an extent that she was in a dying condition for some time, in the General Hospital, was not a party to his insane act in trying to relieve her of a devil. Mrs. Valentyne was in delicate health for several months. She was not in a condition to go to church, but was pleased to note the regularity of her husband's attendance. He told her that he had often been asked the cause of her absence, and was glad that people did not go to church while the devil was in them. He suddenly appeared to forget her delicate condition, and began to pray for the removal of the devil which he said was in her. He prayed all night and in the morning said that the Lord told him he must remove the devil from her. He attacked her and she fought him off until her strength failed. He was like a demon and his insane fury grew more intense as she resisted him. She could not escape from his powerful grasp. The doctors who have been in attendance upon the unfortunate woman, declared that they had never before witnessed such an outrage.

Mrs. Valentyne is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Kellar, Napanee, and is twenty-three years of age. Her little child, aged fourteen months, is now in their care. Mrs. Kellar watched anxiously at the bedside of her daughter day and night, and both she and Mr. Kellar suffer keenly from the shock they received.

The deep sympathy of their many friends and of the whole community goes out to them and their daughter in their affliction, and the one hope is that she may recover.

SCHOOL OF SIGNALLING.

A School of Signalling will commence at the Armouries on the 7th of April next. The Course will include instruction in the new method of Signalling, Lamp, Heliograph, Telephone, Electricity and Magnetism, Map reading, Semaphore and Morse.

The Course will last six weeks and those students who pass the examination at the end of the Course will receive a certificate and at the next annual inspection a bonus of $15.00.

In connection with the above Course, which will be conducted in the evenings, a Class will also be held for the Cadet unit in Napanee, which will likely be held twice a week after-school hours. Cadets who pass this examination will receive a bonus of $5.00 at the end of the Course. The Course for Cadets will be in Semaphore only.

Captain S. A. Lee, M.C., of Kingston, will supervise the instruction and will have an Instructor here for the whole six weeks. Splendid results have been obtained in other towns in the district, and it is hoped that the boys of Napanee will take full advantage of this interesting and instructive Course.

The Selby Women's Christian Temperance Union held an open meeting in the School Room of the Methodist Church, on Wednesday, March 9th.

The President, Mrs. Wesley Pringle, opened the meeting with a few words of greeting. Mrs. Burnell Denison, Evangelistic Superintendent, conducted the devotional exercises and chose as her subject, "The Value of a Child", basing her remarks on the 9th chapter of Mark and 42nd verse.

The programme was under the direction of the Travellers' Aid Department. Several papers were given by members of the Union, emphasizing the development and value of the work accomplished since its organization. Mr. A. C. Tummon, District Secretary, and Mr. J. C. Hudgins, Chairman of the Referendum Committee, were present and gave short talks on the Ontario Temperance Act and the importance of casting our ballot for Temperance on April 18th.

During the evening Mrs. Farnsworth and Miss Edna Gollinger delighted the audience with an instrumental duett, and Mrs. F. L. Amey sang the new version of the "Ninety and Nine", in her usual good style.

Rev. Mr. Farnsworth was present, and closed the meeting with prayer, after which the ladies of the Union served refreshments.

The collection was in the interest of the Travellers' Aid Fund.

Letter of Thanks to the People of Newburgh.

E. L. Kulpack and family wish to thank the people of Newburgh very much for patronizing him while baking in this village.

After three years' service in France fighting for King and Country, and risking his life for freedom, they all loved home to be brought in from Yarkhr and other places, and most of the people bought it instead of helping one of their own boys to make a living.

We surely should be thankful for what the people are doing for their returned men in Canada. Thousands of our soldiers laid down their lives that others might stay home and enjoy peace, comfort, and freedom, and while they died in a strange land, those who were lucky enough to return home find it hard to make a living for themselves and families. We ought to appreciate the kindness shown to our returned soldiers.

I am thankful for the kindness shown to myself and family while baking here in the past fifteen months. We heartily thank Mr. Geo. Walker and all others here and at Strathcona, Thompsonville and Camden East, who stood by us. If others had been so faithful we could have made a good living here.

Yours truly,
EARL L. KULPACK,

SAMSON TRACTOR SCHOOL OPENED.

At Mr. C. A. Wiseman's Garage a two days' Samson Tractor School was opened on Thursday afternoon, and a number from the town and country were in attendance.

The Samson Tractor Company of Oshawa is a subsidiary of the General Motors Corporation, but the main factory is located at Janesville, Wisconsin, having a number of branches in the United States and Canada. The company not only manufacture tractors but trucks and passenger cars. The Samson tractor is designed to meet the needs of every modern farmer who farms in the up-to-date efficient way and is striving to get the greatest yields for the least cost both in money and man power. The Samson products are the result of many years' pioneer experience in the manufacturing of farm machinery and combined with their practical utility, the essential qualities of well designed and properly constructed machines that give to the farmer the utmost in service and long live.

Behind the Samson products is an organization with unlimited resources combined with every new and modern manufacturing facility for supplying the farmers of America with quality products on a tremendous quantity scale that make possible unequalled money saving values.

Mr. W. J. Mullen, Eastern Ontario Factory representative, in charge, introduced Mr. P. E. Clarke, of Janesville, U.S.A., who gave a very interesting talk on the Samson Tractor, the history of the company and the tractor itself. He showed where by using a tractor resulted in a large saving in both time and money over the use of horses for similar work. He also backed his statements up by Government reports on tractor economy, following up with explaining in a general way the details of the Samson Tractor itself.

Mr. R. M. Robinson, Factory Demonstrator and expert field man, gave a very enlightening talk on the specifications in detail of the Samson Tractor, and its special features and advantages over other makes of tractors, and answered many questions.

Mr. H. P. Wilson, Special Factory Representative from Oshawa, confined his talk to Samson Trucks and their important relation to transportation. He stated that a truck will haul three times as much as a horse and wagon at half the cost per ton mile. He backed his assertions up with Government, manufacturers reports. He told of the advantages of Truck transportation and explained the many special features which the Samson Model 15 and 25 had over other trucks of like capacity.

The General Motors Corporation is the first large corporation in the automobile field and the third largest industrial company in existence. This great corporation manufactures such cars as the Cadillac, Scripps-Booth, McLaughlin, Chevrolet, Oldsmobile automobiles which have a wide reputation as up-to-date cars.

Are Your Savings Earning from 6 to 7%?

IF NOT—HERE IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY

DUE to the increase in value of the Canadian Dollar in England, we have been able to buy back high-grade Canadian Securities sold in London prior to the war—at much less than their face value. These Securities yield interest from 6 to 7%. They are safe as any first Mortgage, and we sell them at prices to yield handsome profits to the present investor. Example:

CANADIAN GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

Issued by the Canada Atlantic Railway and guaranteed by the Grand Trunk, both of these railways are now owned and operated by the Canadian Government. In addition to having the credit of the Government of the Dominion of Canada behind these Securities, payment of principal and interest is guaranteed by a first Mortgage on 396 miles of railway in the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec.

The face value of each bond and the amount paid to the holder when due is		$486.00
The present total cost to purchaser of this bond is		329.00
Thus the immediate increase in Capital on each bond is		$157.00
The interest received by the purchaser each year is $19.44, payable in Canadian or New York funds.
The total interest earned in time of maturity will be		670.68
This means that a present investment of $329.00 in these First Mortgage Bonds will return to the investor the sum of		$1,156.68

(In addition to the sum of $1,156.68, the investor will be entitled to the prevailing premium on New York funds.)

From the above you can readily see that it will pay you to communicate with us.

We have many other investments equally attractive and shall be pleased to send you our complete Bond list or give you our advice upon any investment in which you may be interested.

Bonds may be purchased upon the Partial Payment Plan.

WHERE IS THE WOMAN?

THIS IS A QUESTION THAT IS PUZZLING THE ROCKWOOD ASYLUM AUTHORITIES.

Where is Miss Amelia Earle? This is a question that is being asked by officials of Rockwood Hospital and relatives of the woman who reside at Napanee. Miss Earle's disappearance was mysterious and sudden and no clue was left that enabled the officials of the asylum or her relatives to form any conjecture as to her whereabouts, or in what direction to carry on their search. Did she merely wander away to die from exposure to the inclement weather? Did she go out to the lake and throw herself into the water? Or has she gone into seclusion where no one will find her?

Miss Earle was fifty-nine years of age and her home was in Napanee. She came to the House of Providence and was cared for as an inmate of that institution until she became mentally deranged, when she was taken to Rockwood Asylum and there cared for. Here her condition was not regarded as serious and she was given practically the freedom of the institution and grounds with a view to inducing her restorations to normalcy, with satisfactory results. On February 28th last she disappeared from Rockwood and every effort to locate her has failed. She had not been seen by persons residing in the vicinity of the institution, neither did she return to the House of Providence or to her family connections at Napanee. The following advertisement was issued by the Kingston Whig two days after her reported disappearance:—

"Wandered from Rockwood Hospital, Saturday, Feb. 19th, Miss Amelia Earle, patient, aged fifty-nine years, wearing taupe colored toque, black coat with plush collar, gold-rimmed glasses, and rubbers. Name appears on clothing. Any person who can give any information as to her whereabouts, kindly communicate with W. H. Dunbar, Napanee, phone 246, or Rockwood Hospital."

Mr. Dunbar states that no communication has been received in reply to the above advertisement and the family are mystified by what is regarded as a very mysterious disappearance. A telephone to Rockwood Asylum regarding the case brought forth the information that the mystery remains unsolved.

The story published in Saturday's Whig regarding the mysterious disappearance of Miss Amelia Earle, from Rockwood Hospital, has created widespread interest, and there is at present a feeling that a thorough investigation should be made as to her departure. So far, little is known as to her going away, her previous relationships with the institution, what work she was engaged in, and who were with her previous to her disappearance, which it is understood occurred about noon on Feb. 19th. Cursory search followed, but up to the present no rigid inquiry has taken place, and the relatives and friends of the woman are anxious that the Department at Toronto should authorize a thorough investigation.

On Monday evening, March 21st, a number of neighbours and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Unger to spend a pleasant evening with them before their departure for their new home, near Deseronto, and presented them with a cabinet of silver spoons. The presentation was made by Mrs. James Curtis, and the following address was read by Miss Kaylee:—

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Unger and Family,—We are assembled here as a community of your friends and neighbours, not to say "good-bye", but to express our gratitude and appreciation of the memories you are leaving with us. During the four short years that you have made your home among us, we have found you to be true members of the great family, known as the Brotherhood. We have found you an honest God fearing family.

In your going we are losing great opportunities; by this we mean your little family which has been a source of interest. We have come to look upon them as growing up among us and filling their every place as good little citizens of our future. Here our plans have been thwarted by the Great Hand which has intervened.

May this outward show of fellowship be an incentive to you to keep on doing your best for those with whom you come in contact. May the Lord bless and guide you and give you strength to set forth your best efforts for the good of those who are dependent upon you.

We would ask you to accept this cabinet of silver spoons as a token of esteem for your use.

Remember you are not going so far that you cannot come back among us occasionally, and we hope you will avail yourselves of every convenient opportunity to do so.

Signed on behalf of the friends and neighbours at Morven.

MRS. ANDRAS WILSON.
MISS B. KAYLER.
MR. A. STOREY.

Mr. Unger made a very fitting reply, after which all joined in singing "Blest be the tie that binds". Refreshments were then served. The evening being such an enjoyable one, all were loathe to leave.

STELLA.

On Friday evening, March 18th, in Victoria Hall, a musical entertainment, entitled "The New Minister", was witnessed by a large and appreciative audience, when the Choir and friends of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church presented the above. A capacity hall greeted the performers who carried the different parts through in wonderfully fine style. To Rev. W. T. McCree the credit is due of so successful an entertainment, as he spent much time on the preparation of it. His natural talent is fast improving his choir and those who take advantage of his practices. The story of the play winds around the many difficult and amusing experiences confronting the minister called to a new charge. When it is discovered that he in unmarried the old maids are stirred to excitement.

It is quite true that supply and demands regulate prices, so much so that it is recognized as a law. The farmer stands in a peculiar relation-ship to this law in that his dealings are almost altogether with natural products, and his supplies are regulated largely by the sunshine and the rain, and because of this, and their scarcity, his productions regulate not only the home market but the markets of the world, except in some great upheaval like the late war, and even then they are a chief factor. This disposes of that somewhat ancient argument that the dealer sets the prices. The dealer is only a distributor, not a producer. He may in a fluctuating market take advantage of an opportunity or even try to manipulate the market, but in the end will have to yield to the law of supply and demand. There is one disadvantage the farmer is at, having to do with natural products, he is the first effected by a declining market for those products, but that does not last. I have not so far said that there is a bad feeling existing between country and town people. The farmers have no bad feeling, but simply a habit of mind which can best be described by something I heard a farmer say recently,—a farmer mind you. He said that you would deprive most farmers of a great deal of pleasure if you deprived them of the privilege of complaining, always someone out to "do" them, always something not quite right.

Now, Mr. Wood, will you and Mr. Perry look over your correspondence to see if you have got the habit. Fortunately, this habit does not prevent the farmer from being a jolly good fellow, and the giver of the ball is evidently one who has been one of the most respected of all classes of society notwithstanding anything Mr. J. J. Morrison may say to the contrary. I have exhausted my space, but will be pleased to discuss these questions still further in a friendly way.

The farmers report a good run of maple sap. Syrup is selling at $4.00 per gallon here.

The church appears to be playing a waiting game. We are waiting for spring, for the referendum, for the voters' list, for excitement of any kind. The only thing we do not have to wait for is the ads., but this is a dry field to exhoist in this line, a field which we have Camden East has discovered and duly set down in our lone list of credits.

TOWN COUNCIL.

The regular meeting of the Council was held in the Council Chamber on Monday night.

Mayor Graham presided.

A communication was received from the Ontario Municipal Association, requesting the Council to take membership in the Association. The fee is placed at $10.00 per year. Filed.

A communication re Central Ontario Power System, advising Council of a meeting of all the municipalities interested at Peterboro', on March 21st. No action was taken.

From the E. A. James Co., in relation to the paving of Dundas St. On their investigation they found properties along the line of such street that were not supplied with water services, and advised Council that the owners must install same before the pavement is built. Also that the gas pipes are of such an age that they will need replacing in the near future. Leakage of gas through an asphalt pavement will quickly destroy the asphalt. It is recommended that if the gas plant be continued that representation be made to the Hydro Electric to replace all their gas services on Dundas St., as it is absolutely necessary for the protection of the pavement.

From Geo. T. Walters, with reference to proposed sanitary improvements in his residence on Isabella St. He asks the Council to furnish the necessary to connect his property with Centre or John St. If the Corporation will grant request he will bear the expense of installing. Referred to Streets Committee with power to act.

From D. Pizzariello, tenderer for the job of taking care of the Harvey Warner Park at the same salary as received last year. Accepted.

Moved by Reeve Boyes, seconded by Coun. Hartman, that a By-law be submitted to the people, authorizing the Council to purchase the McCallum and Williams properties, north of the G. T. R. tracks, as factory sites at a cost of $25,000 for both properties. After some discussion pro and con the motion was withdrawn.

Moved by Reeve Boyes, seconded by Coun. Steacy, that the Council buy the ontions outright on the McCallum and Williams properties, and that the Finance Committee work out the details of purchase. Carried.

Chairman Roblin, of the Streets Committee, brought in the following report:—

Napanee, March 21st, 1921.

To the Mayor and Council.
Town of Napanee.

Gentlemen,—Your Committee beg leave to report on the following matters:—

1st. We have investigated the request from Mr. John O'Neill, and advise, for the purpose of the drainage slope the East side of street just north of Virch's Corner. We find it will require about 150 ft. of 6-inch tile to make the necessary improvement, and we would recommend that your Committee be authorized to purchase said tile and have the work carried out.

2nd. We have also investigated the condition of drain from Mr. Archie McGuire's property, on Newburgh road, and we would recommend that the ditch in question be cleaned out and that the necessary tile be secured to drain this property. That the work be done under the direction of the street foreman at the most convenient time.

3rd. In reference to the question of securing information re road roller with scarifier attachment, would respect that your Committee find that this class of machine is apparently in the experimental stage, and we would recommend no action for this year.

4th. A fence has been built along the East side of Roblin Hill, from the bridge as far easterly as Coun. Paul's house and the balance of fence will be built at an early date.

5th. Your Committee are having the streets cleaned and the mud drawn off.

6th. Mr. Keffer of Messrs. Preston & Redfern, Ltd., has completed the survey of Dundas St., and has submitted a plan showing sewer and water services at present installed, also those to be installed. Your Committee have instructed the Clerk to prepare the necessary By-law for the carrying out of this work. We would recommend that 150 copies of this By-law be printed, and that a copy be mailed to each property owner affected, also a letter be enclosed with each copy of By-law requesting to said property owners that they authorize the Town to do the necessary work, as the work can be done more economically if done in a wholesale way.

7th. The sewer on Dundas St. is constructed to within 900 ft. of the westerly limits. It will be necessary to continue this sewer to the westerly limits of the town and your Committee would recommend that this extension be made and that the Clerk advertise the intention of the Corporation to make said extension, said work to be done as a Local Improvement.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

F. JAS. ROBLIN,
A. E. PAUL,
F. S. BOYES.

A By-law was read and passed, requiring all property owners on Dundas St., from the westerly limits of the Corporation to the G. T. R. bridge to have constructed proper and sufficient sewer connections with the tile sewers on Dundas St., and also proper and sufficient connections with the waterworks mains; and that said connections be installed not later than May 1st next. If not installed on or before the said date, the Corporation will, on giving ten days' notice, proceed to put in said services and charge the same to the owners of the property.

The following accounts were passed:—

HORSEMEN FORM CIRCUIT

ALL TOWNS BETWEEN SMITH'S FALLS AND PORT HOPE ARE INCLUDED.

At a meeting of prominent horsemen from Eastern Ontario held in the Randolph Hotel, Kingston, Thursday evening of last week a racing circuit was formed that marks a great step forward in the racing game in this part of the Province. The name chosen is "The Thousand Island Short Ship Circuit. The officers elected were: President, M. S. Grace, Kingston; Vice-President, W. Carnew, Belleville; Secretary, E. J. Metcalfe, Kingston; Treasurer, George H. Yeale, Kingston; Executive Committee, L. G. Madden, Belleville; J. L. Boyes, Napanee; W. J. B. Davidson, Port Hope; F. I. Ritchie, Brockville; A. W. Wright, Picton; B. H. Soper, Smiths Falls, and the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer.

The object of the circuit, which includes Kingston, Brockville, Belleville, Gananoque, Perth, Smiths Falls, Picton, Port Hope, Napanee and Peterboro', is to raise the standard of racing, by securing greater uniformity by having a recognized central organization that will draw up a racing schedule and secure the attendance of the best horses at all meets where a uniform purse will be offered. The rules of the Canadian National Racing Association were unanimously adopted. The membership fee was fixed at fifteen dollars for each club. The plan adopted for all circuit races was that there in five heats, races terminating at the end of the fifth heat unless otherwise stipulated. No class shall be slower than 2.30, but local clubs are given the privilege to put on other classes.

There was much discussion on the matter of suppression of time, but the decision reached was that the practice was obnoxious and should not be permitted. To meet this and not drive good horses from the circuit, all horses are eligible for three days prior to acceptance of entry in any race. The entrance fee shall be five per cent. of the purse with no deductions from the winners. This is a distinct concession to horsemen, and is calculated to encourage breeders and owners by reducing the expenses. Formerly there was 10 per cent. entry and a ten per cent. deduction. The minimum purse was fixed at $400 for each of the two classes per day, making $1,600 for a two days' meet. All entries must be made three days before the races in order that the secretary may be given time to identify horses and enter them in proper classes. The Canadian National Association rules will govern in the appointment of officials for all events and starters must be licensed starters.

The only racing dates definitely fixed at the meeting were: Picton, May 24th and 25th; Belleville, June 2nd and 3rd; Kingston, July 23rd, 27th and 28th; Gananoque, August 2nd, 3rd and 4th.

Brockville, Smiths Falls, Napanee and Port Hope all wanted July 1st because of civic national celebration already planned for on that date, and the Executive Committee will fix the dates for these places, or so arrange the classes to be raced as not to interfere and shall any horses out of their classes that might enter one or another of them.

Perth, Peterboro', Lindsay and Oshawa were not represented, but have signified their desire to be in this circuit, and it is likely that races will be held between June 3rd and July 1st, as it is intended to complete the circuit before August 31st so that all horses will be free to enter the fall races.

The representatives present were: M. S. Grace, Mr. Eves, E. J. Metcalfe, George Veale, Kingston; I. W. Wood, Brockville; Dr. R. Benson, L. J. Madden, Dr. Tennant, W. Carlew, Belleville; S. A. Wellbanks, A. W. Wright, Picton; H. Brownlee, A. L. Ferguson, C. H. Crozier, Smiths Falls; J. L. Boyes, Napanee; F. E. Linehart, W. J. B. Davidson, Port Hope. The members for Gananoqua are Mayor Wilson, J. McCarney, E. Badore, Perth, C. J. Foy.

The meeting was marked by the utmost unanimity. M. S. Grace presided, and at the close, Mr. Carnew moved a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Grace and the Kingston Gentlemen's Driving and Matinee Club for taking the initiative in bringing the horsemen together and congratulated them upon the success of the organization. The Executive will hold meetings every three months in different points in the circuit.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR.

Napanee, Mar. 21st, 1921.

To the Editor Napanee Beaver,
Napanee, Ont.

Dear Sir.—As Mr. Newburgh has taken upon himself to dictate to Mr. J. J. Morrison upon the subject of Easter entertainment should discuss before the farmers, allow me as a member of the U. F. O., while thanking Mr. Newburgh for his unsolicited advise, to inform him that judging from his own remarks, he appears to be one of those individuals who unless he, and he only, is the Alpha and Omega of a concern and is allowed to cut, press and iron out everyone's ideas, tastes and views all is over-party, tastes are utterly worthless. Also, dear gentleman, you seem to be in terrible suspence until the Beaver publishes a verbatim account of Mr. J. J. Morrison's address. May I ask why when you were so anxious to get Mr. Morrison's speech, you did not come yourself and hear him first hand. Certainly the U. F. O. extended a hearty invitation to all, whether members or not; we are large hearted, and would have given you of our best, oysters and cake included.

However, Mr. Newburgh, instead of casting slurs and derision upon our Organization, which is evidently far above you, may I suggest your first trying to make yourself acquainted with it, and not offset your ignorance and narrow-mindedness to such an extent.

Space does not allow me to give chapter and verse of the life work of the samaritan tattoos is to bring the producer and consumer into closer relationship, stabilizing prices and binding the farmers together in the same manner as all other manufacturers are co-operating. Up to date the farmer is the only manufacturer who has no voice in the matter of sale or price. At the marketing centres he has to take what the buyer offers him. It is always: "What are you paying to-day for hogs, cattle, grain or potatoes, as the case may be.

I understand that at one time, Mr. Newburgh, you pitched more sheaves than Mr. Perry will ever pitch in his whole life time. Well you certainly left God's pure air and sunshine for the hop, bop of here and "The Flesh Pots of Egypt". "There are sermons in stones, and books in the running brooks".

Have you ever been West, Mr. Newburgh? Say towards harvest in the wheat section just as the grain is beginning to ripen, one stands there in a sea of wheat and as far as one can see all round is one mass of golden heads undulating, swaying along to the breeze with a rythme unknown to the softest notes of any instrument. This is the prairie to-day and who transformed it from a barren stretch into that fertile plain? Was it the man who pitched sheaves for a time and got tired? Was it the wearer of a white collar? No! No! It was the man behind the plow; he who toiled with the sun rising and until it's setting. The man who turned sod, not on an eight-hour day schedule, but long as he could see. Comrades at arms from east to west. Tillers of the soil. Sons of Old Mother Earth. Yet these are the men you, Mr. Newburgh, are out to ridicule.

Thank you, Mr. Editor, for your kind consideration.

PRESTON SAFE-LOCK SHINGLES.

Once these shingles are nailed into place the roof becomes in effect a solid sheet of metal. It is absolutely impossible to remove a shingle, for they are all locked together securely on four sides. Such a roof is always tight, proof against spreading joints, absolute protection against the weather.

"ACORN" QUALITY CORRUGATED IRON

The strongest testimony to the quality of the "Acorn" brand of corrugated iron is the fact that it is giving the best service year after year on thousands of Canadian farms. Every farmer should know, if he does not already know from experience, that there are many grades of galvanized iron. By submitting our "Acorn" quality iron. Before the name is stenciled on our sheets the galvanizing must pass the severe acid test to which the British Government submits every galvanized sheet purchased. This is surely the strongest protection for the farmer.

Prisoners Who Receive Alms.
Whatever may be the fate of political prisoners in Portugal, ordinary offenders have a pretty easy time of it.
The windows of the lowest tiers of prison-cells are often quite close to the ground, and they are frequently situated near some public highway. Prisoners are permitted to ask passers-by. Where the windows of the cells are high above the ground the occupants let down bags or small tins by means of long pieces of string or cord, and there is one prison in Oporto, close to a church, where such a receptacle is continually dangling before the eyes of folks going to and from the church.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Customer—Why, you've put your prices up again!
Fishmonger—Well, mum, I ask yer, 'ow else are we to fight the profiteer at 'is own game?

Paring a corn is both risky and ineffective. It is much better to use Holloway's Corn Remover and eradicate them entirely.

"My daughter is the initiative and my wife is the referendum."
"And whom do you come in?"
"Oh, I'm the recall. They recall my existence whenever the bills come in."

Complete in itself, Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator does not require the assistance of any other medicine to make it effective. It does not fail to do its work.

"Statistics prove that marriage is a preventive against suicide," said Mrs. Gabb.
"Yes," growled Mr. Gabb. "And statistics also prove that suicide is a preventive against marriage."

Sores Heal Quickly.—Have you a persistent sore that refuses to heal? Then, try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil as the dressing. It will stop sloughing, carry away the proud flesh, draw out the pus and prepare a clean way for the new skin. It is a recognized healer among oils and numbers of people can certify that it healed where properly applied.

First Playwright—You don't mean to say you are discussing about your play?
Second Playwright—I certainly am. They liked it so well in Danbury, Conn., that I'm afraid it's over the head of Broadway.

For Sprains and Bruises.—There is nothing better for sprains and contusions than Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It will reduce the swelling that follows a sprain, will cool the inflamed flesh and draw the pain. It will take the ache out of a bruise and prevent the flesh from discoloring.

The guests were temporarily absent from the room when the husband said to his wife:
"I am beginning to feel as if I would like our house to ourselves. I wish the guests would go home."
"So do I, dear," said the wife, "but you can't turn them out, can you?"
"No," replied the husband. "But you might play the piano."

Miller's Worm Powders are a pleasant medicine for worm-infested children, and they will take it without objection. When directions are followed it will not injure the most delicate child, as there is nothing of an injurious nature in its composition. They will speedily rid a child of worms and restore the health of the little sufferers whose vitality has become impaired by the attacks of these internal pests.

"I'm sorry, young man," said the druggist, as he eyed the small boy over the counter, "but I can only give you half as much castor-oil for a dime as I used to."
The boy blithely handed him the coin. "I'm not kicking," he remarked. "The stuff's for me."

ROD AND GUN IN CANADA.
Turn some pigs loose in a swamp infested with rattle snakes and watch the fun. F. V. Williams did not do exactly that, but he tells in April Rod and Gun in Canada what happens when swine meet serpents. Mr. Williams tells of the snakes found in the vicinity of Tobermory on the Bruce Peninsula in Ontario, and what happened to them when some pigs were turned loose to slay and slaughter. "A Happy Hunting Ground" is the title of the leading story in this month's issue of Canada's national sportsmen's monthly. This article tells of the thrilling experiences in hunting bears in British Columbia. Nova Scotians will read with especial interest the story of hunting shore birds by Bonnycastle Dale. It tells of the difficulties to be experienced under the terms of the Migratory Birds Convention Act. In addition to these stories and articles there are nine others that will delight the heart of the nature lover. The Guns and Ammunition department and the editorial comment on the gun permit law will take the attention of the gun "crank" while Robert Page Lincoln and George Goodwin take care of the anglers and dog men, respectively. Rod and Gun in Canada is published monthly at Woodstock, Ont., by W. J. Taylor, Limited.

ONE WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE
Of Interest to Childless Women.

Toronto, Ontario.—"I suffered for a long time from a female weakness, inflammation, and a terrible backache caused by that condition. One day one of your booklets was left at my door, and I read how other women with troubles like mine had been made well, so I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Sanative Wash, and it helped me wonderfully, and I now have the finest little baby boy that any mother could want. I want to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any woman who has female troubles."—Mrs. Josiah Bella, 773 Shaw Street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong, and this good old fashioned root and herb remedy contains no narcotics or harmful drugs.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Wm. Wilson, who entered into rest March 16th, 1920.

One year has passed since that sad day,
When one we loved was called away;
God took him home, it was His will,
But in our hearts we love him still.

It was hard to lose our loved one dear
But God who knoweth best,
Held while His loving arms and said,
"Come unto me and rest".

12p —Wife and Daughter.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Mrs. Jane Ann Dawson, of Odessa, who entered into rest on February 19th, 1919.

Two years have passed since that sad day,
When one we loved was called away;
God took her home, it was His will,
But in our hearts we love her still.

It was hard to lose our loved one dear
But God, who knoweth best,
Held wide his loving arms and said,
"Come unto me and rest".

12pp —Sons and Daughters.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Martha York, who died March 23rd, 1916.

Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears of sorrow often flow;
Memory keeps our dear one near us,
Whom God claimed five years ago.

12pp —Father and Sisters.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of my sister, Mrs. Stewart, and three other sisters, who previously passed away.

I watched a sail until it dropped from sight
Over the rounding sea. A gleam of white
A last far-flashed farewell and, like a bouquet
Slipt out of mind, it vanished and was not.

Yet, to the helmsman standing at the helm,
Broad seas still stretched before the gliding keel,
Disaster? Change?—he felt no slight flaw,
Nor dreamed he of that dim horizon line.

So may it be, perchance, when down the tide
Our dear ones vanish. Peacefully they glide
On level seas, nor mark the unknown bound,
We call it death—to them 'tis life beyond!

—Mrs. J. S. Yeomans.

PRUNING OF THE APPLE ORCHARD.

(Experimental Farms Note.)

The foliage of a tree is the manufacturing centre where food materials from the soil combine with those from the air to form the tissue building materials. The larger the average leaf area therefore the better the growth. Definite experiments covering four years in Virginia indicate an average increase of trunk growth of 1.35 inches on lightly pruned trees, 1.69 inches on moderately pruned trees and 1.61 on heavily pruned trees. In other words the greatest growth will result where no pruning is practiced. Pruning is necessary however, to direct the growth so that an evenly balanced strong tree may be formed and surplus and undesirable branches not allowed to develop. The directing of the growth during the early years of the tree is of particular importance. The ideal tree is probably that which has the first branches about 24 inches from the ground and 5 to 6 branches which form the frame of the tree spaced evenly as far apart as possible. Particularly desirable is it to remove trees next to the last top branch which if left will form a weak top because of the forked crotch formed with the top limb.

Heading back at planting time is necessary to induce the lens from cut off roots because of digging. Tests made at Kentville show an average growth of 6.82 inches the first year and 20 inches the second year where heavy planted trees had three-quarters of their growth removed, whereas similar trees not headed back made a growth of 1 inch the first year and 2.4 inches the second year.

Strong growing branches should be suppressed by heading back and weak branches not pruned at all. If the whole tree is weak a severe heading back in the spring will throw greater vigour into the remaining buds and thus bring about a more vigorous development. But if there are weak branches on one side of a tree strong ones on the other the reduction of leaf area on the weak branches will tend to further weaken these branches because of the strongest sap flow toward the greatest foliage area, obviously therefore a reduction of foliage area on the strong branches will lessen this tendency and throw more growth toward the weaker branches.

The central branch should be allowed to maintain the lead, this, however, not for the purpose of forming a pyramidal tree with a central leader but so that from it several well spaced scaffold limbs may be developed thus forming a more desirable type of tree than if scaffold branches are developed on side limbs only. After a few good scaffold branches are formed on this central leader, if the tendency is toward a pyramidal form with central leader extending high into the air having many branches radiating from it this should be checked, thus forming a tree combining the desirable features of the pyramidal form and eliminating the undesirable open centre form of tree.

To balance the tree the heading back of strong growing branches is necessary. This heading back tends to develop side branches and attention must be given to the elimination of some of these that too many scaffold branches are not formed. The whole aim should be to build up a framework that will carry large crops of fruit and at the same time not have an over abundance of large branches.

Sunlight is essential for vigorous leaf growth and also for ripening the fruit, a dense growth is therefore objectionable and the preventing of this should for the most part consist of annual removal of such small branches as are likely in time to extend to where other more desirable branches should be. The judgment of the operator only can determine how best to develop the tree. The tendency to remove all small branches which may later on as leaves develop fruiting areas should be avoided. It is of course impossible to prune so that some of the larger branches will not in time have to be removed, but a little thought will reduce this possibility to a minimum.

Undoubtedly the latter part of March and April are the best months to prune. The wounds made at that season will more readily heal over than if made earlier and there is more time to give to the work. Coverings are generally of little value except in the case of large wounds when a good thick white lead paint with a little linseed oil in it should be painted into the wood surface to prevent checking and decay. Such wounds should be protected from year to year to preserve the wood until healed over.

The cutting should be made reasonably close as otherwise more time will be required for the wound to heal over. Stubs of branches if left prevent a covering of the wound with bark, and decay may result before the wound is healed over. Old neglected trees should be carefully pruned to remove all dead wood leaving the best and strongest branches. It is not always possible to make a good looking, shapely tree in doing this and the usefulness of many an old tree has been sacrificed for some years by too extreme pruning at one time.

INOCULATION OF SEED

Legume Bacteria for Enrichment of the Soil.

Inoculation of Seed and Soil Described—Clover, Alfalfa, Peas, Etc., Prescribed for Good Crops—Some Testimonials Offered.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

It has been known for centuries that the soil of fields in which there has been grown a good clover, pea or other leguminous crop is richer after the crop than it was before. Hence the practice of having a clover or other leguminous crop in the crop rotation. Just why a good leguminous crop was beneficial to the soil was not known until a few years ago. It was then found that certain species of bacteria, which came to be known as the "legume bacteria," entered the roots of the legumes and produced on them little swellings or nodules. Wherever these nodules are present in large numbers on the roots of legumes a good crop is assured. The combination of the legume bacteria with the plant results in the plant tissues, root, stem and leaf, giving a larger and more vigorous plant than is the case where the bacteria are not present.

It has been found that different varieties of legume bacteria are necessary for most of the various legumes. The variety of bacteria good for red and white clover is no good for alfalfa or sweet clover; the variety good for field pease is no good for field beans, and the variety good for field beans is no good for soy beans, and so on with other legumes.

If any particular legume crop has not been growing satisfactorily in any particular field, it is questionable if the right kind of legume bacteria is present in the soil of that field. So, before a satisfactory crop can be grown the right bacteria have to be introduced. For instance, the cultivation of alfalfa is a new practice in many sections. If sweet clover is common in the district it is probable that the right bacteria are there for alfalfa, as the variety good for sweet clover is good for alfalfa. If it is not present, it is doubtful if a good crop will be grown; hence the difficulty often met with in getting alfalfa established in a new district unless the bacteria are first introduced. There are various ways of introducing the bacteria. One is to take a few loads of soil from a field in which the bacteria are present and scatter this over and work it into the field to be treated. This method was the first adopted. It is not practicable, however, in most cases.

Legume Seed Inoculation.—Another way is to inoculate the seed of the legume crop to be sown with a pure culture of the right variety of bacteria. When this is done, the bacteria are on the surface of the seed when it germinates in the soil and so get into the young roots. These cultures of legume bacteria are prepared in bacteriological laboratories and sold so much per culture. They are known as nitro-cultures or legume bacteria cultures, and various other trade names have been given to them. The Bacteriological Laboratory of the Ontario Agricultural College was the first to produce these cultures satisfactorily for distribution on the American continent. They are sold from the laboratory for the nominal sum of 50 cents each, to cover cost of material, container and postage. Each culture is sufficient for one bushel of seed. Thousands are sent out annually to all parts of Canada on application for the same. Letters received from those who have used these cultures speak very highly of this method of inoculation as shown by the following excerpts:

Comox, B.C.: "In the spring of 1914 you sent me some alfalfa culture suitable for this district. After two years I have to report that the inoculated patches have flourished exceedingly well and are making most luxuriant growth, entirely crowding out the weeds and showing a splendid color. The others which were not inoculated have almost entirely died out and the few plants left are small and very pale. In fact, I have recently ploughed them up."

Edmonton, Alberta: "We made many tests in Ontario which proved to us that even alfalfa screenings would produce a greater growth the first and second year, after being treated with the bacterial culture, than the very best quality of alfalfa seed would without treatment. We have been using the bacteria here, and have had a very good result the past year."

Fort William: "Regarding the culture which you supplied last spring, they were used on a field of peas on an early variety. The larger portion of the seed was inoculated, but part was planted in the ordinary way as a check plat. The seeding was all done about the 12th of May. In twelve weeks the whole field had reached maturity with the exception of the uninoculated strip which was still green. It is apparent that the use of cultures hastened maturity of this legume, but it appears from this experiment that the crop was not only improved in yield, but growth and maturity were hastened. The part of the crop grown from inoculated seed gave excellent results and in future cultures will be used on all legumes grown on the home farm."

Cultures are distributed from the Bacteriological Laboratory, O. A. C., Guelph, for inoculating seed of alfalfa, red clover, sweet clover, crimson clover, alsike clover, vetches, field pease, sweet pease, field peas, beans and soy beans.—D. H. Jones, O. A. College, Guelph.

OPTICIAN OPENS NEW TESTING ROOM.

J. S. ASSELSTINE AND ROY ARTHEY WILL MAKE EYE TESTS.

Kingston may well pride herself in having located there the most modern-to-date laboratory for production of scientifically fitted eye glasses, spectacles and lenses of all kinds, to be found in the Province of Ontario.

When J. S. Asselstine opened his optical establishment some years ago the public looked with considerable skepticism on his announcement that he would undertake to test one's eyesight, grind the lenses, and mount them into eye-glasses or spectacles the same day, previously it had been a matter of days and often of weeks after an eye test had been made before the finished glasses were ready for use, and then only by ordering from Toronto or Montreal. Modern machinery coupled with scientific use of instruments for making vision test—proper measurements of facial peculiarities, and grinding and sizing of lenses to the minutest fraction of a centre so revolutionized methods of production that Mr. Asselstine has more than made good his promises of quick production, so much so that his business has become so extensive that he has found it necessary to increase his plant several times since commencing business.

His latest improvement is to have two testing rooms, where he and his assistant, Roy Arthey, make the eye tests, each room being fitted with the latest scientific instruments provided for the purpose.

Mr. Asselstine and his assistant, Mr. Arthey, are the only optometrists in Kingston who have complied with the new law of the Province of Ontario requiring those testing eyesight and prescribing for lenses to correct defective vision to pass a Government examination.

Both Mr. Asselstine and Mr. Arthey were successful in passing this examination, which was held in Toronto last month.

The manufacturing laboratory is in charge of Mr. Roy Collings, who is a graduate of the Department of Technical Optics of the School of Optometry of Rochester and has had years of experience in the production of all classes of lenses.

This business has developed steadily since its beginning and while the local trade has first call on the plant for its needs, it is rapidly becoming Dominion-wide as far as its clientele is concerned—repeat orders being received from patrons from all over Canada as well as England and the U. S. A., evidence in itself of the excellence of the service given.

As we said in opening, we feel that Kingston and the surrounding country is fortunate in having such a scientific plant located there. If there is one thing on earth a person troubled with defective vision cannot do without, it is eye-glasses, and to be able to be fitted, and fitted properly, in a few hours when anything happens to the old glasses or we need new ones is something of incalculable value. We congratulate Mr. Asselstine on his enterprise and prophesy a constantly growing success.

An American tourist in Scotland took a great fancy to a handsome collie he saw, and offered to buy it. The owner asked some questions, and on learning that it was the would-be purchaser's intention to take "Jock" to America, he refused to part with the dog.

Just then an English tourist came along and he also made a bid for the collie which, though less than the first offer, was finally accepted. The American was annoyed, and when the Englishman had departed, he said, "You told me you wouldn't sell your dog."

"Na, na," replied the canny Scot, "I said I couldna part wi' him. Jock'll be back in a day or two, never fear. But he couldna swim the Atlantic."

TO ALL
Whom It May Concern

THE Parliament of Canada has recently passed a bill regulating the taking of the vote on the Referendum in Ontario on April 18. The points to remember are as follows:

1. Every British subject by birth or naturalization, man or woman, resident in the Dominion of Canada one year previous to February 1, 1921, and resident in the Province of Ontario for two months previous to same date, is entitled to vote, unless otherwise disqualified.
2. Voters' Lists used in the last provincial referendum are the lists to be used in this Referendum, subject to revision. Every voter in an urban polling division must be on the list, and will presumably be on the list only in the division in which he resides.
3. In incorporated cities and towns of 1,000 population or over, arrangements will be made for receiving applications from any who are not now on the list on March 29 to April 4 inclusive—except Sunday—when for six clear days officers will sit to receive such applications.
4. In rural polling divisions the voter must be either on the list or be put upon it as a resident and be vouched for as such by another resident.
5. Both affirmative and negative sides have the right to select scrutineers.
6. Women have the right to vote.

TOMPKINS—BULLOCK.

A pretty wedding took place at Sydenham Street Methodist Church, Kingston, on Saturday, March 19th, 1921, when Rev. W. T. G. Brown united in holy matrimony Frederick, son of Mr. J. A. Tompkins, of Bath and Annie, only daughter of the late Pte. W. Bullock, of Kingston, and grand-daughter of J. Bullock, Esq., of Southport, England. The groom is still a patient at Sydenham Hospital, having served three years overseas with the 20th Battalion. The bride, who was given away by her brother, looked charming in a dress of white silk crepe-de-metor and hat of grey and gold brocade and corsage bouquet of pink carnations. Miss Mable Tompkins, sister of the groom, and Sergt. Waterman were attendants on the couple. Miss Tompkins looked very nice in dress of brown silk and corsage bouquet of pink carnations. After the ceremony the guests were received at the residence of Sergt. and Mrs. Waterman, where a buffet luncheon was served. The table looked lovely with decorations of pink carnations and sweet peas, with the wedding cake adorning the centre. After the luncheon, the happy couple had a hearty send off on their wedding tour. The following is a list of guests and presents:—The groom to bride, silver; to bridesmaid, gold brooch set with pearls; Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins, Bath, bedding and cheque; Mrs. Bullock, city, mirror; Mr. and Mrs. W. Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. Catarrhal deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF RHEUMATISM

Entirely Well After Six Weeks' Treatment With "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. AMEDEE GARCEAU

12 Hickory St., Ottawa, Ont.

"I was for many years a victim of that terrible disease, Rheumatism. In 1913, I was laid up for four months with Rheumatism in the joints of the knees, hips and shoulders and was prevented from following my work, that of Electrician.

I tried many remedies and was under the care of a physician; but nothing did me any good. Then I began to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and in a week I was easier, and in six weeks I was so well I went to work again.

I look upon this fruit medicine, 'Fruit-a-tives', as simply marvellous in the cure of Rheumatism, and strongly advise everyone suffering with Rheumatism to give 'Fruit-a-tives' a trial."

BROODING AND FEEDING THE BABY CHICKS.

(Experimental Farms Note.)

The brooding and feeding of baby chickens, whether by hen or by artificial method, is the crucial part of raising poultry. It is impossible to over-feed a growing chicken, once the feather stage is reached. The more food food they can be induced to eat, the better the growth, and the better the growth the earlier maturity and egg yield.

Natural Incubation.

If the chicks are to be brooded by the natural method they should be allowed to remain in the setting nest with the hen until they are lively and seem inclined to get out themselves.

The hen should then be treated with a little blue (mercurial) ointment smeared on the feathers of the abdomen and under the wings. It is advisable to use ointment at this stage; powder is likely to get in the little chicks' eyes.

An A-shaped coop with removable bottom is to be recommended on account of its simple and cheap construction. It should be used with the bottom in place and slightly raised from the ground in the early spring months.

When the weather becomes warmer and the ground thawed out, they are better used without bottoms, but the coop must be moved to fresh ground daily.

Artificial Method.

The most successful and economical artificial system of brooding is the colony stove. It can be quickly set up in a colony house or in an idle pen of the laying house. A space 10 ft. by 10 ft. by 12 ft. will be found most suitable and will accommodate any number of chicks desired up to 500.

When to Remove From Brooder.

In April and early May, artificial heat will probably be required for 5 or 6 weeks, later it can often be dispensed with in three weeks. It entirely depends on the weather and temperature.

If your chickens are without heat and you get a sudden drop in temperature with cold rain, it will be advisable to start up the stove again and dry off the chicks. It is at a time like this that the chicks crowd and smother, chill and catch cold.

Always tack a short piece of inch-mesh wire across the corners of the room to prevent jamming and trampling of the weakest.

The First Feed.

Allow the chicks to remain in the incubator for 24 hours after the hatch is completed. A chick so hardened off will have a great deal more "brooder intelligence" than one removed too soon and will learn more quickly where to go for warmth and comfort.

Supply coarse sand or small chick grit and water and leave them until they show positive signs of hunger. They may then be given some dry bread crumbs, slightly moistened with skimmed milk and mixed with a liberal supply of some succulent chopped green feed. Lettuce, dandelion or planting leaf is excellent; a hard boiled egg or two, chopped fine and a little ground charcoal and sand sprinkled over the whole, is just what they want for the first 4 or 5 days. This should be given at least five times daily and then two feeds of this ration may be changed for a little mixed cracked grain to induce scratching and exercise.

A little rolled oats at this stage is a great help to growth and stamina. At one month they may be hopper fed dry mash and grain and allowed all they will eat. If induced to take the mash more readily by moistening with thick, sour, skimmed milk, it will prove of great advantage and well worth while.

MASONIC GATHERING.

An unheralded but important Masonic gathering was held in Napanee on Friday evening last. Union Lodge has recently renovated and re-furnished its commodious quarters over the Royal Bank, and the event was celebrated by a fraternal visit from Ancient St. John's Lodge, of Kingston. The members of the home lodge attended in goodly numbers, and there were many visitors from the surrounding district, but the guests of honor were the visiting brethren from Kingston, who turned out sixty strong. They came prepared with their own officers, choir, orchestra, and regalia to confer the third degree and won the encomiums of all present for their excellent work.

After the work of the lodge had concluded, the lodge room was converted into a banqueting hall. Union Lodge always has had an enviable reputation for providing good things to eat, and that reputation was fully sustained on Friday evening. Although there were two hundred and fifty hungry men waiting for refreshments, there was ample for all. No sooner had the refreshments disappeared than Ancient Saint John's again took charge of the gathering, and entertained all present with a musical programme and addresses from some of the prominent brethren present. The meeting concluded just in time to enable the visitors to catch the midnight train for Kingston. The evening will long be remembered as one of the most enjoyable Masonic functions ever held in Napanee.

CARE OF SEED POTATOES AND PREPARATION FOR PLANTING

(Experimental Farms Note).

Selection.

In arranging for the seed supply of tubers from one's crop, the first step should be taken during the growing season to get the seed from healthy, vigorous, large-yielding hills. When harvesting time comes these hills should be gathered separately from the rest of the crop. The tubers should be sun dried and all showing cuts, bruises or disease of any kind, thrown out. Such supply can then be kept for a seed grea for the following season.

Where the main crop is destined for this seed trade, equally good care should be taken in the harvesting and sorting before going into winter storage. If the weather is at all dirgerous with that from a moist cellar at a temperature of 34 to 38 degrees, though, of course, there would be great loss of bulk and weight in the former case. Potatoes kept in pits with excess of moisture and minimum of ventilation have also given vigorous plants.

When potatoes are first stored there should be free ventilation to carry off all latent heat and moisture and to reduce temperature to below 40 degrees. If the floor of storage is very damp the bin had better be raised by a wooden floor. If it is dry there is nothing gained by the floor. If bins are very deep (over six feet) they had better be broken up by hollow partitions placed not more than ten feet apart; though the writer has seen potatoes keeping well in very large, deep bins.

The storage should be so constructed as to keep cool in the Spring. It should be possible to keep it below 40 degrees, to prevent sprouting until such time as the tubers are wanted.

Forced Sprouting.

For an early crop, it is a common practice to take the seed tubers to a light room of about 60 degrees temperature by the 20th March, to give them four to six weeks to warm up and sprout. A thick green sprout not more than a half inch long is wanted. The exact gain in growth from this treatment has not been determined. In one trial at the Experimental Station, Fredericton, the difference in growth as between seed so treated and seed taken immediately from the cellar, was very slight. Plants from the sprouted seed were only from two to three days ahead of the others.

Disinfection.

To kill any spores of common scab, and, to some extent, Rhizoctonia, the potatoes should be disinfected with a 1-to-1 formalin, at the rate of ½ pint to 30 gallons of water. The tubers are best bagged and then immersed for two hours.

Investigators are now trying out methods of disinfection where the use of heat and greater strength of solution will materially hasten the process of disinfection.

Cutting the Sets.

Experiments have proven quite conclusively that the most economical way to use seed is by cut to sets weighing not less than one ounce and not more than two ounces, with from two to three eyes to the set. Cutting by a machine or a cutting board may be economical in large commercial operations, but as when using these the size of sets and number of eyes cannot be well regulated, elimination of internal disease carried out, the advantage of speed may not be good economy.

To make sure that no sets infected with Black Leg, Fusarium Wilt, Late Blight and other possible troubles are planted, the best procedure is, first, to cut all cut and drained tubers, throw out all cut and drained tubers, get a thin slice off the stem end and then discard any tubers showing discoloration. Two knives should be formalin solution; immediately a discolored potato is cut, the knife should be put in the disinfectant and the other knife taken.

As the sets dry out quickly when cut and will heal if left in piles or dust. Gypsum, or land plaster, in one barrels, they should be coated with of the best materials to use, and if from two to four quarts is spread through the barrel of seed the sets will keep cool and firm without deterioration for days and even weeks. Air slacked lime is frequently used and sometimes read dust and sulphur. Lime, if not thoroughly slaked, may injure the eyes and makes the sets unpleasant to handle.

Another Referendum

On October 20th, 1919, by a majority of nearly 400,000, the electors of Ontario voted against the sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes.

BUT

The Province does not control importation. That is in the hands of the Dominion Government.

SO THAT when the Dominion Government lifted the Order-in-Council which banned importation during the war,

TWO THINGS HAPPENED

(1) Ontario was flooded with liquor from other Provinces.
(2) Distilleries in Ontario were able to send liquor to points within the Province on orders from other Provinces.

THEN FOLLOWED

Drunkenness—Rum-running—Boot-legging

NOW

The Dominion Government has promised that importation shall cease if a majority of the electors devise it. They will stop No.1.

AUTOMATICALLY

by means of a Provincial measure, No. 2 will stop.

THEREFORE

put an X opposite the YES on your ballot and make Ontario bone dry.

YOU HAVE A VOTE IF:

(1) You are a British subject.
(2) Full age of 21 years, either male or female.
(3) Resident in Canada one year before Feb. 1st, 1921.
(4) Resident in Ontario two months before Feb. 1st, 1921.

ODESSA COMMUNITY CLUB.

Realizing that the Church was not accomplishing all in its power for the advancing of community spirit, and the uplifting of humanity, a few who were interested, met one evening in the Sunday School room of the Odessa Methodist Church, and organized "The Odessa Methodist Community Club". The following officers were chosen:—

Hon. President—Rev. Geo. Nickle.
President—Mrs. (Rev.) Geo. Nickle
Vice-President—Miss Laura Fraser, B.A.

Secretary—Mr. Arthur Clark.

Treasurer—Mr. Wm. Hartman.

This Club has held meetings every Tuesday evening, the time being divided among religious instruction, social gatherings and literary topics. A captain and a committee of three were appointed for each branch of the Club. These prepared a programme for their meetings, in turn. The religious meetings were most instructive. Old, old Bible stories were related, which we never tire of hearing over and over again. The programmes were rendered by both local and foreign talent, with often lantern slides for illustration.

The social gatherings took the nature of games, plays, etc., which were always looked forward to with great anticipation, and which did much to shorten the long winter evenings. Many took part for the first time, and it was shown that Odessa and vicinity possessed real amateur talent when opportunity presented itself. At all social gatherings a sandwich and a cup of coffee were served, and some real good times were spent together.

On the evenings set aside for literary topics, some outside speakers addressed the Club. Mr. Corkill, B.A., LP.S., gave a talk on Consolidated Schools, a very timely subject, and a live one, as there is a rumour that one may soon be established in Odessa. Prof. Morrison, of Queen's University, gave an address on "Ireland and the Irish People". Prof. Morrison's name alone is enough to assure you that a real treat was given the Club that night.

The success of each meeting is due very much to the untiring efforts of our President, Mrs. Nickle, who went to unlimited trouble, and left no stone unturned to make every one enjoy himself, and yet have the meetings educational and beneficial. Mention should also be made of Miss Hazlitt, Principal of Odessa Continuation School, who lent her services towards the instruction of an orchestra.

It is indeed regrettable that more did not turn out to some of these meetings, but the Club has no reason to be discouraged, for enthusiasm was at its highest at each meeting. Perhaps the lack in numbers was due somewhat to the neglect of the press reporter, who in the past has shirked his duty. There is still one more regular meeting before the Club adjourns for the summer months, so let us all join forces and make this last meeting something to be remembered. Make it a point to be with the Club Tuesday evening, April 5th. Everybody welcome.

REV. J. CLANCY HONORED BY METHODISTS.

Passing of 80th Birthday Anniversary of Well Known Albion Resident Is Made Occasion of a Very Happy Gathering on Thursday Evening.

The crowning event of several happy events which have been given this week in honor of the 90th birthday anniversary of Rev. Jacob Clancy was the supper held at the church on Thursday evening by the adult department of the Methodist Sunday School.

Fully 125 sat down to supper in the church dining-room. Five long tables were stretched to accommodate the company, and were handsomely garnished with tall vases of sweet peas. At the head of the centre table the guest of honor was seated, while on either side were several other venerable members of the church and close friends of Mr. Clancy.

Before the company was seated they joined in singing a simple blessing at the request of Mr. Clancy, and in a few words of fervent thanksgiving he supplemented the grace.

At the conclusion of the appetizing repast, Mrs. C. A. French spoke a welcome to the company complimenting them in happy fashion upon the very youthful appearance of the adult department, their good behaviour and splendid appetites, then asked Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Manning to sing a duet. Rev. Manning announced that the words of their song had been chosen with the guest of honor in mind and were such as the latter would advise all to act upon if one might judge from his attitude toward life. "Keep Singing" was the title of the duet and was heard with pleasure by all.

Dr. Goodrich Pays Tribute.

Mrs. French then asked Dr. F. S. Goodrich to speak in behalf of the company present a few words expressive of the esteem all feel for Mr. Clancy. Dr. Goodrich said that each year in teaching his bible class there is one verse which he asks his students to call "Father Clancy's verse", and that all over the state of Michigan and beyond its borders even to distant lands, there are to-day bibles marked with those words at chapter 16, verse 31 of Proverbs, "A hoary head is a crown of glory if it be found in the way of righteousness."

Dr. Goodrich paid a most touching tribute to Mr. Clancy in which was conveyed the love of all Albion expressed as only Dr. Goodrich can express such sentiments. It found a sincere response in the hearts of his hearers. Dr. Goodrich offered to the venerable honor guest the congratulations of the company upon his 90th beautiful years and extended best wishes for the future that he might be spared many more years to carry on the same sweet, blessed work that has been his for so long.

During the absence of the Pastor, Dr. W. W. Diehl,—he nor Mrs. Diehl were not able to be present—a letter of written message from him was read by Rev. Manning. Dr. Diehl extended greeting not only to Mr. Clancy, but to the other aged saints who sat with him in pleasant fellowship that evening, and who along with him the people of the Methodist Church honor so highly. His message was summed up in the scriptural words, "With long life will I satisfy him and show him my salvation".

The clusters of sweet pea which had adorned the tables so beautifully were then found to be separated into bouquets, one for each of the older people who sat at the table with that one whose natal day was being celebrated. These were presented by, while Mrs. Manning in a beautiful original poem, spoke added words of greeting and esteem.

Father Clancy Sings.

The informal program concluded with a request that Mr. Clancy favor the company with the song, "I've Sighted the Golden Gate". Mr. Clancy told briefly of the incident surrounding the writing of the poem. How the seekers after the gold of far off California, became impatient in their long voyage around "The Horn" and yearned for a glimpse of the Golden Gate, the entrance to the harbor of San Francisco—their journey's end. How their captain in a moment of inspiration said, "We who are Christians have already sighted the Golden Gate" and with hurried pen wrote the lines which Mr. Clancy said he had been singing for the past thirty-five years in the various parts of the world to which he had gone.

With Mrs. Manning at the piano Rev. Clancy sang as never before the beautiful lines of the song. Sang as the bird sings—for the joy of melody. Sang with the same vigor, the same perfect tones, the same sweetness and harmony as in his younger days. It was almost as if the celestial portals were opened and the heavenly chorus was pealing forth a welcome to the traveller who at the end of the long trail, had glimpsed the gates of gold and the house of many mansions. It was a fitting close to a wonderful evening and as the company left, the room many were the hearty handshakes and good wishes as they crowded about their good friend to bid him God speed upon another decade of a Godly life.

"Father Clancy" as he is endearingly called by many, had perhaps done more than any other Albion citizen for the moral uplift of mankind, not only through his own efforts but by being the actual father to a large family, who, as private citizens or as gospel workers in the wide world have done God's will upon earth and brought His kingdom nearer to humanity.

Two sons have been missionaries in foreign lands, one of them and one granddaughter having given their lives to this cause, and the work of his son, Rev. Rockwell Clancy, in far off India is known beyond the boundaries of this hemisphere. One son-in-law has done similar work in the mission fields of Africa and those of his family living near and in the parental home are ever active in good works.

Some three decades ago Mr. Clancy established his home in Albion and scarcely a church or a school-house within this community has not rung to the stirring tones of his voice whether lifted in exortation to the erring or in songs of prayer and praise. For many years Mr. Clancy vineyard cultivated by good words conducted singing schools in various outlying districts along with his labors in the Master's vineyard.

The efforts of this honored citizen have not been confined to a figurative and elevating influences, but there exists in connection with his home on the corner of Jackson and Mingo streets a plot of ground which he has made to blossom as the rose and in which the good things which go to sustain human life spring up like magic. Father Clancy takes a justifiable pride in his garden. When asked the reason for the phenominal success which is always his in this bit of ground, he laughingly replies, "Oh, I just go out in the morning and breathe upon it" but his neighbors suspect that the manipulation of a hoe held in a strong right arm in the hours before sunrise greatly assists that magic breath. At any rate Mr. Clancy seems to possess "growing fingers" as the southerners say, and during the garden season his table is never lacking in succulent vegetables while his cellar is filled in the autumn with supplies to tide over the winter.

Old and young alike in Albion add to the respect which they feel for Mr. Clancy, the genuine love which his happy nature has inspired in them and within the last few years all have drank a toast to him, in thought at least, in which unconsciously perhaps but nevertheless prominent has been the sentiment, "May he be spared many more years to help make "Albion Just-Right".—Albion Evening Recorder, Albion, Mich., March 18th, 1921.

THE TOOTH BRUSH DRILL.

The size of the tooth brush, as well as its shape, is a matter of personal opinion. It would be reasonable to use a large brush for a large mouth, and a small brush for a small mouth. The bristles should be of medium stiffness and good quality. There must, of course, be a dentifrice; this may be any good tooth powder or paste, or merely clean soap. A good powder, however, is preferable to any other dentifrice. One of the main things is to brush the margins of the gums.

Silk floss for cleansing between the teeth is a splendid aid.

During the last eight years of school dental clinics in Cincinnati, the following tooth brush drill has been worked out and is used successfully to teach children how to clean their teeth:

Attention—hold brush up in right hand at the height of the shoulder, in front of child. (This is so as to be able to see that the brush is clean).

Upper Teeth. 1. Place brush in mouth, upper right, where the gum and teeth join. Turn down towards grinding surface eight times.

2. Brush upper front. Place on gum and turn down eight times.

3. Brush upper left. Place brush on gum, turn down eight times.

4. Brush upper right inside. Place brush on gum and turn down eight times.

5. Brush upper front inside. Place brush vertically, brush down eight times.

6. Brush upper left side. Place brush on gum and turn down eight times.

7. Place brush on grinding surface of teeth, upper right, scrub forward and back eight times.

8. Place brush on grinding surface of teeth, upper left, scrub forward and back eight times.

Lower Teeth. 9. Place brush in mouth, lower right, where the gum and the teeth join. Turn up towards grinding surface eight times.

10. Brush lower front. Place on gum, turn up eight times.

11. Brush lower left. Place brush on gum, turn up eight times.

12. Brush lower right inside. Place brush on gum, brush up eight times.

13. Brush lower front inside. Place brush vertically, brush up eight times.

15. Place brush on grinding surface of teeth, lower right, scrub forward and back eight times.

Last—see that each child's brush is thoroughly rinsed with fresh water and put away in a clean place.

TO MR. NEWBURGH.

Oh! Newburgh Dear, 'twas quite an art
When you did play the farmers part,
And pitch'd sheaves a warrior bold,
Its powers proven so, as of old,
In the life of any other man,
Who wield a fork, as we'ye put can.
But lure of ne'er riches you did see,
So left the farm in haste and glee
For village lights and damsels fair;
You walk'd Newburgh with such an air,
A coat so trim! Gee! such a hat,
Who ever saw the like of that?
And pants to match, oh, what a fit,
Though I'm afraid you ne'er can sit
In comfort quite, or they would split.
So glides your life in lofty heights
Within a village magic sights.
You look with scorn upon us "Rusts"
Who bust the sod for bread we must.
You have the lights with pleasure too,
But we have Mother Nature true;
We have God's sun to guide our way,
Through glades of verdure our paths lay
Beneath a sky of azure blue,
Where freedom reigns without a flue.
The bloom of flowers in the air
And song of birds so sweet and rare.
Oh, wins would change such gifts as these
For your inducements, Newburgh, please?
I hope not, but there's some who tell
Your safe and speedy trip to H—,

POEM ON THE ROBIN.

mother, dear,
And heard the brown darling sing;
You know how it and wish, 'twill surely come true,
So I have wished such a beautiful thing.
I wished for a ladder so long
That 'twould stand one end by our cottage door
And the other go way up past the moon and the stars,
And lean against heaven's white floor.
Then I would get you my pretty white dress and my sash,
And my darling new shoes, then I'd go
Way up the ladder far out of your sight,
Till I'd come to the door of the skys.
I wonder if God keeps the door fastened tight?
If but one little crack I could see,
I would say, "Please, God, let this little girl in,
She is as tired as she can be.
She has come all alone from the earth to the skys,
For she always was wanting to see,
The garden of Heaven with the robins and flowers,
Please, God, is there room there for me?"
The next spring time when the robins came home,
They sang over grass and flowers,
That grew where the foot of the lady stood,
That reached to the heavenly bowers.
The parents of they dressed the pale still child for her flight,
To the summer land in a snow white robe,
With a snow white rose clasped tight in her lifeless hand.

"ACORN" QUALITY CORRUGATED IRON

The strongest testimony to the quality of the "Acorn" brand of corrugated iron is the fact that it is giving the best service year after year on thousands of Canadian farms. Every farmer should know, if he does not already know from experience, that there are many grades of galvanized iron. By submitting our iron to the severest tests we have protected the farmers who bought from us, and have thus built up a fine reputation for "Acorn" quality iron. Before the name is stencilled on our sheets the galvanizing must pass the severe acid test to which the British Government submits every galvanized sheet purchased. This is surely the strongest protection for the farmer.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Doctor—He'll be up in a day or two Mrs. Jones. Why all this distress?

Apprehensive Wife—I was so afraid, doctor; all night he was practising the harp on the bed-rails.

Only the uninformed endure the agony of corns. The knowing ones apply Holloway's Corn Remover and get relief.

Fortune Teller—You wish to know about your future husband?

Customer—No; I wish to know about the past of my present husband for future use.

She—See that girl at the third table. Don't you think she's awfully young to wear such a decollete gown?

He—Well, she certainly is a stripling.

Recognized as a leading specific for the destruction of worms, Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator has proved a boon to suffering children everywhere. It seldom fails.

"Well, sir," began the talkative salesman, "they say silence is golden and speech is only silver—"

"Yes," put in the busy business man, "and please make your speech quick-silver."

"Sir, I have not eaten for two days."

"Splendid, my friend, I congratulate you. If everybody had your will power, the cost of living would undoubtedly go down."

For Burns and Scalds.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil will take the fire out of a burn or scald. It should be at hand in every kitchen so that it may be available at any time. There is no preparation required. Just apply the oil to the burn or scald and the pain will abate and in a short time cease altogether.

Rogers was walking with an absent-minded friend.

"Yesterday," he said, "Mrs. Fulsome half recognized me. She asked me if my name was Rogers."

"And was it?" asked his friend.

For Frost Bites and Chilblains.—Chilblains come from undue exposure to shin and cold and frost-bite from the icy winds of winter. In the treatment of either an excellent preparation is Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, as it counteracts the inflammation and relieves the pain. The action of the oil is prompt and its application is extremely simple.

A Frenchman learning English said to his tutor: "English is a queer language. What does this sentence mean: 'Should Mr. Noble, who sits for this constituency, consent to stand again and run he will in all probability have a walkover'?"

Miller's Worm Powders are a prompt cure for the attacks of worms in children. They are powerful in their action and, while leaving nothing to be desired as a worm expellant, have an invigorating effect upon the youthful system, removing fever, biliousness, loss of appetite, sleeplessness and other ailments that follow diseases caused by worms in the stomach and bowels.

A Belgian woman, who lost her husband in a railroad accident, received from the company $2,000 by way of compensation. Shortly afterward she stood at a travelling getting twice as much for the loss of a leg. She went to the company and protested that the difference was unfair.

"Madam," said the official, "the two awards are perfectly fair. Four thousand dollars won't provide a man with a new leg, but for $2,000 you can easily get a new husband."

"I say, Gadsby," said Mr. Smith, as he entered a fishmonger's with a lot of tackle in his hand, "I want you to give me some fish to take home with me. Put them up to look as if they had been caught to-day, will you?"

"Certainly, sir. How many?"

"Oh, you'd better give me three or four—make it look decent in quantity without appearing to exaggerate, you know."

"Yes, sir. You'd better take salmon, though."

"Why? What makes you think so?"

"Oh, nothing, except that your wife was here early this morning and said if you dropped in with your fishing tackle I was to persuade you to take salmon, if possible, as she liked that kind better than any other."

WITH BEES IN SPRING

Managing the Wee Workers at the Crucial Time.

First See That They Are Well Fed—Examine Hives Carefully for Foul Brood—Clip the Queen's Wings—Making and Preventing Increase.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

Unless the beekeeper gave each colony an abundance of feed in the fall, not less than fifty pounds per colony, the first manipulation in early April should be to feed all colonies which do not have at least twenty-five pounds of stores left in the hive. Many colonies starve in the spring and many others regain weak because there is not sufficient food in the hive to allow the queen to lay to capacity. One frame of honey is required to produce one frame of brood and to be in condition to give a good surplus honey crop there should be not less than ten frames of brood by June 15th. The syrup for spring feeding should be two parts water and one part sugar. Care must be taken against robbing when feeding the syrup.

The entrances of all colonies should be reduced so that only a few bees can enter the colony at one time. This tends to prevent weak colonies from being robbed and also keeps the colonies warmer, which permits an expanded brood-nest.

Queenless colonies and colonies which do not cover two frames thickly, should be united with strong colonies. The simplest method of uniting colonies in early spring is to place the very weak or queenless colonies on top of strong queen-right colonies, with one sheet of newspaper between the two brood chambers. This should be completed in the evening. The bees will quickly gnaw through the newspaper and unite peacefully. If American foul-brood is present in the apiary, colonies must not be united unless to other colonies having American foul-brood.

When the colonies have been united and have sufficient food, they need no further manipulation until the period when dandelions and fruit trees bloom. This is a very important time and a little attention given to the bees will result in increased profit.

The three manipulations which should be completed during the dandelion and fruit bloom period are (1) Clip the wings of queens; (2) Examine every colony for foul brood; (3) Give all strong colonies extra room.

By clipping queens' wings to control the swarm, also that the age of the queen may be known. A part of the two wings on one side are removed with the aid of a small pair of scissors. The reasons for clipping the wings of the queens during this period are as follows: (1) Queens are easily found; (2) There is little likelihood of clipping virgin queens; (3) During a honey flow queens are less liable to be killed; (4) The operation is completed before the swarming season commences.

The brood-chamber of every colony is examined for American and European foul-brood. If the colonies became infected the province fall or secured infected honey through robbing or otherwise in early spring, American foul-brood will most likely be found at this examination and preparations can be made for treating the diseased colonies either at once or at the beginning of the main flow in June.

If European foul-brood is present it can be easily detected at this time and preparations completed so that two weeks are perfectly fair. Four American foul-brood is apparently only contagious, European foul-brood is highly infectious and evidently, where black or hybrid bees are kept. Resistant strains of Italians show strong colonies and an abundance of stores will rob European foul-brood of its menace to beekeeping.

The third manipulation at this time is to add an extra brood-chamber to every reasonably strong colony. No queen-excluder is used and the queen has the use of the double brood-chamber until the clover honey flow has nicely commenced. In some seasons when the weather is favorable the stronger colonies may even need a third hive-body above an excluder, as a super for surplus honey from fruit blossoms and dandelions.

While swarming does not usually occur until late June and early July, the swarming fever commences in many colonies during the fruit bloom and dandelion period because they are crowded and have not sufficient room to store surplus honey and enlarge the brood-nest.

When the clovers begin to yield, it is time for the beekeeper to crowd the queen into the lower brood-chamber. Take enough frames of the youngest brood, uncealed and eggs, and place these in the upper brood-chamber. Then place the remaining combs and queen in the bottom brood-chamber and place a queen-excluder on top. Next place on an empty super and the full hive-body of brood on top of the super.

If the beekeeper wishes to make increase, this body of brood can be removed to a new stand ten days after it was placed on top of the super. Unless the honey flow has stopped, ripe queen-cells will be found and all the brood will be sealed so that when the field-bees have returned to the parent hive, there will be little danger of chilling the brood. The increase should be examined in three weeks to be sure the queen is laying.

If the beekeeper does not wish to make increase, all queen cells should be destroyed within a week after the brood was placed on top and the bees will fill the combs with honey as the bees emerge.

Much honey is lost to the beekeeper because of lack of room and colonies should be examined at least once a week during a honey flow and supers added whenever the last one added is one-half to two-thirds filled.

THIS WOMAN'S MISERY

Ended by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Remarkable Recovery of Mrs. Church.

Smiths Falls, Ont.—"I suffered with falling of my organs, pains around my heart and in bowels and down my legs, neuralgia in my face and head, and that terrible sinking feeling. I felt that I could not live and would fix my house in order every night so there would be no trouble if I dropped off in the night. My husband went to the druggist to get the best remedy he had and he gave him Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles and felt a lot better. I will always recommend the Vegetable Compound, and you can use facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. J. O. CHURCH, Box 845, Smiths Falls, Ont.
